Congress May Be Reconvened to Authorize American Intervention.

Gen. Salazar Believed to Plan New Raids Over Border.

Arms Meant for Americans Are Held Lest Rebels Get Them.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The tenacity of the situation along the Mexican border was reflected here today by the continuation of preparations for any emergency, principally the possibility of President Taft's calling a special session of congress to pass upon the question of intervention.

With the border patrols strengthened by additional cavalry and other troops, practically upon their arms at posts throughout the West, ready to move at an hour's notice to supplement the forces in Arizona and on the New Mexican frontier, war department officials felt they had the situation well in hand for the present but were apprehensive of the next movement of the rebel general, Salazar. He is encamped within sight of the United States troops, protesting he means no harm, but is believed to be planning another raid into American territory.

Cavalry Patrol Border.
Reports of another revolt in Southern Mexico did not command much interest. It was pointed out that the situation in which the United States is concerned is that along the border. Armed cowboys, acting as volunteer scouts, are patrolling the border while regular troops are concentrated at points where Mexican rebels might cross to steal cattle or pillage ranches. In anticipation of a raid by Salazar, Gen. Huerta has ordered the cavalry to be kept near the rebel leader. Outposts have been established by both sides. Gen. Huerta is concentrating his command.

Doubt Salazar's Promise.
Gen. Stever reported that Lieutenants Johnson, Boone and Wagner, in charge of patroling parties, had taken with Salazar near Lang's ranch and that Salazar promised them no harm to Americans and was not with his men on this raid. Salazar's dispatch added that he was concentrating his command.

5-YEAR-OLD GIRL MURDER VICTIM

Gary, Ind., Child Attacked and Killed—Missing Since Aug. 10.

Gary, Ind., Sept. 9.—Another murder mystery was revealed today by the discovery of the body of 5-year-old Mary Gruba in a swamp on the outskirts of this city.

Most of the clothing had been torn from the body. The police believe the girl was attacked and then murdered.

The body apparently had been in the swamp since Aug. 10, when the child disappeared from her parents' home. At the time it was believed the girl had been kidnapped.

The fate of the Gruba girl recalls the case of Elsie Schroeder, 7 years old, who was attacked and murdered in New York in 1907. Williams Daile is now serving a term in state prison for the crime.

DEADLY HORSE DISEASE SPREADS

Northern Nebraska Invaded and Farms Are Being Stripped of Animals.

Norfolk, Neb., Sept. 9.—Cerebro-spinal meningitis, which is alleged to have been sent out by the plague, is now spreading in Nebraska and Kansas for some time, has appeared in the northern part of the state, several deaths having occurred.

Quarantine at Fort Riley.
Junction City, Kan., Sept. 9.—A quarantine intended to prevent the horse plague now prevalent in Kansas from taking hold of the horses at Fort Riley, has been ordered by Col. Charles Hatfield, commander of the fort. No horses of civilians will be allowed on the fort grounds and no army horses will be taken outside except on special order.

Farm Work Limited.
Topeka, Kan., Sept. 9.—Farm work is going on in Western Kansas for lack of horses killed by the plague. Crops remain unharvested and fall plowing is weeks behind. On many farms all the horses have died. Until experts ascertain positively a remedy for the disease, the farmers are unwilling to purchase more horses.

The disease is rapidly spreading eastward, according to reports received by J. H. Mercer, state livestock sanitary commissioner. Mr. Mercer has sent out warnings that horses all over the state should be kept off pastures and given no water except from wells. The streams and ponds are said by experts to swarm with diptera, which cause meningitis.

The Alchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad officials have sent two trained veterinarians to the plague-stricken district.

TRAIN RUNS OVER DYNAMITE "PLANT"

Oregon & California Express Fails to Set Off Explosive.

Portland, Or., Sept. 9.—The Oregon & California Express of the Southern Pacific railroad ran over a "plant" of twenty-seven sticks of dynamite near Gervais, forty miles south of here, Sunday, but failed to explode any of the fuming caps attached to the fuses. A track walker, following the train, discovered the explosive.

QUIZ GAYNOR ABOUT VICE

New York Aldermen Will Put the Mayor on the Grill.

New York, Sept. 9.—According to plans announced today, unless changed, Mayor Gaynor will be the first witness this afternoon when the aldermanic committee appointed to investigate alleged police graft holds its first session. It will be optional with his honor whether he is sworn or not. He has not been subpoenaed, simply invited to testify.

The committee is determined, it is said, to get from the mayor his views in detail of the vice and gambling situation, and his ideas of the duties of the police department in suppressing the evils.

The police trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, deceased inspector, is to be resumed tomorrow and the trial of Lieut. Becker charged with the murder of Gambler Rosenthal, is set to begin on Thursday morning.

WANT TO HEAR WILSON TALK

People of Middle West May Compel Second Trip By Governor.

New Jersey Executive Declares War on Smith as Senatorial Candidate.

New York, Sept. 9.—Governor Woodrow Wilson spent this forenoon at Democratic national headquarters.

Representative Burleson of Texas, chairman of the speakers' bureau, and Senator Gore of Oklahoma, chairman of committee on organization, arrived from Maine, where they have been stumping, and discussed with the governor further plans for speaking.

From the number of requests which have been coming from the Middle West asking the presidential candidate's presence at various meetings, it is apparent that Governor Wilson probably will do much more speaking than he originally intended.

After the first Western trip, which will begin Sept. 16 and end Sept. 21, the governor will have two days' rest at his home in Sea Girt, N. J., but present plans are that he will start out almost immediately for another Western invasion.

Second Western Trip.
It is likely that on his second Western trip he will go to Missouri, Nebraska and Illinois. The governor probably will meet William J. Bryan the latter part of the month in Nebraska.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO WILSON FUND AGGREGATE $175,000

ADMIRAL BADGER WILL HEAD FLEET

Is to Succeed Osterhaus in Atlantic Service on First of Year.

Washington, Sept. 9.—When Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger takes command of the Atlantic fleet next January in succession to Rear Admiral Hugo Osterhaus, nine changes among the fleet captains will become effective.

Admiral Osterhaus, relinquishing the command of the fleet to become a member of the general board, has served about eighteen months as commander-in-chief and will have about six months more of active service in Washington after his relief, before he retires next June.

The dreadnaught Wyoming, a new ship, will fly Admiral Badger's flag in place of the Connecticut, which has been the flagship of several fleet commanders. The change in commands, which will take place after the sailors have had their holiday ashore, will precede the departure of the big ships for the southern cruise and the beginning of the mid-winter drills in the Caribbean.

W. G. McAdoo, acting chairman of the Democratic national committee, declared that a new political standard has been set by this action.

Rolla Wells, treasurer of the committee, declared that while the sum received was encouraging, it was "totally inadequate." It was said, however, that contributions would continue.

Two of $1000 Each.
The largest contributions thus far have been made by Henry H. H. Barker, chairman of the national executive committee, a wealthy citizen of Germantown, Pa., and Henry Gold.

Michigan Man, Who Deserted Family Ten Years Ago, Has $100,000.

Houghton, Mich., Sept. 9.—After an absence of ten years, during which time his wife and family of seven or eight children were left to their own resources, Barney McEnany has just returned to his old home in Hurontown, near here, bringing with him a fortune estimated at $100,000.

In consequence the family is holding a joyous reunion and all is forgiven. McEnany is doing everything possible to make up for the years of privation his family has suffered. He became prosperous through a mining venture in Canada. Sixteen years ago McEnany brought his wife and several children to Hurontown. He failed to prosper and became shiftless. His family increased as the years went by and finally he left for parts unknown. During all his absence his family got no trace of him.

A short time ago a friend of the family, who happened to be in Canada, ran across McEnany and immediately informed his wife of the man's address. Communications followed and McEnany showed every desire to make retribution, which he was well able to do. He sent for his two oldest daughters, who were employed in a Houghton laundry, paid all their expenses to Canada, and entertained them lavishly, returning with them to Hurontown.

COMPLAINS OF RATES ON WIRES

New York Firm Takes Western Union Before Commerce Commission.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Reasonableness of telegraph and cable rates was attacked today by William N. White & Co., New York, in a complaint against the Western Union Telegraph company to the interstate commerce commission.

The complaining concern contends rates are fixed arbitrarily; that handling of the press dispatches at one-fourth the rate charged commercial business subjects the general public to "undue prejudice and disadvantages," and that the Western Union has eliminated competition in violation of interstate commerce laws.

The New York concern asks reparation in the sum of $5,000, which it claims the telegraph company has collected in overcharges on cablegrams and telegrams.

COMMITTEES OF BANKERS MEET

Prepare for Sessions of National Association at Detroit, Mich.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 9.—Members of committees of the American Bankers' association and the various national organizations affiliated with it, today, faced a large amount of business, which they hoped practically to dispose of by tonight. This, they expected, would clear the way for the association's national convention, which starts tomorrow and which will probably end Friday.

The National Association of Superintendents of State Banks expected to hold their first annual meeting this afternoon.

Considerable interest has been shown as to the probable fate of a number of proposed constitutional amendments. One offered by Andrew J. Frame of Waukegan, Wis., has as its principal purpose a plan whereby more members will be able to hold important association offices.

Amendment charges that under the present constitution "certain officials and committees have continued to occupy positions to the extent that ten men have held 150 of those honors in the past ten years, and that most of the members of the executive council have been absolutely excluded from participating therein."

One section of the frame amendment prohibits a delegate holding more than one committee appointment at the same time.

EXHUME BODY OF LAWYER'S CLIENT

New York Authorities Will Probe Death of Mrs. Szabo.

New York, Sept. 9.—To determine, if possible whether death was due to any agency other than drowning, District Attorney Rogers of Orange county, N. Y., will cause to be exhumed today the body of Mrs. Rosa Szabo, an Austrian woman, who met death in Greenwood lake while in a rowboat with Burton W. Gibson, a New York lawyer, now executor of her $100,000 estate. The proposed autopsy will embrace not only an examination for wounds, but a chemical analysis of the contents of the stomach.

Gibson had the body buried under the name of "Mrs. Ritter" in a cemetery near Jersey City, but he has expressed his entire willingness to have it exhumed.

"Mother" Claim False!

According to the Austro-Hungarian consulate, detectives have found the woman who posed as Mrs. Rosa Szabo, mother of Mrs. Szabo, and beneficiary under the will of the victim's mother, was dead at the time the will was drawn and that, therefore, the waiver of citation purported to have been signed by Mrs. Menchik, is a forgery.

This phase of the case will be threshed out before the surrogate court on Sept. 17, when a brother of Mrs. Szabo, now on his way from Austria, will testify as to his mother's death.

WEATHER—Generally fair weather tonight and Tuesday.

All scientists agree that, if the organs of circulation, secretion and excretion are in perfect condition, perfect health is attained. The wonderful power the scientific machines have on the sick body is marvelous. The proper remedies are driven into the diseased parts, where they at once begin to work on the poisons. If they are insoluble, they will be broken up by that tremendous force. If they are germs, which secrete their poison and infect the organs and blood, they will be exterminated by that power, while the sick tissues are healed and the nerves restored with new power.

This great method cures weak manhood, debilitation in both sexes, indigestion, dyspepsia, stomach trouble, female weakness; in fact every disease known to man or woman. This wonderful treatment cures all classes of people. The present generation should be indeed thankful for this great method of Electro Medical healing, which bids the afflicted not only to hope, but positively tells them that their disease can be cured. A REPORTER'S
NOTE BOOK

"Some of you fellows got a few drinks under your belt and you think you can do anything you please. There's too much of that in this town and this court has no sympathy for anybody brought in under such circumstances."

So said Judge W. L. Windom this morning when John Morgan was arraigned before him this morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. Morgan pleaded guilty and got $15 and costs or fifteen days in the county jail.

The police reported that Morgan walked up to a stranger on the street Saturday night and slapped him in the face. As far as could be learned the man had not as much as looked at Morgan. But a boozey inspiration seems to have induced Morgan to assault him. The man told the police that he would appear in court this morning, but did not show up.

Another man was arraigned on exactly the same charge. The court declared that it was most reprehensible and that any one arrested under such circumstances would be substantially punished. Judge said that people are entitled to protection and that they will get it as far as the court is able to give it.

Bennie Van was arrested at 8 o'clock last night on a charge of keeping his saloon open on Sunday. Patrolman Nelson walked into the place when several persons with a big Sabbath thirst were gathered there. Nelson said when his case was called in police court this morning. The police reported that this was not his first offense and the court directed that he be brought in to make a plea.

Although he has but one leg of his own, Erick Lundberg declares that his crutches will support him if he has had only one drink. Erick asserts that his wooden legs are a most reliable proposition.

Erick was arrested yesterday on a charge of having become voluntarily intoxicated. When he was brought into court today he entered a plea of guilty.

The tube system will be in operation in the trading room, and between the two places messages can be sent by pneumatic tubes. The Third street paving matter will be touched out at the council meeting this evening. It was laid over for two weeks when it came up for approval. The board of public works awarded the contract to the General Contracting Company of Minneapolis. When it reached the council a warm discussion ensued. Some of the aldermen said they were opposed to the material and others stated that they wished to investigate the matter. The improvement of Twenty-seventh avenue west from Michigan street to Fifth street will probably be re-advertised. ## DENIES GUILT OF MURDER CHARGE

Emil Kymalainen Pleads Not Guilty to Slaying Tom Kallio.

Emil Kymalainen, alias Emil Lindholm, pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder, second degree, when arraigned Saturday afternoon before Judge Cant of the district court on an indictment returned by the September grand jury.

Kymalainen, aged 29, is accused of fatally stabbing Tom Kallio, 28, a resident of St. Croix avenue, where he was shot July 6 in the saloon under the Belmont hotel, 705 West Superior street. Both men had been quarreling and drinking heavily.

Judge Cant will appoint an attorney to defend Kymalainen. The man will probably be brought to trial some time next week.

Three other prisoners, under indictment by the September grand jury, were arraigned Saturday before Judge Cant at entering pleas of not guilty. They were: Mike Divjak, robbery, first degree; Victor Maki, grand larceny, second degree; and Nora Whitehead, grand larceny, second degree.

Divjak, the state claims, was one of four men who held up Joseph Subat near the steel plant on June 5 last, securing a watch and chain worth $25 and $235 in cash. Divjak was armed with a revolver when he was arrested shortly afterwards. He was recently convicted for the illegal sale of liquor at New Duluth and paid a fine of $100.

Victor Maki was expected to answer for the bold daylight robbery which he is credited with having pulled off about 8 o'clock on the morning of July 17 under the Lake avenue viaduct. It was claimed that he lured two men, relieving one of them, George Kallio, of $450.

The same day. The police say that Maki has a record and has served time in the St. Louis county jail on more than one occasion.

Kymalainen, colored, will stand trial on the charge of having stolen $150 in bills from Ed Gustafson, a railroad laborer, on the morning of Aug. 8 last.

The court issued bench warrants for indicted persons who are not in custody.

ST. LOUIS COUNTY AGAIN TRIUMPHS AT THE MINNESOTA STATE FAIR

ST. LOUIS COUNTY'S POTATO AND CLOVER EXHIBIT.

HOME CROFT EXHIBIT AT STATE FAIR.

St. Louis county triumphed again at the Minnesota state fair. Seven first, four second and three third prizes were won by the St. Louis county exhibit.

St. Louis county producers almost swept the board in potatoes. They scored four firsts, two seconds and two thirds, the first prizes including that for the best collection, the most coveted potato prize at the fair.

A first prize on clover, a first on timothy hay, third on alfalfa and a first and two seconds on celery showed that potatoes are not the only St. Louis county product.

Competition for the potato prizes was keener this year than ever before, but St. Louis county was again successful in securing highest on the collective exhibit of potatoes. Anoka county was second, and the Red River valley was third.

The prizes won by St. Louis county exhibitors were:

First—Highest score, 90 points, on collection of potatoes, fifteen of the varieties grown on county farm.

First—Peck of Burbank potatoes grown on county farm.

First—Late white potatoes, long type, White Star, grown on county farm.

First—Late white potatoes, oblong type, McKinley, grown on Jean du Luth farm.

First—Medium white clover.

First—Timothy hay.

First—White Plume celery, grown by Benjamin Decker, Hermantown.

Second—An early variety of potatoes, Peck of Early Rose, grown by August Velandier.

Second—Late white potatoes, round type, Huron, grown on county farm.

Second—White Plume celery, grown by G. G. Hartley, Hermantown.

Second—White King celery, grown by Peter Hansen, Hermantown.

Third—Peck of Burbank potatoes, grown on county farm.

Third—Any early variety of potatoes, Beauty of Hebron, grown by S. Grunland, Hermantown.

Third—Alfalfa.

A. B. Hostetter, superintendent of agriculture of the Duluth Commercial club, who was in charge of the St. Louis county exhibit, is delighted with the results. The exhibit was not entered for competition with the other county exhibits, but the specimens shown were in competition with the whole state and the number of prizes captured indicates St. Louis county's supremacy over the other counties of Northern Minnesota in the production of certain products.

According to Mr. Hostetter, who returned home this morning, the exhibit was highly commended. People who have been to every fair in late years declared the exhibit was the best ever shown by St. Louis county, and St. Louis county has had some great exhibits in the past. The building was crowded almost every minute of the fair, Mr. Hostetter says, and nothing but favorable comment was heard. The moving pictures, showing St. Louis county farm scenes and open pit mining operations, were very popular, and the machine was kept in constant operation to satisfy the crowds.

The exhibit of the Duluth Homecroft society, which was shown at the St. Louis county building, attracted great attention. It was in charge of C. E. Roe, executive secretary of the Homecroft society, and he always has a crowd around him while he explained the methods of putting up products of the homecroft gardens.

After the fair Mr. Hostetter turned part of the exhibit over to the immigration bureau of the Northern Minnesota Development association for display in the association's quarters in Minneapolis. The prize winning grasses and many other products were given to H. J. Maxfield, the state immigration commissioner, for use in Minnesota displays at other state fairs.

RAILROADS AGENTS ARE ENTERTAINED

Ninety Railroad Men Guests of City for the Day.

President of Association Predicts Great Growth for Duluth.

Great things are predicted by W. H. Mills, president of the National Association of Railway Agents, who was in the city yesterday with ninety other members of the association who are on their way to Vancouver, B. C., where the sixteenth annual convention of the association will be held Sept. 17 and 18.

"Nothing but an earthquake can stop Duluth from soon being a city of the 100,000 class," he said. "I honestly believe that it will be a great city in a few short years. It has an advantageous location as it is the natural gateway to the Northwest."

"Duluth has a competition from St. Paul and Minneapolis. These cities are the only ones that can possibly hinder her rapid growth. To my mind, however, your geographical location will enable you to compete with that Twin Cities may offer. It is both a rail and boat center while the Twin Cities can ship only by rail. If they ship by boat most of the goods will have to come to Duluth and then they will be aiding it."

"Duluthians, I have found, have progressive ideas. Everything in your city is modern and up-to-date. You work with the railroads and not against them. In some cities, railroad men are considered somewhat of a necessary evil—not so here."

"We have been royally entertained by the members of the Commercial club and have not had one idle moment since we arrived. Everything we saw was interesting and was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. In the Commercial club, you surely have a wonderful organization."

The members of the association and their wives came to Duluth yesterday morning from Chicago over the Soo Line. They were met at the station by the entertainment committee of the Commercial club and escorted to the club rooms after which they were entertained by a trip up to the lake and around the boulevard.

A special train during the afternoon took the visitors through the terminals at the Head of the Lakes. They left last evening for Winnipeg.

draft of cars as soon as the latter can be placed where they will obstruct the main tracks. Yardmasters and train directors give necessary orders to provide a clear track to the scene of the fire. Almost before the locomotive is uncoupled, signals are set indicating the routes by which to reach the fire, and by the time they arrive their crews have pumps unlimbered ready to work and hose ready to unroll. In the fire organization the assistant yardmaster acts as chief, and gives general directions both in fire fighting and in drills. The conductor of each train crew acts as foreman of that crew, the flagman looks after unrolling and connecting the hose, and the two brakemen act as nozzlemen, and direct the stream.

At a fire which occurred near the gas tank under a passenger car, the first engine was coupled up ready to act within two minutes after the alarm was sounded, while within seven minutes nine engines were on the scene.

On the Northern Pacific, the welfare of the party is being looked after by J. G. Woodworth, traffic manager, and A. M. Cleland, general passenger agent, assisted by C. A. Matthews and John C. Poore, assistant general passenger agents, and H. J. Titus, superintendent of dining cars.

En route over the Northern Pacific, stops for local entertainment will be made at Butte, Missoula and Spokane. More stops would be made could the party devote the time to it, but time is precious to the men in charge of the soliciting of passenger traffic and the multitude of details incident thereto, and while some of the members combine their vacations with the trip to the convention, others made it as a business proposition and figure to consume only the necessary amount of time. All, however, make the occasion one of considerable enjoyment and besides the elaborate entertainment arranged in Seattle, the entire membership in attendance at the convention will proceed from there to Victoria, Vancouver and Tacoma by steamer, where some "doings" are scheduled for each city, and from Tacoma they will proceed on Sept. 15 to Seaside, Or., for an outing on the Pacific coast, thence going to Portland, arriving there Sept. 16 to receive the hospitality for which Portland is famous. The party will disband at Portland, the members returning to their homes via various routes.

Trusses Like These Are A Crime

Get Rid of Elastic Bands, Springs and Leg-Straps. Such Harness Has Forced Thousands to Undergo Dangerous Operations.

Trusses like those shown above—the belt and leg-strap, elastic and spring contraptions sold by druggists, surgical supply houses and many self-styled "Hernia Specialists"—make life miserable for everybody who wears them.

And—even when drawn so tight you can scarcely stand to keep them on—they do no good whatever.

Instead, they often do immense harm—they squeeze the rupture, often causing strangulation—dig into the pelvic bone in front—press against the sensitive spinal column at the back.

The Plain Truth Is This.

Rupture—as explained in our free book—can't be relieved or cured—can't even be kept from growing worse—unless constantly held in place. Just as a broken bone can't "knit" unless the parts are held securely together.

And—just as a bandage or splint is the only way a broken bone can be held—the right kind of truss is the only thing in the world that can keep a rupture from coming out.

What a difference it will make when you get that kind of truss.

And you can get exactly that kind of truss—without risking the cost of your money.

It's the famous Cluette Truss or Cluette Automatic Manager.

Far more than a truss—far more than merely a device for holding, the Cluette Truss—just how it holds—how it gives the correct massage—how it is water-proof—how it ends constant expense—how you can get it on 60 days' trial—thus giving you plenty of time to make sure of its wonderful holding and healing power—and give name and address of over 5,000 people who have tried it and want you to know about it.

Write for it today—don't put it off—this book may be the means of adding many years to your life and restoring you to full strength and usefulness.

say anything, and would not discuss the union. No violence was yet been offered. A group of strikers stands most of the time in the street car barns and call "scab, scab" at the men who are running the cars, as they pass, but that is the extent of the demonstration.

Superior is little affected by the strike, the organization of the men there being nominal. The most prepared a statement of their side of the case this morning. It follows:

The Men's Statement.
The statement of the men follows: "We are exceedingly regret that it has become necessary to call a strike of the street railway employees and thus inconvenience the people of this city, who have been more than kind to us and who have in the past shown much sympathy for our position as employees of the Duluth Street Railway company. The strike is the culmination of a long series of grievances, with most of which the public is familiar."

"Some months ago we requested of the management of the Duluth Street Railway company that we be given an increase in wages, a different regulation of our working hours, correction of the merit and demerit system and a ten-hour day within a twelve-hour spread. At the time, at least, the demands were put in shape and presented to Mr. Warren."

"The matter of wages was not our main grievance. We had expected and hoped that an increase in wages would be granted to the men. This increase, however, was much less than we had expected, and was accepted and we had hoped for a time, at least, there would be no trouble."

"On last Monday evening, while we were holding a meeting of our union at the home of Axel Peterson, 4113 Macdonald street, and while we were in the act of admitting some new members, two petty officials of the railway company forcibly entered the house and made their way to the room in which we were meeting. These officials were Ralph H. Wellington, a line foreman, and David Wright, Mr. Peterson, in whose home we were meeting, told these officials that they must not enter his home, but they entered and rushed into the meeting room. They attempted to make excuses about their presence, claiming that they were looking for the secretary of our union, who was supposed to be in the room. They then left the house."

"This is our statement frankly and plainly made. There will be fewer cars running tomorrow morning than there are today. We do not ask for anything unreasonable, but we insist upon the reinstatement of the men who were discharged for no other reason than that they were in attendance at a meeting of the employees, and we will further demand that a committee be formed from such shall always be received by the management."

"We submit our case to an honest and sympathetic public. We promise that we shall conduct an orderly and peaceful contest. No injury will be done to life or property if we can prevent it, and we shall endeavor to keep strictly within the provisions of the law."

"Our men will remain loyal and we ask the public to help us by refusing to ride on street cars until the management agrees to treat its employees like men. This statement is made humbly and respectfully submitted."

Dr. J. D. Park, president of the Duluth Automobile club, and party returned today from their good roads mission trip from this city to Minneapolis. Dr. Park states that he met with a most welcome reception wherever he stopped. He declared that he found all the settlers heartily in favor of improving their highways. He explained the operation of the road drag to them and they became enthusiastic.

Dr. Park used the drag on the road running out of Lester park to the pumping station, a distance of about three miles. It cost about $50 to make it smoother than many city streets. The demonstration proved that practically any dirt road can be kept in first-class shape by the use of the drag at a cost not to exceed $25 per mile.

While in St. Paul Dr. Park conferred with State Highway Engineer George W. Cooley and introduced him to the work which the local auto club is doing in this part of the state. Mr. Cooley came to Duluth today and he will look over the ground with Dr. Park. Together they will make a careful inspection of the principal roads running into the city. Dr. Park is hopeful that he can show the highway commission the benefits which can be derived from the use of a drag.

STATIONARY ENGINEERS MEET AT KANSAS CITY

Two Actions Called for Trial in District Court and Dropped.

No civil cases went to trial this morning in district court, although two were called and a jury was impaneled in one. In both instances the cases were dismissed on motion of the plaintiff.

One of the actions was a personal injury action brought against the city by Edith Ethel Blackwood for $3,000 damages for a fall on a defective sidewalk. One of the principal witnesses was out of the city and the case had to be dropped from this term.

The other action, which was called for trial was that of Mathew Kreech, for trial was that of Mathew Kreech, administrator of the estate of Charles J. Jensch against Frank Horgensen. The action is one brought to enforce the collection of a debt of $1,952.72 which the administrator claims is owed to the estate by the defendant. In this action the plaintiff put in no appearance and the court dismissed the case.

This afternoon it is expected that the jurors will be given their first case on the large September calendar.

QUESTA POLITICS

Tuesday Is Last Day for Registration Before Primary Election—Governor Eberhart's Newspaper Supplement Loses Impressiveness on Analysis—Candidates Concentrate on Twin Cities.

Voters Should Register.
Tomorrow is the last day of registration in Duluth before the primary election, which will be held one week from tomorrow.
Unless the voters in the first class register before the primary election, they may vote at the primary only on the proposition of address and residence, each corroborated by the affidavit of two persons who reside in the same district. The voter who wants to save himself much trouble will register tomorrow. One registration will qualify the voter for the primary election and the general election as well.
In the state outside of Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth, the three cities of the first class, the primary election day will be the last day of registration, as usual.

The Governor's Supplement.
Governor Eberhart's campaign newspaper supplement has appeared. The Minneapolis Independent Press and the Menasha Journal are the only papers to bring it to the exchange this far. The Independent Press is published by John E. Kientz, boiler inspector for the Forty-fifth district, and an Eberhart supporter. The Menasha Journal is probably the most consistent supporter of Eberhart in the state, and will stand for anything that is "regular" as measured by machine standards.

The supplement as issued by the two papers, has no marks to indicate that it is a paid advertisement, so presumably the two papers issued it free. Mr. Kientz, in support of his own job and the Menasha Journal in gratuitous support of the standard cause.
The supplement consists of four pages of newspaper clippings, gathered during the campaign. At first view it is impressive, but on analysis its ineffectiveness falls from it, and it stands revealed as a pretty weak argument.

The supplement consists of 214 clippings, in which 114 newspapers are represented. There are about 700 newspapers in the state.
The papers quoted include such ardent admirers and consistent supporters of the governor as the Northfield News, the Minnesota Journal, the Hibbing News, the Mesaba Ore and the Duluth Herald.

Many of the clippings are laudatory reports of speeches on the consolidation of rural schools and other issues which nobody opposes.
Many of the clippings were brought out by the governor's promise to the Northern Minnesota Development association at Brainerd that he would call the legislature into immediate extra session if reappointment failed at the regular session. He failed to make good the promise.

The papers quoted are nearly all supporting Taft and are mostly standard to the last degree.

The News Tribune leads in number of quotations, with seven, and the Menasha Journal with six.

On the whole the supplement is not nearly so formidable as it looks. Three years of diligent scrutiny of the newspaper of the state have given the governor mighty poor results.

Windup of Campaign.
Candidates for nomination for state offices will concentrate their forces on the Twin Cities this week. Some of them have one or two outside speaking dates, but they will give the bulk of their time to Minneapolis and Duluth.

Sam Y. Gordon, who has not made a very extensive personal canvass of the state but has confined himself largely to work from his headquarters, will continue in the campaign. He is expected to visit the Twin Cities. Governor Eberhart is planning a whirlwind tour of Wisconsin, Minneapolis and St. Paul, and James A. Peterson and James A. Manahan, will make several speeches.

The campaign has been featureless as far as Duluth is concerned. L. C. Spooner, James A. Peterson and William E. Lee are the only candidates who have made half speeches here and the biggest crowd numbered about twenty-five. James A. Manahan made two open-air speeches Saturday night and drew good crowds, but on the whole there has been little visible evidence of interest in the campaign. The registration of about 3,600 last Tuesday was the only indication that the voters intend to get out at the primary. What they will do there cannot be forecast.

No predictions as to St. Louis county's attitude on candidates for state offices is worth consideration.

Democratic Controversy.
The charges of H. W. Strickler of St. Paul and J. J. Reiter of Rochester, candidates for the Democratic nomination for railroad and warehouse commissioner, that Fred B. Lynch and D. D. Lynch of the Democratic ticket have occasioned some talk.

Mr. Lynch admits that he urged Mr. Strickler to file for railroad and warehouse commissioner when Mr. Strickler consulted him about it, and also admits that he urged Mr. Strickler to withdraw when Mr. Gaynor appeared as a candidate. He says neither Andrew French nor Mr. Gaynor consulted him about filing and his activity was actuated solely by a desire to get a strong Democratic ticket in the field.

Mr. Reiter declares that Andrew French had assured him that he would not file, but filed after Mr. Reiter had done so. He says that Mr. Lynch of having something to do with it.

Mr. Strickler now comes forward with a proposition that he and Mr. Gaynor withdraw from the contest for the nomination for the term, leaving the field clear to F. M. Currier of Mankato, who has also filed.

In view of the fact that every citizen has a right to run for office under the primary law, and all involved in the controversy have filed, it would seem the voters have the final say and the Democrats in the state will decide whom they want to make up their ticket.

Manahan Talks.
The initiative, the referendum and the recall were warmly advocated, and the railroads, the courts and his business were subjected to a vigorous paning Saturday evening by James A. Manahan, candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman-at-large.

Mr. Manahan made two open-air speeches. At Twentieth avenue west and Superior street, he had a crowd of about 250 people. At Second avenue west and Superior street about 400 heard him.

Mr. Manahan declared that the people must have the initiative, the referendum and the recall to drive big business out of politics and restore the government to the people. He advocated the direct election of senators and of the president of the United States. He said no corrupt court should be shielded from attack by the people, and no conditions which would allow railroads and other business interests to control legislatures and courts should exist.

Banquet to John Lind.
Congressman W. S. Hammond, National Committeeman Fred B. Lynch and Andrew Nelson of Duluth will be speakers at a testimonial banquet to be given in honor of Former Governor John Lind by the Hennepin county Wilson organization Wednesday night. Harry Lind of Minneapolis will be toastmaster. Mr. Lind will make the principal address. The banquet has been planned as a state affair and many prominent Democrats from all parts of the state will be invited.

GEORGE D. MCCARTHY.

WILL HIKE OVER ROAD

Party Leaves to Inspect Proposed Carlton Highway.

George W. Cooley, engineer for the state highway commission, J. H. Muller, assistant engineer, Judge W. A. Cant of the district court and H. V. Eva of the Commercial club left this morning for the Carlton district. They were joined there by several Carlton county people for a hike over the right-of-way of the old St. Paul & Duluth road.

A plan has been suggested for continuing the right-of-way into a state highway between Carlton and Duluth, thus opening a more direct route between Duluth and the Twin Cities. The road runs through a rich undeveloped farming country and those interested in the highway believe it would be a valuable development factor. Very little expense would be necessary to put the road in good condition, it is believed, and Carlton and Duluth people are anxious to have the work done. The trip of inspection today is intended to determine just what will be necessary to put the road in good condition.

It is a most picturesque route and would be a beautiful automobile highway.

CLOQUET HOMES HIT BY LIGHTNING

Lifts Top Off of Sideboard and Breaks the Mirror.

Cloquet, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Cloquet had a severe electrical storm Saturday night and the home of Louis Erickson on Eighth street was struck by lightning. The chimney and the walls of one bedroom were damaged, while the bolt played queer pranks in the dining room, lifting the top of a large sideboard and breaking the mirror. A few nights previous the home of George Holmstrand was struck and a hole made through the roof and one through the wall on the opposite side of the house.

Mrs. Holmstrand's mother, Mrs. Larson, who is severely stricken, was put out of commission, a horse belonging to the Gaskill livery barn was knocked down and the shingles ripped off the roof of Ed Rogers' house in Little Canada.

WATER LEVELS IN LAKE OF THE WOODS

International Joint Commission to Meet at Border Towns.

Washington, Sept. 9.—James A. Tawney, chairman of the international joint commission, has called a meeting of the commission at International Falls for Tuesday, Sept. 17, for public hearings on complaint regarding water levels in the Lake of the Woods. This question was formally submitted to the commission by joint action of the governments of the United States and of the Dominion of Canada. The question is as follows:

First—In order to secure the most advantageous use of the water of the Lake of the Woods and of the waters flowing into and from the lake on each side of the boundary, for domestic and sanitary purposes for navigation and transportation purposes, and also in order to secure the most advantageous use of the shores and harbors of the lake and of the waters flowing into and from the lake, is it practicable and desirable to maintain the surface of the lake during the different seasons of the year at a certain stated level, and, if so, at what level?

Second—If a certain stated level is recommended in answer to Question No. 1 and if such level is higher than the normal or natural level of the lake, to what extent, if at all, would the lake when maintained at such level overflow the low lands upon its southern border or elsewhere on its border and what is the value of the lands which would be submerged?

Third—In what way or manner, including the construction and operation of dams or other works at the outlets and inlets of the lake or in the water which are directly or indirectly tributary to the lake or otherwise is it possible and advisable to regulate the volume, use and outflow of the waters of the lake so as to maintain the level recommended in answer to No. 1, and by what means or arrangement of regulating works or a system or method of regulation be best secured and maintained in order to insure the adequate protection and development of all the interests involved on both sides of the boundary with the least possible damage to all rights and interests, both public and private, which may be affected by maintaining the proposed level?

The commission will also hold a hearing at Kenora, Ont., on Thursday, Sept. 19. All parties interested in this will be heard by the commission at these two places.

NEW CATHOLIC SCHOOL AT CLOQUET OPENED

ORE DOCK LABORERS REFUSE COMPANY OFFER

Allouez Docks Are Idle and Boats Are Bunching in Harbor.

Great Northern Officials Are Making Every Effort to Settle Strike.

The striking laborers on the Great Northern ore docks at Allouez have refused the offer made by the company and strike breakers will take their places as soon as the railroad company can bring them in from Chicago and Milwaukee.

The Great Northern offered the men an advance of 20 cents an hour and a half for Sunday work. The men wanted an advance of 25 cents and double time for Sunday labor.

The men had been receiving $2.25 for day work and $4.50 for night work.

The offer was made by railroad officials at a meeting held with the strikers at Woodmen hall, Allouez, yesterday afternoon. The company required them to be at work this morning as usual if they accepted the terms.

The men did not show up this morning and the railroad company announced that it would at once go to Chicago and Milwaukee for laborers.

Nearly 400 men are on strike and the 400 comprise practically all of the men employed on the docks. The docks are for the present completely tied up.

EFFECT OF NEW RULES

Football Men Believe They Will Give Big Colleges Advantage.

May Mean a Return to Old Line Plunging Tactics.

New York, Sept. 8.—College football will encounter more upon professional baseball this season than in a good many years, writes E. R. Bushnell. Because the intercollegiate football rules committee, at its annual meeting last spring, saw fit to make so many radical changes in the rules, every college which expects to make a creditable showing on the gridiron this fall will get in as much preliminary training as the pros. Indeed, it is being urged that the college players should be issued at a number of universities for the summer, to be ready to work by the middle of September. In a few instances the players have been working during the summer, though, of course, no college has conducted organized practice.

It need not be supposed that preliminary practice indicates a return to the old line tactics. The new rules, which have been in effect a few years ago, no longer, under ordinary circumstances, see any necessity for extended preliminary work. But upon the college world a number of radical changes which have been made in the rules, and which will give the college players a considerable time to assimilate. Any institution which expects to make a creditable showing on the gridiron this fall will get in as much preliminary training as the pros. Indeed, it is being urged that the college players should be issued at a number of universities for the summer, to be ready to work by the middle of September. In a few instances the players have been working during the summer, though, of course, no college has conducted organized practice.

BURIED MEN NOT YET FOUND

Victims of Biwabik Mine Disaster Are Undoubtedly Dead.

Biwabik, Minn., Sept. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—The three men imprisoned in the Biwabik mine are undoubtedly dead.

It was thought that they were in the sub-level, but when workmen reached that depth today, the men were not there. They are on a still lower level and it is thought that they are covered with six or eight feet of earth. In this case the men are undoubtedly dead.

The men are Perifina Domingo, Domingo Sereno and Vio Calanese. The two latter men were unmarried. Perifina Domingo had a wife and seven children.

The mine was flooded by a cloud-burst Wednesday of last week. The heavy flow of water caused a cave-in. The men who are supposed to be dead did not heed the warning called to them by the other men when they left the mine. They declared they had a blast to make before they could leave the mine.

In spite of the superhuman efforts of the men engaged in the rescue work and the water pumps turning out hundreds of gallons of water per minute, none of the men have as yet been found.

PURE FOOD MEN ARE FOR WILSON

Leaders Plan to Organize to Help Him in His Campaign.

New York, Sept. 8.—A conference of advocates of pure food legislation, attended by Governor Wilson, resulted today in a plan to organize workers for pure food laws throughout the country in an association to work for Democratic success next November.

Governor Wilson discussed his attitude on this subject and the Democratic platform as it related to pure food legislation, with Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale, Dr. Woods Hutchinson, Dr. J. M. McCornack, Dr. Thomas Darlington and William A. Evans, former health commissioner of New York and Chicago, respectively. Dr. J. M. Murphy of Chicago, president of the American Medical Society, and other leaders in the movement.

At the conclusion of the conference, Governor Wilson dictated the following interview:

"The Democratic platform is much the strongest, most direct and explicit on the question of public health and pure food. The conference which I attended was to organize and devote the side of the campaign. I expect to make the question of the proper legislation of the public health and pure food one of the principal features of my campaign."

After this meeting Governor Wilson went to Democratic headquarters and issued a call for the organization of the United States, and with the party leaders sought to plan the campaign. He is acting national chairman, Charles R. Crane, Senator O'Connell, Josephus Daniels, Homer Cummings, Burleson, Senator Gore and Rolla Wells, treasurer of the national committee.

JIM HILL TO START IN STEEL BUSINESS?

Report Gains Credence With His Purchase of St. Paul Bank.

Organization of Big New Trust Company the Next Step.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—When it was officially announced today that James J. Hill had acquired two-thirds of the stock of the Second National Bank of St. Paul, it became authoritatively known that Mr. Hill will establish a trust company with a capital of $2,000,000. Local bankers say the new trust company probably will be the largest in the Northwest.

All question about whether Mr. Hill would acquire the Second National bank was removed today when stockholders controlling more than two-thirds of the stock agreed to sell to Mr. Hill for $10 a share. The price offered is higher than that of the stock of any other bank in the Twin Cities except the Security National Bank of Minneapolis.

One rumor in financial circles is that the purchase of the Second National is the first step in the plan of Mr. Hill to establish a steel plant at St. Cloud, and lately much attention is being paid to the report.

This, coupled with the fact that Mr. Hill will soon have extensive holdings in his hands, because the United States Steel corporation has cancelled its contract with him, has given rise to the report.

The actual transfer of the Second National bank to Mr. Hill probably will take place next week.

NEW MEXICAN CONGRESS

Progressive Party, Which Gave Madero the Presidency, in Control of Chamber of Deputies and Claims Balance of Power in Senate.

City of Mexico, Sept. 9.—The new Mexican congress convenes Sept. 16, and after that date it will be difficult for friends of the administration to find excuses for failure to carry out at least a few of the promises made by President Madero when he was chief of the rebel army that overthrew the Diaz government.

The chamber of deputies will have on its roll 243 representatives, 150 of whom were elected by the Constitutional Progressive party, which gave Madero the presidency. The minority of ninety-three is by no means a solid block.

It includes representatives of three political parties, the Catholic, Evolutionist and Independent.

The Progressives also claim to have the balance of power in the senate. The upper house in Mexico is not the dominant body, however, and undisputed control in the chamber amounts practically to control of congress.

Out of the weird medley of revolutionary propaganda which has receded the capital from the camps of Orozco in the north, from those of Zapata in the south and from the trails of rebellious peons in districts so remote that the names of Zapata and Orozco are rarely heard, the most dominant note is that in which all unite—Madero must resign.

For the most part, the rebels have vague reasons for uniting in this demand and all resort to the charge that the president has failed to fulfill the promises made in his Plan of San Luis Potosi.

The charge is not without basis, but the very natural desire of the president is and has been that he has had neither time nor the legal machinery necessary for carrying out of the promised reforms. Not for one day since his inauguration has his country been free from rebels who loudly demanded "fulfillment of his promises," and yet has the executive had a congress on which he could depend for the support of the measures he has promised.

The congress Madero inherited was a part of the old administration. The new congress is supposed to be in sympathy with his ideas. Under the old congress, however, the administration was able to have enacted the most cherished reform—the constitutional amendment providing for the non-re-election of the president. The electoral law was also altered, but the elections of the past summer betrayed so many defects in the new law that it will come up again for revision in this session.

One of the defects of the new law was that it permitted a man to be a candidate for an indefinite number of offices at the same time. For instance, Francisco de la Barra, former provisional president, who was made a member of the senate on the Catholic ticket, was a candidate in four different capacities.

Among these measures known to be ready for presentation at the session beginning in September are an employment liability act, the abolition of the jefes politicos, an anti-peonage law and a measure for establishing courts of jurisdiction for the settlement of land titles in cases where the records are missing. In many hundreds of cases the records were burned during the past revolution and in those revolutions yet existing.

Another dramatic chapter was added to the story of the massacre of soldiers and citizens at Teicman by Zapatistas by General Ebrando, an American newspaperman working on El Diario of this city.

Two of the passengers on the train assaulted by the Zapatistas were H. L. Strauss and Ignacio Herrera, Mexican correspondents. Another was Miguel Rivera, a newspaper photographer. All were slain, and their bodies, with those of the other victims, burned. Brandon visited the long heap of human ashes a few days later, and there, according to a story written in the first person, which he sent to his train associates, he saw the remains of neutrality and to avenge the death of the companions.

The remainder of the story was brought here by the officer in command of the detachment with which Brandon was riding. From this officer Brandon asked a rifle and cartridges. The next day the little force of federalists had a brush with the rebels. Brandon was firing from the ground near the officer. "There's one for you," said Brandon to the officer, pointing to a fallen rebel. A few minutes later another rebel crumpled down, and Brandon, turning to the officer, added: "That was for Ignacio, now one more for Miguel." Again a rebel pitched forward, and Brandon, sliding over to the officer, handed him the rifle and cartridge belt with the remark that he had done his part in making the score even.

Parks Not Well Patronized. Though the weather was fine in Duluth yesterday, the parks were not well patronized. There were so many wet, chilly days in August that Duluthians seem to have gotten out of the habit of going to the city's pleasure spots. There were good crowds, however, on the excursion boats on the lake and river. The sidewalks of the principal streets in the main part of the city were well filled with pedestrians, largely theater-goers.

SOLVING THE TRAMP PROBLEM

"Way Ticket" Method of Dealing With Vagrancy Accomplishing Revolution in the British Isles— Gives Better Chance to Unemployed Who Want Work.

London, Sept. 9.—The tramp problem in the British Isles is in a fair way towards solution. The "way ticket" method of dealing with vagrancy is accomplishing a revolution. The last cut in all letters on the altar, that of Nicholas Wilkinson, alias Tooley, an actor whom Shakespeare knew. He left $30 to be distributed each year to the homeless, head curators of the department of the parish. The poor get the money to this day, so one actor at least is not forgotten.

The craze in London for regulation has reached the clocks. Hereafter, according to a clause of the corporation of the city, all public timepieces must be synchronized.

The London clocks generally have never been noted for timekeeping and the new regulation means that most of them will have to turn over a new leaf if they expect to synchronize with Greenwich time. Only three of the great clocks have proved themselves models of accuracy—those of St. Paul's cathedral, the Little Clocks and Big Ben in Westminster palace.

A tour of the streets proves that it is the simplest thing in the world to lose or gain time. By walking a block the pedestrian could gain anything from thirty seconds to two hours or might lose as much. Four minutes could be gained by crossing Fleet street from one newspaper office to another, while a sporting paper on the same street had evidently started its racing season by being five minutes ahead of Greenwich time.

St. Margaret's, which from its ecclesiastical associations would be expected to be truthful, was three minutes ahead of time, notwithstanding the reproachful looks of accurate Big Ben across the way.

Indeed, there seemed to be a conspiracy of disagreement among London clocks and on no street could more than two clocks be found to coincide.

EARLY MAN IN SOUTH AMERICA

Five years ago the Bureau of American Ethnology published a bulletin on "Skeletal Remains Suggesting, or Attributed to, Early Man in North America," based on the researches of Dr. A. H. Hrdlicka, curator of physical anthropology in the United States National museum. There is to appear shortly in similar form, under the title of "Early Man in South America," a resume of the investigations of Dr. Hrdlicka, in collaboration with W. H. Holmes, head curator of the department of anthropology in the United States National museum, Bailey Willis, curator of the United States geological survey, and Fred Eugene Wright and Clarence E. Fanner, of the Carnegie laboratory of Washington.

Even before the completion of his report on ancient man in North America, Dr. Hrdlicka became interested in the problem in South America, and subsequently, at the suggestion of W. H. Holmes, he was sent by the secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, to visit Argentina for the purpose of making a study at first hand of the available material on the investigation of the most promising regions.

In view of the important position occupied by geology in studies of this nature, Bailey Willis of the United States geological survey was chosen to accompany Dr. Hrdlicka.

The chief objects of the expedition were the examination of the skeletal remains relating to early man, in Brazil and Argentina, the study of the principal localities and deposits from which these finds came, and, if possible, the collection of osteological, ethnological, and other specimens bearing on the subject of man's antiquity. It was hoped that thorough investigation of the ground would enable the explorers to form more definite conclusions concerning the finds, than the literature relating to them warranted, and that possibly by means of new discoveries additional light would be thrown on the whole subject of early man in South America, especially in Argentina.

The party reached Argentina early in May, 1910. Dr. Hrdlicka spent two months in that country, while Mr. Willis remained somewhat longer, nearly all this time being given to the researches recorded in the report. The work was greatly facilitated by several of the local men of science, and the authors express warm appreciation for the valuable assistance thus rendered.

During the first part of the stay in Argentina, Dr. Hrdlicka devoted his time to the study of the available skeletal material attributed to ancient man, found in the various local museums, while Mr. Willis examined the various samples of baked earth and other objects believed to have been associated with the activities of prehistoric man. Several localities of archaeological interest were visited, and the study of the skeletal remains was continued. The study of the skeletal remains was continued. The study of the skeletal remains was continued.

On May 24 the party set out for the coast where important specimens had been discovered, and days later were joined at Mar del Plata, and his brother Carlos, who assisted the expedition materially, accompanying Dr. Hrdlicka and Mr. Willis for more than three weeks from place to place on the coast, and to several inland points of interest.

After the completion of this general survey, Dr. Hrdlicka visited the valley of the Rio Negro, whence came several fossil bones many years ago, while Mr. Willis proceeded to Arroyo, where English Women Win A Point. London letter to the New York Tribune. Members of the cabinet express willingness to accept Lord Wolmer's bill which would enable English women to aspire to the woolsack of the lord chancellor. The only members of the ministry who are said to favor this concession to "women's rights" are David Lloyd George and Walter Runciman. It is understood that they have been prevailed upon not to oppose the measure, while their approval is to be accepted as a matter of too little consequence to be magnified into a cabinet "split."

The bill provides that a woman shall not on the ground of her sex alone be disqualified: (a) for being called to the bar as a barrister; or (b) for being admitted to the roll of solicitors of the supreme court and acting as a solicitor; or (c) for being registered as a parliamentary agent and acting as such; or (d) for being admitted as a student at any inn of court, or entering or taking in the like manner and on the like terms as a man any other preliminary steps necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid.

The Careful Woman and the Well Dressed Woman Are Early Buyers

We are selling fall and winter garments NOW to the best-dressed women of this vicinity.

They are always early buyers—which is one reason why they are known as well-dressed.

For they have the first pick of the new styles and lead the fashion. Many women are buying now for still another reason.

They believe in getting the most for their money and they realize that the earlier they put on their new clothes, the more wear they get from them.

Don't get the idea that we shall not always have good choice in styles.

Whether you buy now or later we can serve you well.

But it is to your advantage to pick while the picking is at its best. In every line of styles there are always certain particularly choice things which naturally go first and which it is impossible to duplicate.

There is no advantage to be gained in price by waiting—unless you wait until the very end of the season.

We sell Wooltex garments. Their sterling character is something that makes long wear enjoyable as well as economical. Wooltex coats, suits and skirts do not get shabby. They are built for service as well as beauty.

WHY THEY PICKED MINNESOTA.

The Herald has a letter from Ralph W. Wheelock, private secretary to Governor Adolph O. Eberhart, in which he makes reply to the charge "that the reason the railroads attacked the rate legislation in this state was because they felt sure that the administration of Governor Eberhart would not disturb them or interfere with their plans."

Mr. Wheelock's answer to this charge is that "this litigation began in 1907, before Mr. Eberhart became governor."

The only trouble with Mr. Wheelock's reply is that it is made to the wrong charge.

The charge is that the railroads restored the three-cent passenger rate and the higher freight rates in this state, alone among all the states, because they felt secure against disturbance by the state administration.

This act was perpetrated July 1, 1911, when Mr. Eberhart had been governor nearly two years, and after the railroads had had a chance to test his mettle during three preceding years as lieutenant-governor and president of the senate. IT WAS DONE IN NO OTHER STATE.

That the confidence of the railroads was amply justified was quickly proved.

Attempts to induce Governor Eberhart to call an extra session to show that the state was not submitting meekly to this outrage, and to redress the indignity at least by putting railroad taxes up to a fair level, failed conspicuously.

When the governors of other states rose to the defense of Minnesota and determined to intervene in the rate cases, Governor Eberhart was not only not a party to the proceeding, but he ridiculed it.

While the people carried the burden of a fifty per cent increase in passenger rates and a twenty-five per cent increase in commodity freight rates, the state, under Adolph Eberhart, was as motionless as a hundred-pound coward under a two hundred-pound bully.

It was not until political expediency forced Governor Eberhart to call an extra session in the hope of saving his own political existence that it was possible even to get railroad taxes raised from a ridiculously low level.

Mr. Wheelock has done the state a service by reminding it of this shame. It should not be forgotten by any citizen of this commonwealth.

THRIFT.

Thrift generally is learned in early youth, or not at all. At any rate, though it is easy enough to learn when you are young, it is desperately hard to learn when sudden necessity overwhelms you.

It is good to hear, therefore, that the pupils of the Duluth public schools have more than eight thousand dollars on deposit in the various school saving funds. The schools that are doing this are teaching a thing as useful as anything else in their courses.

It is not surprising to hear also that Judge Ensign, who presides over the juvenile court, believes that fewer child offenders have been brought before him during the vacation period just closed than in any previous period, and that he divides the credit for this between the public playgrounds and the public school savings accounts, both of which have helped to keep the little ones out of mischief.

Both, clearly, are valuable factors in the community life.

Or Anybody?

Now it is said Governor Johnson of California may pardon the McNamara's. Would that move gain your vote for the Bull Moose ticket?

THE SILVER LINING.

Well, anyway, few people get enough walking for the good of their health, and this is good walking weather.

Don't Forget.

Oh yes; and say—have you registered?

UNDERMINING THE PEOPLE'S LAW.

When the Federal pure food act was passed it was a great victory for the people.

But that victory has been made empty by the official organization put in charge of its enforcement by Roosevelt and continued by Taft.

Dr. Wiley, who would have made this law effective, and who would have acted invariably in the people's interests even if in so acting he threatened the profits of powerful crooks, has been crowded out. The Scientific American pictures the situation as it exists today:

"If anyone who is at all familiar with the wretched organization of the bureau of chemistry and its unscientific methods cherished the illusion that a new and brighter era was to dawn with the appointment of an energetic, competent man to fill Dr. Wiley's place, and that the investigations of the bureau were henceforth to be so conducted that it would be unnecessary to maintain at great expense a referee board to check up the work of the bureau, he is doomed to disappointment."

The pure food and drugs act, as fine a piece of legislation as Congress ever enacted, is destined to remain ineffective because the head of the bureau of chemistry is either unable or unwilling to gather scientific evidence of frauds and then present that evidence in legal form. Not until incompetent officials now in places of authority have been relegated to places which they are really able to fill, and are prevented from further interfering with the effective administration of the pure food and drugs act, will the bureau of chemistry be in a fair way of redeeming its shattered scientific reputation.

"Men who have conscientiously endeavored to ascertain whether or not certain ingredients in food and drugs sold to the public are harmful or not, and who have been bold enough to voice their convictions in reports, have been treated as rascals. The daily press has hailed with enthusiasm the appointment as head of the bureau of chemistry of a man whose past career holds out no promise for future reform in the methods of administering the law. A graduate of an agricultural college in the Middle West, he has never published any scientific work of importance; nor has he pursued any graduate studies. The relation of physiology to the pure food law is a sealed book to him. Far better would it have been if an intelligent civilian with an open mind had been appointed."

"Alas, for the pure food laws! Manufacturers who have money enough to fight in the courts and to engage experts at high market prices will continue to toy with it, and the poor public will continue to alleviate the pains of indigestion, contracted because of the bureau's inipotence, with medicines whose sale the bureau ought to prevent. If 'muckrakers' were still journalistically fashionable, what a sensation the exposure of the conditions in the bureau of chemistry would create!"

The people some years ago became aware that they were being systematically robbed and sickened by dishonest foods and drugs.

They brought about the enactment of a fairly efficient law against such practices.

And under Roosevelt and Taft the law has been administered by an official organization more careful of the profits of crooked manufacturers than it has been of the public health.

This is one of the things which Wilson can be depended upon to give his attention to soon after March 4, 1913.

Maine.

By tomorrow at this time we ought to know whether Maine has maintained her ancient reputation of "wonting."

REGISTER TOMORROW.

Duluth citizens who wish to vote at the primary election next Tuesday will have to register for it tomorrow, or they can't vote.

That is not technically true, because there is a complicated proceeding by which those who fail to register before can register on primary election day; but the proceeding is so difficult that it is much safer to accept it as literally true and final.

Those who vote at the general election do only half their duty. The primary election is as important as the general election, and in many cases more so.

Get yourself registered some time between six o'clock in the morning and nine o'clock tomorrow evening, and you will be on the safe side.

"A Rose By Any Other Name."

If he wants to keep up to date, "Suspender Jack" McGee might change his sobriquet to "Stampee Jack."

FOR THE PUBLIC WELFARE.

The conference committee meets tomorrow to make up the city budget for next year.

It is to be hoped that the committee will not fail to deal generously with the request of the board of public welfare, which has mapped out an admirable program and asks twenty-nine thousand dollars to carry it out.

The Herald believes that it is the sense of the community that this request be granted; that the community needs it and wants it; and that the conference committee will be in harmony with the public will if it provides this money, and out of harmony with it if it fails.

Since no member of the conference committee directly represents this side of the city life, it is to be hoped that every member will constitute himself a representative of the public welfare and do his part in securing for that purpose the modest amount of money it requires.

Trouble Ahead.

An anonymous letter-writer threatens to blow up the Minneapolis police headquarters. Now every man in town that has half a dozen or so sticks of dynamite in his house will be under suspicion.

THE 1904 CAMPAIGN FUND.

Disregarding ugly details that have spread scandal and driven Roosevelt to furious denial in eighteen thousand words, there are facts about the 1904 campaign fund which the public is entitled to know.

Disregarding the charge that corporation money bribed Roosevelt to be friendly to the large interests, which few people believe and which nobody should believe, there are moral factors involved which ought not to be ignored.

Granted that Roosevelt is unbribeable, did he take corporation money for his campaign fund? That alone is immoral, if he did, and against public policy; and there is on record a receipt for ten thousand dollars contributed by the United States Steel corporation. If he took corporation money and then worked against the corporations, that is immoral in another way.

The fund that elected Roosevelt is variously estimated at three to seven million dollars.

That's a good deal of money.

How many of the people—what proportion of them—contributed to this fund?

What was the average size of the contributions?

How many contributed less than a thousand dollars each?

How many contributed more than fifty thousand dollars each?

How many of the contributions were from individuals, and how many from corporations?

An answer to these questions, in which no names need be used, would be interesting and informing.

Business Opening.

But maybe the idea is to form a copartnership of the paroled in Wall Street. It wouldn't make a bad firm name, either—"McNamara Bros. & Morse."

LUCKY MAN.

A dispatch in The Herald Saturday night told about a Chicago man from whose stomach the surgeons took nineteen knives, seventeen nails, five knife blades, a dozen screws and a silver dollar, all of which he had swallowed for the entertainment of his friends.

He was a lucky man to find that dollar. It'll help pay for the operation.

Foolish man to do this? Surely. But not much more foolish than those of us who swallow huge quantities of fancy foods and drinks and expect our stomachs to stand it always.

Every fourth year everybody has something to be thankful for at Thanksgiving time, because the campaign is always over by then.

THE GOVERNORSHIP

A Political—No More. To St. Paul News: It is a great game, Eberhart's friends will not use the second choice privilege in the primary election. Eberhart is a mere politician. He never was more.

Whiting to Take a Chance. Cokato Enterprise: Sam Y. Gordon seems to be the only gubernatorial candidate who is sport enough to take a chance on losing the nomination. When it comes to a showdown, the others are perfectly willing to "let Sam do it." If it's a case of priority in filing, Sam Y. can tell the others to go to.

Up to the Voters. Albert Lea Tribune: It is to be regretted that there is such a multiplicity of candidates representing the Progressive views, while the machine stands as usual with only one man in the field. But it seems to us that if the Progressive voters of the state use their second choice privilege, they are bound to nominate a candidate the machine's choice, and so be able to elect a man for governor who will harken to the desires of the people.

Not so Trivial. Warren Register: We have seen no explanation from Governor Eberhart of his selection of a committee to select a man for governor who will harken to the desires of the people. The amount so expended are not so "trivial" as the governor's supporters try to make the people believe—nor are they taxicab fares and several other of the items.

Gordon Boom Not Dead. Fertile Journal: The Smith-Eberhart.

harm newspapers of the state, and they include most of the big dailies, except the Duluth Herald, have been working their political writers overtime the past two weeks in an endeavor to prove that Lieutenant Governor Gordon's boom for governor has fizzled out. This is in keeping with the tactics of those papers in the past. It is their practice to act somewhat friendly to the candidate they most hate to see elected, in the beginning of the campaign, and then towards election time, to swing and attack him all at once and declare his chance for nomination or election support of numerous county papers also. They have tried these tactics in their effort to belittle Mr. Gordon's campaign during the past few weeks, but we fail to notice that very many of the rural editors have fallen, although a few weakened for a while.

Afraid of Second Choice. Luverne Journal: Eberhart is fighting his second choice as he would fight a pest. The second choice votes, if very generally cast, will "get him" and he knows it.

It Will Not. Cass Lake Times: "Will it be Eberhart?" asks Tom Nowal. It will not, and before we get through with it, we will have wherefore, Tom agrees with us.

One Good Reason. Fairmont Sentinel: If the candidates opposing Governor Eberhart had any political sagacity they would confine their attacks upon him to the administration of his office, and not to his private life. Therein is enough campaign material if properly handled to defeat the truth that counts in a sane election and relegate him to private life forever.

The list of $1 and $5 subscriptions to the Wilson campaign fund is growing, but it is not growing fast enough. The men who should be most interested in Woodrow Wilson's candidacy.

They are the common people of the nation—the men who are the contributors to, not the beneficiaries of, special privilege.

They are the men who must look to Woodrow Wilson for relief from the grinding oppression of conditions which are devised for the fattening of great interests.

They are the men for whom Woodrow Wilson is making his fight against special interests and corporate domination of government.

This fight is the people's fight. If Woodrow Wilson is elected president of the United States, the people will benefit. The men of great means are opposed to Woodrow Wilson. They are throwing the influence of their wealth and power against him.

Governor Wilson has called upon the people to aid him in his campaign. Much money will be needed for the legitimate needs of the campaign. The subscriptions of $1 to $5 will make the bulk of the campaign fund. Governor Wilson's attitude has cut him and the democratic national committee off from the usual sources of supply for campaign funds. They will accept no corporation money carrying with it an implied obligation. Governor Wilson's only obligation will be to the whole people. He believes there should be no special privileges in representative government. Those who believe otherwise are opposed to him.

The campaign is on. The forces working against Governor Wilson are the forces of special privilege. They are working against the people, and the people must fight back.

The Wilson campaign fund is growing, but much more money is needed. The people of the Northwest are progressive. They will contribute many votes to swell Woodrow Wilson's total. They will contribute many votes as generously as they can to the campaign fund that will finance the campaign for a "People's President."

B. L. Rosenberg of 14 East Fourth street, in from London, N. D., enclosing $1.

Enclosed please find money order for one dollar as a contribution to the People's Campaign Fund for a People's President. I am enclosing $1.00.

Every dollar contributed will go far toward spreading the progressive movement. It will elect Woodrow Wilson. No true progressive should fail to contribute this little.

Contributions will be acknowledged by publication in The Herald, and each contributor will receive from the Democratic national committee a handsome engraved receipt, signed by the chairman.

Contributions should be mailed to "Wilson Campaign Fund, Herald Office, Duluth, Minn."

SOME persons seem to be naturally weak and sickly. Others with the strongest constitutions break down after a long illness. It's simply a matter of deficient nourishment—an insufficient supply of the phosphates that are generated into nerve and brain energy, the body salts that build up bone and flesh, the iron that makes rich, red blood. The digestive organs are too weak to extract them from the food you eat.

We have scientifically combined these vital body elements into a liquid form that is easily assimilated by weak systems—

MONUMENT TO MORGAN

North Dakota Bar Proposes Memorial to Late Chief Justice.

Would Divide State Into Four or Five Judicial Districts.

Grand Forks, N. D., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The erection of a monument to the memory of the late Justice David L. Morgan of the North Dakota supreme court is proposed by the North Dakota bar association, the action being taken at the annual meeting of the association, which has just been brought to a close. A monument that will cost $7,000 was voted in the resolution adopted and the plan is to erect it at Bismarck, the state capital.

The resolution also authorizes the president of the association to appoint a committee at once to open the campaign for the necessary funds for the memorial.

Justice D. E. Morgan was chief justice of the North Dakota supreme court for a great many years before his death in California a few months ago.

Another important resolution passed by the bar association that evening was the division of the state into four or five judicial districts instead of the twelve into which it is now divided. It further proposes that each district shall have two or more judges as in Minnesota, the purpose of the change being to insure having a judge in the district at all times before whom a case may be brought.

The association also opposed the constitutional amendment which will come up before the next legislature providing for the initiative, referendum and recall. The measure in its present form was considered faulty in construction.

NEW FAIR BUILDINGS.

Many Improvements Planned at Hamline for 1913.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 9.—Anticipating that a safe financial margin will remain after the accounting of the state fair this year, a large number of extensive improvements are being planned by the fair board members before the 1913 fair. M. E. Harrison, assistant secretary, says that if the condition of the treasury permits, extensive improvements will be made in the agricultural building, grand stand and administration building.

It is planned to build two new barns for the cattle and horses on the west end of the grounds. The legislature will be asked to make appropriations for a new agricultural building for the county exhibits. If this is denied, the fair managers are considering tentative plans to build onto the present building. One corner was built out this year to serve as an annex for the university of Minnesota exhibits.

The fair board is also anxious to get an adequate administration building with departmental offices. If a new building cannot be secured, the present one may be remodeled so that it will not and the teacher's desk smashed to Enthusiasm in the plan of inaugurating a piano teachers' round table as a new branch of the work of the Matinee Musical was the keynote of the meeting held this morning at the Y. W. C. A. by members of the club for discussion of the plan.

Thirty-five teachers of piano attended the meeting with Miss Josephine Carey, chairman of this department, presiding and it was decided to hold a meeting the first Monday morning of every month at Miss Carey's studio from 10 to 11 o'clock, the meeting to be short so that busy teachers will not have to give up too much time to it.

The teachers will submit problems that have confronted them, common to every teacher and one of these subjects will be taken up for discussion at each meeting. The mutual benefit may be derived from the experiences of others. A few of the subjects which will be taken up are: "Co-operation of Music and School Work," "The Child Mind," "The Parent's Responsibility for Piano Pupils," "The Most Satisfactory Length of Time for a Lesson" and other vital points in the profession. Every member present was much interested in the new work and anticipates a great deal of benefit of the discussions of the various phases of their work.

CHILDREN'S GIFT.

Little Girls Donate Books to No-napping Sanitarium.

The girls of the Red, White and Blue society, organized about nineteen months ago for the purpose of raising a fund to purchase books for the children's pavilion of the new No-napping Sanitarium, have made a gift of about 1,000 books to that institution.

Several series of good children's stories, good old standard novels, a large family Bible, cook books and five comic books are in the collection and will undoubtedly give great pleasure to the little folks who will be saved for out there. Five pretty pictures suitably framed were also given by this same band of little girls.

They are girls from 10 to 13 years of age and under the guidance of their devoted parents have made the scrap-books and with these, sales and picnic outings have raised the money for their gift.

Besides these books, children's magazines and picture books would be useful. Miss Jean Purrier stated at a recent meeting of the Women's council that donations of this kind would be gratefully received as the little ones there needed more amusements. Games would also be enjoyed as well as the papers and books.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

Will Form Girls' Club and Have Gym Frolic.

A social evening has been planned by the secretaries of the Young Women's Christian association for tomorrow evening at the association building to which all young women are cordially invited. The plan is to have a program of games and other social diversions will be carried out for their entertainment. Refreshments will be served.

A number of girls working in homes have requested that some such club be formed there and a girls' "friendly club" will probably grow out of tomorrow evening's party. The plan is to make the girls who are strange here know that they are welcome at the association building whether members of the association or not, and to give them a pleasant social evening, at least once every week or every two weeks as the club may decide.

Gym Frolic. A gymnasium frolic will also be held there tomorrow evening prior to the opening of the new fall classes under the direction of Miss Bertha M. Farniss.

All girls who have been members of the gymnasium or who are interested in the classes for girls and women, are cordially invited to this social evening. A large attendance at the Geneva

Will Take Part in All-Star Suffrage Vaudeville

MRS. J. L. LAIDLAW.

Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw, wife of Banker Laidlaw, is one of the prominent suffragettes in New York who is taking an active part in the all-star suffrage vaudeville production which is to work at Hammerstein's Victoria theater in New York. Mrs. Laidlaw is a fluent speaker and she has been chosen to tell the audience why it should join the suffrage movement.

At a meeting at the Young Women's Christian association yesterday afternoon at the association building helped to make the meeting an interesting and pleasant one. The program was a pleasant surprise to the audience, and the singing of the songs was well received.

An informal open house on every Sunday afternoon has been planned and all girls and women of the city, whether members of the association or not, will be welcome to drop in for an informal visit there and at 5 o'clock a song service will be held. The girls in the building and out of it are looking forward with pleasure to these afternoon during the fall and winter, and expect to enjoy them fully.

WORK TAKEN UP.

Musical Course Will Probably Be Carried Out.

The course of musical attractions arranged for by the late Prof. Horace W. Rayner will probably be carried on by other musicians interested in the work which he has done and in the musical upbuilding of the city, and Duluth will probably have a chance of having the same attractions, contracts with which had been signed by Mr. Rayner.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Trying to Catch Up With Things Left Undone.

I'd like to have a copper cent for every person in this country who is busily engaged in the most impossible task of catching up with himself, wouldn't you? It is a national evil, and it is not overcome I do not doubt the predictions of a doctor that we shall all be insane in 200 or 300 years. Falling behind is not an evil of business life alone. It is the fate of most people with regular duties to perform—business, social, domestic or whatever they may be, and it seizes hold of the young as well as the old, the giddy and the serious—it is all the same. There is something left undone which each would do.

With some it is merely a source of irritation; with others, in serious walks, a thing that leaves its blighting mark on that which they do accomplish.

And how the neglected tasks multiply! At first it was only one, but in what a short space of time the one is grown into many. It is a state of affairs for which the conscientious are disposed to feel some shame, mingled with resentment for conditions that are forever whipping us into a pace no mortal can sustain all the time. Yet the readiness, nay, eagerness with which we burn the candles at both ends, seeming to rock nothing of the cost, is unbelievable.

There is an everlasting whirl and grind that begins no one knows how and ends nowhere. In it are thousands, trying to do many things, some of them not worth while, after a fashion.

What should constitute recreation and relaxation is often the hardest work of all, because of our determination to do the things that people expect of us and trust to getting a chance to do the things that really interest us and really count.

The root of the evil lies in that we attempt too much. Not work, necessarily, but all the exactions of living that grow more and more complicated. Unless we curtail, those will make an end of us and a sorry one.

My advice to the one so burdened with old responsibilities and duties that he knows not which way to turn, is, make a clean sweep of the whole lot, except those that conscience can't forego.

Make a fresh start and with the wisdom acquired avoid future mistakes of the kind. Otherwise we shall become more and more a race of people who mean well enough but who must always fall short of the mark.

COMPOSITION OF COSMETICS

Cosmetics must be considered in connection with the hygiene of the skin, since they are so frequently utilized for the care and improvement of the complexion, says the New York Herald. Having recently made a special study of cosmetics, Mrs. Nicolaus and Jamben find that the most dangerous of them into three classes—powders, liquid cosmetics and creams.

Cosmetics in the form of powders should be very finely pulverized. They should be applied by means of a tuft of swan's down, and the face is then lightly wiped. In addition to giving delicate tints to the complexion, they are intended to absorb the greasy secretions of the skin and to protect against the injurious influence of cold and humidity.

Rice starch is generally used as a base for these powders, that substance being particularly impervious and absorbent. But chemical analyses have proved that many of the rice powders on the market contain lead, bismuth, arsenic, white lead, alabaster or bismuth compounds as substitutes.

To correct the too great transparency of the rice starch and its lack of adhesive power, starch from wheat flour may be used, with a slight addition of zinc oxide and bismuth subnitrate. For instance:

Wheat starch ..... 33 parts
Zinc oxide ..... 6 parts
Bismuth sub-nitrate ..... 6 parts
Orris root powder ..... 1 part Starch No. 120.

Mix thoroughly and pass through a silk sieve No. 120.

The well known dermatologist, Dr. Unna, of Hamburg, uses a mixture of mineral and vegetable powders, which he particularly recommends for persons having a greasy and flesh colored complexion.

Zinc oxide ..... 2 grammes
Red bole ..... 2 grammes
White bole ..... 2 grammes
Magnesium carbonate ..... 3 grammes
Rice starch ..... 10 grammes
Mix and pass through a fine sieve.

Talc, when well prepared and well washed, should give a simple, white powder, but it is not sufficiently adhesive and hence is mixed with other pulverulent substances, such as magnesium carbonate, white barytes, while lead (the use of which should be avoided), bismuth compounds, carbonate of lime and powdered merschaum.

The following are some recipes for powders:

Bismuth sub-carbonate ..... 2 grammes
Zinc oxide ..... 2 grammes
Venice talc ..... 4 grammes
Chalk, precipitated ..... 8 grammes
Washed ..... 8 grammes

Rice starch ..... 10 grammes
Or the following:
Bismuth subnitrate ..... 4 grammes
Zinc oxide ..... 4 grammes
Chalk, pulverized ..... 3 grammes
Orris root powder ..... 15 grammes
Sifted
Orris root powder ..... 3 drops
Red cosmetics give the color either to carmine or to carmine, extracts of vegetable or animal products and harmless, or again in vermilion, a salt of mercury, which may be irritant. These are mixed with white powders for cosmetics in the form of powders, as for instance: White bole, very fine, 15 grammes; carmine, 50 centigrammes.

Liquid cosmetics are prepared by placing the insoluble white material powders in suspension in water to which is added some tincture of benzoin or eau de Cologne.

Venice talc ..... 19 grammes
Rice starch ..... 2 grammes
Eau de Cologne ..... 15 grammes
Rose water ..... 15 grammes

Creams are prepared with the same powder as other cosmetics for the addition of a little white wax, spermaceti or even cocoa butter. The white color of the cream is obtained by the addition of a little white wax, spermaceti or even cocoa butter. The white color of the cream is obtained by the addition of a little white wax, spermaceti or even cocoa butter. The white color of the cream is obtained by the addition of a little white wax, spermaceti or even cocoa butter.

These are harmless.

Black cosmetics are made by mixing a fatty substance with lamp or ivory black. It is used to make the eyes appear longer or to give the eyelids a blistered tint or also to make up the eyebrows or eyelashes.

Powdery or liquid cosmetics may be removed by simple washing. But in the case of greasy cosmetics it is necessary to first use cold cream or vaseline and a piece of fine linen to remove them, then to wash with warm water and soap.

SIX KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Motorcycle Rider Plunges to His Death, Many Spectators Injured.

Rider Making 52 Miles an Hour When Wheel Struck Rail.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 9.—Eddie Nash of Waco, Texas, holder of several world's records for motorcycle racing, plunged over the rail of the course at the new Newark motor track during a race yesterday, causing the death of six persons, including himself, and injuring many others.

The only two of the six dead positively identified up to a late hour were Nash and John Wright, a Denver motorcycle rider, who was riding third in the race. The other four were boys and young men among the spectators. Five thousand spectators were witnessing the finish of a four-mile race when the fatal crash occurred. Nash, doing fifty-two miles an hour, took his fatal plunge from the track high on the bank of the track when the wheel of his heavy machine struck the rail and struck the upper rail. He was pitched head first into the air and must have been instantly killed. His body was shapeless from broken bones when it was picked up among the men and boys in the bleachers.

Albright was thrown head first in the other direction into the enclosure of the track, where the champions wheel came sliding down the steep bank and struck him. He was picked up for dead, but he lived in an unconscious condition for more than two hours after his removal to hospital. He finally succumbed to hemorrhage of the lungs.

The spectators injured were mainly the men and boys who were leaning over the rail yelling encouragement to the riders when they came tearing into their midst. A scene of panic among the spectators generally followed the tragedy.

The stadium where the accident occurred is in Vauxhall, a suburb of this city, where bicycle and motorcycle races have been a feature for many years. The season has been marked by a number of accidents, both here and at Brighton Beach, N. Y., but never in the history of local racing has such a death list been recorded as was yesterday.

Six riders started in the free-for-all, which was the last event on the program. It was a handicap event in which Hashan and Seymour, who had won the last race, were given a head start. King and John King of Newark, were each given two full laps handicap. The race was a quarter mile and started at the crack of the pistol Hashan leaped ahead of Seymour and after six rounds of the course, during which his rivals had eaten his smoke, the pair rounded up and in another lap Seymour passed Hashan with a terrific burst of speed, by varying margins, Seymour kept the lead until the last few laps. The racing was lined four deep with the men and boys urging Hashan to overtake his rival. Just at the commencement of the race the crowd for a desperate effort. The leader ran high on the track, leaving a narrow trail for Hashan to pass, but the latter tried it. It was then that the fatal crash occurred. Hashan lost control of the machine or merely misjudged the nearness of the rail, is a matter of dispute among the witnesses.

The speaker of Hashan's wheel, which came flying down the track, was a 50-degree angle all the way around. DIDN'T FIND ANY "EASY MONEY" IN AUSTRALIA

JIM BARRY.

Jim Barry didn't enjoy his visit to Australia very much. He isn't enthusiastic about the "big money" American boxers are supposed to get in the Antipodes. Barry says that the only man who is making money in Australia is the promoter, who is making money by taking a colored man as long as he cares to renew the bond the boxer must stay there. It is noticeable, however, that fighters as a rule do not dodge return trips to that country.

and business and hurry. This is not my first trip to this country. I was in Chicago at the time of the great fair about twenty years ago. The changes which have taken place in the big cities of New York, Chicago and Philadelphia are marvelous. In our country it takes years to build structures like you have in this country. Here you build them in a few months. Everything is hurry.

TREND STILL DOWNWARD

Sunny Skies Continue to Cheapen America's Leading Cereal.

Same Conditions of Weather
Also Send Flaxseed
Prices Down.

Duluth Board of Trade, Sept. 9.—Wheat worked still lower today by reason of continued favorable harvesting and thrashing weather through the spring wheat country. Duluth September wheat closed 3c lower, and there were declines likewise on all the leading grain markets of North America. Duluth closed 2c lower. Cash wheat closed 1c over December, Duluth September and Northern harvest closed the off and October and December 2c off.

The morning was again bearish on the wheat markets of North America, the weather conditions and the forecast being on the whole very favorable to the harvesting and thrashing operations on both sides of the Canadian boundary. Line American primary wheat receipts were very large indeed. Crop receipts were roseate. The movement of spring wheat was enormous, as all indications told.

Duluth September wheat, which closed Saturday at 87c asked, opened today at 85c asked. Minneapolis, Chicago and Winnipeg wheat were also lower.

Liverpool wheat at 3:15 p. m. was 3c lower. The pressure of world shipments with larger contributions from Russia and the Ukraine and the large estimates of the American wheat crop, all helped to bear that market down. It was steadily somewhat by unfavorable weather in the United Kingdom and an improved demand for American wheat.

The flax seed market most of the Northwest had the effect of bearing flaxseed somewhat on the Duluth market today. Trading was mostly in futures. Crushers still held off, not caring to buy heavily in view of the bearish looks of things. Sellers, however, were also conservative, and used the probability of frosts in the near future as a bull argument. At noon today, Duluth September closed Saturday at 1.62 1/2, London Calcutta September and October today closed 1 1/2c off at 82 1/2c.

DR. DUMAS SAYS HE IS READY TO BE SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY

Former Cass Lake Mayor Goes to Be Sentenced for Arson.

Declares He Is Innocent But Has No Money to Defend Himself.

Government Attorneys Attend Court Owing to Federal Indictments.

Cass Lake, Minn., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dr. D. F. Dumas will leave this afternoon for Bemidji to receive sentence from Judge McClenahan as a result of his conviction a year ago of arson in his attempted burning of the post office and store at Pupok, Minn. It was charged that Dr. Dumas, of an organized gang of fire-setters, and his flight against conviction and their to secure a reversal of that conviction have caused a sensation throughout Northern Minnesota. Judge McClenahan will go from Bemidji to sit in the case.

When seen this morning the doctor was busily packing up his more valuable personal instruments, which he will take with him to Minneapolis. Two patients called this morning to have their hands dressed, one being Arnold Larson, who lost a finger in a sawmill accident two weeks ago, and the other John Lingel, who lost two fingers cut off in the far-riars mill last Saturday.

The doctor left Bemidji up to the time of leaving and took only a few minutes to give a short interview which he says will be the only one given any newspaper. He said:

"I am prepared to take my sentence like a man, feeling absolutely sure of my innocence in this matter. I could not be otherwise, and I took upon it as a case of persecution. I have exhausted my means in the fight, and could not do otherwise but quit. Numerous friends have voluntarily offered to assist me financially, but I did not feel justified in imposing upon them. I leave here with the respect and love of the people of Cass Lake, which will make it easier for me to go through the ordeal of coming. That the people of Cass Lake stood by me is shown by the fact that the practice since this affair started."

Federal Attorneys on Hand.
Bemidji, Minn., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—According to the plans of the state, Dr. D. F. Dumas, former mayor of Cass Lake and prominent in Northern Minnesota as a successful physician, will be a convict in the state's prison at Stillwater within forty-eight hours. Sometime late this afternoon Dr. Dumas was in district court before Judge W. S. McClenahan in district court, which convened here this morning, to receive sentence on an arson charge growing out of the famous Pupok raid of a year ago last June.

Dr. Dumas was convicted on this charge here in the summer term of court last year. The case was certified to the supreme court by Judge McClenahan on alleged irregularity of the indictment. The supreme court upheld the indictment, which caused the jury verdict to hang over the doctor's head, and it is now appears Alexander L. James, assistant attorney general, is here to look after the state's side of the case.

Although Judge C. M. Stanton opened the present term of court, Judge McClenahan, before whom Dr. Dumas was tried, came up from Bemidji to pass sentence. United States District Attorney C. P. Houpt of St. Paul and Assistant United States District Attorney Oakley of Duluth are here to protect the government's interests. Federal indictments are hanging over Dr. Dumas, the Pupok case, and the state, alleges, also contained the postoffice.

Humors of Confession.
Wild rumors of a dramatic end to the long drawn out Dumas' sensation are denied by attorneys on both sides of the case. Dr. Dumas' friends laugh at a report out of Bemidji that he is "take his medicine." George H. Spear of Grand Rapids was recently employed by Dr. Dumas as his attorney. What his move will be when the case is called this afternoon is not known, but it is believed here that an appeal to the supreme court will be requested.

"If this is done," said Mr. Jones at noon today, "it will be up to the judge to grant a stay of sentence or to impose sentence at once, and we shall urge the latter course, for the state believes that Dr. Dumas has been shown leniency enough and that he now should be sentenced to the penitentiary, where he belongs. We shall fight vigorously any further effort to delay justice in this case."

Progressives Are Taking No Part in Voting for Candidates.

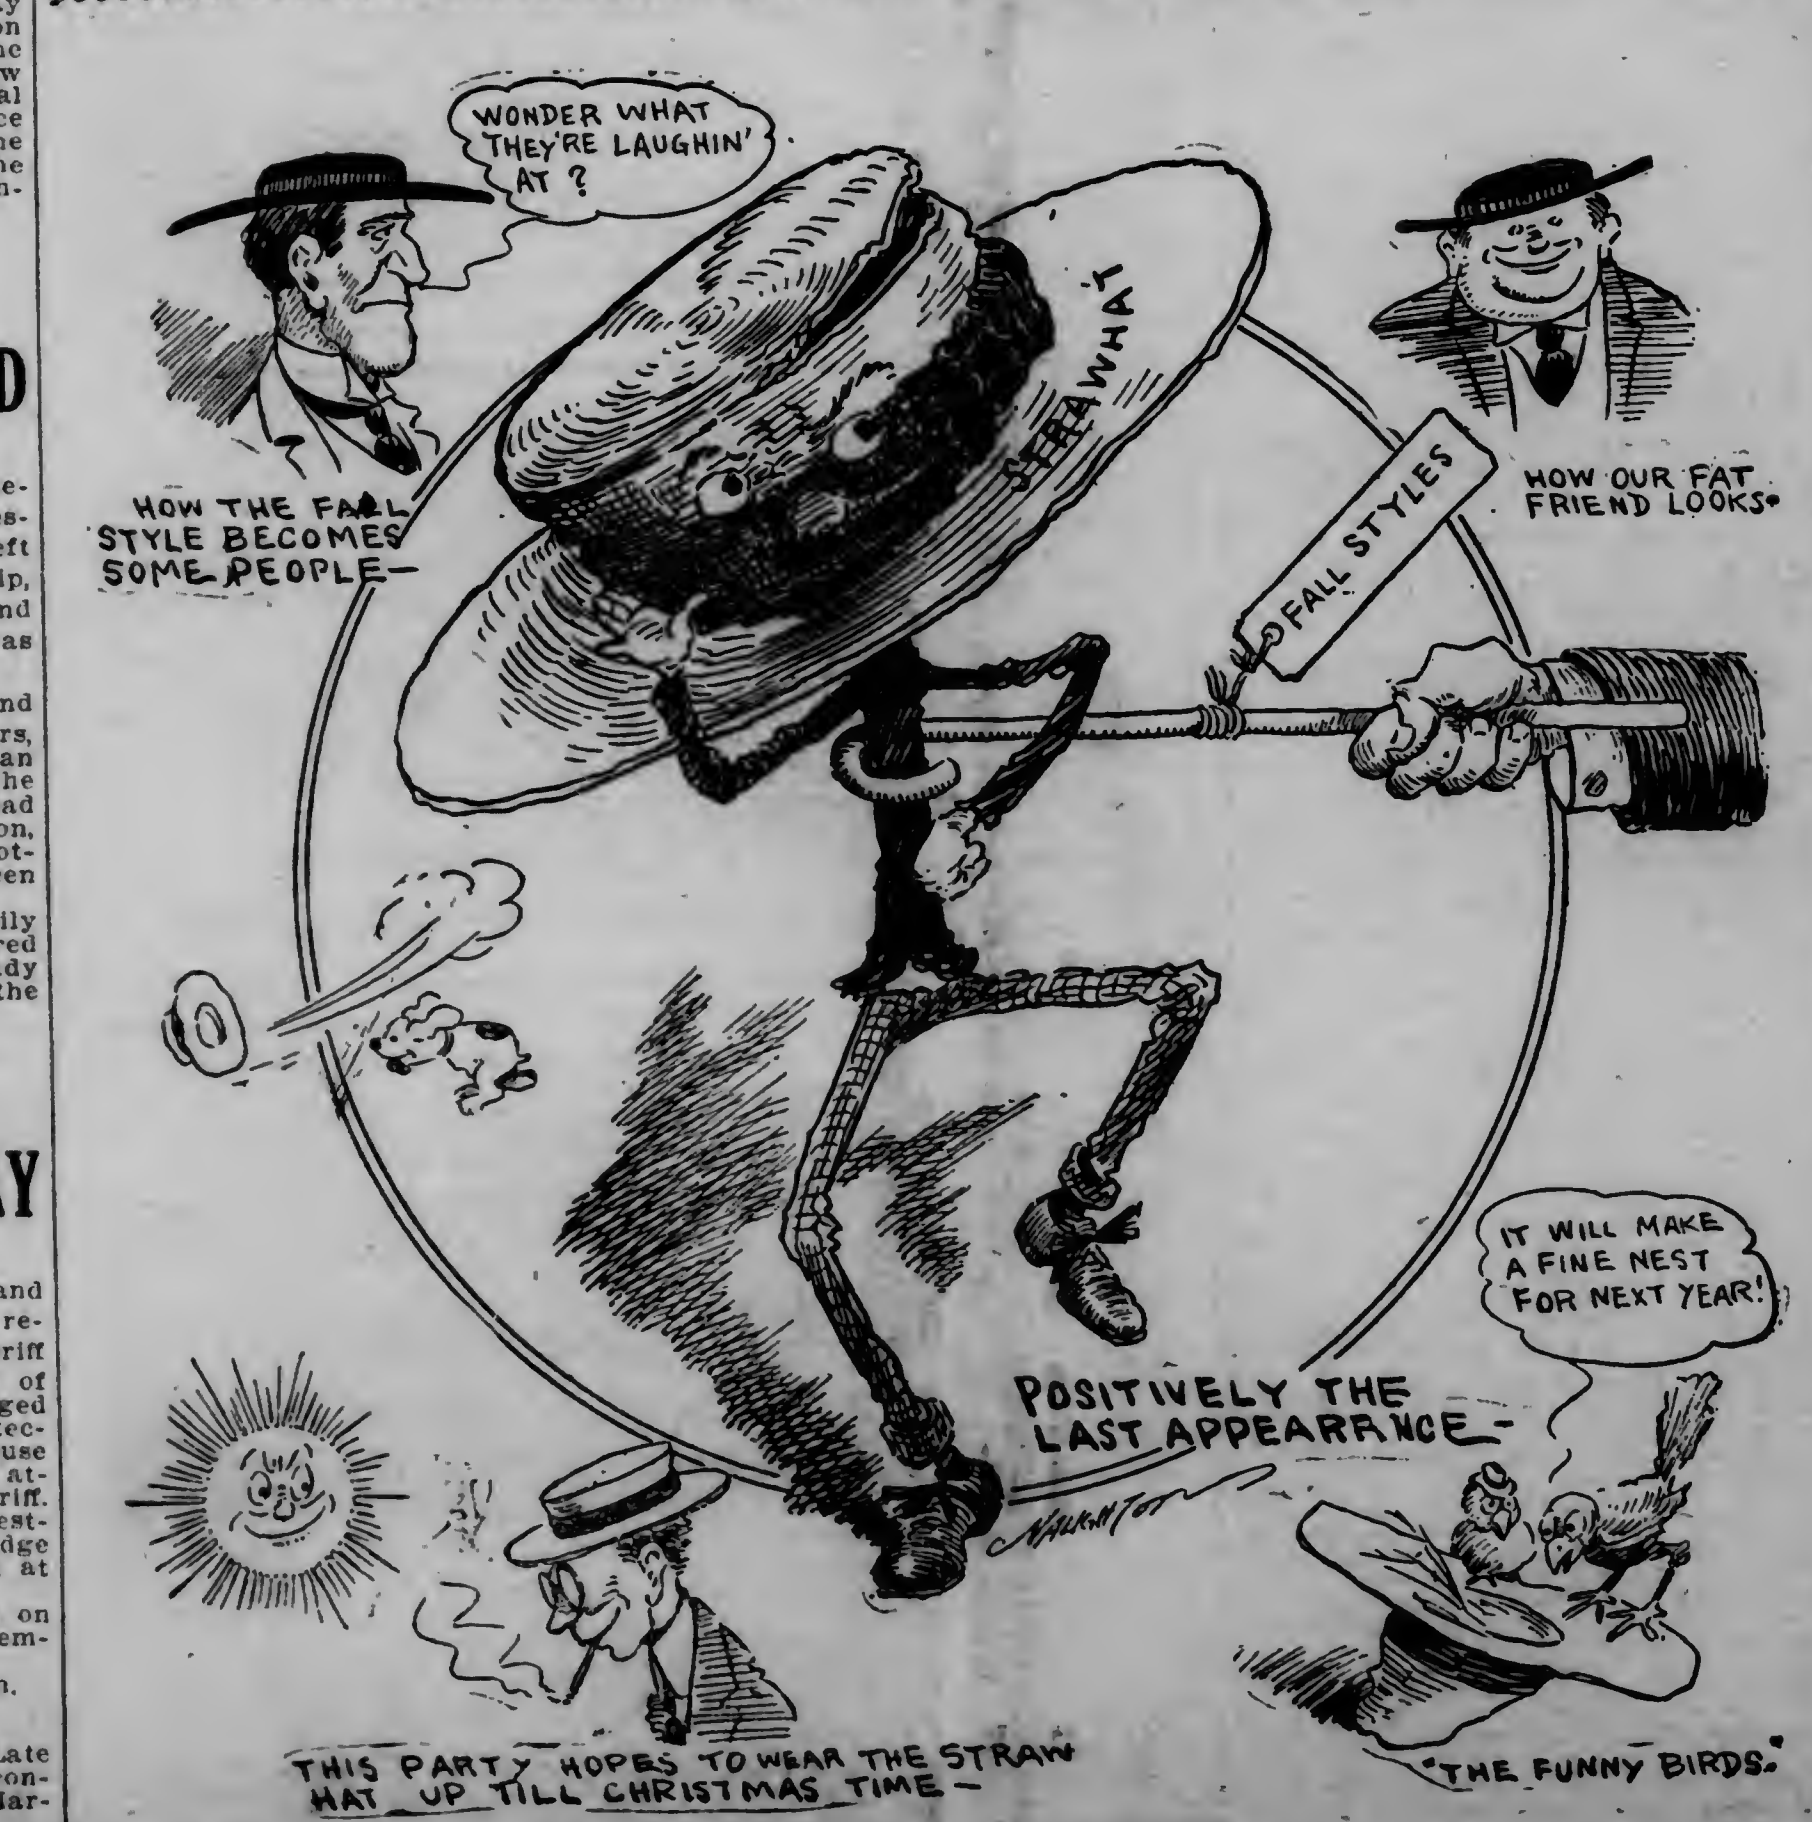

Denver, Colo., Sept. 10.—Colorado awaits with interest the result of the state's first primary election today. The registration has been heavy, many cities reporting totals exceeding previous registrations. The canvass for votes in Denver ended last night with a big Republican rally at one theater and a debate at another between Governor John P. Shafroth and Thomas J. O'Donnell, candidates for the Democratic nomination for the long term to the United States senate.

Nominations will be made for president, electors, two United States senators, four congressmen and complete state and county tickets. The Progressive party will not participate in the primaries. It has nominated its state candidates by convention and it plans to place its electoral candidates on the ballot by petition.

HOT TIME IN WISCONSIN

Bull Moose Meeting at Milwaukee Promises Lively Tilts.

Division of Opinion as to State Ticket Is Decided.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 10.—Called primarily for the purpose of nominating presidential electors, there promises to be a lively time at the state convention of the Progressive party in Milwaukee tomorrow because of the determination on the part of some of the delegates that a state ticket shall be named.

County Chairman F. E. Davidson of Milwaukee, Charles K. Lush and others favor the naming of a state ticket from top to bottom. They argue that unless this plan is carried out the party will have no regular representation with which to go before the people two years hence.

On the other hand, Provisional State Chairman Norman L. Baker, Col. John Hicks of Oshkosh, Wheeler P. Bloodgood and others would wind up the work of the convention with the selection of presidential electors. McGovern is between two fires. If (Continued on page 5, first column.)

Cities to be visited were Rockford, Streator, Dixon, Mendota, La Salle, Freeport, Ottawa, Aurora and Joliet. A brief stop was made in Chicago but the governor did not alight from his train.

Frank H. Funk, Progressive candidate for governor of Illinois, and several other Progressive leaders joined the party at Chicago for the day-long tour to Chicago tonight and start on a Wisconsin tour tomorrow.

SAY MRS. SZABO DID NOT DROWN

New York, Sept. 10.—Physicians who performed an autopsy today on the body of Mrs. Rosa Menchik Szabo, who drowned yesterday in a Jersey City cemetery, declared this afternoon that they had found indications that the woman's death was due to causes other than drowning. A further examination, the result of which will be learned tomorrow, they said, would determine the exact cause of death.

Mrs. Szabo was drowned while braving a mine whether any violence was used before she was drowned while boating on Greenwood lake with her lawyer, Burton W. Gibson. After Mrs. Szabo's death, Gibson probated a will purported to have been left by Mrs. Szabo, in which she bequeathed her estate of $10,000 to her mother, Mrs. Petronella Menchik, and appointed Gibson as her executor.

The deputy consul general of Austria-Hungary alleged that it was known that Mrs. Menchik was dead when the will was drawn, and that a woman was procured to pose as Mrs. Szabo's mother.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN PASSENGERS GIVEN NO CHANCE TO ESCAPE

Strikers Claim Mob Was Composed Entirely of Outsiders.

Parade Is Planned—Car Service Crippled—Many "Students" Here.

The first trouble of the street railway strike took place last night at Twentieth avenue west and Superior street, when a mob consisting of several hundred men, boys and women bombarded passing street cars, throwing stones and sticks and shouting imprecations at the motormen and conductors.

In several instances conductors were pulled from the cars and pounded. One car was badly damaged with sticks and stones and, it is claimed, the lives of the twenty-two passengers were in danger. It is claimed, however, that strikers were not in the mob, as all of them were attending a meeting in Sloan's hall at the time. Certainly no strikers were taken by the police in the arrests which followed, at which time fourteen were gathered in. They were mostly youths who seemed to think the strike and the gathering at the corner, a good chance to "start something."

Frank Thompson, a West end photographer, who with his wife and another woman, was on the car which was so badly wrecked, declares that the assault was most cowardly. Neither women or children were given a chance to get off the car and missiles flew thickly through the windows and onto the rear platform where the passengers crowded in an effort to get off and out of the fire zone. Mr. Thompson says that the car was run by a man with whom he has hidden in (Continued on page 5, second column.)

TWO BRITISH FLYERS KILLED

Army Lieutenants Are Victims of Double Aviation Fatality.

Oxford, Eng., Sept. 10.—Another double aviation fatality, the second within a week, occurred today to members of the army flying corps. When Lieut. C. A. Bettington and Lieut. E. Hotchkiss, both of whom had just been given commissions on probation, were killed, while flying past Wolvercote.

The machine in which the officers were maneuvering had passed over Oxford and had reached a point just outside Wolvercote when the motor appeared to stop and the aeroplane fell to the ground from a height of 500 feet. One of the engines, the pilot says, that an explosion occurred while the machine was in the air.

The body of one of the officers was found in the river and the other was picked up in a ditch. They were young men who only recently had received their flying certificates.

A battle in the army maneuvers in which a number of officers of the flying corps are taking part, began yesterday when the newspapers this morning refer in glowing terms to the success of the aviation corps.

DIPLOMAT JUMPS BAIL

Fails to Face Charge of Abducting Young Girl From Scotland.

She Regrets Action and Tells of Former Elopement—Police Seek Nolan.

New York, Sept. 10.—Harry E. Nolan of Washington, D. C., recently appointed secretary to the United States legation at Panama, failed to appear in police court today to plead to a charge of abducting 16-year-old Marion McVicker of Newport News, Va. His cash bail of $1,000 was ordered forfeited and two detectives were dispatched to arrest him.

After declaring the $1,000 bail forfeited, the court fixed bail at $2,500 for Nolan when arrested and paroled the McVicker girl in the custody of the Florence Crittenton mission. The arraignment was then declared postponed until Sept. 17.

WAS DRIVEN FROM HER HOME

Married life was not one sweet dream in the domestic of Mlle and Gaspava Mudeos of Crosby, Minn., judging from the stories which were related yesterday in the divorce court.

Judge Dibbel heard the tales of woe and then granted a divorce decree to Mlle Mudeos, who charged cruelty. Mlle Mudeos, husband, also wanted the decree on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Colling, Montenegro, about two years ago and came to this country shortly afterwards. Mlle Mudeos securing employment in a mine

MAKE MAYOR GAYNOR MAD

Questions By Aldermen Probing New York Graft Irritate His Honor.

Curran Says He Will Sue Executive for Malicious Libel.

New York, Sept. 10.—William J. Gaynor, mayor of New York, took the witness stand at the city hall this afternoon and was sworn in by Alderman Curran to testify before the Aldermanic committee appointed to investigate graft in the police department.

The questioning did not please his honor, and he lost his temper completely before it had gone very far.

"The time for handling Mayor Gaynor with kid gloves is past," said Alderman Curran, chairman of the Aldermanic committee, before the hearing today. "If Mayor Gaynor is not on hand at this afternoon's session of the committee he will be served with a subpoena, and if he fails to respond I favor going into the courts to compel him to answer."

Mayor Gaynor's statement followed on the heels of Mayor Gaynor's refusal yesterday to confer with him regarding the Aldermanic procedure.

Mr. Curran repeated his declaration today that he had instructed his counsel to bring suit for libel against Mayor Gaynor.

LEAVES FROM A REPORTER'S
NOTE BOOK
BY X

Johnston Westervelt will henceforth be more likely to realize that somebody besides himself has rights along the public highway.

This morning he drew $20 and costs or thirty days in the county jail after he had entered a plea of guilty to obstructing the street car tracks. Judge Windom also handed him a "piece of his mind."

The police reported that Westervelt blocked the street car tracks with his team from the ore docks almost to West Duluth. At a couple of corners he drew aside long enough to let a car pass and then promptly got in the way again. While he jogged along at a snail's pace several hundred people in the cars behind him had to suffer. Their good nature was not improved because of the fact that it was close to 6 o'clock and they were in a hurry to get to their homes for the evening meal.

Court Officer Ed Jensen was on one of the cars and his patience finally collapsed when the procession got as far as the National Iron works. He left the car and placed Westervelt under arrest, sending him to the police station.

The court officer stated this morning that Westervelt said last night that he was a strike sympathizer and that he took that method of showing his sympathy. He denied it this morning, however.

Judge Windom asserted that some drivers appear to be under the impression that they own the entire thoroughfare. He said that he has seen men deliberately steer their team between the tracks and hold them to the inconvenience of scores of people in street cars behind them. He declared that there is too much of it done and that as far as the court is concerned the practice would get all the discouragement that fines can impose.

Deputy Game Warden G. H. Huseby returned this morning from a trip through Pine and Aitkin counties. At Lake Umbagog, in Pine county, he made several arrests of men violating the fishing laws. In Aitkin county he made two arrests for violating the game laws. One man was convicted of killing a deer and the other of buying it. The man who made the purchase was an justice of the peace. Final disposition of the case has not been made. Deputy Huseby corroborates the statements of others familiar with conditions in the woods that game will be plentiful this fall. He declares that there are more birds and more big game than he has seen for years.

Ben Vall pleaded not guilty when he was arraigned in police court yesterday afternoon on a charge of keeping his saloon at 1 West Superior street open on Sunday. His trial was set for Thursday afternoon.

Joe Carroll paid a fine of $2.50 in police court yesterday afternoon when he admitted that he was driving an unlicensed vehicle in violation of the wheelage tax ordinance.

Olof Bagge and Oscar Stevens said they were on the Northern Pacific tracks yesterday evening but claimed they were on their way down to the docks to look for a job. They denied that they were trying to board a freight train which was pulling out of the yards. The court gave them the benefit of the doubt and suspended sentence.

David Nelson pleaded guilty in police court this morning to having been drunk and disorderly. The police reported that he had created a disturbance on a street car. He got $5 benefit of the doubt and suspended sentence.

Maud Imbleau thinks that the cop who took her in charge last night is the meanest man ever.

"I was just going along the street looking for a friend when he came and took me," she said this morning. "I wasn't doing a thing."

Judging from her appearance today, however, she must have been doing things before the policeman took her in charge. Her looks would lead anyone to think that she had consumed greater quantities of intoxicating liquor than was good for her. She will be taken to police court this afternoon. She wasn't sober enough to go along with the grist this morning.

Frankness didn't lose John Anderson or Ed Jenkins anything when they were arraigned in police court this morning. Both of them freely admitted that they had been in before. The court let them down with the minimum, $3 or three days.

Will Franks, a driver of the Duluth Candy company, had the ligaments of his leg badly torn near Fifteenth avenue east on London road yesterday afternoon. He was caught when the hind wheel of the wagon which he was driving fell off. He was removed to his home at 124 East First street in Ford's ambulance. An examination disclosed no broken bones.

PLAN FIGHT ON SICKLES

New York Veterans Will Oppose Him as Head of G. A. R.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 10.—This was Soldiers' Home day at the forty-sixth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. The principal events were an excursion to the national soldiers' home at Sawtelle, an open house at Venice, a seashore resort near this city.

The annual meeting of the army corps and their memorial services, the convention of the ex-prisoners of war, followed by a campfire, a reception to the G. A. R. and allied organizations, and a meeting of the Sons of Veterans, were among the day's events.

At the semi-official opening of the encampment, Commander-in-Chief Trimble tonight will deliver his address. Interest in the selection of the next commander-in-chief was revived today when it became known that the New York delegation had voted 35 to 3 not to support the candidacy of Gen. Daniel E. Sickles. Friends of Judge Albert B. Beers of Bridgeport, Conn., asserted that practically no opposition now existed to the selection of their candidate.

GRAIN RECEIPTS MAY PASS THE 100,000,000 MARK

Expected to Break the Record Made in 1897-98.

Hundreds of Cars Coming Daily—No Car Shortage Yet.

The receipts of wheat and all grains taken together on the Duluth market during the last few days have far surpassed the predictions that the most optimistic were making a few weeks ago.

Wet, chilly weather, which was a considerable handicap to the cutting and thrashing of the crops, especially wheat, has been succeeded by clear skies and a warm dry atmosphere reaching over the whole of the grain-growing region of the Northwest. This has been the general condition for several days and the already declining wheat market has been going down still faster. For the last hour of the bulk, namely wet weather and early frosts, has disappeared. Yet the European demand is very strong and the prices of the American cereals from going to pieces. This means good prices to the farmers of the Northwest on a tremendous harvest and that spells money in the pockets of the farmers and resulting prosperity to the cities with which the farmers trade.

The Duluth state grain inspection office, which is the largest in the immense amount of grain that is being received at Duluth, managed to find a few minutes today to express his views on the grain prospects of Duluth during the coming year.

H. B. Emerson, chief deputy of the Duluth state grain inspection office, said that the grain received at Duluth during the crop year just opening, with the exception of a few minutes today, has been unprecedented, and will even surpass the banner year of 1897-98. The receipts were about $9,000,000 in 1897-98, but this year they will go 10 per cent higher. Today the cars on track for inspection at Duluth numbered 323. That is not by any means the largest number we ever had in any one day, but it is a very large number, and it is a very unusual movement. There have been days when we had in the neighborhood of 200 or more, but the railroad can hardly handle more than 300 cars a day.

day for any great number of successive days, under existing circumstances. You see the railroads—and reasonably, too—want to avoid hauling empty cars in either direction. The cars that bring in the grain from the country haul back coal and the movement of the cars must be adjusted as to accommodate that traffic as well as the grain traffic. If the cars were managed solely with reference to the hauling of grain, it would be possible to handle a vastly larger number of grain-loaded cars into Duluth than is now the case.

No Shortage Yet.

"As yet there has been no shortage of cars. The railroad men foresee the great demands that would be made on their equipment by the immediate crop, and they prepared for it. The problem of getting cars in and out of Duluth is much simpler one out of getting them in and out of Minneapolis. A grain car at Duluth usually makes the 'turn-around' in forty-eight hours, whereas in Minneapolis it frequently takes five days. It may be that we shall have a shortage of cars, but I have heard of no such complaints yet."

"I do not think the movement of grain to Duluth has reached its maximum volume. A great deal of the grain that we are now receiving is coming from the Dakotas. The movement from Minnesota is much simpler one out of getting them in and out of Minneapolis. A grain car at Duluth usually makes the 'turn-around' in forty-eight hours, whereas in Minneapolis it frequently takes five days. It may be that we shall have a shortage of cars, but I have heard of no such complaints yet."

"Most of the grain that is coming to Duluth now is of very good quality. There is some wet wheat, which was cut and thrashed during the rainy weather, but we are now receiving vast quantities of fine dry wheat. Much of the grain was the first crop to be cut and thrashed, and that was handled too early to escape the rains. One car of flaxseed, but the quality is very good. I think the flaxseed movement will be on in large volume about the middle of the present month."

It is worthy to note that the total number of cars of grain reported today as having been received yesterday at Duluth was 108, whereas the reported receipts were 306, and that, moreover, was two days, Saturday and Sunday, whereas those reported today were for Monday alone.

OWNERS ARE INDIGNANT DULUTH IS NOT GETTING JUSTICE

East Third Street May Not Be Paved This Year.

Council Refuses to Give Them the Pavement They Want.

Property owners on East Third street between Fourteenth and Eighth avenues east are highly incensed at the action of the council last evening in turning down the contract which was awarded in accordance with their wishes.

It is feared that the action of the council in refusing to approve the contract will prevent the work being done this year, and property owners are thoroughly indignant.

The board of public works awarded the contract to the General Contracting Company of Minneapolis for bituminous paving. This was done in accordance with the expressed wishes of the property owners on the street, the board stating at the time that it was made in accordance with its best judgment.

The city officials object to paying a royalty to Warren Bros. for their paving. Under an agreement made last March the city is bound to pay the company $12,000 for the use of the Warren Bros. paving. The city is also bound to pay 25 cents per square foot for the use of the Warren Bros. paving. The city officials object to paying a royalty to Warren Bros. for their paving. Under an agreement made last March the city is bound to pay the company $12,000 for the use of the Warren Bros. paving. The city is also bound to pay 25 cents per square foot for the use of the Warren Bros. paving.

But the property owners along the street maintain that it is not the council's place to advance such arguments. They claim that they are paying for the pavement and should be allowed to lay whatever kind they see fit. They say whatever kind they see fit. They vote, and they assert that it establishes the council's position. The council to override the wishes of the property owners and let paving contracts as they see fit.

The delaying of the work greatly aggravates many of the property owners. They do not hesitate to speak their minds in plain terms. If a new petition is necessary it is almost certain that the street will not be paved this year despite itsretched condition. In any event it will likely be necessary to advertise for new bids, necessitating considerable delay. The owners say they are willing to pay for a pavement of the kind they want and they are unable to get the job improved this year because of the council's attitude.

DULUTH IS NOT GETTING JUSTICE

Candidate for Railroad Commissioner Talks on Rate Situation.

J. F. Rosenwald of Madison, candidate for the Republican nomination for state railroad and warehouse commissioner for the six-year term, arrived in Duluth today and is working for his campaign.

"Everybody knows there is something wrong with the rate situation in this state," he said today. "Here is this great natural harbor here at Duluth that was intended by nature to be the gateway to a great territory. We in our part of the state and the people all through Southern Minnesota have been willing to do business with Duluth for years, but we have been prevented from doing so by the rate condition. The present state railroad and warehouse commission has not taken proper steps to remedy that condition and there should be a change."

Mr. Rosenwald has issued a progressive platform which includes a demand for the physical valuation of railroads.

DID you ever feel "I wish I could play the piano?" When you hear others who are so expert at the key board, remember that you are probably as musical as they, the only difference being that they have acquired the faculty of expressing their feelings on the piano and you have not.

Backslider

from Wellville to Dingbat-Town

A Slide:—

from health to ill-health

A great many people have tried the slide, who didn't know exactly what they would get in "Dingbat-Town."

The coffee drinker is quite certain to get some kind of a "bat." It may be in stomach, liver, heart, bowels, eyes, kidneys or some other organ, for the bad effects of the caffeine in coffee, locate in a variety of different organs in different people.

Many persons who knew this some time ago quit coffee and commenced Postum.

Then, because they found trouble in having Postum prepared suitably at hotels and elsewhere, they gave it up and went back to coffee, thinking, "Now I am well and can stand it."

So they became backsliders and when they slid into "Dingbat-Town," symptoms of the old troubles began to show again, they found it difficult to return to Wellville.

Now comes

Instant Postum

as one sure way to get back.

Instant Postum is in powder form—made from regular Postum and contains the same nourishing ingredients;—you simply stir a level teaspoonful into a cup of hot water and instantly have a perfect cup of Postum; it has a delicious mellow flavour and is free from the coffee drug, Caffeine.

It can be made anywhere that hot water can be obtained; in hotels, on the train, in the office—its high, rich quality is constantly uniform.

Tins holding enough for about 100 cups are sold for 50 cents by grocers. Smaller tins at 30 cents, make about 50 cups.

Ordinary coffee costs about twice as much.

A two cent stamp to cover postage will carry to you a 5-cup sample tin free.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Members of First Baptist Church Honor Mr. and Mrs. Giffin.

Members of the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and First street, entertained at a banquet last evening in honor of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Giffin, who will leave Oct. 1 for China to resume their work as missionaries.

Rev. Milton Fish, pastor of the church, acted as toastmaster for the evening, short talks being given by Messrs. J. H. Giffin, Milton Fish, J. E. Churchill, J. D. McPhail, Sadie Schwartz, Ernest Hutchinson, Fred Hanson and the Messrs. J. B. Dye, Frank Glover, William Capen, Fred Hanson and West. Mr. Giffin gave a short talk on the missionary work in China and was followed by Mrs. Giffin.

During the evening Cecil Gilliland sang several songs. Following the program of talks a social hour was enjoyed. The church parlors were decorated for the occasion and sweet past were used on the tables. The women of the church served the banquet.

WILL CELEBRATE CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

In honor of the anniversary of the dedication of the Second Presbyterian church, 1212 West Superior street, on the second Sunday of October, 1873, Rev. J. A. McLaughlin, pastor of the church, will conduct ceremonies Sunday, Oct. 12.

The present church in the West end originally supplanted a small wooden building, which began the permanent growth of the institution. Since its dedication in 1873, when Rev. James Alexander Laurie took charge of the pastorate, Mr. Laurie had charge of the pulpit for over twenty years. His successors were E. P. Ely and Robert Simons.

Rev. J. A. McLaughlin, the present pastor, took charge of the church about a year ago and since that time a number of improvements have been made, new features installed and the entire structure remodeled and painted. Over $3,000 was recently spent on improvements. A number of the new sections have been organized during the past year and the congregation has been considerably enlarged the past twelve months.

The present church is the successor of the First Presbyterian church, which in turn found its origin in the First Presbyterian church of Onondaga, N. Y., organized in 1802. On May 1, 1858, when the first congregation met at Onondaga and held the first Presbyterian church meeting in Duluth.

The Rev. Mr. Laurie, who had charge of the pastorate up to 1883, died several years ago, as did his successor, Rev. Carl W. Ely, who was here for two years. Others in order of their charge were as follows: Rev. William J. Sims, one year; Rev. Thomas M. Kinley, 11 years; Rev. Alexander C. Munson, 4 years; Rev. I. I. Corby, 12 years; Rev. David S. Sharpless, 2 years; Rev. J. L. McBride, 2 years; Rev. William R. O'Neill, supply 2 months, and Rev. J. A. McLaughlin, since August, 1911.

WILL READVETISE FOR PAVING BIDS

Because of the failure on the part of the Twenty-seventh avenue property owners and the members of the board of public works to agree on the paving material, new bids will be advertised for at the next meeting of the board.

Although the property owners originally decided on a silica pavement with concrete gutter and curb, the plans as presented by the board did not contain these specifications. The estimate of $19,000, for which bids were advertised for, included only a crushed rock and tar pavement. The property owners objected to this last week and decided on a silica pavement and have requested a readvertising of the bids.

"The property owners insist on getting what they want," said John Moir, one of the residents on the avenue, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Moir is a member of the committee appointed by the property owners, the other members of which are: Aldermen William Bernard, Peter Grignon and David Carroll.

Those behind the move to change the bids want the contract to be awarded before the first of October. In this way the property owners expect to have the street finished by the time the cold weather sets in. The pavement will extend from Michigan street to Fifth street, and will be twenty-four feet wide. The part between the curb and sidewalk will be parked.

Market Day.

Tomorrow will be market day in the West end, and in all probability every stand will be taken. Farmers in this vicinity are as well pleased with the new public market as are the residents of the West end, and each market day usually finds seven or eight farmers selling produce and fruits.

Skoglund-Harper.

Miss Charlotte Skoglund and Robert Orville Harper were married at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Swedish Baptist church, 2212 West Third street. Rev. Swaney Nelson, pastor of the church, read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Harper left last evening for a short wedding trip and will be at home after Oct. 1 at 1905 West Third street.

Kloeg Funeral.

The funeral of Andrew Kloeg, 48 years old, 1725 New street, who died Saturday at International halls, and whose body was brought here yesterday, will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the Olson & Crawford undertaking rooms, 1113 West Third street. Interment will be at Park Hill cemetery.

Will Elect Officers.

Officers for the year will be elected by the nominating committee of the Epworth league of the Grace M. E. church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, at a special meeting to be held in the church parlors tomorrow evening. Plans for the social to be held Friday evening and for services next Sunday will also be made at the meeting tomorrow. The services Sunday are to be given over to the league, which will install its officers as one of the features of the evening.

Stefansson and Anderson went to the Arctic in 1908, by way of Winnipeg, Edmonton and down the Mackenzie river to its mouth. They were bound for Coronation gulf, a region marked in red on Canadian maps (uninhabited) and which they had been warned to avoid. Stefansson spent the first winter at the mouth of Colville river, Alaska; the second at Cape Parry; the third on Coronation gulf and Victoria Land; the fourth at Cape Parry.

On leaving the Arctic he made a leisurely journey alone with a dog team from Cape Parry to Point Barrow, 1,000 miles, visiting all the Eskimo settlements along the coast. He left Parry March 22 and reached Point Barrow June 13. The expedition made its headquarters for collecting at Bailey island, a resort of whaling vessels east from the Mackenzie river, and here the material gathered was placed on the Helvidere it will not be unpacked until it arrives at the big New York museum.

Barren Ground Grizzlies.
The features of the collection are the skins, skulls and leg bones of nineteen grizzlies, which were found ready for mounting. Only one barren ground grizzly is in any museum. It is supposed that there are two species in the collection.

The barren ground grizzly attains a weight of 700 pounds. It lives on the thick roots of an herb. At the approach of winter the bear, which has taken on a four-inch layer of fat, burrows a hole in the river bank and permits itself to be covered by snow. Apparently the bear hibernates without loss of energy, for in April, when it leaves its hole, the fat is still intact. However, in April and May there is no food, and the bear grows thin before the herbs are obtainable in June.

Of the so-called white Eskimos of Coronation gulf Stefansson said: "They were taller than the Greenland Eskimos, but not so tall as the Alaska Eskimos. They spoke Eskimo, though I thought I detected some Norse words, and they lived in the typical Eskimo way. I visited thirteen groups of these people, whose number probably 3,000. Some of these groups or tribes had never come in contact with whites and had no tradition of them.

Traditions of Franklin.
Two tribes had traditions of the John Franklin expedition. An old man in one tribe had seen Richardson in 1868, and another man in another tribe had seen Collinson in 1853. The thirteenth tribe had been visited by whalers.

"Between the country of the blonde Eskimos and the Mackenzie is a barren strip 300 miles wide, which is now crossed by Eskimos. The Eskimos west of the strip have no knowledge of Eskimos to the east. Those to the east know there are western Eskimos, but believe them to be savage cannibals.

"Musk or polar bear and seals are abundant and the blonde Eskimos live well. Many of them have eyes as blue as my own and very blonde eyebrows are the rule. A great many of the men have sandy or reddish beards. They have no tradition of their ancestry.

"On Victoria Land there are a number of stone houses, but the blonde Eskimos shun them, saying they were built by spirits who inhabited the country before men came.

Scandinavian Signs.
"I was unable to gather statistics of blue eyes, for when the blue-eyed persons found I was seeking them they avoided me, not understanding what I wished. However, I took measurements of a large number of the males, and I found that facial index was the same as that of the Eskimo-Scandinavian half-bloods of Greenland and not typically Eskimo.

"I made note of the tribe visited by Collinson in 1853. He wrote that it numbered 220 persons. There are now 230, all in good health.

"On the other hand, Dr. Richardson in 1848 found 2,000 Eskimos between the Mackenzie river and Bailey island. These Eskimos have been in contact with whites and only forty persons survive and these are diseased."

Lived Like Eskimos.
Stefansson ascribes the success of his expedition to the fact that he took no food supply, but went into the country with his rifle. He lived as the Eskimos did, much of the time among them. Eskimo women sewed his garments, but otherwise he needed no aid from Eskimos.

Stefansson says that Hubert Darrell, an Englishman of good family, who disappeared while on the Arctic shores east of the Mackenzie river, is dead.

In September, 1909, said he, "Darrell went to a whaling vessel that was wintering at Bailey island. Darrell was quite alone and was pulling a sled. This way of traveling was not so foolhardy as it seemed. A man alone in the Arctic is in peril only when he is overtaken by accident or sickness. Then he is helpless and must perish.

"On leaving the whaler, Darrell set out westward to Liverpool bay, where his camp was. Eskimos saw him when he went back to his camp, which was some distance from the Eskimo camp, but they did not see him when he left his camp, and they do not know in what direction he went. He told the Eskimos that he would return next year to buy furs. This was his purpose in exploring the coast—to learn of the trading possibilities.

"Darrell may have gone west along the coast, or south up the Anderson river toward Fort Good Hope. As it was known he intended to go to Dawson, I think he went west toward McPherson.

Last winter an Eskimo from Bailey island went up Anderson river and found a blazed tree with writing on the base. He told me what he had found and promised me that next year he would cut down the tree and bring the section containing the writing to Bailey island. I think the writing was that of an Indian and not of Darrell. The priests at Fort Good Hope have taught the Indians to write."

Resume Work on New Church.
Christian Scientists Will Complete Structure Begun Last Spring.

Work on the new church of the Christian Scientists at Ninth avenue east and First street, which was suspended last spring on account of a lack of funds, will be resumed some time this fall, according to a statement made today by Robert Rankin, chairman of the building committee. Mr. Rankin remarked that all that was now delaying the progress of the structure was the non-arrival of the building materials from Chicago and other points. The other members of the building committee are: F. E. Burrell, John Larson, John Wesley Fee, R. M. White, B. C. Jones and J. E. Lundmark.

Mrs. Dwight E. Woodbridge, who is prominent in the activities of the congregation, remarked today that the completion of the church had been delayed because the congregation was unwilling to go into debt for it, but there were now ample funds to resume operations. She said the present quarters of the church next to the place where the new building will stand, are entirely inadequate for the needs of the congregation, which now numbers nearly 200 people.

FALL OPENING

The reputation of this store rests upon two things—the quality of the furniture and the service in selling it. By "service" please understand that we mean assisting you in finding what you want at the price you want to pay. We look at the purchase exactly as you do, namely, an investment and therefore strive to make it profitable to you—it must yield a satisfactory return on the money spent as long as it remains in your possession.

Generally when an appeal to economy is made folks overlook everything else but economy—quality is relegated to second place—price alone remains in the limelight and thought centers only on the cost. We make the appeal to economy on quality, not forgetting that gracefulness and beauty of line are also a necessary part of the "quality" virtue. There are no manufacturers' mistakes or rejects here. The furniture is useful, friendly, good.

Bridges Over Ravines Would Be the Most Costly Item.

A scenic highway unsurpassed in Northern Minnesota can be made on the road-bed of the old St. Paul & Duluth railroad.

That is the conclusion reached by engineers of the state highway commission, Duluth, Carlton and Cloquet people who went over the road yesterday.

Winding along the shore of the St. Louis river, the road runs through a beautiful country between Fond du Lac and Carlton. The road-bed is in good condition, and the only improvement needed is the construction of bridges over the ravines, which in some places are deep and wide.

The greatest obstacle to be met with is the ravines. There are six of them, over 100 feet deep and from 200 to 300 feet across. A few of them could be filled by the roadbed, but the construction of culverts would be possible in other cases. The road would not necessarily have to be on the old grade all the way, and the difficulties presented by the ravines could thus be minimized.

It is estimated that the improvement of the road would cost $70,000. The distance from Fond du Lac to Thompson is nine miles, with only one and one-half miles in St. Louis county. The plan is to build the road under the Ellwell law. Members of the county boards of Carlton and St. Louis counties, and land owners along the route are said to be favorable to the project, so it can very likely be carried through as soon as the necessary initiative is taken.

Those who went over the road yesterday met at Thompson and walked first to the Grand Northern Power company's plant, where lunch was taken. The walk to the road was followed by the afternoon. Every member of the party expressed himself as satisfied that the road could be improved for a highway and that it would be a valuable development. The scenic feature was also discussed as important from the standpoint of entertainment of out-of-town visitors.

There are two roads between Duluth and Carlton, but neither is as direct nor as beautiful as the scenic standpoint as the proposed new road. As the greater part of the road is in Carlton county, the people in that county are expected to take the initiative, and it is thought that they will soon place the matter before the state highway commission under the Ellwell law.

The party which went over the road yesterday included George W. Cooley, engineer for the state highway commission; J. H. Muller, assistant engineer; H. V. Eva, secretary of the Duluth Commercial club; Judge William A. Cant and Mr. Thomas A. Williams, a landscape gardener of Duluth; C. L. Dixon, J. E. Lyles, C. J. McNair, J. C. P. Osborne, C. E. Peterson, C. L. Carlson, J. E. Lyles, G. B. Vibert, editor and owner of the Cloquet Pine and Lake, and the following of Carlton: J. E. Green, Martin Cain, F. A. Watkins and H. C. Olenberg.

he announces himself in favor of the Progressive party, the staff supporters will get busy in framing plans to defeat him, and should he announce himself in support of the nominee of the Republican national convention, the Roosevelt committee will surely place a state ticket in the field.

The plan of the Progressive for tomorrow's convention was now formulated. It is for the calling of the convention on order at 1 o'clock by Provisional State Chairman Baker, to be followed by a motion that the Wisconsin organization be made permanent at once and that Wheeler P. Goodwood be elected chairman of the convention. The program calls for delivery of good and this part of the program undoubtedly will be carried out.

IS YOUR CHILD'S TONGUE COATED?
If Cross, Feverish or Stomach Sour, It Means Waste-Clogged Bowels.

Children dearly love to take delicious Syrup of Figs and nothing else cleans and regulates their tender little stomachs, liver and 30 feet of bowels so promptly and thoroughly. Children get bilious and constipated just like grown-ups. Then they get sick, the tongue is coated, stomach sour, breath bad; they don't eat or rest well; they become feverish, cross, irritable and don't want to play. Listen, Mothers—for your child's sake don't force the little one to swallow nauseating castor oil, violent cathartic or harsh irritants like Cathartic pills. A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs will have your child smiling and happy again in just a few hours. Syrup of Figs will gently clean, sweeten and regulate the stomach, make the liver active and move on and out of the bowels all the constipated matter, the sour bile, the foul, clogged-up waste and poisons, without causing cramps or griping.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging or injuring your child. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful. Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package. Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious, tasteful, genuine and reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

district, and Frank E. Guernsey, Fourth district, Republican, were re-elected by increased majorities, and Furrer Goodwin, Republican, supplanted Congressman Samuel W. Gould, Democrat, in the Third district. The Democratic candidate in the Second district, Congressman D. J. McIllicuddy, was re-elected.

The new legislature will stand on a joint ballot of 44 Republicans and 73 Democrats, with 10 districts yet to report. The state senate will be made up of 22 Republicans and 8 Democrats, with one district missing. The house will be composed of 73 Republicans and 70 Democrats, with nine districts missing. This majority will be sufficient to elect Governor Edmund C. Burke, Jr. of Augusta as United States senator in place of Senator Chas. D. Spooner, who was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator William P. Frye, Republican.

Presidential Vote Uncertain.
Political observers were in some doubt as to the effect of the Republican victory and the attitude of the Progressive leaders regarding the national election in November. All of the Progressive leaders were identified with the Republican party in yesterday's election.

Taft Much Pleased.
Beverly, Mass., Sept. 10.—President Taft was greatly pleased with the Republican victory in Maine. It was the best political news of the president's life since he entered the White House.

The president was so interested in the bulletins that he remained up until an early hour this morning to receive returns. He was particularly cheerful when he learned that the Maine legislature will be Republican on a joint ballot, assuring his party of another vote in the United States senate.

Having read the latest returns and breakfasted today, the president started for Myopia and the golf links.

Mrs. Taft and the Taft children were just as happy over the Maine result as the president. Mrs. Taft did not retire until a late hour, while Robert and the Taft boys stayed up with their father.

Although the president had no statement to make about the Maine result, his friends here were not so reticent. They found much cheer in it and were sanguine of the effect in other states. According to their view, the result will serve to keep in line many Republicans who were wavering toward the Progressives.

It will be an example, they say, to the doubtful ones of what can be accomplished where a solid front is presented to the Democrats. Some of the president's advisers were so far as to say the outcome in Maine would bring back into the Republican ranks many leaders and many of the rank and file who have deserted it for the new party.

SYMPATHIZERS OF STRIKERS HURL STONES AT STREET CARS

the mob, and says that he was throwing things at the car. When the police arrived they sought to disperse the crowd. Then the riot began, and a crowd of about 100 men, many of whom were carrying stones, gathered in as fast as possible and dumped into the street a wagon and taken to the police headquarters.

Plead Guilty.
The men who were arrested last night entered pleas of guilty to unlawful assembly when they were taken to the police court this morning. Andrew Peterson, who led a rush to take a "lay away" from a policeman, got $30 and costs or thirty days in the county jail.

Sam Hood, who the police characterized as a trouble maker, got $10 and costs or ten days in the county jail. The others each got $5 and costs or three days in the county jail. They gave their names as August Carlson, Andy Olson, Jens Steppens, Ole Jonsson, Louis Olson, William Rasmussen, Hans Dahl, Philip Carlson and Alfred Hagen.

The court read all of them a severe lecture. Judge Windom told them that if they are brought in again on similar charges they would be in danger of getting thirty days in the county jail without the option of a fine.

On the way to the police station several of those who had been arrested relieved their pockets of stones and other missiles which they had gathered. These were thrown into the street and taken to the police headquarters. The court then turned to the owners of the car who had been damaged. They were told they would have received more severe sentences.

Will Hold Parade.
To refute the statement made by Manager Warren that not more than sixty men are on strike, the strikers held a determined parade to be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon. They will gather in Eighth avenue west and march to the police station on Superior street and march to Third avenue east, then back again on Superior street, and finally to the police station.

There are not many cars running today and service on all lines is slow. Manager Warren says, however, that the only real hardship has been during rush hours, but that that will be remedied by tomorrow for he has enough "students" to operate all of the regular and special cars on hand now and will have them broken in before the day is out. A number of men were released yesterday from the Twin Cities and put to work and thirty arrived from Chicago this morning and were taken to the car barns at once. A number of men have been at the car barns supplying for the jobs that are open. When one of the strike leaders heard this morning that men had arrived from Chicago, he laughed and said:

"These are the regulars; they are just the ones we want to see arrive, for there will be no fares turned in to or street railway offices when they get to work."

The strikers held a meeting last evening at Sloan's hall, Twentieth avenue west, and were addressed by a number of speakers, chief among whom was E. J. Kelly, who advised peaceable methods and gave assurances of the support of the citizens so long as the violence devolves. Following the public meeting, at which $32 was contributed for the support of the strikers, a secret meeting was held. At this, it is asserted, ninety-four men were sworn into the strike, and it is asserted that six more joined this morning, pulling their cars into the barns and quitting because of the seeming general sympathy with the strikers. The strikers are now awaiting the arrival this evening of their international secretary, J. Orr of Duluth, and will have conferences with Manager Warren of the street railway company.

The strikers maintain a peaceful attitude everywhere, and while most of them cluster about the car barns today, for it happens to be pay day, no loud talk, "scabs" or any form of violence is indulged in. Six policemen are on duty at the car barns, but are having an easy time of it.

the couple were located at a fashionable Broadway hotel, where they had registered as the Nolan and wife, and the girl broke down and told the detectives she had met Nolan and had changed her mind about going with him. Nolan had nothing to say to the detectives and was released on $1,000 each bail for appearance in court today.

DIPLOMAT JUMPS BAIL

er Jefferson shortly after his arrival here Friday. The McKivier girl had been enlisted by her brother to the care of a stewardess on the vessel, with instructions to remain aboard until Saturday when she was to be sailed for Scotland on a ticket purchased by her father.

The couple were located at a fashionable Broadway hotel, where they had registered as the Nolan and wife, and the girl broke down and told the detectives she had met Nolan and had changed her mind about going with him. Nolan had nothing to say to the detectives and was released on $1,000 each bail for appearance in court today.

Disappeared From Court.
At the opening of the Tombs court today Summer Gerard, who had furnished the cash bail, appeared for Nolan and asked for a postponement of the arraignment for two weeks and a continuance of the $1,000 bail. The court allowed the postponement for one week, but before fixing the amount of the bail ordered the attorney to prepare a formal complaint. While the complaint was being drafted the court adjourned, taking with him Nolan, who had been waiting in the corridor outside the courtroom.

Ten minutes later the assistant district attorney appeared with the complaint and a search was made for Nolan and Gerard. Not finding either, the court ordered the amount of the bail continued. One of the detectives in the room, taking with him Nolan, who had been waiting in the corridor outside the courtroom, returned to the court.

Eloped With Another Man.
During the proceedings the McKivier girl wept copiously, and became hysterical when told that her brother, William McKivier, secretly married in Newport News last August to James Foster, watchman at a New York News garage, and had repented that also.

An hour after Nolan's bail had been declared forfeited detectives told Magistrate Murphy they had found Nolan in Attorney Gerard's office. "Well, where is he?" demanded the court.

"Why, Mr. Gerard said the case had been put over for a week and the same bail continued," one of the detectives replied.

Did Not Report for Job.
Washington, Sept. 10.—Henry E. Nolan, the young diplomat arrested in New York charged with abduction, was confirmed by the senate as secretary of legation at Panama on Aug. 27. Nolan, who was born here but was appointed from Illinois, had passed the examinations necessary to his appointment and was ordered to report for instructions. He failed to do so, and has not communicated with the state department. The government will take no action until the courts pass upon the case.

Is Yale Graduate.
Chicago, Sept. 10.—John R. Nolan, who lives in Chicago, said he expected to hear from his son.

"My son took the examination for the consular service four weeks ago and was appointed to Panama because he is a good linguist," said Mr. Nolan. "He graduated from Yale in 1897 and decided to be a scholar rather than go into business. I don't believe he is in any serious trouble."

HEAR MONEY PLAN LAUDED

stone. Commenting on the favorable action on the Aldrich suggestion taken by the convention at New Orleans last year, he urged the delegates to continue their efforts to secure legislation by congress.

"The association should stand by its guns in this important matter in the fullest sense of the word," said President Livingston. "I don't believe it is necessary to support the bill as previously recommended, and again go on record as favoring its adoption."

The convention brought to Detroit between two and three thousand delegates from the United States, its territories and Canada.

As a delegate of Robert W. Bonynge of Denver, member of the national monetary commission, discussed the morning session, Mr. Bonynge discussed "Banking and Currency Reform" and said in part:

"Our banking and currency system is universally recognized as thoroughly unsound. The defects in the existing system that must be remedied no matter what changes are made in the responsibility of framing the legislation are: Our unscientific treatment of bank reserves, the rigidity of our credit system and the lack of cooperation between our independent banks."

Present System Bad.
"Our present system restricts the loaning power of banks at times when reserves should be freed to meet the needs of the solvent business men, and thereby intensifies, if it does not actually creates, the panic. Our scattered reserves are wholly ineffective for use in emergencies. Our bank notes are not redeemable in response to business needs. Even the commercial paper held by the banks is not truly liquid assets. Each separate bank in times of stress is concerned only in strengthening its own reserves. The sole method available for that purpose is the calling of loans. The solution for all practical purposes lies upon our entire credit organization."

Only Local Banks.
"We have only local banks. They furnish banking facilities to their own communities. They are indispensable. As it was necessary to organize the federal government to guard our national interests and to legislate on those subjects affecting us as a nation, so we must have some national organization of the banks for national financial purposes. The independence of the units must be absolutely preserved. The powers given to the federal government must be strictly limited to those that are national in character. The form of organization must be such as to insure its operation in the interest of and as a support to all legitimate business, and must be wholly free from sectional, political or selfish financial control."

"When this organized it must be empowered to act as custodian for the reserves of the banks, to redeem their short term commercial paper, to provide a safe sound bank currency that will automatically adjust itself to the constant changes in business requirements, to act as the government's fiscal agent and to represent in all national and all international financial affairs."

The Aldrich Plan.
"A plan to accomplish these purposes has been before the country for nearly a year. It is contained in the unanimous report made to congress by the national monetary commission recommending the establishment of a national reserve association."

"Some objections have been urged to the plan of the proposed organization, and the machinery provided for its operation. If there are defects in the plan, they should be specifically pointed out and suggestions offered for their correction. Mere denunciation of proposed measures without offering some substitute is not at all helpful. It is believed that the more the plan of the monetary commission is studied and analyzed, the more it will grow in favor. But whether it does or not, the problem of monetary reform remains with us. A solution for it must be found. We will be unworthy of our inheritance if we fail in this effort."

TALKS ABOUT THE PARTY

Wilson Discusses Politics Before the New York Press Club.

Says Democrats Are Only Force United Enough to Go Ahead.

New York, Sept. 10.—Governor Woodrow Wilson worked from early morning until late last night mapping out campaign plans at Democratic headquarters and appealing to the voters of New York city in three speeches. Over a big map, the Democratic candidate discussed with the executive officers of the campaign speaking in various parts of the city. Then he moved to Union Square and before two big crowds of thousands of people he delivered his first public address. In the late afternoon he went to the residence of Chairman McCombs at Poughkeepsie. The governor said McCombs was slowly recovering, and thought he would be back in the city within three weeks.

At the New York Press club the governor delivered his principal address of the day. He was enthusiastically applauded as he analyzed the three political parties.

"The trouble with the tariff," the governor said, "has been that it is one of the most colossal systems of deliberate patronage that has ever been conceived, and the main trouble is that protection stops where patronage begins."

Discussed Third Party.
Governor Wilson questioned the ability of leaders of the Progressive party, if elected, to carry out any part of the policies of its platform. Much of the speech was devoted to an analysis of the Progressive party plans, although he gave some attention to the record of the Republican party and predicted a victory for united Democracy.

He said in part:

"I have come here tonight for the purpose of discussing as far as possible, the situation, and I hope that in doing so I shall do injustice to no one and realize that the situation is not what it appears to be. I am not one of those who believe that the right tactics in politics is to deprecate the men who are opposed to you and belittle and misrepresent the forces with which you have to contend. I ought to be able to do this. I am forward and fair determination of what it is we are to agree on and do, and how we are to work in the great field of our common action."

His Own Attacks.
My feeling about my own candidacy for the presidency is that if I cannot be elected, I am not going to run. I want to feel, if I am elected, that I am speaking for purposes and impulses and judgments of the people of the United States.

"I want to discuss the three parties now seeking your support. There are three parties in the United States, and it is not out of any disrespect to the parties that I have commanded only a small number of votes in the past that I am making them out of the reckoning for the present."

"Let us consider, first, the Republican party. The Republican party is a party of men who have been allowed to lead and direct the Republican party. The Republican party, as represented by those men, is the very party which has got us into the difficulties we are now trying to get out of."

Stupidity Worse Than Knavery.
Mark you, I am not saying that the leaders of the party knew that they were doing us an evil or that they intended to do us an evil. For my part, I am very much more afraid of the man who does a bad thing and knows it, than I am of the man who does a bad thing and does not know it. I think that in public affairs stupidity is more dangerous than knavery, because it is harder to fight and harder to expose.

"These gentlemen, whatever may have been their intentions, linked the government of the United States with the men who control the big business of the United States. They may have done it innocently, or they may have done it corruptly, without adding to the argument at all. Provided you admit that they tied the government of the United States to the big business interests of the United States, you have admitted my point. And they themselves cannot escape from that alliance."

Campaign Funds.
"Here is the old question of campaign funds: I take the side of the men representing a particular interest, that is, the big business interests, the tariff, I take it with the knowledge that most of those gentlemen will expect me not to forget their interest in that schedule, and that they will take a political position that they were not damaged by too great a change in that schedule. Therefore, if I take their money I am bound to them by a sort of tacit pledge of honor, and if I desert them I change the whole character of the government."

The men I am interested in are the men who never have a line in the newspapers, who never get a line in the newspapers.

who never got a moment on the platform, who never have access to the people, who are not responsible for the conduct of government, but who go along with the nation to their work every day, carrying the burden of the world. How are they to be understood by the masters of finance, if only the masters of finance are consulted.

Masters of Finance.
The masters of finance ought to be consulted, because they are the people of the United States; but they ought to be consulted only by the people of the United States. There is a large body of men, who are not responsible for the conduct of government, but who go along with the nation to their work every day, carrying the burden of the world. How are they to be understood by the masters of finance, if only the masters of finance are consulted.

If Third Party Wins.
If this new party is preferred on the fifth of November, will it be in a position to clear the decks and set the government free to act? The central proposal of its platform is a centralized like the present government have conceived that it was singularly well adapted to the situation. If it is to be a party of men who are not responsible for the conduct of government, but who go along with the nation to their work every day, carrying the burden of the world. How are they to be understood by the masters of finance, if only the masters of finance are consulted.

LARGE SHAFT IS TO BE SUNK

Whiteside and La Rue Opening Mine at Presque Isle River.

Ironwood, Mich., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first carload of machinery for the new mining district of Gogebic county arrived at Marquette last week. A large shaft is to be sunk to the east bank of Presque Isle river, to open up ore proved by diamond drills about two years ago. Messrs. Whiteside and La Rue of Duluth have great confidence in the property and are showing their faith by the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars in its development. The opening of the Gogebic mine means a great deal, not only to Marquette, but to the entire Gogebic range. South of Marquette, in Vilas county, other watersheds are being developed. The success of these explorations will bring several other companies into the Gogebic range in the hope of finding rich ore bodies.

S. B. HARTMAN, M. D.
In 1860 I was practicing medicine in Millersville, Pennsylvania, a thriving farming community. A prominent citizen of that locality called at my office one day in a very feeble condition. So much so he had to be assisted in alighting from his wagon.

I found on questioning him that he had been afflicted for about two years. He had consulted various doctors, among them a specialist from Philadelphia. They pronounced his disease to be Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was gradually failing in strength, losing flesh rapidly, and altogether presented a very pitiable spectacle, the remnant of a once strong and happy man.

I had been treating a neighbor of his successfully. This neighbor had highly recommended me and thus it was he had come to me.

He told me that the doctors had practically given up his case as hopeless and he felt free to consult any other physician. I hesitated to take anything more than the other physicians had done. I told him so, yet he insisted upon my prescribing. I was a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, and as one of the consulting physicians had been a rule book in that college it seemed to me quite unlikely that I would be able to do any more than had been done, but I prescribed what seemed to be the best thing under the circumstances.

He went away and in a week he returned saying he was no better, that he was still losing ground. He judged that he had taken the same medicine before. No doubt he had. But he wished me to prescribe again. I did so.

This went on for about two months, the patient failing all the time, and was becoming thoroughly discouraged with the case.

One day the patient said to me, "Doctor, why don't you give me the medicine you gave my neighbor? He is all thought he would die, but your medicine cured him. This was why I came to you. Why not give me the same medicine you gave him?"

WILLIAM REDMOND TO MEET IRISH LEAGUE

Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—Michael J. Ryan of this city, president of the United Irish League of America, has received a letter from John E. Redmond, the Irish home rule leader, stating that William Redmond would sail from Ireland on Thursday of this week to attend the national convention of the league to be held in Philadelphia the latter part of this month. Redmond, who is a native of Great Britain, is concerned, the battle for home rule has been won. "Our only embarrassment," says Redmond, "is in the attitude taken up by a section of the people of Ulster."

"This attitude will not, of course, prevent the passage of the home rule bill and my own strong belief is that after that measure has been passed, the law with that strong common sense which characterizes Northern Irishmen, will be able to deal with the situation."

more he called at my office for another bottle of medicine, which was his last call. A month or so afterwards a neighbor of his called and got a bottle of the same medicine, saying that his patient was practically well. He was attending to his duties about his large farm.

I had given him the Neutralizing Mixture which was a remedy that I had used before only for bowel disease. The same remedy that I had since been sold under the name of Peruna. I could not quite understand how it was that Peruna should operate so beneficially in such seemingly different diseases. I had not yet grasped the correct philosophy of disease. I did not then clearly comprehend that catarrh may affect the kidneys as well as the bowels. Nothing of that sort was taught in the books in those days. It took me years before I clearly comprehended that catarrh was a disease liable to attack any organ of the body.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membranes. The mucous membranes line every organ, duct and cavity in the body. Thus it is catarrh may settle anywhere where there is a mucous membrane.

Peruna is my remedy for all these cases. I insist upon it, however, that Peruna is not a cure-all. I use it for just one disease, catarrh. But as catarrh is liable to affect so many different parts, disturb so many different functions, derange so many different organs, it does seem to many people as if I regarded Peruna as a cure-all.

The above narrative is simply one of the many cases in my early practice that brought me to comprehend the wonderful efficacy of Peruna in such a variety of diseases. The kidneys may be affected by other diseases than catarrh, but the average case of kidney disease is catarrh of the kidneys. All cases of Bright's disease begin with catarrh of the kidneys. This being true, and it also being true, that Peruna is a catarrh remedy, it follows that a great many cases of kidney disease would be benefited by Peruna. Peruna is for sale at all drug stores.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna, such as would say, "This formula is now put out under the name of KATARRH, manufactured by KATARRH COMPANY, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet."

JUSTICE FOR SPURNED WIFE

Finds Husband Who Deserted Her in Finland Many Years Ago.

Court Orders Him to Support Her or Go to Jail.

To the wife he deserted twenty-three years ago in Finland, who but two years ago herowed money to come to this country to join him and who was later spurned and repudiated, John Erik Kellonen, alias John Maki, a St. Louis county householder, must now pay $100 in cash and $15 a month for the rest of her natural life or go to jail.

She is Mrs. Hilja Maria Kellonen, 63 years old and ten years the senior of the man she claims proved faithless. Both were in district court yesterday before Judge Leland fighting out a suit for separate maintenance. After hearing the evidence, the court decided against Kellonen and made an order requiring him to support her during her declining years.

The story of Mrs. Kellonen which was told through an interpreter in court yesterday begins with an Eastern day marriage at Karstula, Finland, April, 1889. The first eight years of wedded life were congenial, she testified. One child was born, John Kellonen, now grown up and a resident of this county.

Sometime during the year 1899, she asserted, Kellonen decided to go to America. She expected to join him as soon as he was settled in a new home. Kellonen came to Minnesota and located on a homestead.

According to the woman's story, she never heard from him afterwards, although she wrote persistently for seven years, she learned from other sources that he received the letters, she says.

About two years ago she sent her son to this country to find his father and attempt to bring about a reconciliation. He was told by her to come to Minnesota. She borrowed $125 from friends with which to make the trip.

When she arrived, she claims that Kellonen refused to have anything to do with her. Then the advice of her son she started suit for separate maintenance.

MAY MAN A BATTLESHIP

Duluth Naval Militia Will Have Chance to Show Training.

Duluth naval reserves with members of the Great Lakes squadron from other ports, may man a battleship in the New York naval review which will take place Oct. 1.

The plan is to place the reserves and officers on a regular battleship in order that the navy department may get a direct line on their training. This will be the great sport as well as the training for the local boys, said a member of the naval militia this morning. "It is just what they need to round them out. They would make good, too, I think."

A meeting will be held this evening at the armory at which time instructions to the trip to New York will be given. As many of the men are away from their business will make the trip. The navy department will not expect the present month will be spent at hard drill that the shipboard boys may not be forced to take a back seat if they are called on to show what they know of navy tactics.

The New York naval review is one of the big events of the year and the Duluth boys are congratulating themselves that they are to get in on it.

The officers and all members of the local militia be on hand for the meeting tonight that the number who can go may be determined and instructions as to the trip given.

URGES EMPLOYERS TO BE CAUTIOUS

Miss Poirier Calls Attention to Law on Child Labor.

Duluth employers should be on their guard as to violations of the child labor law, according to Miss Jean Poirier, state factory inspector.

Several children, under the age of 16, and who have had the required amount of schooling, have applied to Miss Poirier recently for permits to take jobs.

Under the state law, it is illegal for an employer to require a child under the age of 16 to work more than eight hours a day, she said. "This should be generally understood in Duluth."

Miss Poirier stated that many of the factories and other places where child labor was employed were now working on a full basis and were also employing children.

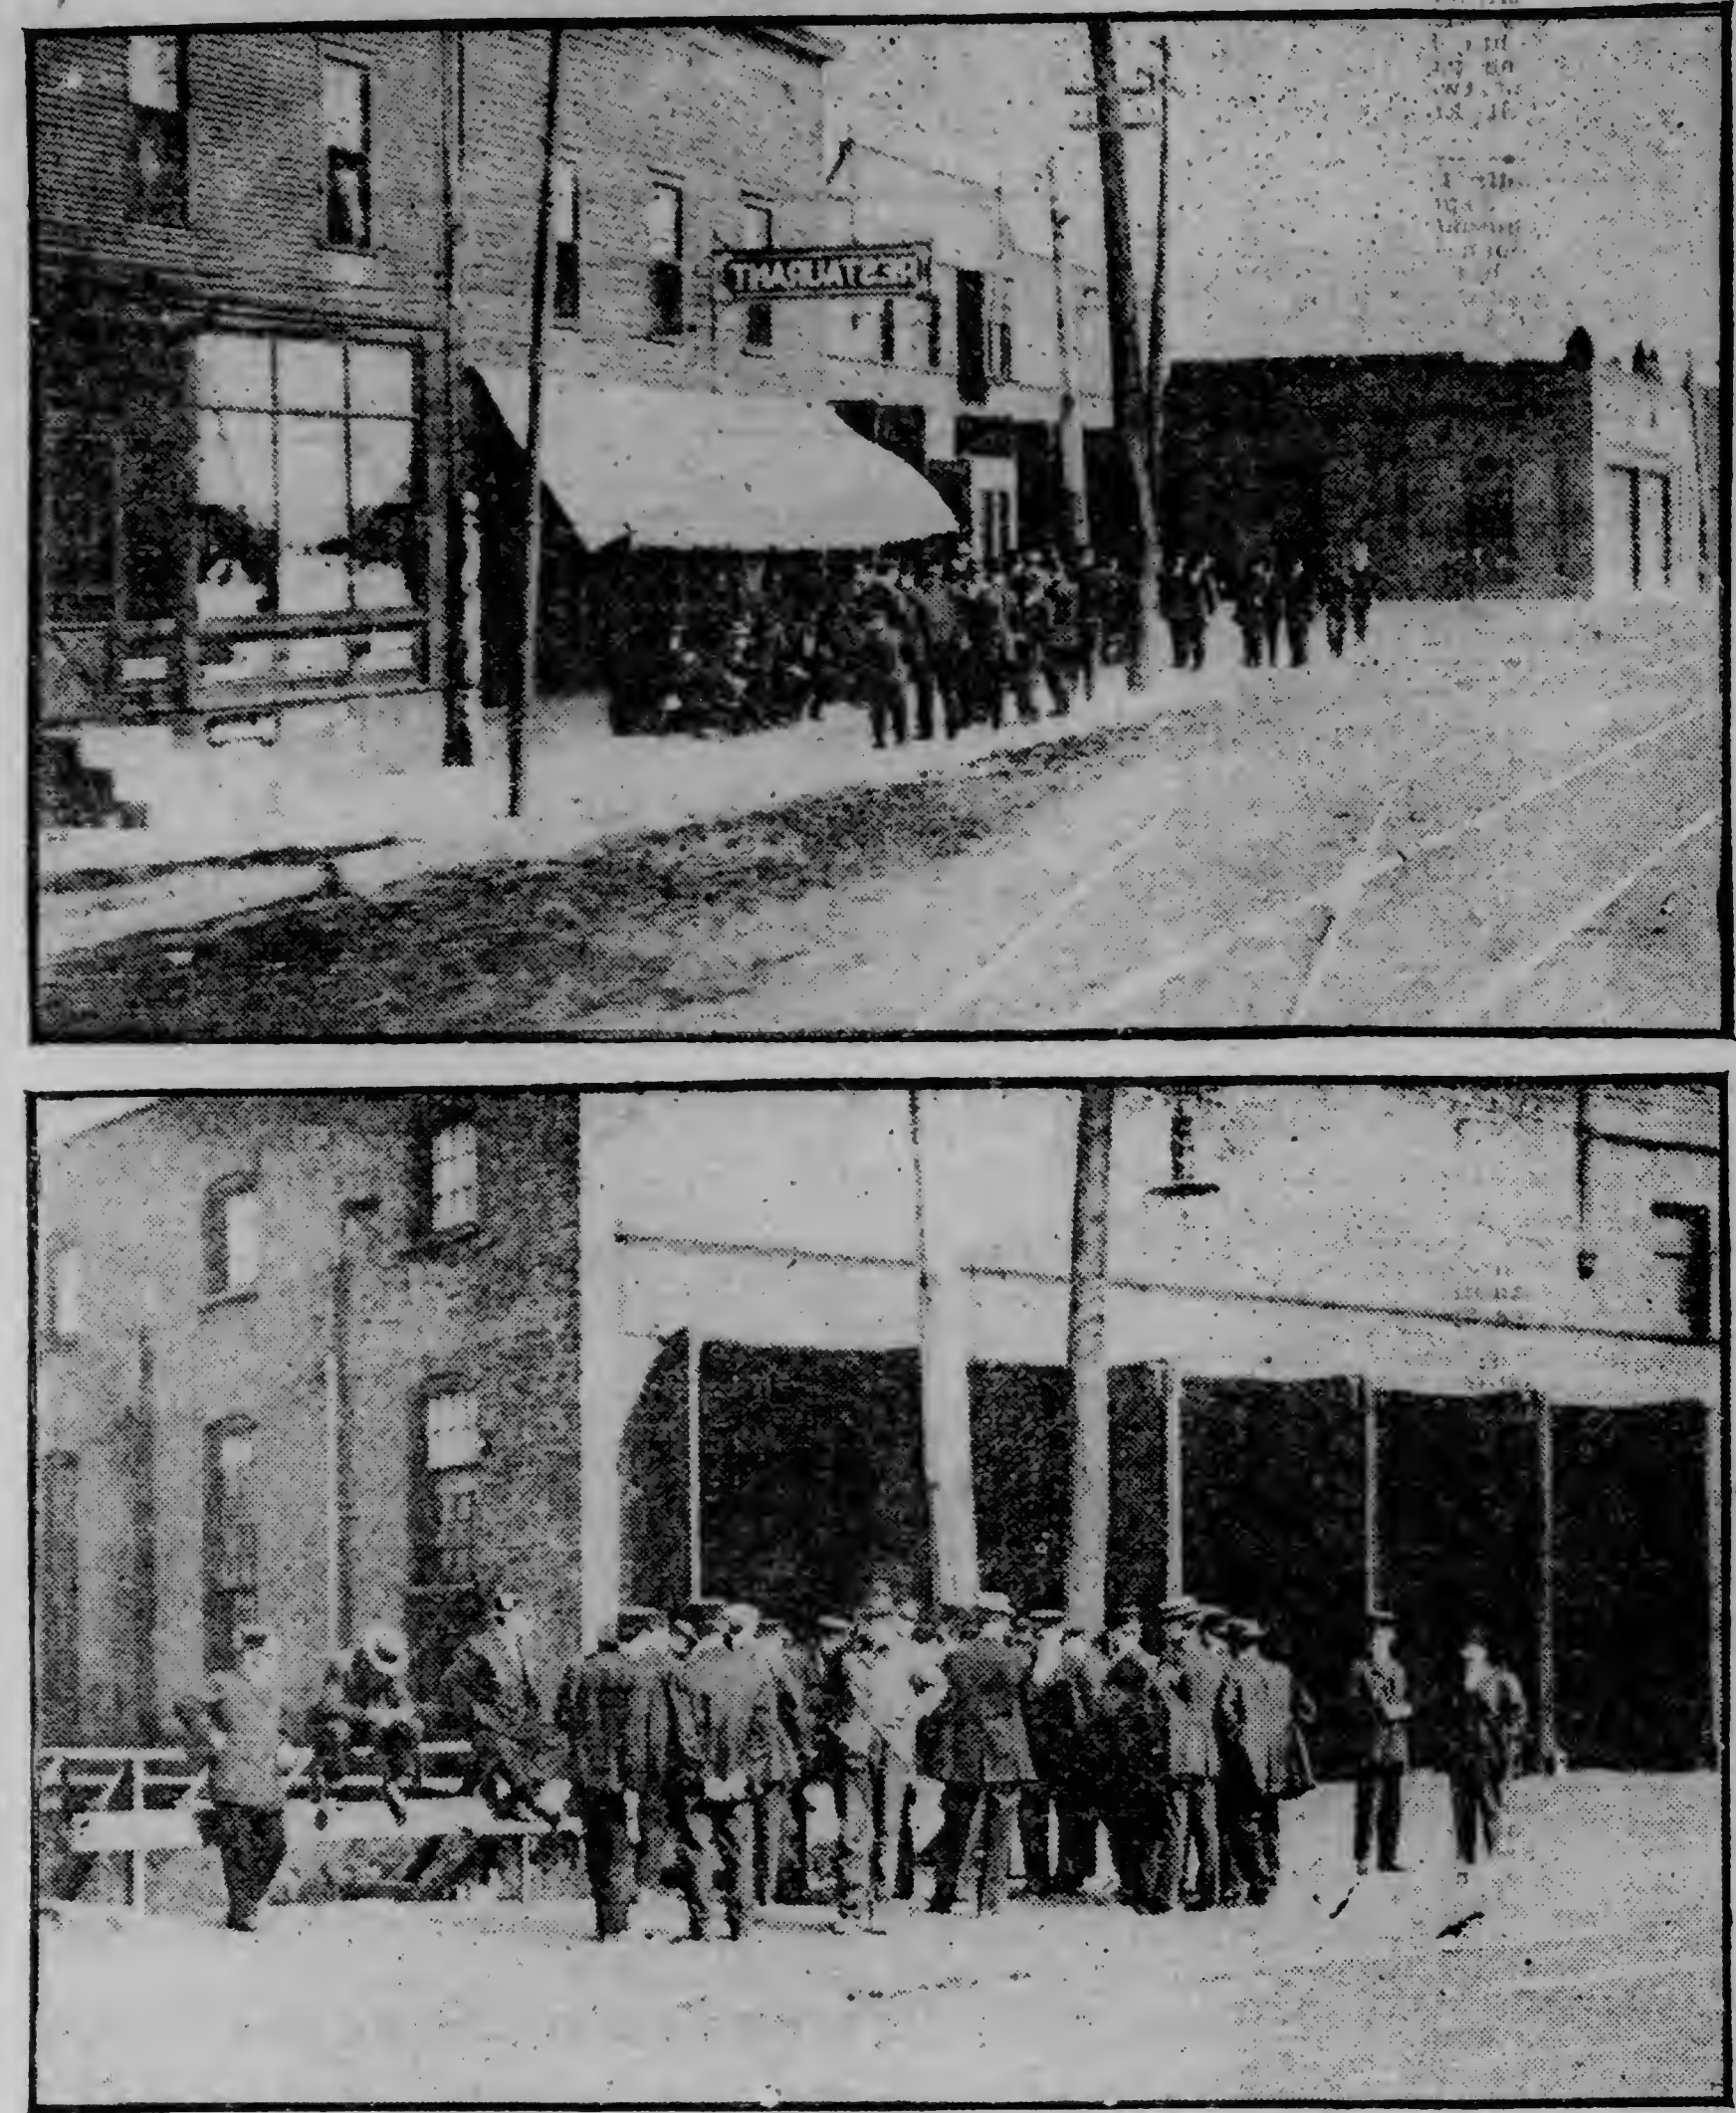

For every violation of the law, she says, the employer is liable to a fine of from $25 to $100.

"CRO-O-OL WAR" IS OVER; SAMARITANS BURY HATCHET

The "Cro-o-ol war" is over in the imperial council of the Modern Samaritans, both factions involved making concessions; that is, it is all settled except that the validity of the July meeting of the imperial council, which Judge H. A. Dancer, in district court, said was not legal, will be tested in court upon stipulation confining the test to the validity of the meeting and nothing else. The reason for this is that it will establish the validity of certain constitutional amendments adopted at that meeting and to which there was some objection.

The agreement was reached shortly after noon today and was signed by O. E. Collier, A. E. McManus, W. A. Hicken and H. J. Achenbach for the clique known as the Collier-McManus-Hicken faction; and by John Christie, Z. H. Austin, Don E. McLennan, John G. Ross, C. E. Bombardier, A. G. McKnight, for that vote known as the Christie-Austin faction. By its terms O. E. Collier surrenders the imperial presidency to C. E. Bombardier, and his place on the executive board to Don E. McLennan; W. A. Hicken remains a member of the imperial council and in the office of imperial treasurer; A. E. McManus remains his membership in the imperial council and his position as imperial general counsel of the order; and attorney's fees are granted to the Collier-McManus-Hicken faction provided the state insurance department approves; and a few other things.

The contestants profess that in burying the hatchet they have not marked the place of its interment.

DULUTH TEACHER KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Miss Kate E. Welsh, a teacher in the Jefferson school, was killed in an automobile accident at Anaconda, Mont., last evening.

The information was received in a telegram to her uncle, Patrick Doran, this morning. No particulars were given.

Miss Welsh left Duluth at the close of school last June for a visit in the West. She had just returned from an Alaskan trip and was visiting her sister, Mrs. John Gunnerson, at Anaconda, when the accident occurred.

She was to have returned to Duluth to resume her work in the Jefferson school in October.

Miss Welsh had taught in the Duluth schools for a number of years and was well known. She came here originally from L'Anse, Mich. Besides the sister at Anaconda, a brother, Thomas Welsh, lives at Bemidji. Disposition of the body has not yet been arranged for, but it will probably be taken to L'Anse for burial.

150 BABIES HAVE BEEN ENTERED IN THE GLASS BLOCK SHOW

About 150 babies have been guests at the baby show at the Glass Block store yesterday and today and have been weighed and taken their places in the contest for the prizes which will be awarded some time next week. The show will continue all of this week and all babies under 18 months of age are eligible for entry.

This has been somewhat of an innovation in shop displays and has proven of interest to mothers of babies and shoppers in general. The third floor of the shop with its dainty display of all kinds of articles for the little tots has been visited by a large number of guests.

EVERYBODY'S DOING IT. WHAT? WALKING TO AND FROM WORK

Everybody's doing it. What? Walking home and walking to work. Walking clubs are springing up in all parts of the city, not necessarily out of sympathy for the men, but because catching a car is a gamble. One club, organized since the strike of the street car men, starts at Twentieth avenue east each morning and the members are picked up all along the way to Third avenue west. The club looks like a jury at the latter mentioned point. There it disbands, the members going in different directions in the downtown district.

Only one club has been heard of at Lakeside. Five men plan to walk in daily while the strike lasts, starting at 7 o'clock. The distance is five miles and the five don't seem able to stir much enthusiasm in others, although it is hoped that the club will grow.

A club of school teachers starts from Fifteenth avenue east every morning at 7:30. They are all employed at centrally located schools. This club has grown from three to seven since Monday morning.

Woodland hasn't been heard from as yet. Duluth Heights has a club. The county road is used in bringing the members over the hill-top.

It is in the West end that the largest club are formed. There the street car men have many sympathizers and they are all walking.

The theaters feel the car strike more than any other business, for after walking to and from work, few people care to walk to the theater also.

Woodland hasn't been heard from as yet. Duluth Heights has a club. The county road is used in bringing the members over the hill-top.

It is in the West end that the largest club are formed. There the street car men have many sympathizers and they are all walking.

The theaters feel the car strike more than any other business, for after walking to and from work, few people care to walk to the theater also.

Only one club has been heard of at Lakeside. Five men plan to walk in daily while the strike lasts, starting at 7 o'clock. The distance is five miles and the five don't seem able to stir much enthusiasm in others, although it is hoped that the club will grow.

A club of school teachers starts from Fifteenth avenue east every morning at 7:30. They are all employed at centrally located schools. This club has grown from three to seven since Monday morning.

SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

TEN EYCK MAY MEET HACKETT

Duluth Coach May Accept Challenge of Baudette Man.

If James Ten Eyck, coach of the Duluth Boat Club, finds that he can round into shape to go a fast clip over the three-mile course, he will affix his signature to articles for a sculling match with James Hackett, recently beaten at Baudette for the American championship.

The sculling match has been much talked of in racing circles and a great many are anxious to see the former amateur star get into the professional game far enough to give old Jim Hackett a tussle.

In the amateur class Ten Eyck, like almost all of his family, was a star, but the question is as to his ability to get the kinks out of his joints and shoulders and be able to do the three-mile run in fast enough time to make it interesting. As there is to be a $500 side bet Ten Eyck attaches the greatest importance to the event.

Should the match come about, an effort will be made to have it staged here instead of at Baudette.

Prize in a Brierley monoplane, who came down after making twenty-three laps of the thirty laps, because of engine trouble.

Vedrine made an easy job of it. Starting before any of his competitors were out, he sailed around the pylons like a swallow, attaining in some of the laps almost two miles a minute. He then rested in his hangar while the American contestants withdrew and while Maj. Samuel Risher, chairman of the contest committee of the Aeroclub of America shook his head, saying the speed set by the Frenchman was too great to be met by any machine driven on this side of the Atlantic.

The only semblance of a neck and neck race came a few hours after Vedrine had alighted. Frey and Pravost ascended and Frey was soon overtaken by Pravost, who started two minutes later. At the fourteenth lap Pravost had left Frey far behind and at the time made by Vedrine. While steadily outdistancing Frey he lost on the French champion until at the twentieth lap he was 73 seconds behind Vedrine. That practically assured the trophy to Vedrine.

WEATHER WAS FINE FOR RACING

Hair Raising Finishes Feature Opening of Grand Circuit at Syracuse.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Ideal weather conditions, a large attendance and hair-raising finishes marked the first day's meeting of the grand circuit races at the New York state fair yesterday.

The meeting will continue through Friday. The feature was the Conway stakes. Longworth B. captured the first heat after a duel in the stretch with Sarah Ann Patch. The second heat was won by the same pair. Longworth B. won the race after Major O'Brien had taken the first two heats and Nellie Temple the next two. The fifth, sixth and seventh heats were hotly contested but Longworth B. had the speed and endurance and led Nellie Temple to the wire in the fourth week in October, either in New Orleans or in Memphis.

RITCHIE SURE TO MEET MANDOL

Billy Nolan Has Signed Contract Calling for Fight in October.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—Billy Nolan, manager of Willie Ritchie, exhibited a contract confirming the report that the San Francisco lightweight had been signed to fight Joe Mandol of New York. The contract is signed by Harry C. Coleman, Mandol's manager. The fight is to take place in the third or fourth week in October, either in New Orleans or in Memphis.

HOGAN BEATEN BY FRANKIE BURNS

Contest Characterized by Great Gameness on Part of Defeated Fighter.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 10.—In a contest characterized by great gameness on the part of the defeated man, Frankie Burns of Oakland eliminated "One Round" Hogan of San Francisco as a lightweight possibility by knocking him out in the tenth round of their fight yesterday. As early as the third round Burns proved himself Hogan's master, sending him to the mat four times in this round.

A grudge of long standing was settled by the fight. The hatred that existed was shown when force was necessary to send the belligerents to their corners on one or two occasions and the going had ended a round.

The contest was one of the bloodiest ever witnessed in a local arena and the gameness of Hogan in the face of a fusillade of face punches was its chief feature.

Burns took command as early as the third round, when a right cross caught Hogan on the point of the chin and sent him reeling against the ropes.

MAINSTAY OF THE INFIELD OF THE WASHINGTON TEAM

GANDIL OF Washington.

Chick Gandil, the first baseman of the Washington Nationals, at one time belated to the White Sox. Charlie Murphy of the Cubs wanted Gandil, but for some reason failed to come to terms with the Montreal management. Gandil has practically made the Washington team. He has not only made good as a fielder, but his batting has been a big factor in the success of the Nationals.

and then to the mat. Hogan struggled to his feet, but a series of similar jaw punches again toppled him over. Twice more, he was sent to the mat. Finally, only the timely clang of the gong saved Hogan from defeat.

Burns tried to end it in the fourth round, but Hogan weathered the attack and opened a deep gash over Burns' left ear and all but closed his left eye. Hogan gradually took on strength and confidence and administered much punishment to Burns.

The tenth round saw the end. With both fighters bleeding profusely, Burns met his opponent with a vicious left uppercut. Quick as a flash, he crossed his right hand over the jaw, and Hogan dropped to the floor. He struggled to his feet at the count, but the rest was easy for Burns, who planted a solid finishing punch to the chin and Hogan crashed to the mat and was counted out.

To some of these hardware men who were good customers, the company also sold lumber, he declared, and the association, through its secretary, A. L. Porter, objected to this, and the break resulted.

A number of letters written by Mr. Porter to retail dealers and other lumber manufacturers' organizations were offered in evidence.

MAY HAVE TO CALL OUT STATE MILITIA

SCORES OF DEPUTIES SWORN IN TO HELP PREVENT FURTHER RIOTS

Mayor, Sheriff and Chief of Police Hold a Conference.

Mayor Issues Proclamation—Commercial Club Wants the Saloons Closed.

CLOSE SALOONS.

At a general meeting of the board of directors and the executive committee of the public affairs of the city, it was unanimously recommended that the city government take immediate steps in co-operation with the county to protect the lives and property of the public and should forthwith order the closing of the saloons of the city until all danger of violence is past, and that the city government should be requested to tender its friendly offices to bring about a reconciliation between the employees of the street railway company and the management of that company.

DULUTH COMMERCIAL CLUB.
By F. W. F.A. Secretary.

Street car rioters will be in danger tonight of extreme measures on the part of the authorities. Every effort will be made to maintain order, particularly in the western part of the city, where violence has been the order the last two nights.

IRON RANGE TO RESCUE

Suburban Train Service Established for Lester Park Residents.

Three Trains in the Evening and Two in the Morning.

Trains will leave the Union depot for Lester Park this evening at 5, 6 and 7 o'clock.

Tomorrow morning trains will leave Lester Park at 7 and 8 a. m.

The Duluth & Iron Range is making a special rate, which will be in vogue during the strike. Ten cents carries the passenger from the Union depot to any point between there and Lester Park.

The company has made no arrangements for trains later than tomorrow morning, but if the street car strike continues trains for tomorrow will be arranged and the information as to time given to the public as early as possible tomorrow morning.

Trains were run in from Lester Park this morning at 7 and 8 a. m. and hundreds came to the downtown district on them. The trains stop at nearly every avenue.

INNOCENT CITIZENS IN DANGER FROM MOB RULE

"If it came to a stage where mobs can get the upper hand and rule this city," asked H. Phelps this morning.

"I know nothing of the merits of the street car strike, and do not sympathize with either party, but it is an outrage that innocent third parties cannot ride to and from their work in safety.

"Nobody seems to be paying any attention to the rights of innocent citizens, and our wives and children are liable to be struck by stones at any time.

"What good does it do to destroy $5,000 worth of glass in the street cars and the car company's office? The company has a right to have its property protected, and the citizens have a right to safe transportation.

"If the police and the mayor and the sheriff lack either the power or the backbone to deal with the situation, let's recall him and get somebody who will enforce protection of life and property. If our mayor hasn't the backbone to deal with the situation, let's recall him and get somebody who will enforce protection of life and property. If our mayor hasn't the backbone to deal with the situation, let's recall him and get somebody who will enforce protection of life and property."

POLICE UNABLE TO QUIET MOBS OF STRIKERS' FRIENDS

Riots in West End Increase in Violence and All Evening Car Service Is Abandoned.

Enough Men to Man the Cars But They Dare Not Take Them From Barns.

The state militia may be called out to protect the property of the street railway company and the lives and limbs of the passengers who have been the victims of the strike which is now the furore of Duluth.

So serious a stage did the rioting at the West end reach last evening that C. H. Troyer, chief of police, admitted that he was unable to cope with the situation and asked the sheriff's office for help. Sheriff Melning was on the ranges, but hurried back this morning to look over the situation, and it is considered likely that he will swear in as many deputies as possible to go on duty this evening. It may also be that he will be convinced that even deputies will be unable to handle the situation and will ask the governor for the assistance of the state troops. Herbert Warren, manager of the street railway company, this morning intimated that if some of the proper officials do not ask the governor for assistance he will ask that he will explain the situation fully to the state executive. There are three companies of the Third regiment, and this is the residence of E. E. Resche, lieutenant colonel of the Third regiment, and E. V. Evans, of the Duluth battalion. The result of the decision of the sheriff and the action of Mr. Warren, if taken, will be a development of later in the day.

There is no question but that the sheriff will feel impelled to swear in deputies. Chief Troyer told Manager Warren and Under Sheriff Dash that it will take 1,000 men to deal with the rioters. The conductor of the Monday night had no perceptible effect other than to bring out last night a larger and more destructive mob than before, a crowd which defied the police and fought with the bluecoats. It reached a point where some of the police had to draw revolvers and threaten the mob who were standing in the way of the cars. The mob was then ordered to get out of the way, and the cars were allowed to pass. The mob was then ordered to get out of the way, and the cars were allowed to pass.

Some of the cars furnished the picture during their progress along Superior street at the West end. The mob would assault the cars with sticks and stones, and some of the latter of the scuffling side, and these came shoving through the windows as rapidly as they could.

USE TRAIN IN NO LENIENCY WEST DULUTH THIS TIME

Several Hundred Suburbanites Bless the Northern Pacific Road.

Saves Them an Early Morning Walk of Five Miles.

West Duluthians looked to the Northern Pacific train to get to the city this morning.

There was an occasional car on both lines during the morning, but those who could reach the train felt that they did not want to take chances on the cars.

The train coming in from Fond du Lac carried several hundred people from the western suburb to the Union station, getting in at 8:30 o'clock, but fifteen minutes behind schedule. Many boarded the train when it stopped at Sixty-third avenue west and a much bigger crowd was taken aboard at the West Duluth station. The depot platform was black with people. Half an hour before the train was due. Long before the crowd stopped coming the ticket supply had been exhausted. Hundreds of people walked into the city from the West end. All the way from West Duluth to the West end could be seen groups of people gathered at the corners waiting for the street cars. Those living near the ends of the lines were able to get seats in the cars which were run. They filled up rapidly and scores who were further down could not get aboard.

Walter Douglas Reported Captured By Rebels in Mexico.

Agua Prieta Threatened By Rojas—Railroad Asks Protection.

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 11.—Walter Douglas, millionaire and general manager of the Phelps-Dodge mining company, is reported to have been captured between Agua Prieta and Nacozari by rebels. The rebels have cut the telegraph wires, making communication impossible.

The rebel leader, Col. Antonio Rojas, formally demanded the surrender of Douglas today. Unless the town surrendered within twenty-four hours, Rojas declared, he would attack the city.

The demand for the surrender of Douglas was brought into the city by John Scott, an American, who first was taken prisoner by Rojas and liberated on condition that he bring the rebel commander's challenge to the federal chief. Scott said Rojas has 900 well armed and well equipped men. The sudden appearance of the rebels in such force prevented the sending today of a searching party for Walter Douglas.

Intervention Less Likely.
Washington, Sept. 11.—Intervention in Mexico seemed a step further off today.

MAYOR LUNN WILL RUN FOR CONGRESS

Schenectady Socialists Have Stormy Meeting Over His Candidacy.

Schenectady, N. Y., Sept. 11.—After one of the stormiest meetings that has been held by the Socialists since they came into power in this city, Mayor R. Lunn has consented to withdraw his resignation as the party's choice for congress. Mayor Lunn will stand for nomination at the primary.

The meeting was featured by several bitter passages of personalities, in which it was intimated that those favoring Lunn's withdrawal were moved by personal ambitions, while those who were in the race were likewise actuated by personal motives in another direction.

DR. GROSE TO HEAD DEPAUW UNIVERSITY

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 11.—Rev. Dr. George R. Grose, pastor of one of the leading Episcopal churches of this city, has been elected president of Depauw university at Greencastle, Ind. The university has been without a head since Rev. Dr. Francis J. McConnell, elected bishop in Minneapolis last May.

NO STRIKE IN DR. DIMAS IN SUPERIOR STATE PRISON

Men Across the Bay Have Not Been Called Out.

Said to Be in Sympathy But Have No Grievance.

Superior street car men did not vote to strike, as was announced this morning.

R. Orr, international secretary of the street railway employees' union, and E. G. Hall, president of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor went to Superior yesterday and conferred with the street car men over there. All they asked, Mr. Hall said this morning, was for the moral support of the superior men, not requesting a strike yet. Another meeting with the superior men will be held today and it may be that at that time a strike will be asked for.

Word comes from Superior that the men are dissatisfied with the company's attitude regarding unions, but that on the other hand they are satisfied with the recent increase in wages and are not very strongly disposed to take up a fight for the recognition of unions at this time.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—At 11:45 o'clock today, Dr. D. F. Dimas, convicted of attempted arson, reached the state's prison at Stillwater and was "dressed in." His hair was cropped, he was measured under the Bercillon system, clad in khaki suit denoting second grade, and assigned to a cell. His number is 2756. It is probable he will be assigned to work tomorrow. At noon today he ate with the convicts without protest. He was surrounded by four officers of the law, shorn of all jewelry, but immaculately dressed. Dr. D. F. Dimas, former mayor of Cass Lake, Minn., and head of a band of rascals, this morning covered the last lap of the trip to state prison, where he will serve sentence for attempted arson. Silent and defiant, his head bowed, he walked into the prison.

TRIP A WEEK FOR WILSON

Democratic Nominee Tells Plans for the Rest of the Campaign.

Will Talk at the New York State Fair on Thursday.

Philadelphia, Sept. 11.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, while traveling from Atlantic City to Jersey City today, drew the distinction between a campaign "tour" and "trip." Earlier in the campaign the governor had announced that he would make no "speaking tour" of the country, but would fill a number of engagements on particular occasions.

"The difference," said the candidate with a smile, "is that a tour means a sweep of an entire section of the country, while a trip simply is going to a certain place or number of places and coming back home again. It is just like a baseball game. I take a trip around the bases, make a home run, and step up to the plate again after a little rest and make some more."

BIG BULL MOOSE VISITS PORTLAND

Roosevelt Is Given Fat Program in the Oregon City.

Portland, Or., Sept. 11.—When Col. Roosevelt leaves Portland tonight, he will again have opportunity to remark that he spent a "mildly busy day."

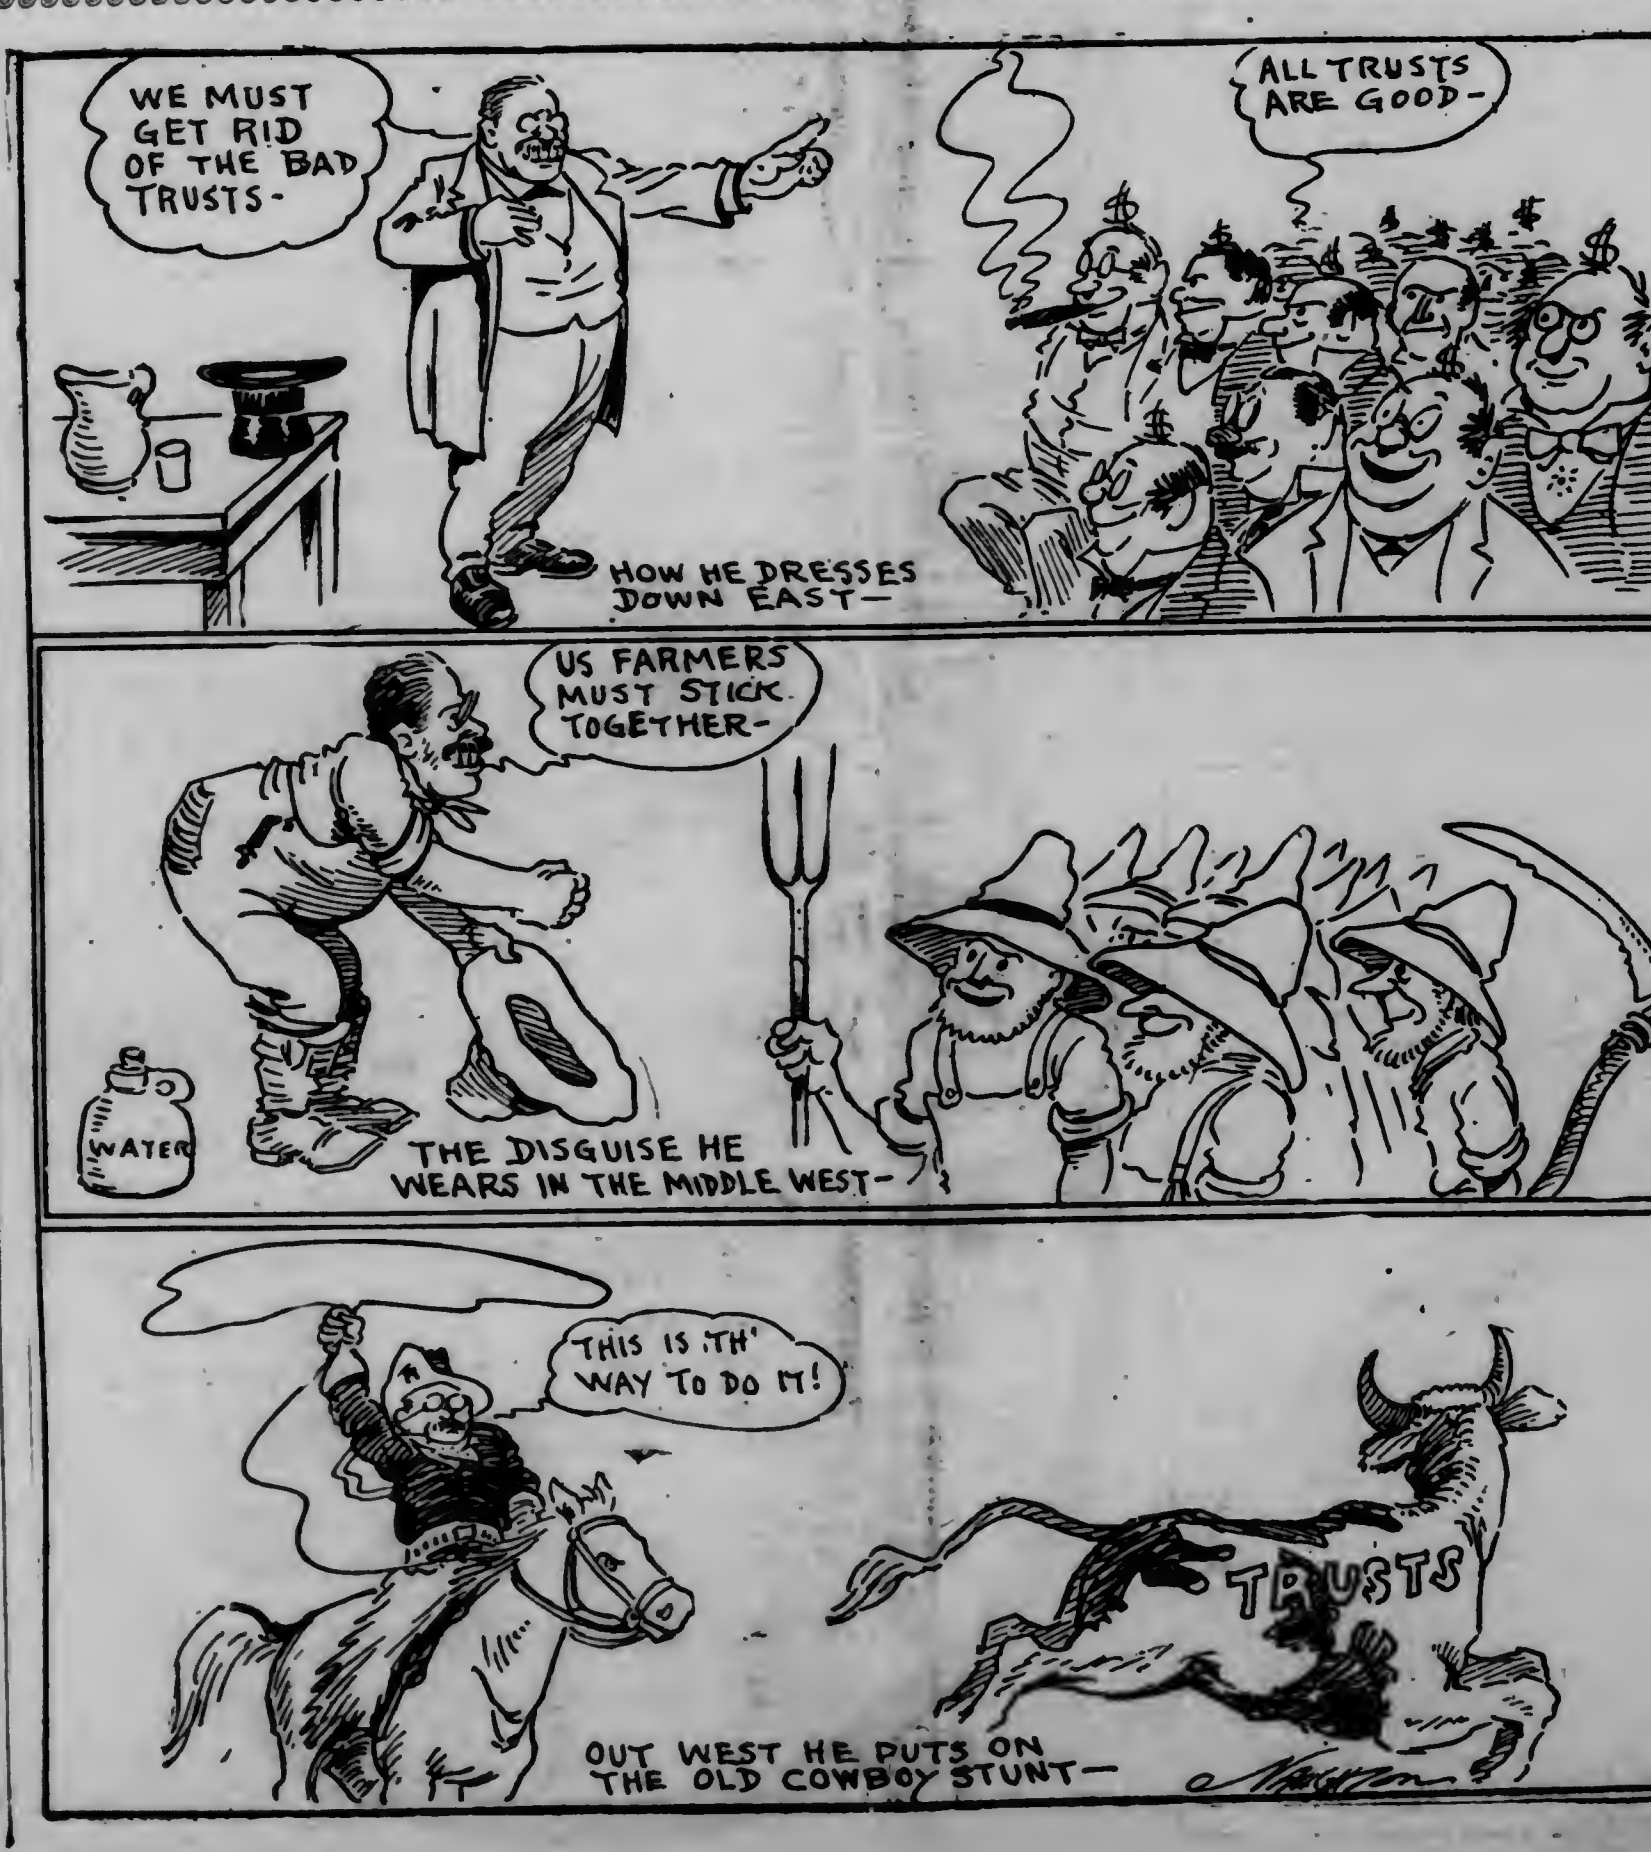

The program for his entertainment here gave him an hour to himself following the arrival of his train from Puget Sound early today, and another hour in the afternoon. Aside from these intermissions, his entire time was to be occupied in carrying out the lengthy schedule prepared for him by the local committee of the Progressive party. A conference with the leaders of the Progressive party in Oregon was expected to take up the entire forenoon. Brief talks to school children in several parts of the city and an address at the armory are to occupy the afternoon.

A visit to the Moose lodge will conclude the colonel's stay in Portland. From the lodge room of that order, he will go to his train, which will leave westward at 8 o'clock tonight.

DRESSING TO SUIT THE OCCASION.

ALLEGED THIEF LEAPS TO DEATH

Ira Willoughby Plunges From Tenth Story of Dayton Building.

Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 11.—Ira Willoughby jumped from a window on the tenth floor of the Railroad office building shortly after midnight this morning, when accused of the theft of valuable willow plumes. The body was crushed into an almost unrecognizable mass. Willoughby was at work in the building when officers came to arrest him. He was being escorted to the elevator when suddenly he broke away from the officers and dashed down the hall, leaped through the window.

DOZEN INJURED IN GAS EXPLOSION

Lighted Match Ignites Air in Room of Would-be Suicide.

New York, Sept. 11.—When a dozen or more persons were trying to resuscitate Philip Greck, a salesman, who had tried to take his life by inhaling gas this morning, someone in the excitement lit a match in the gas-filled room. There was a loud explosion and the floor. Seven persons were burned. One of them serious. The explosion sounded like a bomb, and there was a panic in the neighborhood. The explosion of the black and Greck will recover.

INCREASE IN VALUATION

St. Louis County Property Valued for Taxation at $290,984,780.

Nearly Entire Increase of $6,000,000 in City of Duluth.

St. Louis county is $6,000,000 richer this year than last. The 1912 assessed valuation of all taxable property in the county has been left at $290,984,780 by the board of equalization. It is not thought probable that any substantial change in the figure will be made by the state tax commission. In 1911 the total assessed valuation was $284,984,780. Nearly all of the increase is in the city of Duluth. The assessed valuation of taxable real estate in this county is now $274,689,419 and of personal property $10,295,361. In the city of Duluth the total assessed valuation is $19,062,109, divided as follows: $37,828,331 for real estate and $11,233,778 for personal property.

property. The city's total for 1911 was $40,601,841. In the city for this year, real estate assessed at $5,737,564 and personal property at $52,700 were exempted and the figures are not included in the total valuation. The large exemption in real estate is comprised principally by railroad holdings, city-owned property and churches. Railroads pay taxes direct to the state. According to the figures in the auditor's office, there were 12,272 persons in the county who were entitled to exemptions of $100 each on personal property as the total personal property exemption for the county was $1,227,200. In the city there were 7,527 persons exempted of $100 each. Corporations are not exempt from any portion of personal property taxes.

ALL MAY VOTE AT PRIMARIES

Those Registered Now Need Go Through No Other Formality.

A report was made this morning that election judges for the Second precinct of the Third ward, for which the polling place is at 1111 S. or 16th, had told voters yesterday that they could not vote at the primary election on their registration yesterday. The city clerk doubted the report. He said the election judges in the various precincts understood the new primary law, which provides that voters may vote at the primary election on registration Sept. 8 or Sept. 16. All voters whose names are now on the registration books may vote at the primary election next Tuesday without further formality. Those who have not registered may vote next Tuesday by filing affidavits of residence, each corroborated by the affidavits of two freeholders resident in the election district. Blankets for the affidavits will be furnished at the polling places, and the election judges will take the certification. There will be no charge for taking the affidavits. All that will be necessary is to present oneself at the polling place with two property owners who live in his district and can certify to his residence there.

BOY FINDS GUN; KILLS BROTHER

Jamestown, N. D., Sept. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Ronnelling, aged 16, was accidentally shot and instantly killed at his father's home near Hastings by a younger brother. The boy was playing with a loaded shotgun which he had found after several others on the farm had returned from hunting. He pointed the weapon at his brother in hold up fashion and pulled the trigger. The full charge entered the boy's body at a range of only a few feet.

SOCIALISTS ARE ACCUSED OF OBSTRUCTING STREET

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—City Prosecutor John A. Burns today, in accordance with instructions from the court, filed formal complaints against the eleven Socialists arrested Saturday night, charging them with "congregating in such crowds in the street as to obstruct city traffic."

Demurrer Sustained.

Judge Dibel has sustained a demurrer to the lawsuit filed at noon today by the St. Paul Fire & Marine Insurance company against the Northern Pacific railway. The court in sustaining the demurrer held that the coal dock company should have been named as a party to the action and that the railway should not be put to the annoyance of two suits.

MARINE BOATS ARE BUNCHED

Local Docks Are Experiencing Biggest Rush of Season. Ore Docks Working Under Pressure—Five Grain Cargoes.

Boats continue to pile up in the local harbor and the docks are swamped under the biggest rush in months. Both the Alouez and the Duluth, Missabe & Northern docks are going at top speed with trainload after trainload of ore being unloaded on the docks and quickly transferred to the waiting boats. The boats are still going to anchor as they arrive in the harbor. It is doubtful whether the boats will be running smoothly again in less than ten days. The strike of laborers on the Alouez docks is responsible for the delay. The boats are now badly bunched at this end of the lakes and in spite of the fact that the docks are going night and day, the boats seem to come in faster than they can be loaded and sent away. Five boats left this morning with grain. This is the largest number to leave within a few hours this season. Several boats made the local port light for grain and it begins to look as though the long expected rush in grain is at hand. No charters were reported today, but the rate is said to be holding steady at 2 1/2 cents. Lumber, coal and package freight are on the jump and the last leg of the season is beginning under very favorable conditions.

INTEREST IN HOMECROFT

St. Paul Lawyer Wants Movement Taken Up in Capital.

Other Minnesota Cities May Be Visited By Duluth Enthusiasts.

The exhibit of the Duluth Homecroft society at the Minnesota state fair is bearing fruit. Gilbert H. Trotton, instructor in child study at the Mankato normal school, took extensive notes on the exhibit and has now issued an invitation to C. E. Roe, executive secretary of the Homecroft society, to visit Mankato and talk on homecrofting at the normal. Mr. Roe has received the following letter from J. H. Mulally, a well known St. Paul lawyer: "I am deeply interested in the exhibit of your society in the St. Louis county exhibit at the state fair. Your work has evidently led to splendid results, and your methods are at once a practical illustration of the high cost of living. As population increases in this country, and the virgin soil becomes exhausted or its vitality lessened by continual cropping, we will be confronted with the problem which the people of European countries have long ago had to meet. It was solved by them by intensive farming. It must be solved by us in the same way. In small lots in cities, in backyard gardens its principles can be applied with even greater results than on large tracts of land. The result will be, as from the photos of your exhibit, it has been in your city, better health to those who become interested in gardens, a better and cheaper food supply and a beautification of the city itself in the elimination of unsightly yards and lots. "I would like to see the same work taken up in St. Paul, and would be pleased to have you send me what literature and circulars you have in the matter. Mr. Roe says that a little later in the year, arrangements will probably be made for some members of the Duluth Homecroft society to visit various cities in the state for the purpose of following up the work begun at the state fair. The methods of preserving the fruits and vegetables shown at the state fair are explained in detail to fully 3,000 people during the fair, and many more viewed the exhibit and showed great interest in it. "They were not only interested in the exhibits of preserved fruits and vegetables, but in the garden scenes and the whole scheme of the homecroft movement," said Mr. Roe today. "The homecroft movement, as a means of reducing the cost of living as a means of arousing agricultural interest among children, and as an economic factor in city life is certain to appeal to everybody who comes in touch with it, and I believe great work will be done in extending the movement in the next few years."

HEAT OVERCOMES HIRAM JOHNSON

Bull Moose Candidate Disappoints Crowd at Racine, Wis.

Racine, Wis., Sept. 11.—Several hundred people who gathered today to hear governor Hiram W. Johnson, candidate of the Progressive party, for vice president, were disappointed, as Governor Johnson failed to appear. Mr. Johnson was overcome by the heat yesterday and is under care of physicians in Chicago. United States Senator Polndexter of Washington addressed the gathering. He declared that the third party was organized to protect the interests of the people against certain classes who were favored by legislation. He urged the people of Wisconsin to support the party which represented principles which the state of Wisconsin had adopted in the past few years.

Cancelled Morning Dates.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Governor Johnson expected to leave here at noon today for Milwaukee. After making his trip through Illinois he decided to rest here and cancelled all his morning engagements in Wisconsin. Senator Polndexter went ahead to keep the engagements. ## MINNESOTA POLITICS

Candidates for County Offices Working Quietly and Aggressively—Governor Eberhart Defends Himself in Minneapolis Speech and Starts Controversy With E. T. Young—Progressive League Issues Indorsement—Lee's Connection With Tonnage Tax Fight.

The county campaign has been a quiet one, but every voter knows it has been in progress. The candidates and their friends have been active for several weeks. The mails have been flooded with letters and circulars intended to capture votes. Few have been allowed to give their whole attention to the state office, to the exclusion of the county contests.

The state campaign has overshadowed the county campaign to some extent. This is the first campaign on a state-wide primary. Here, therefore, the state contests have all been decided before the voters were called upon to make their county nominations. The county candidates have been forced to combat against the interest raised by the state campaign and have found the handicap hard to overcome.

Several contests on the Republican ticket in the county are stirring up interest in certain circles. Nearly every nomination is contested and the voter who goes to the polls next Tuesday will find a long ballot awaiting him. If he is to vote the Republican ticket.

John Hadden, candidate for the re-nomination for county auditor, Warren E. Green, candidate for county attorney, and John R. Randall and Arthur Horgan, candidate for the house seats for the Fifteenth district, are unopposed on the Republican ticket.

S. W. Gilpin, judge of probate and N. A. Young, superintendent of schools, who were elected as Republicans but now come up for re-election on the non-partisan ticket, are also unopposed.

For clerk of court, the veteran J. B. Johnson is opposed by D. M. Mousar of Wilmett. Mr. Johnson's friends declare they have no apprehension over the result, but Mr. Mousar is well known on the range and is putting up a hard campaign.

The heaviest two-man contest in the county campaign is that between George H. Vivian and Otto Garver for the Republican nomination for county treasurer. Mr. Vivian has been chief deputy in the county treasurer's office for eight years. He has sent out a letter to the voters declaring that no account of the illness of Treasurer Hodge he is unable to make a personal campaign. His friends are working for him, however. Mr. Garver, who has been deputy collector of internal revenue here for some years, is making an aggressive personal campaign and has many supporters in the field. The contest promises to be a close one.

The race for the nomination for register of deeds will probably not be settled until the second choice votes are taken into consideration. Charles Culligan, M. C. Palmer and J. E. Cooley are making hard campaigns. Culligan, who has been clerk of the town of Stuntz for some years and is well known all over the range, is concentrating on Duluth. His friends believe they can carry the range towns for him and he is widening his acquaintance in Duluth in the meantime. Palmer and his friends are working hard, using his record in office as an argument. Cooley entered the race late, but his acquaintance in Duluth is a valuable asset, especially as both men to whom he is opposed are from the range.

The contest for sheriff has second choice possibilities on account of three being in the race. Supporters of John R. Meining declare the sheriff will be renominated on the first-choice votes, but they have no fear of the second choice. They are using the argument that custom gives a sheriff a second term, and that Meining's administration has merited a re-nomination. Steve Pierce has wide personal popularity and has a record as chief deputy under Sheriff Bates. Sandy MacDonald is making his campaign on the "blind pig" issue. He declares that he will drive the "blind-pigs" off the range, if he is elected.

Andrew Anderson is opposing A. E. Dyer, who is a candidate for re-nomination for coroner. Dr. McComb, Dr. Anderson, Dr. Clark and Dr. Howie are not very active, but are awaiting the judgment of the voters.

In the Fifth commissioner's district, P. Mainella is endeavoring to wrest the nomination from Alex. Fraser, and in the Third district, Walter A. Swanson is putting up a hard campaign against Joseph Cunningham, the incumbent. There are five candidates in the Fifth district and five in the Seventh, so the result is a toss-up. The contests will probably go into the second choice, and nobody can tell what the result of elimination will be.

In the Forty-ninth district, Cleon T. Knapp probably will have no trouble winning over Fred W. Bassette, who is not as well known as the Chisholm legislator. In the second division of the Forty-ninth anything may happen. There are four popular candidates, each with his own following. Al L. Warner and Edwin J. Kenny, the candidates in the Fifty-first, are making no campaign, but will rest on the decision of the voters.

The only Democratic contests are for county commissioner in the Fifth district with three candidates and for representative for the Forty-ninth district, with two candidates in class 2. The members of the minority parties will keep out of the Republican primary this year, it is expected, as each minority party must cast 10 per cent of its vote on state officers in the election in order to get the names of its candidates on the ballot. Candidates of the minority parties are working to get out a vote in order that they may not be put to the trouble of filing by petition after the primary.

The Governor Speaks.
Governor Eberhart opened his speaking campaign in Minneapolis Monday night by outlining what he terms the four great issues before the people of the state: Good schools, good health, better for workingmen and better farm life conditions.

The governor defended the increase in state expenditures on the ground of increased needs of the state. He did not attempt to defend his contingent fund expenditures. "They say the state has paid $5 for taxicab hire in the last three years," he said. "Wouldn't old Methuselah have turned in his grave at such extravagance?"

The governor defended his numerous absences from his office on the ground that the advertising bill. He declared for an employer's liability law, for agricultural and industrial education, and praised the work of the state department.

The governor referred to a letter sent by E. T. Young to the policemen and firemen of the state. Mr. Young referred to the bill allowing such officers to ride free on street cars and expressed the belief that it was a "meritorious measure." The governor raised a question as to whether that was not a campaign promise in violation of the corrupt practices act. He explained his veto of the bill on the ground that it was an entering wedge to break down the anti-mass law.

Mr. Young came right back at the governor with a letter issued yesterday. "If the corrupt practices act prevents what he stands for, you are complying with its terms," is the motto shot Mr. Young lands the governor.

Mr. Young says in his letter that the governor took his statements on stating what he stands for, you are complying with its terms," is the motto shot Mr. Young lands the governor.

La Follette Men Indorse Lee. The executive committee of the Minnesota Republican Progressive league has issued a statement indorsing William E. Lee for governor. James A. Peterson for United States senator, J. A. Burroughs for lieutenant governor, James Monahan for congressman at large, Thomas Fraser for attorney general, G. H. Rosenwald for railroad and warehouse commissioner, Alex. G. McKnight of Duluth is a member of the committee.

The committee indorsed the second choice, but makes no recommendation. The candidates for governor are discussed individually with praise for Mr. Lee and bitter condemnation for Governor Eberhart. E. T. Young is termed an unstable opportunist. Sam Y. Gordon's record as lieutenant governor is praised, but he is charged with having straddled some issues. Sponsor is declared to be not entitled to Progressive support. Paik is admitted to be progressive, but is declared to be no factor in the race.

Falls Refute Charge.
Nell J. Beaton, local manager for William E. Lee, has raised a question of veracity with the correspondent to

The Herald who declared that Lee refused to assist in the fight against the tonnage tax in the 1910 session. It was also charged that Lee was supposed to have influenced Senator Johnston to vote for the measure.

Mr. Beaton's statement that the declaration is not true seems to be based on a letter from W. O. Glure, Mr. Lee's campaign manager. Mr. Glure says that when the tonnage tax bill was up, Rudolph Lee, Mr. Lee's son, had just completed a bitter contest for the senate against Senator Johnston. Obviously, he says, Mr. Lee and Senator Johnston were not on good terms and Mr. Lee could have had no influence with the legislation.

At The Herald's correspondent referred to the tonnage tax bill in the legislature of 1909, and as Rudolph Lee's contest with Senator Johnston did not come until the fall of 1910, nearly two years later, Mr. McClure's argument does not stand up. Some more satisfactory explanation than that would have to be given to refute the charges made by The Herald's correspondent.

MORE FARMERS THAN STALLS

For the first time in the history of the West end market place there were more farmers at the stands this morning than there are stalls. Two of the farmers were compelled to back their wagons up to the sidewalk, every stand having been taken up at 8 o'clock.

With the fair weather the past week, the farmers have been able to gather good supplies of produce, which were placed on sale this morning. A large crowd visited the market place during the morning and the farmers found ready buyers.

One of the farmers brought a load of potatoes along this morning and found ready customers with his low prices. He took orders for the potatoes and later delivered them to the homes.

IS HONOR GUEST AT NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT

Mrs. J. H. Giffin of 1227 West Second street, who will leave for China next month will be her husband, Rev. J. H. Giffin, was the honor guest at a novel "record" shower given last evening by the Delta Gamma club at the such at "Mars" 322 North Twenty-fourth avenue west.

The idea of a "record shower" was originated by one of the members of the club, so that Mrs. Giffin could receive a number of records to take along with her to China. She was presented with a photograph recently by the Ladies Aid society of the Central Baptist church and she was the recipient of a number of records last evening. During the evening the members of the club sang into a record, which was presented as a token of friendship of the entire organization.

The parlor and dining room were decorated with sweet peas and nasturtiums. The guests were: Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Giffin; Rev. and Mrs. Milton Fish; Mr. and Mrs. George D. Jewell; Mrs. Erma Hutchinson; Mrs. Jennie Leonard and the Misses Clara Goodhand, Enid Shaw, Ruth Glover, Mamie Lowe, Crissy Hanson and Minnie Milne. A program of addresses and musical numbers was featured during the evening, after which Mrs. Giffin served a luncheon to the guests.

The Delta Gamma club is an organization of West end women who take an active part in charitable work. The members give a number of amateur shows and entertainments during the year for the benefit of charity. Last winter and spring Mrs. Giffin took a prominent part in the work of the club and assisted in the various shows produced by the members.

POPULATION IS 97,500

Directory Figures Show Substantial Growth for the Year.

Increase From 80,035 During the Last Twelve Months.

If the basis of figuring of R. L. Polk & Co., taking the number of names collected in Duluth for the forthcoming directory, is correct, the population of the city is about 97,500. The directory people figure on the basis of one and a half for each name collected. In most cities they figure two and two and a half, but they declare that in Duluth there are more single people than on the average, and therefore as large a population cannot be used. There will be just about 65,000 names in the new directory which will be issued between Sept. 15 and 20, as compared with 47,222 names a year ago. According to the latter number of names, the directory people estimated Duluth's population at 80,000, but the influx of people for work on the construction of the new steel plant and the growth of industries in general which have attracted many more, they feel is responsible for the growth which their collection of names shows. The federal census of 1910 showed the population of Duluth to be at that time 78,466.

We opened the gates nearly $100,000 in debt for new buildings and old bills for the care of the exhibits. This was a severe drain and we also had debts left from the fair. It looks as if we would be able to pay for the new buildings and start with a clean slate and if we can this will be a most satisfactory condition of affairs."

SURELY TAKE "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

Sweetens Your Stomach, Clears Your Head and Thoroughly Cleanses Your Liver and 30 Feet of Bowels of Sour Bile, Foul Gases and Clogged-Up Waste.

All those days when you feel miserable, headachy, bilious and dull are due to torpid liver and sluggish bowels. The days when your stomach is sour and full of gas, when you have indigestion, the nights when your nerves twitch and you are restless and can't sleep could be avoided with a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs. Isn't it foolish to be distressed when there is such a pleasant way to overcome it?

Give your inactive liver and ten yards of waste-clogged bowels a thorough cleansing this time. Put an end to constipation.

Take a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs to-night, sure, and just see for yourself by morning how gently but thoroughly all the sour bile, undigested fermenting food and clogged up waste matter is moved on and out of your system—no nausea—no griping—no weakness.

You simply can't have your liver inactive and your thirty feet of bowels constipated with sour, decaying waste matter and feel well. The need of a laxative is a natural need, but with a delicious Syrup of Figs you are not dragging yourself. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatic it can not injure.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." Refuse, with scorn, any of the so-called Fig Syrup imitations. They are meant to deceive you. Look on the label. The genuine old reliable bears the name, California Fig Syrup Company.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 11.—That the work of the state convention of the Progressive party will be confined, as originally planned, to the selection of a list of presidential electors, seems to be the latest understanding on the part of those in the foreground following an executive committee of representatives of all the congressional districts, which had under consideration the advisability of naming a state ticket. "We will not name a state ticket today. We may have one eventually if things do not go right," said A. Mayhew of Clinton, who was a member of the committee.

New York Executive Refuses to Admit Police Are Inefficient.

New York, Sept. 11.—For more than two hours yesterday afternoon, William F. Gagnor, mayor of New York, sat in a witness chair at the city hall and parlayed with the chief clerk of the police department. The purpose was to postpone the attempts of counsel for an aldermanic committee to lead his views on the police situation brought to a head by the disorder of the garment district.

The times he threatened to leave the stand because he considered the questions irrelevant; twice he deplored the "unpleasantness" of the smothering excursion, and often throughout his testimony he repeated that the investigation would have been in vain, for he said he had no doubt that the police were doing all his efforts to purify government long before Emory R. Buckner, commander-in-chief, died.

Would Not Blame Police

At no time during the examination would he admit that the police department was inefficient. He explained that the late Mayor John P. Landier Waldo, commissioner of police, and his successor, James J. Walsh, believed it was at least on the decrease and was a lesser evil than potholes, crime or corruption in the city.

By way of committee, under investigation of the police, whose chairman, Alderman William H. Curran, he had named as the cause of the trouble on the stand, set on foot investigation of the reports that there was too much money being paid for low bid for its stenographic work.

"I don't know," he answered ten questions asked by Mr. Buckner were not answered. He told his opinions anyway, and and formed no conclusions. If he was asked about facts or instances where the law had been violated, he said, "the law, he was ready to answer."

"Four things," he said, he had brought about in the department: First, he had won away from the officers "violence as a club policy;" second, he had forbidden the practice of "beatings;" third, he had got evidence against delinquently housed by consorting with them; fourth, he had secured recognition in the integrity of the civil service, which Mr. Murphy had been endeavoring to destroy.

"The appointments," fourth, he had gone away with graft in connection with the enforcement of the liquor laws. This graft, he said, had amounted to $300,000 annually.

"I have lost his temper time after time again and protested to Mr. Buckner," he said, "that I was being treated unjustly at the young lawyer kept at his table constantly, unaffiliated by him." He said that the aldermanic chamber until standing room only was crowded with people who were attracted to the mayor's reports.

"I hope you do not think I am the kind of a vulgar man," Mr. Mayor," he remarked Mr. Buckner.

"You are a man who takes allowances for your seal and everything," replied Mr. Mayor.

"That's your opinion, not mine."
"That's a foolish question."
These were his answers as Mr. Buckner tried to get under the surface of the mayor's opinions.
"You can't scandalize me," Mayor Gaynor finally shouted vehemently.
"I have a reputation you can't scandalize."

MEN AND WOMEN BOTH CAN SAVE THEIR HAIR WITH HERPICID

No woman should have poor, thin, scraggy hair and no man need become bald. Poor hair and final baldness are due to the dandruff which an outstanding example of Newbro's Herpicide will destroy.

By killing the germ and checking the accumulation of dandruff, Herpicide restores the hair to its normal growth and prevents the hair from coming out.

Convincing evidence of the value of this well-known scalp prophylactic is furnished in a letter recently received from William H. Tomah, Wisconsin, who says: "I fought the worst kind of dandruff for nine years. I have been using Herpicide now one week, and my dandruff and itching have stopped. It is the best remedy for scalp diseases I ever saw and I have seen many."

There is no doubt that the letter from Mrs. Tomah's experience. The same letter might have been written by any one of the thousands of users of Newbro's Herpicide. More men and women have obtained positive results from Herpicide than from any other hair remedy known. Don't subject yourself to the annoyance of men and women expressing surprise when they claim to be just as good as Newbro's Herpicide. An off brand may possibly be good, but why try it when you can get the real thing? Herpicide, the dandruff germ destroyer can always be obtained. It stops itching almost instantly.

Newbro's Herpicide is sold and guaranteed everywhere in 50-cent and $1.00 size bottles. If it fails to do what is claimed for it your dealer is authorized to refund your money, provided you return the bottle to the Herpicide company, Department 10, Detroit, Mich., for a sample bottle and interesting booklet on the care of the hair.

Applications of Herpicide may be made at all drug stores, beauty parlors, hair shops and specialty agents.

BY GEORGE REID.

Millions upon millions of dollars will be added to Minnesota's wealth by the new mines developed and mining operations now proceeding on the Vermilion range. All this wealth is directly tributary to Duluth and will help to swell this city's trade.

Not all of the money that is being poured out in this development work comes from Duluth nor even from this territory. Much Twin City, Chicago, Milwaukee and Cleveland capital is interested in the range, as well as money from various Eastern cities. More outside money will seek investment in mining operations on the Vermilion when it is fully realized that this great iron range, the first to be developed in Minnesota, has barely been scratched, and that millions in iron treasure still await the lucky explorers who guess where nature has hidden these iron lenses and discover them.

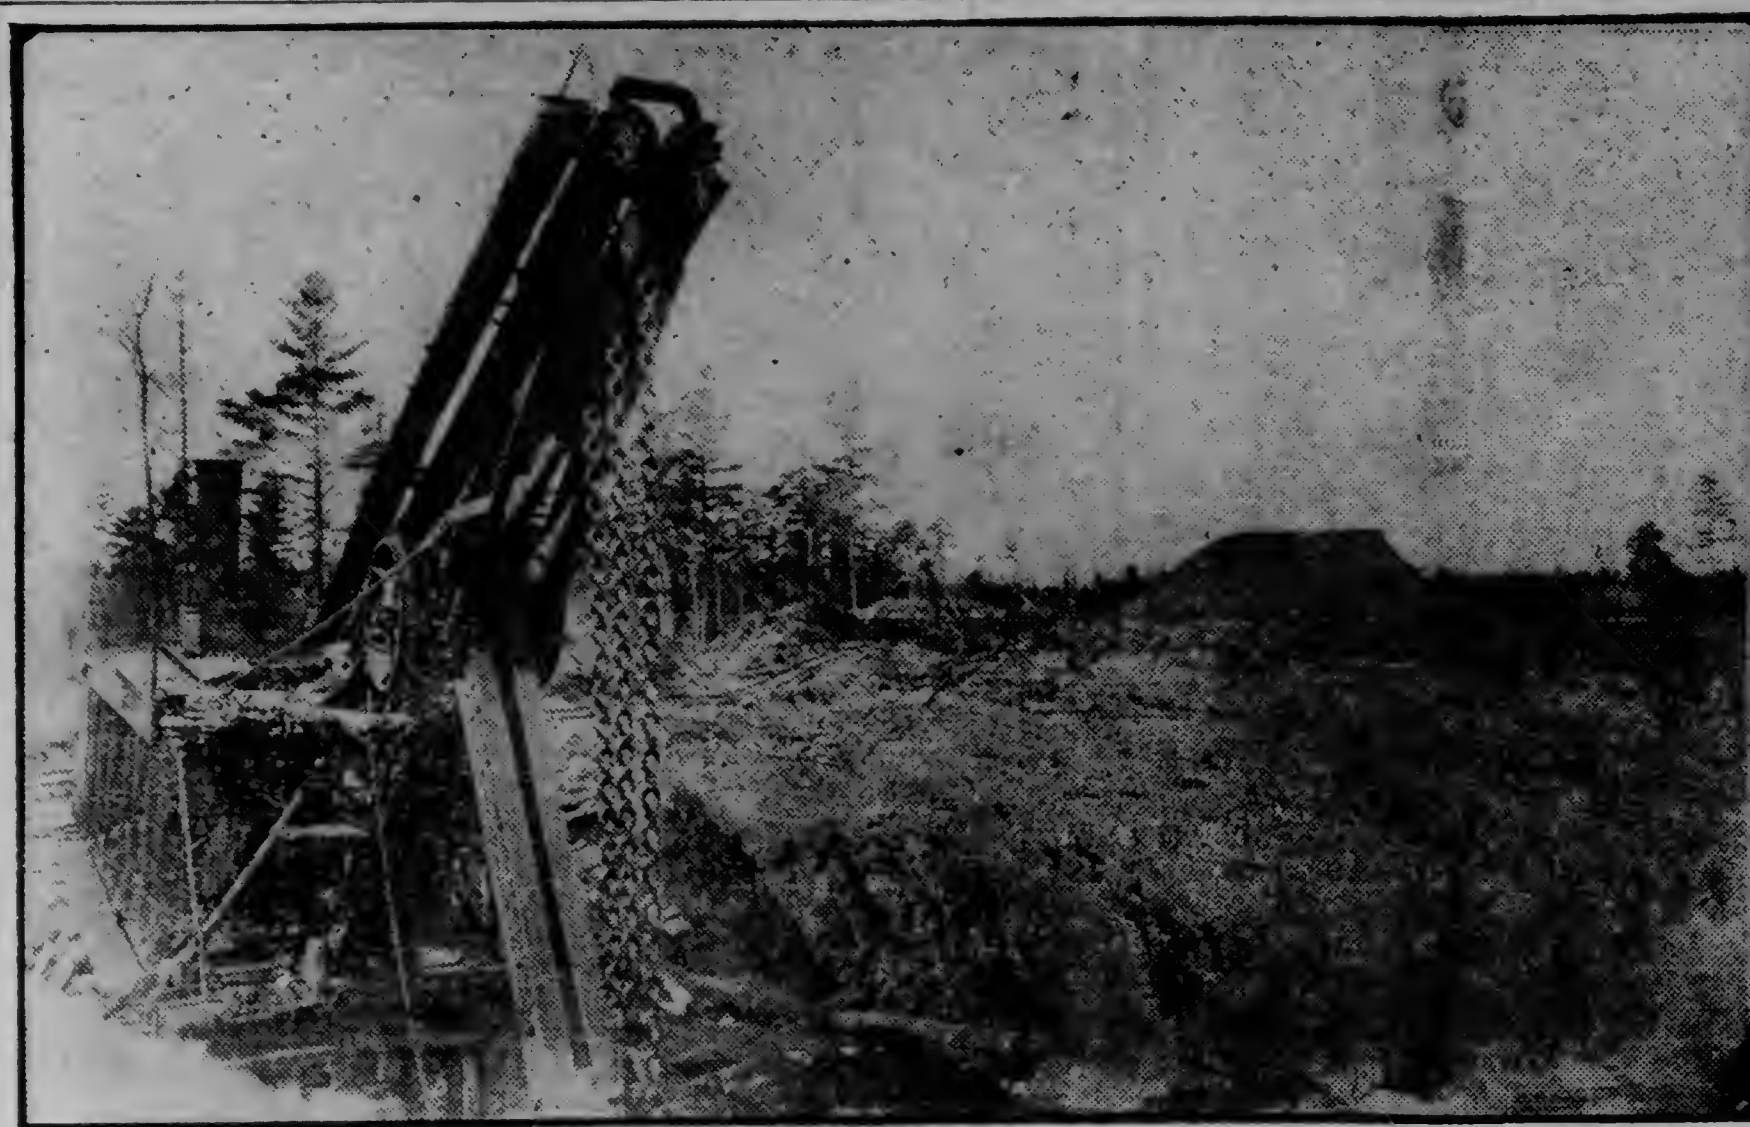

It will not be long before local capital wakes up to the knowledge that the Vermilion range is rich in gold and silver, as well as iron, and goes after the treasures that lie at Duluth's door rather than after the rainbows far away. Quite a number of millionaires in this city got their first real money on the Vermilion, and it is incomprehensible that some of them seem to have forgotten its existence and to prefer to invest their money in mining operations at distant points, while outsiders from Chicago and other points grab off the rich plums which exist in plenty upon the Vermilion.

Last week I spent four days on the range, taking a good photographer along, and what we learned and witnessed is described and pictured on this page and the two succeeding pages.

I spent half a day at the Section 30 mine. This great mine has been developed and is being operated by the Section 30 Mining company, which should not be confounded with the Section 20 development company, which has been doing exploratory work about half a mile away. Much money is being spent in the mining of ore at Section 30 aside from the mining of ore. This development work is being conducted upon a large scale. The shipments from the mine this year will aggregate 150,000 tons to 190,000 tons. More ore could have been shipped had the price been higher. Next year Section 30 should ship 250,000 tons or more. The mine is employing about 150 men. This number will be greatly increased as soon as the ore market justifies a larger production. The mine is shipping from stockpile and from the shaft.

The underground ores in the Section 30 mine have been traced to the surface and a considerable area has been stripped. The work done shows continuity in the ore body, which is constantly increasing in size with depth. Conditions, both in the deposits that have been worked and that are being shown up underground, judging from analogy, lead to large masses of ore. It is a safe assertion that the main deposit, when reached, will rival in size the Ely basin or other large basins of this and other ranges.

It is known that ore exists at the Sullivan exploration, at the eastern end of the Section 30 property, where a shaft is being sunk in high grade ore, and also at the western extremity of the property, where, in section 25, 62-12, the Vermilion Range Land company is sinking a shaft and is in the ore body. These new operations prove up the western and eastern ends of Section 30 mine. These operations, in connection with the work being done at the Section 20 shafts, joined to the knowledge obtained from diamond drill holes which showed ore, prove, it can be said without successful contradiction, that the ore basin of the Section 30 mine extends for more than a mile and a quarter in length and has a width between the greenstone walls of more than 600 feet, with the depth problematical.

So far the ore is being worked to a depth of 365 feet. The ore is known to exist at a depth of more than 1,000 feet, as shown by drill holes. It will take years to reach the main body of ore and to determine just how big a mine Section 30 really is. In the meantime work is being done in many sections of the ore lense as they reach up toward the surface.

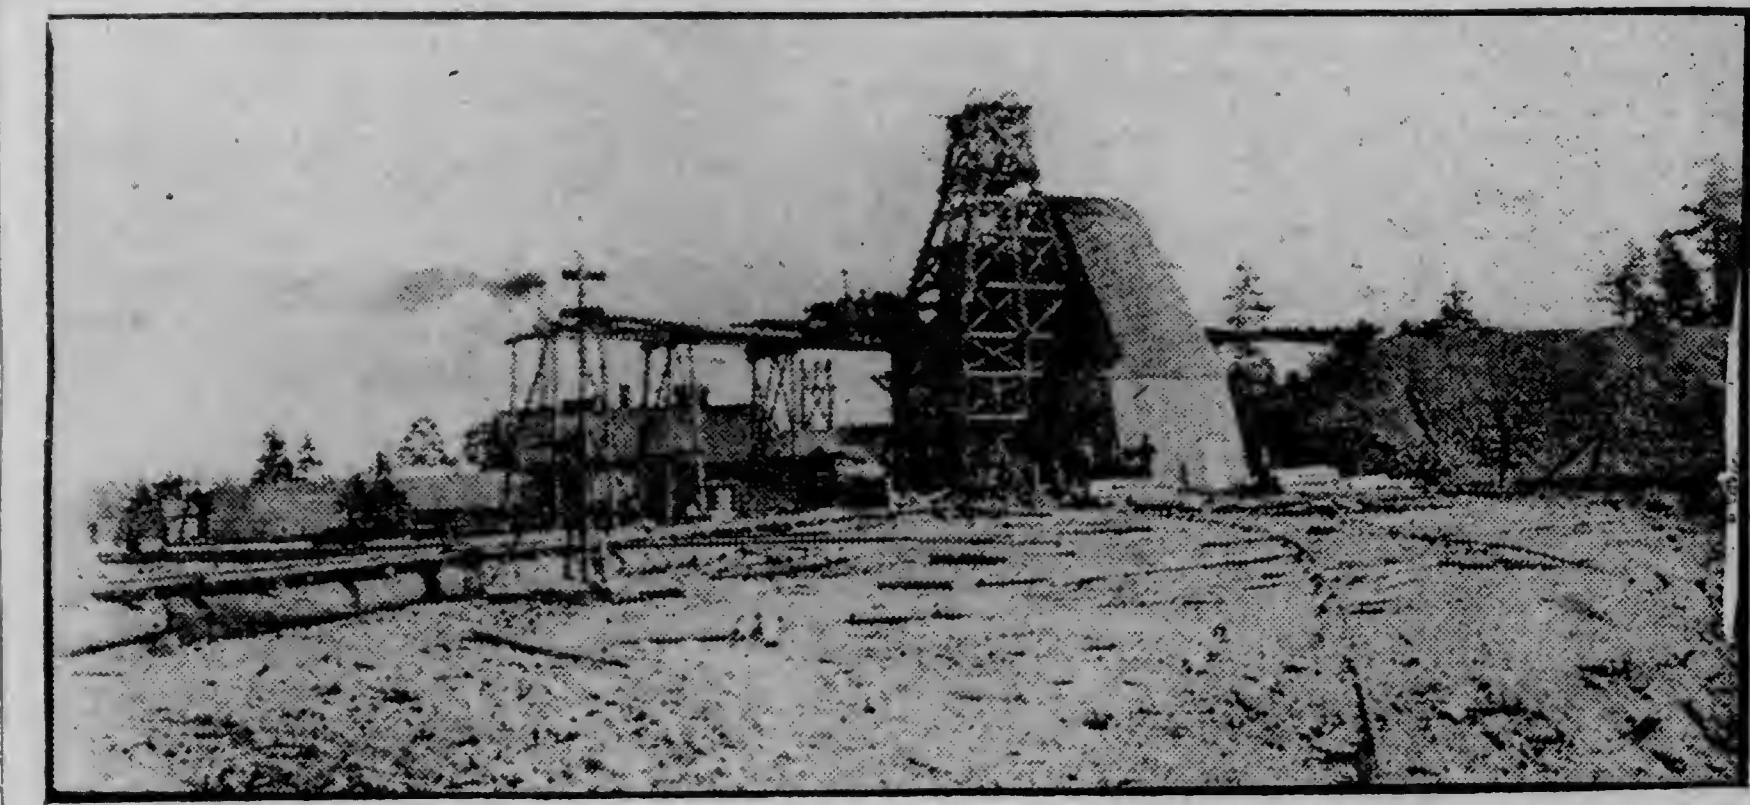

Consolidated Vermilion is lifting ore and is undoubtedly a very valuable mine. Ore was encountered some time ago, but there has been water interference, which has been cured, and last Tuesday the mining of ore was begun in earnest. This mine is the property of the Consolidated Vermilion Extension company and is the first mine to be developed by T. J. Walsh, after thirty years of hardships on the Ver-trouble with water at the North American mine. Mr. Walsh sunk the Consolidated Vermilion shaft on a hillside through the solid green stone wall and drifted to the ore body. In this way he avoided surface water. This shaft is 340 feet in depth and the drift to the ore body was run 130 feet through green stone. Jasper was then encountered and next mixed ore for a distance of thirty-two feet and finally clean ore, running as high as 68 per cent.

A railroad will be built to the mine before the opening of the shipping season next year, when it is planned to market 200,000 to 250,000 tons. Two 200-horse power boilers have just been installed. Machinery is on the ground and will be installed this fall in a big power plant which is to be a duplicate of that at the North American mine at Walsh, formerly Tower Junction. This equipment will have a lifting capacity of five tons from a depth of in section 2, 62-14, on this property, a shaft was sunk twelve years ago to a depth of 130 feet, without finding ore. Robert Powell, mining captain, who was formerly with the Oliver company, was test-pitting six weeks ago about fifty feet west and seventy-five feet east of this old shaft, and encountered high-grade ore in both places. In one case a foot below the surface and the other ten feet. One of the photographs printed herewith shows high-grade ore in one of these pits extending almost to the surface. Eight or ten cars of ore per day can be loaded from the surface at this point, as is being done at Section 30.

The ten forties which make up this rich property are in sections 4 and 5, 62-14. This new mine is about five miles in a straight line from the Soudan mine, the first iron mine to be developed in Minnesota, and about ten miles from the great Ely group of mines, the Pioneer, Zenith, Chandler, million range. K. J. Duncan, a capable mining engineer, formerly with the Oliver Iron Mining company, is general manager of the Walsh properties, but he is devoting his attention now to putting the Consolidated Vermilion on a shipping basis and makes his headquarters at the mine.

In one of the pictures appearing with this article is shown the flume, or launder, as some mining men call it, which was used to unwater the mine. This flume is more than 500 feet in length and empties the water from the shaft into Lake Vermilion. Vermilion steel valley was formerly a swamp, which has been practically drained. 1,500 feet and will include a large air compressor. Meanwhile the power plant used in sinking the shaft is in use. As soon as the railroad is in a steel shaft house, a duplicate of that at the North American, will be erected. There are comfortable camp buildings at the Consolidated Vermilion mine.

It looks to me as though the ore body is continuous across seven of the ten forties constituting the Consolidated Vermilion and from 400 to 700 feet in width. This ore body has been proved by more than twenty drill holes in addition to test pits, shafts and trenches. The shaft is almost in the center of the ten forties. In the center of lot 3, Sibley, Savoy and Section 30. To be accurate, Section 30 is about three miles from the rest of the Ely group.

The Consolidated Vermilion mine develops another great ore basin on the Vermilion range. Adjoining the mine is the property of the Irona Iron Mining company and two and a half miles away, in the same town and range, is the promising property of the Almar-Sultana company, upon which operations are about to be resumed and which are told about in detail farther along in this story. Less than two miles to the north the Scott-Bevier company is sinking a shaft in a promising formation. It is worthy of note that Consolidated Vermilion, in area, ore body within two months thereafter. I stayed over Sunday at the North American shaft, and the three shifts were proceeding with clocklike regularity. A visitor at the same time was G. C. Best of London, Eng., who spent some time on the Rand, in South Africa. He was greatly interested in the gray rock from the shaft, which he pronounced identical in color and structure with the gold rock of the Rand.

In the opinion of Captain Zobitz the iron body may be encountered in the shaft before 400 feet in depth is reached, on account of the redness of the water in the shaft. It is the ambition of Mr. Walsh to get out at least a small shipment of iron ore from the North American this year to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of his advent upon the range as a poor boy along with George C. Stone, when that gentleman discovered the Soudan mine and added countless millions to the wealth of Minnesota. Mr. Walsh expects to ship about the same amount of ore from the North American next season as from Consolidated Vermilion—that is, 200,000 to 250,000 tons.

It may interest readers to know that a recent assay of rock from the North American shaft assayed $2,737 of silver to the ton, that gold values up to $210 a ton have been had, and that the thousands of tons of gray rock stockpiled at the North American average $21 per ton of silver and gold. It would not surprise me if this rock when it is treated later on should pay all the cost of sinking the shaft. More than 50,000,000 tons of this rock have been proved up on the North American property. One ledge on the surface can be mined by blasting. From this ledge as high as $82 per ton of gold has been taken. An additional 200 acres owned by the North American company will not be developed until the company is on a dividend-paying basis.

The plant at the North American consists of a steel shaft house, 65 feet in height, a concrete shaft to bed-rock at a depth of 84 feet, two 200-horse power boilers, an eight drill air compressor and an engine capable of lifting five tons 1,500 feet. An electric light plant is on the ground ready to be installed and a machine shop will be erected this fall. The camp has its own water supply housed in a 25,000 gallon tank. The North American camp is large and complete. The miners are well-fed and comfortably housed, and they work with a will.

The third of the Walsh companies, so-called, is the Minnesota Steel & Iron company, with 160 acres in section 3, 61-13. This property contains one of the largest and richest ore formation outcrops ever found on the Vermilion range, which has been proved to a great depth by numerous diamond drill holes. Material is arriving for a shaft, upon which work will be begun in about ten days, using the temporary plant from the Consolidated Vermilion property. The county is now building a road across this property. As soon as this road is finished work will begin on the shaft. A material much resembling cement and carrying good gold and silver values, was recently found on the Minnesota Steel & Iron property.

Mining men without exception are enthusiastic over the possibilities of this property. Nowhere else on the range are there so many outcrops of iron ore, which extend the full length of three miles.

Section 30 Mining company is a close corporation. On the other hand several thousands of people, mostly in this part of the country, are stockholders in the Walsh companies, and that is why I have gone into detail to the extent that I have in presenting the foregoing facts about the Walsh properties.

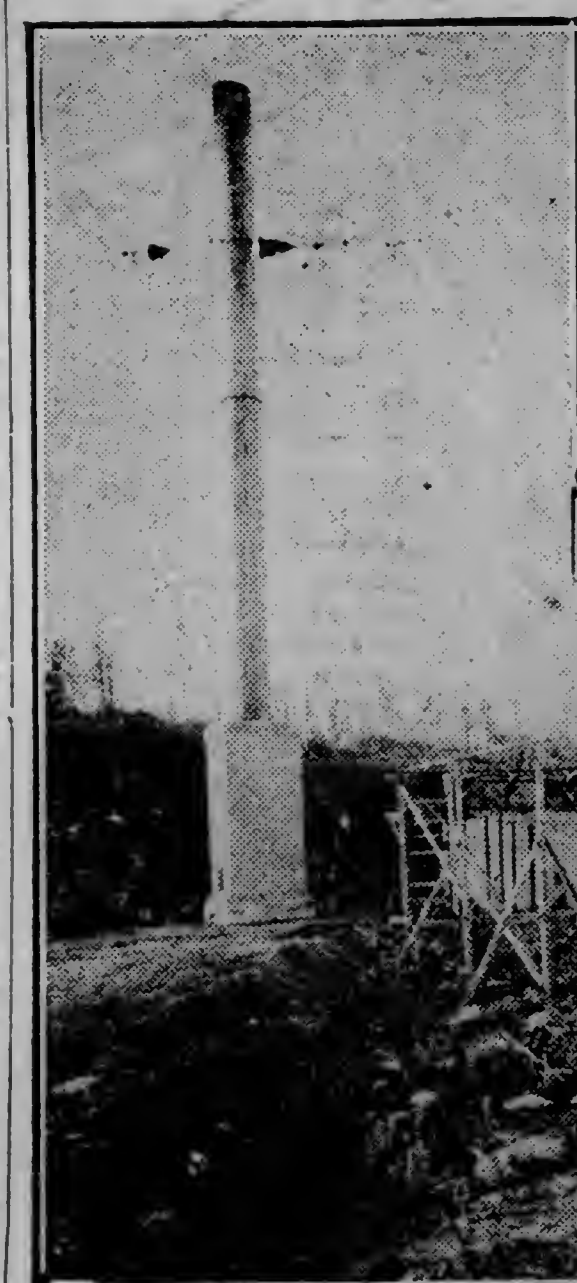

Since my last visit to the Vermilion the county has constructed a good road from Eagle's Nest station, on the Duluth & Iron Range railroad, through the Almar-Sultana camp, a little more than a mile away. This is only one of several roads of importance to mining men built on the range during the last year through the efforts of County Commissioner Grant McMahon of Ely, who is doing good work for his district. Before the building of this new road all machinery and supplies for the Almar-Sultana had to be hauled from Robinson Lake station, a distance of about three and a half miles.

The Almar-Sultana Iron company is a new corporation organized recently by a group of well-known men. It has leased the Almar property, in section 15 of the peerless township 62-14, the consideration being $30,000. The names of the men interested in the new company are not available at this writing, but in a general way it is known that prominent men compose the directorate.

The Almar-Sultana mine has a promising future. Development work has demonstrated its possibilities as a producer of iron ore. A drill hole 140 feet in depth recently cut forty feet of high-grade hematite ore and it is believed that further exploration would find more of the same. Mixed ore has been encountered in several test pits, and in one of the pits at a depth of fourteen feet considerable clean ore was found in a true fissure formation.

The two-compartment shaft at the Almar-Sultana is equipped with a skip of the De Beer type. The head frame and the balance of the shaft equipment is first-class in every way. I am informed that Dr. Walter Harvey Weed, the eminent geologist and mining engineer of New York city, will be retained as consulting engineer by the new company. Development will begin at once to determine the extent of the ore body recently located. The good news from this well known property is highly pleasing to the people of the Vermilion as it may mean another town for the range.

Capt. A. R. McGuire, a graduate of the Wisconsin School of Mines, and well known in Duluth and on the Vermilion, will be in active charge of the Almar-Sultana mine, as the property will be known from now on. His efficient work in the past argues well for the future of the property.

Almar-Sultana has an excellent equipment, including a Franklin five-drill air compressor, locomotive type boilers, Wessinger hoist, mine pumps and drills, all ready for use. Mine buildings include the power house, assay office, machine shop, warehouse and dry house. The power house has a fine appearance, being covered with corrugated steel sheeting, with doors and windows neatly painted.

Camp buildings include the superintendent's office, boarding house, bunk house, ice house and stables. All of these buildings are constructed of good lumber and are in contrast to the usual log-built camps.

The White Iron Lake Iron company is working in its second shaft, which is located in section 2, 62-12, between the Ely group and the Section 30 that a good body of ore will still be shipped from the White Iron mine. These officers have worked hard and intelligently and have the co-operation of a good body of stockholders, whom they hope soon to reward with substantial dividends.

The company owns 160 acres outright of its Vermilion property and has a lease of 160 acres adjoining on easy terms. Nearly two years ago the company resumed work on its Ely property, the successful development of the Section 30 mine nearby having stimulated development work in the Ely basin and close by. A shaft was sunk to a depth of 180 feet. Drifting was begun from the 155-foot level. The drift was run into a body of mixed ore running 45 to 50 per cent iron. This was in July of last year. About this time a ledge of high-grade ore running clear across the property was discovered and immediately work was begun on the sinking of a second shaft at this point. Drill holes nearby this shaft to a depth of 1,400 feet show a big ore body. At this point there is a most decided slant in the formation and the body of ore that the drills encountered hundreds of feet underground is the same as the ledge found on the surface, so that it is not surprising that Ely counts upon the White Iron Lake as being another mine for that city.

A larger power plant is being installed at the mine. Part of this plant are the boilers and smokestack shown in one of the pictures in this review. The boilers are now being inclosed.

In addition to the high grade ore shown up by diamond drilling, this property has several million tons of low grade ore on the surface, which can be mined and treated profitably by either the Jones step-furnace or the process of the American Grondal company of New York city.

The White Iron Lake Iron company has an able board of officers and directors. James P. Labrec of Duluth is president, Joseph Lafortune, a contracting plasterer of Duluth is vice president, Joseph Trudel, who is foreman of the company's Chisholm mine, is treasurer and R. F. Belleperche, real estate, Duluth, is secretary. These gentlemen and Reiner Hoch, president of the Duluth Brewing & Malting company, F. P. Tenebrun, general manager of the Northwestern Machine works, Superior, and Charles M. Forest, a large property owner of Duluth, form the board of directors.

The splendid results which have been obtained on the Consolidated Vermilion property are likely to be duplicated on the property of the Iron Mining company, immediately adjoining Consolidated Vermilion, in section 5, 62-14. Much diamond drilling has been done on the Irona property and a considerable body of high-grade ore has been shown up.

When I paid a visit to the property on Monday of last week material was being assembled for a shaft, work on which will begin at once. High-grade Bessemer ore has been shown up in two drill holes. By spring the railroad will be in to the Irona and Consolidated Vermilion properties and Dr. C. J. Ringnell, vice president of the Irona, and other officers will head every effort to reach the ore body and have the mine on a shipping basis next season.

The late Capt. J. J. Durnage, one of the most famous mining engineers in the country, made an extended inspection of the Irona property shortly before his death and expressed his belief that it would be one of the biggest producers on the Vermilion range. Besides having a large known ore body the Irona company has no royalty to pay. It owns the property outright, saving the stockholders all the way from 25 cents to $1 per ton royalty. The shaft which has been sunk in the east half of the northeast quarter of section 55, 63-12, proving up the western end of the Section 30 property, as told about in the first part of this article, is on property of the Vermilion Range Land company, of which W. ## QUITS JOB TO JOIN TEDDY Commissioner of Indian Affairs Valentine Resigns His Office.

Criticizes Administration But Does Not Mention "Garb Order."

Washington, Sept. 11.—Robert G. Valentine, commissioner of Indian affairs, has sent his resignation to the interior department, to become effective at the discretion of Secretary Fisher, now in Hawaii. Mr. Valentine will join the Progressive party.

Commissioner Valentine was previously assistant to Commissioner Leupp, whom he succeeded.

In a public statement explaining his resignation, Mr. Valentine referred to his desire to work in the Progressive party as his desire for quitting office. He made no mention of the so-called "Indian garb" order which he promulgated a few months ago, and which raised a storm of protest from officers of the Catholic church. It forbade the wearing of religious garb by teachers in Indian schools. Mr. Valentine claimed its effect would have been to bar sisters of the Catholic orders from schools on the reservations. President Taft summarily suspended the order. A new one is about to be promulgated. Its terms will satisfy those of both sides of the controversy.

Mr. Valentine has defended the order on the ground that it was in conformity with the principle of the separation of church and state in the United States government.

In his statement the commissioner says:

With Secretary Fisher and First Assistant Secretary Adams in charge of the interior department, that part of Indian affairs which passes through the department is safe.

In the Indian service, above most other bureaus, the opportunities for graft and political patronage are such that the politician and the privilege seeker will be unceasingly active, and vigilance against them must be equally active. In the wrong hands, most of the work of the last decade could be undone in a few months, and also in a few months irrevocable new injuries can be laid at the roots of the future.

For months I have been waiting for the kind of man who would have all this kind of thing at heart, a man of militant honesty and capacity. I feel now that I should wait no longer.

Inasmuch as the president knows the needs of the Indian service and the forces of evil that are to be met, I feel that I need not refuse the call of duty that the Progressive party program makes on me through fear that the Indians will be left unprotected. On the contrary, I believe, when confronted with the necessity, the president will appoint some one having the standards of Mr. Lathrop, and of Mr. Conant, at the head of the bureau of corporations.

"The work of the Indian service is, from every honorable point of view, a non-political work of social service. I would not now leave it except for what seems to me a pressing obligation to take part in the larger work of the Progressive party on the same lines."

Had Been Expected.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 11.—The resignation of Robert G. Valentine as commissioner of the bureau of Indian Affairs was expected at the White House for weeks before President Taft notified Secretary Fisher of the resignation. Mr. Valentine, but his formal resignation did not come, and the president had almost forgotten reports that he was to retire.

The president and Mr. Valentine differed several months ago when Mr. Taft held up an order by the commissioner forbidding the wearing of religious garb by teachers in Indian schools. Mr. Valentine's resignation, it was said here, would be accepted when it reached the president through the interior department.

ACCUSE WOMAN OF TWO MURDERS

Mrs. Lotier Surrenders to Police—New Charges in West Hammond Affair.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Mrs. Helen Lotier, formerly an employee of Henry Foss resort at West Hammond, for whom the police have been searching in connection with the Messmaker murder, has voluntarily surrendered. She was questioned by Coroner Hoffman, and is said to have charged Mrs. Ethel Parker, known as Frankie Foss, with complicity in the deaths of John Messmaker and Mrs. Esther Harrison. Kittle Clark, another former employee of the resort, also was arrested and is said to have confessed the slaying of Mrs. Lotier. Both women are said to have declared that Mrs. Parker administered poison hypodermically to both Messmaker and Mrs. Harrison before they died. ## HUNT MINK IN STORE CELLAR

Little Animal Killed By Employees of Candy Shop.

To have a mink hunt in a downtown store basement is a rare but by no means unheard-of experience among the clerks of the retail stores along Superior street.

That very thing happened one afternoon a short time ago in the basement of the candy store of Victor Huot. A boy employed at the place spied the mink nosing about among the candy boxes. The electric lamp did not throw a strong light and to the startled fancy of the youth the animal was a huge rat. He quietly informed several of the men of the store, and they, all, arming themselves with clubs, prepared to exterminate the supposed rat. It was not until the animal had been driven into a corner and killed, that the discovery of a mink was made. The animal was quickly turned over to a neighboring taxidermist to have the skin dressed and cured. What induced the mink to enter the basement is something of a mystery. It showed no signs of having been starved, but on the contrary was quite fat. It is thought that the creature had been for some time going into this and neighboring basements to hunt rats. There was a hole through the front screen, where the mink probably entered, close to the sidewalk. This is far from being the first time a mink has been killed in a Superior street basement, as David A. Cone, the carrier, who dresses the skins, testifies. Minks are carnivorous animals, and it is not unlikely that many of them venture into the city seeking rats and mice, at times when there is a scarcity of their ordinary prey in the woods.

Lost Girl on Train.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 11.—A 10-year-old girl giving the name of Margaret Leoben, who said she lived on either Lyons or Ninth street, Milwaukee, was taken from a North-Western train at Sparta, Wis., on Sunday by railroad officials, who found her under a seat. The police were asked to find the parents. No one by the name of Leoben, however, could be found and the police are puzzled.

Beauty Aids at Low Cost

From the Journal of Fashion

"Many toilet accessories can be made at home at comparatively small cost. A complexion beautifier made by dissolving an original package of maysone in a half pint of witch hazel is better than expensive powders or patent lotions. It removes tan, sunburn, discolored patches and other blemishes, and keeps the skin attractively smooth and fair.

If your eyebrows are lighter than your hair or thin and straggly, apply plain pyroxin with the finger ends. They can be trained into well-formed arches by daily brushing. Pyroxin also improves the eyelashes and makes them long and lovely.

Mole-hairs, fuzzy growths and superfluous hair on face or forearms are removed without pain or injury with a paste made of plain powdered delatone and water. Cover the hairs with this paste, leave on two minutes, remove, wash the surface, and the hairs will be gone.

A six months' supply of shampoo powder is made by mixing four ounces of orris root and an original package of orris. Brush this mixture through the hair (it comes out easily) and your scalp will be clean, while your hair will be light, wavy, lustrous and easy to do up."

NOTES OF BOYS' DEPARTMENT

Nearly 100 members of the boys' department were on hand at their club rooms last evening, when Mr. Batchelor outlined the plans for the circus to be given at the boys' building Friday and Saturday, Sept. 28 and 29, with a big street parade on Saturday noon.

The gymnasium will be a busy center for the rest of the month getting ready for the big event. Clowns, freaks, aerial artists and all the features of a big circus will be presented.

The annual fall auto ride will take place Friday evening leaving the boys' building at 8 o'clock for an hour's ride, after which the party will be served refreshments.

Saturday afternoon the outdoor trip will be a war canoe trip down the bay. The boys will meet at the aerial bridge at 2:30. Boys desiring to go must telephone Mr. McLeod as the party will be limited. Each boy will bring his lunch, cobs of corn for a corn roast and swimming trunks, for bathing.

The boys' department cabinet will meet at the boys' building tonight at 8 o'clock to outline plans for the coming season. A number of the old cabinet members will be present.

VALUE OF TORRENS TITLE

Affected By Decision of Judge Kelly of Ramsey County.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 11.—Judge Kelly of the Ramsey county district court has handed down a decision that promises to put a limit on the value of a Torrens title to land, if he is upheld in the supreme court.

The court ruled that where land is registered under the Torrens system and persons having an interest, as disclosed by the register of deeds, have not been made partners of the suit or notified legally of it, the Torrens title does not take away their right or title to the property.

"CASCARETS" FOR SICK HEADACHE

It's Your Inactive Liver and Bowels—You Need Cascarets Sure.

You're bilious, you have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and intestines can be quickly cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

GOOD SQUAD TURNS OUT

Abundance of Raw Material for High School Football Team.

Prof. Phillips and Old "D" Men Act as Coaches.

An abundance of material for the 1912 football squad of the Duluth Central high school turned out for the initial tryout yesterday afternoon at Athletic park. Forty candidates turned out, all eager to make a showing. From this bunch of huskies eleven will be selected for the regular team. A second team will also be organized. The grounds at Athletic park, which have been leased for the season by the Adams Athletic association, have been secured for practice purposes by the high school team. From now on to the opening of the season, there will be a series of tryouts and scrimmages. Prof. T. P. Phillips yesterday acted as coach, being assisted at the initial tryout by many of the old "D" men. The regular coach for the Central will be Prof. W. H. Schilling, who has also been secured assistance from some of the "D" men. Among those who have promised to help on the coaching line are Cukins, Kerns, St. Clair, O'Brien and Johnson. Yesterday O'Brien, Johnson and St. Clair coached the line, in which there were thirty candidates. Line plungers and other tactics were practiced. The boys showed a willingness to learn every new point which was suggested. Kerns and Cukins coached the back field, ten men trying out for the various positions. O'Brien gave the boys a talk on defensive playing. A Crisswell, Harris and Brown will probably be back in the backfield this season. Yesterday at the tryout, a place there. De Alon and Craig showed up nicely in line work. From yesterday's indications a good, strong, fast, heavy line can be expected. The student body is apparently taking more interest in the team this year than ever before.

BOWLING SEASON WILL OPEN IN DULUTH ABOUT OCT. 1

Duluth's bowling season will open about Oct. 1 this year. Interest in the sport has begun to awaken and local bowling enthusiasts have begun to make plans for the season opening. A general meeting will be called some time next week to make definite arrangements for the opening games and schedules. Bowling association will take in more teams under its protection than ever before. The major league will comprise about the same teams as last year. The Grand league will probably have six members instead of four. The members of the Adams team will be Joe Deller, Sam Olson, Andy Otterson, M. Hilber, Charles Foster and August Mause. The Big Duluths will be captained by Fritz and will have Stiegler, Sturm, Whitney, Campbell and Burns. The Grands will have Pate, Schultz, Captain, Sorver, Reilly, Wilson and Jackson. Carl Bernt will be at the head of the Three Winners. He has signed up "Chick" Brown and Jack Kline and has others in sight. It is probable that next season that instead of playing three nights a week, the teams will roll off their games on the same night, occupying the alleys in regular tournament style.

BADEN WINS EMPIRE STAKE

Little Brown Stallion Takes Grand Circuit Feature in Sensational Performance.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Baden, piloted by A. S. Rodney of Jersey City, N. J., won in straight heats the $10,000 Empire stake for 2:14 trotters, the feature event of yesterday's grand circuit program at the New York state fair.

It was a sensational performance by the little brown stallion. Forced to his limit by a classic field of rivals, Baden trotted the three fastest heats of the year. In the second heat, he was forced by Esther W. to clip her record to 2:05 1/2.

The 2:22 pace, three in five, was unfinished, with Geers having two heats to his credit with Early Thacher. The trot for 2-year-olds attracted three entries. Cogatie winning in straight heats.

WHEN CITY'S STREET CARS STOP RUNNING

PARADE OF STRIKERS

107 Former Street Car Employees Hold March of Protest Along Superior Street.

One hundred and seven men marched in the parade of striking street railway men at 6 o'clock last evening and were the object of much applause as they marched and counter-marched on Superior street. It would seem that the well-wishers of the strikers who lined the curbs were with the men, but the frequent comment to the effect that they could not win an effect to the seeming sentiment.

The parade formed at the corner of Eighth avenue west and Superior street. While the men waited for the word to march, the two men in the lead bearing a banner on which was drawn the semblance of a street car, announcing the strike, and urging everybody to "be it for Duluth," had some fun with the motorists and cars passing at the time. When a car would come along, these two men would stand in front of it

"EVERYTHING GOES"

Dogs Ride Free During Strike—"Student" Conductors Troubled With Paralysis of the Arm—Others Collecting Fares Under Difficulties.

"Everything goes today." Such is the remark that has become a by-word among the street car conductors who are on duty during the strike.

Never were street car conductors more generous. Passengers board the cars with dogs, cats, baby carriages or anything else that the laws of physics will allow. No other laws or rules seemed to be in force, as far as the running of the street cars is concerned.

Last evening a woman sought to board a car on Second street with a baby carriage, a baby and dog. A "dog" asked the student and the old car, under the supervision of an experienced hand. "Can we let on the dog?" asked the student and the old conductor replied, "Sure, everything goes today," and they let her on. The woman to have her way, but lifted the baby carriage for her to the platform and the dog lay down in the car. She paid just one five-cent fare for the dog, the carriage, the baby and herself.

There are many very audible whippers going around to the effect that the conductors themselves, especially the new hands, do not confine their generosity to the patrons of the company, but are liberally remembering themselves. In other words, it has been noticed that many fare collectors that are not "rung up."

A car ran yesterday with about fifty people on it from Third avenue west to the car barn without a single fare being "rung up" all that distance.

On a Woodland car yesterday many people absolutely refused to pay their fares, observing that the conductors were getting rich too fast. They were always "rung up" for free.

On a West Duluth car yesterday one of the passengers grew so bold as to cut the bell cord of the fare register. This was too much even for a strike-breaking conductor. He called a man, who boarded the car and collected the fares. These fares were turned over to the conductor and she paid just one five-cent fare for

HAD TO CHOOSE BETWEEN HIS WIFE AND HIS JOB

"If you take that street car out, you can't live with me," said one man. And John quit right there and joined the ranks of the strikers.

It happened at the street car barns this morning when a man, who refused to give his name, left the car he had taken out of the barns and walked home with his excited wife, the woman who made the above statement.

The woman had evidently run several blocks for her husband, but her husband was not so excited. It seems that after her husband had left the house, one of the neighbors came and induced the wife to place her sympathies with the strikers. She ran all the way to the car barns to tell her husband of the job.

Her action and that of her husband in preferring her to his job, got them a cheer from the men assembled at the restaurant, located just to the left of the car barns. That makes 110, shouted one man as the latest to join the ranks of the strikers was recorded in a little red book.

"I tell you the women can help a whole lot," the women, it is said, are holding a meeting this afternoon in the West end. They are planning to have some thing that we can do and if there is, I tell you the women can help a whole lot."

BUMPED TRUCK OUT OF WAY

Motorman Took Vigorous Methods With Driver Who Had Sympathy for Strikers.

One street car driver did not lose any time yesterday in clearing his track of a big truck which was blocking his way by occupying the tracks. The chauffeur of the auto truck was having a fine time showing his sympathy for the strikers. Every time the street car whistled for him to get out of the way he responded with a derisive look of his own horn.

This continued for about a block. The

CHAUFFEURS GETTING RICH

Reap Rich Harvest in Taking Citizens to Their Homes.

Owners of Cars Go Into the Livery Business.

Last night Superior street was alive with automobiles for hire. It seemed as though everybody in the city who owned a car had it out on the street for hire.

Fares ranged from 25 cents to 50 cents for customers as far east as Twentieth avenue. The rate to Lester Park was 25 cents. A car was not to be sent on its way until it had been filled.

They were all doing a good business. The taxis and regularly "for hire" cars came down the street and the chauffeurs were up and down Superior street in a mad rush for fares and sometimes it seemed as if there was a car gone but a few seconds when it returned to pick up another load.

Indiana Motor Men Raise $300,000 Fund to Start the Work.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 11.—A mammoth roadway, extending from New York city to San Francisco, a distance of 3,340 miles, and to cost $25,000,000, was proposed here last night at a banquet of 300 Indiana automobile manufacturers and dealers, who subscribed $300,000 to start the campaign in this state. The plan is to furnish material, a cost of about $12,000,000, free to the counties through which the road will pass, the counties to pay only for the cost of construction. The route is to be selected by a commission to be chosen by an organization of automobile manufacturers, and the road will be constructed under the supervision that the passengers threw themselves on the floors of the cars, and then, now and then, a rock or something would fall on the back of a worried passenger and a little jump and yell would signify a slight realization of treacherous and violent action.

The street car conductors adopted a unique way of discouraging the rock throwers. The car would be bowling along at top speed, smashing all speed ordinances and laws, and the conductors would keep up a continuous juggling of the trolley, causing flash after flash from the wires. These flashes had a blinding effect on the crowd and spoiled their aim. It is believed that this expedient prevented considerable damage.

“EVERYTHING GOES”

Dogs Ride Free During Strike—"Student" Conductors Troubled With Paralysis of the Arm—Others Collecting Fares Under Difficulties.

Everything goes today." But such is the remark, that has become a by-word among the street car conductors who are on duty during the strike.

There were street car conductors generous passengers bore with dogs, cats, baby carriages or anything else that the laws of physics allow. No other laws or rules were observed. The only thing the meaning of the street cars is running.

One evening a woman sought to board a car on Second street with a baby in her arms. The conductor, a student-hand, had charge of an excited passenger, and he said to her: "Can't let her on." She asked the student and the old conductor, and they both said: "No, it's too late today." And they not only allowed her to board, but they also allowed the baby carriage for her to the platform and the dog lay down in the car.

The dog, however, was not the dog himself, the carriage, the baby and the conductor.

There are many very audible whistles blowing from the conductors themselves, especially the new hands, but do not confine their whistles to the conductors only, but are liberally remembering the old hands, who are also noticed that many fares at collected that are not "rung up."

There are many fares with alighted people on that Third avenue west of the city hall, who are being "rung up" all that distance.

On a Second car yesterday morning a beautiful girl, with her face, observed that the conductor was not "ringing up" her fare, and she allowed to rise free.

On a Third car yesterday one of the passengers grew so bold as to untie the bell cord of the fare register.

On a Fourth car yesterday a fare-breaking conductor. He called a police officer, who had been turned the fare. These fares were returned to the conductor and

STRIKE HITS MERCHANTS AND THEATERS HARDEST

The merchants and theaters are the losers as a result of the street strike.

One theater reported that $400 worth of seats were left unsold last night. It was turned back at the box office.

Theaters are losing money this week in large sum daily, because of the strike.

Last night the Lyceum, Orpheum and Hippodrome crowds walked home, at 11 o'clock.

At 11 o'clock people were walking in every direction. Some Lakeviewers and some residents of West Duluth sought the hotels for a night's work.

Some of the men were walking to their homes, even though located on the strike zone.

Merchants state that their sales have dropped off greatly in the last few days.

Some of the merchants are paying to open his store.

The hardest hit and the class of people hurt in a financial way, many are business men.

FAMOUS STRIKE BREAKER MAY COME TO DULUTH

It has been rumored that a famous boxer, the late, great Muhammad Ali, once said that the only way to win a fight is to get a record behind him in Duluth that will last, and only one man in the city dared him to fight and get by with it. Well, that was a long time ago, and those days Walter was a husky yep carrying about 160 pounds of fight muscle. He was a strong, powerful, strong strike sympathizer, and one day when Curry was passing through the city he met him off at a car third avenue west and Superior street. He said, "Walter, you ought to get off, old boy. Walter, would you show me what a real fight was. Curry sits

For the long term in the Republican column, City Clerk Dawson led Macintosh, his Progressive opponent. James Brown, Progressive challenger, was slightly ahead of Charles Waterman for the short term. For governor, E. M. Ammons, Democrat, led his opponents in all but free counties Philip B. Stewart, Progressive Republican, showed a slight lead over Clifford C. Parks. of government engineers, according to the promoters.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

HARVESTING UNDER WAY

About Quarter of Flax Crop in Grand Forks County Cut.

Elevator Men Say They Never Saw the Grain So Dirty.

Grand Forks, N. D., Sept. 11.—O. D. Center, the better farming expert for this county, returned from a trip through the northern third of the county, Thursday was spent in Meeker, Lakewood, Blooming, and Gilly townships. In Lakewood township he found the first grain which had been injured by sprouting. The same conditions were found in the neighborhood of Meeker and Gilly. The damage as yet is not great and it was only in isolated fields that any sprouting was found. Near Gilly a field of oats was found which was considerably damaged, but in that case the fault lay with those who had shocked the grain. The shocks were large, containing from eighteen to twenty bundles and were not well put up. It was in a field entirely with the excessive rain. Friday was spent in visiting Falconer, Perry and Turtle River townships. Saturday was devoted largely to Johnston. In all fourteen townships were visited. Mr. Center reports a number of excellent fields. At Meeker one field where the wheat was planted on corn stubble, the yield was thirty-one bushels to the acre. In Turtle River township what had been sown on corn stubble and summer fallow went thirty-two bushels to the acre. The poorest yield reported was eleven bushels.

Threshing is progressing rapidly, according to Mr. Center. Already about 25 per cent of the grain in the county has been threshed and the grain is in excellent condition for pushing the work ahead. The farmers are making the most of their opportunity.

Are Harvesting Flax.
Flax is being cut, and the work has been cut, says Mr. Center. There is a wide difference in the methods followed by various farmers. In the handling of this crop some of the farmers are waiting until the flax is well ripened and are then binding it and shocking it. Others are cutting it while the straw is still very green and dropping it in bunches. Mr. Center strongly recommends the former method of handling the crop. It is necessary, he says, that the flax be ripe and dry to make it advisable to bind and shock it but that when such a condition is present, the most economical way to harvest the crop is to cut it and drop it in bunches.

Some Smut and Rust.
Some of the grain is affected with smut and more with rust. The smut, Mr. Center, is found in a few fields which was sown in medium season. The rust is found to a considerable extent in some fields where about 10 per cent of the grain is found to be infected with black rust. The rust is found mostly in grain raised along the river.

The dirty condition of the grain which was reported early in the season still continues. Elevator men told Mr. Center that they had never seen grain so dirty as it is this year. The grain is now in good condition for threshing and the blame for the condition must rest with the fact that an unusual amount of foul seed was grown this year on account of the wet weather.

Corn in Good Condition.
Mr. Center was enthusiastic over the condition of the corn crop. He said he had made wonderful progress in the past week. He found more than a dozen fields in which the corn had reached a stage where it could be harvested for feed. Some of the corn was in the heavy ground near the river, but further west. Wherever the corn was in that condition the farmers were urged to get busy at once and make the most of the home grown grain and not depend on the seed grown outside the state. Mr. Center stated that in every case where the farmer had used home grown seed there was a better stand, whereas the seed from outside the state was much poorer than that where foreign seed was used.

More Complications.
Dickinson, N. D., Sept. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—More complications have come to light as a result of the defalcation of ex-County Auditor or White and the legal tangle involves the American Surety company, the Northern Trust company, the Dakota

National bank and Stark county, and suits and counter suits have been started.

HE MUST SERVE PRISON TERM

Court of Appeals Sustains Charges Against Wealthy South Dakotan.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Sept. 11.—Falling in his appeal to federal circuit court of appeals Charles L. Hyde of Pierre, banker and reputed to be the most wealthy man in South Dakota—his wealth being estimated at $1,000,000—must serve one year and three months in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., and pay a fine of $1,500 for using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

Hyde was tried by a jury before Judge Elliot of the United States court in this city in December last. Evidence was introduced to prove that Hyde had represented to people in East that lots which he had for sale in the outskirts of Pierre would be rapidly in price, and had induced many of these representations to invest their savings in the lots, which were of but little if any value. He had informed the investors by means of circulars, maps and letters, circulated through the mails, that Pierre was a stock market, and that there were valuable minerals in its vicinity.

Hyde was indicted on a charge of mail fraud, showing street car lines running past the lots which he had sold, and that he had, in fact, there were no street car lines in Pierre. Hyde was convicted by the jury on three counts, on which he was sentenced on Dec. 22 last to serve three months in the federal penitentiary and to pay a fine of $1,500. The maximum sentence under the law for the three counts is three years and six months imprisonment and a fine of $1,500.

Hyde appealed to the federal circuit court of appeals from the verdict of the jury, asking for a new trial, which now has been denied by that court. He has been ordered to serve his term in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., and to pay a fine of $1,500.

MAN KILLED IS NOT BECHTOLD

Strange Complication Arises Concerning Death at Birch, Mich.

Ishpeming, Mich., Sept. 11.—A strange complication of affairs has arisen concerning the death of Charles Bechtold, who was killed at Birch Friday afternoon by being run over by a freight car in the yards of the Lake Independence Lumber company.

Word was received here from J. E. Becker of Menominee, under whose employ Bechtold was, stating that he carries a large amount of life insurance in Menominee. ## CITIZENS' COMMITTEE IS SEEKING SETTLEMENT

The Duluth Retail Merchants' association held its regular monthly meeting last evening and appointed a committee of five to endeavor to aid in the work of bringing about peace in the street car strike.

This committee, which consists of Bentley P. Neff, George A. French, William Burgess, William Billesten and William Hart, met this morning and went to see Mayor McChesney. They urged him to use his office to procure a speedy adjustment of the controversy.

"The mayor assured the committee," said Mr. Neff, the chairman, "that he would use his utmost endeavor to get in touch with both sides this afternoon. Our committee is anxious to see the matter adjusted as then all the facts in the case would be brought out and a square deal to both men and company would be assured. All we want to see is a speedy accomplishment of justice and peace."

In connection with the strike, the mayor was in conference this morning with a committee consisting of Emil Zant, J. D. Stryker, A. McLeod, Anderson, D. H. Clark and Z. D. Scott, the old citizens' committee which acted when the strike was a number of years ago, was with the aldermen from the West end, Aldermen Hoar, Hagan, Bernard and Curren, Sheriff Meining and Chief Troyer were also closeted with him.

BENTLEY P. NEFF, Chairman of Committee of Duluth Retail Merchants' Association.

MOB FRENZY SEEMED TO POSSESS THE RIOTERS

Chief Troyer said this morning concerning the riots and arrests that he never saw people in such a blind frenzy as those of last night when the cars were attacked. Said the chief:

"They did not seem to pay any attention to the police and looked dazed and as though not quite in their right senses when arrested. When we would arrest a man, nobody in the immediate vicinity seemed to notice it. Everybody seemed to be in the very highest pitch of excitement. The men we have in jail today do not seem to know what on earth they wanted to throw things for, and appear to be utterly ignorant of the fact that they have been breaking laws. They are frightened to death and do not know what to do. One of them told me that he was on his way home from work when a stone hit him on the shin. He got up, picked up the stone that hit him and hurled it at the headlight of the street car close to him. Why he did it he cannot say. Another of the men arrested says he saw a block of wood in front of him and suddenly seemed possessed to throw it. It is the same as other people around him were thrown. He thought he was slumped it up against the side of the car although he did not break a window. He says he was so excited that they do not realize what they are doing."

ASSAULTED AT CAR BARN

Anton Zyganski Claims He Was Beaten By Strike-Breakers.

Anton Zyganski reported at the police station this morning that he had been brutally assaulted at the office of the street car company this morning.

His face was badly battered and his clothes were covered with blood when he came into headquarters.

Zyganski declared that Supt. D. C. Moore was in the office with three or four other men when he entered and he alleges that Moore made no effort to protect him.

Police Prosecutor James A. Wharton issued a John Doe warrant for the arrest of the men who committed the assault. Detectives Schutte and Irving went to the company's office to serve it. Upon returning, Detective Schutte stated that Supt. Moore refused to give him the slightest information as to the identity of the man or men who attacked Zyganski.

Zyganski says that he went to the office to pay a 5-cent fare. He explained that on a street car his roommate had tendered a $2 bill, which the conductor could not change. In keeping with a custom of the company, the conductor gave him a small envelope in which the fare could be forwarded to the company later. It was to pay this fare that Zyganski went to the office, he asserts.

Vito Jannetta, 17 years old, driving an auto truck for a paper company, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of obstructing the car tracks. He admitted that he had put a car on Fourth street from Twelfth avenue east to Ninth avenue west. He got $10 and costs on ten days after he entered his plea of guilty in police court this morning.

The four men who were arrested on charges of hurling missiles at street cars asked for examinations when they were arraigned this forenoon. Their hearings were set for Tuesday. Under the statute they are liable to a penitentiary sentence if they are convicted. The police state that the men admit that they were throwing stones or blocks of wood at a street car on Twelfth avenue west. They are Axel Steinhagen, Oscar Anderson, Theodore Nydore and Charles Edwards.

Chief Troyer held a conference at the office of the mayor in the city hall this morning. As a result scores of extra men will be on duty. Sheriff Meining will swear in as large a number of deputies as he can secure. The police and the street car company are putting on extra policemen and specialists. Yesterday sixteen specialists were sworn in and this morning seventeen more were added. Part of these are employees of the street car company. Most of the regular police force will be available for quick service. Extras will be given charge of the beats in other parts of the city and the regulars will be at the seat of the trouble or where they can be reached at a minute's notice.

MARRIED MEN ARE PROTECTED

Several With Families to Support Were Not Called Out.

There are men working on the street cars during the strike who sympathize with the strikers, but who could not join in the strike because they have large families to support and need each day's wages. When the strike was called all men with large families were told that if they could not afford to be out of work for a time, not to go out with the others.

The men were told to register and they would not be interfered with during the performance of their duties. There are at least ten men working each day who are in sympathy with the strikers, but who cannot afford to be idle a minute. It was stated today that these men are being protected by the strikers. They will call them out and pay them wages every day out of their own pockets, said one of the officers of the local union this morning.

CONFINED TO REPARTEE

No Violence Reported at the Car Barns During the Morning.

Strikers and Strike-Breakers Indulge in Verbal Warfare Only.

A verbal battle between the strikers and the strike-breakers was the only outbreak this morning at the car barns. Hundreds of onlookers enjoyed the repartee of the contestants.

The strikers were seated on the south side of the street when several strike-breakers walked out to the middle of the street. This started the conflict, which lasted over an hour. "Don't think you are a regular car man because you wear a hat," said one sympathizer.

"Yes, and you are not so bad off either," was the quick retort, "and the same to you fellows."

"Funny you can't afford to buy a real tie with all the money you are making. Getting rich aren't you fellows?"

CURFEW LAW TO BE ENFORCED

Parents Warned to Keep Their Children Off the Streets.

The curfew law will be enforced tonight. Children who are on the streets after 9 p. m. will have to give a good account of themselves, the police say.

Young boys under the age of 16 contributed a good deal of the yelling and stone throwing in the West end last evening.

While the street car strike is in progress, children will be expected to keep off the streets. The police say that parents should be warned as their youngsters are liable to arrest.

Today a number of teachers notified all teachers in the public schools to instruct their pupils to keep away from street car trouble and to go to bed early tonight.

LEAVE CARS AT THE BRIDGE

The street car strikers assert today that the Superior motormen and conductors in Duluth-Superior cars are refusing to come across the Interstate bridge into strike territory. They say that this began this morning. However, the matter could not be confirmed in Superior.

Left Gates Open.

The motorman on a West Duluth car left the gates open this morning and as a result an automobile ran into it and bent the frame out of shape. The car was run into the barn and another sent out by the officials. This is the second car that has been damaged in this way since the strike started.

Dr. Blakesley will go to Winona the day following the primary election. He expects to meet the candidates for office.

KNOCKOUT DROPS USED AS "TRADE"

Chicago Court Employee Arrested on Charge of Luring Victims.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Giving "knockout drops" to men and robbing them after they become unconscious has been carried on as a regular business in Chicago, according to a confession to the police today by Miss Gertrude Sutter.

J. Paul Folsom, employed in the office of the clerk of the county court, was arrested with the woman after she had charged he lured victims for the plot. A number of women's diamond rings were found in Folsom's pockets.

SAY VALENTINE BROKE LID LAW

Indian Commissioner Accused of Taking Liquor on Reservation.

Washington, Sept. 11.—Charges that Robert G. Valentine, who resigned yesterday as commissioner of Indian affairs, took intoxicating liquors on an Indian reservation in Oklahoma during an official visit, will be investigated by the department of justice.

The allegation that the commissioner had violated the law was made several months ago at a congressional hearing before a committee investigating the Indian office. A person whose name is not disclosed, recently called the charges to the attention of the department of justice and was informed by Acting Attorney General Harr that the subject would be taken up.

A RENOV STOPPED A SERMON.

New York Sun: Brinnell, the famous tenor, was once asked by Father McDowd of the Church of St. Agnes, to sing a solo at 10 o'clock mass. Brinnell came into the choir, and after directing himself of throat coverings, tumbling over music stands and nearly setting the choir crazy by trying his voice and delaying the service, he finally concluded that he was in voice. By the time Brinnell got ready Father McDowd had begun his sermon, and Brinnell tried to attract his attention with his hands and saying in a voice audible enough to be heard in the choir:

"Be ready for us sing! Stoppa ze preach! Stoppa ze preach!"

And the priest had to cut his sermon short to accommodate the impatient choir.

VOTE WILL BE NEAR NORMAL

Nearly 10,000 Voters Have Registered for Primary Election.

Within 1,500 of Heavy Registration for Municipal Election.

The total registration returns will show that between 9,500 and 10,000 voters have registered for the primary election.

Up to noon today several precincts, some of them with heavy votes, had not reported their registrations for yesterday at the office of the city clerk.

But with them missing the vote was over 9,000 for the second day. When all are in the total will run considerably above that figure.

The complete figures for the first day of registration show that 4,121 names were entered on the rolls. The figures are considered very satisfactory, although it is asserted that there are still 2,000 to 3,000 more votes in the city. In view of the unfamiliarity with the new primary law the total is really better than had been expected.

It is thought that many voters will take advantage of the provision of the new law whereby they can swear in their vote. To do this they must sign an affidavit attested by two property owners of their precinct. No one may corroborate more than five such affidavits.

The city clerk states that the registration will be within less than 1,500 of the registration for the last municipal election, which was the highest in the history of the city. The registration was 11,055.

As far as the returns had been received they are as follows, by precincts:

NEWS OF THE WEST END WINNERS IN WEST END GARDEN CONTEST ARE ANNOUNCED

GARDEN WINNING FIRST PRIZE. Entered by Joseph Miller, 2512 West Thirteenth Street.

Prizes for the best gardens in the West end were awarded yesterday afternoon by the garden committee of the West End Commercial club. Dr. O. A. Oredson, chairman of the committee and head of the garden movement in this end of the city, presided at the meeting.

The prize winners are: Joseph Miller, 2512 West Thirteenth street, best general garden and best vegetable garden; Arthur Ouellette, 1420 West First street, best strawberry patch; Egell Nelson, 2112 West Seventh street, best flower garden; Clement Menelaki, 2416 West Eighth street, best potato patch, and Ensign school, Twenty-third avenue west and Tenth street, best lawn in the West end.

Joseph Miller receives the first prize of $10, while the others receive $5 each. The $30 in prize money was donated by several West end business men early last spring, when the garden movement was started by Dr. Oredson. Only West end children under 15 years of age were eligible to the contest. About fifty entered the contest last June, of which number thirty had gardens fit for the inspection of the garden committee of the Commercial club. A thorough inspection tour of the West end was made the past few days and $5 will be given to the winners by the members of the committee.

The prizes will be awarded Friday evening, Oct. 4, when a mass meeting will be held by the Commercial club at the Woodmen hall, Twenty-first avenue west and First street. At that time a program of addresses and musical numbers will be featured, as well as the series of stereoscopic pictures of the West end shops, stores, factories, mills and streets. The prize winners will be the subjects of honor. It is probable that a picture to the value of $5 will be given to the winners of the best lawn.

Of the gardens examined the following have been given honorable mention by the committee: Reuben Olson, 2512 West Thirteenth street; Myrtle Hovland, 301 North Twenty-third street; Gertrude and Gunnild Dah, 2512 West Tenth street; Mildred Danielson, 2206 West Eighth street; Clarence Klumbroch, R. F. D. No. 2, box 12; Franklin Truelson, 2229 West Seventh street; Leonard Theobald, 2318 West

F. D. No. 2, box A; Elmer Norquist, 2520 Piedmont avenue; David Peterson, R. F. D. No. 2, box 3.

The garden contest met with considerable success and will be repeated next year, according to Dr. Oredson. The rivalry among the children has resulted in a desire to have gardens and to keep the yards clean, which was the main reason for the inauguration of the garden contest last June. The plan has resulted in a much cleaner

E. T. YOUNG IN DULUTH

Candidate for Governor Sees No Hope for Eberhart.

Says Opposition to Present Executive Is Settling on Candidates.

E. T. Young, former attorney general and candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, is in Duluth today. It is Mr. Young's first trip to Duluth during the campaign, and he can remain but a few hours now. He will return to St. Paul tonight, and tomorrow will make a speech at the Chicago county fair at Rush City. He will wind up his campaign in the Twin Cities.

"Eberhart is beaten now," said Mr. Young. "The anti-Eberhart sentiment, which was unsettled as to candidates is crystallizing. The anti-Eberhart papers in the southern part of the state are declaring for me for first choice and William E. Lee for second choice, and I believe I have the best chance of gaining the nomination. Everywhere I go I find the saloonkeepers are about the nearest thing to a political machine in Minnesota politics are making their last stand in this campaign and they hope to pull Eberhart through. I believe the time has come when the voters are determined to throw out the brewery shacks and that Eberhart will be defeated.

"Eberhart is as useless as governor, is absent from the office so much, is so tied up to the interests of the breweries, that the people generally will use it. We should give the law a fair trial, and prevent any nomination by a mere plurality."

Mr. Young believes that the rate situation in Minnesota will be adjusted as soon as the United States supreme court decides the Minnesota rate cases.

"As soon as we know the revenue to which the railroads are entitled and as soon as the other questions involved in the rate cases are settled, we can go about a readjustment of the rates in the state," he said. "They certainly are not entitled to Duluth by its very location should be a great commercial and industrial center and has been severely handicapped by railroad rates. The rates need readjustment in fairness to commerce and to the public."

Mr. Young's attention was called to the fact that his activity in the tonnage tax fight of 1909 had been raised against him in St. Louis county.

"That's the work of the Eberhart people," he said. "The tonnage tax is not an issue in this campaign. If the United States steel corporation installs a large, substantial plant for the manufacture of steel here, there will be no necessity for a tonnage tax. If the company persists in shipping the ore out of the state for the building up of other communities, I believe a tonnage tax will certainly be imposed. I understand the steel corporation is building a large, substantial plant here. What builds up Duluth will build up the whole state; will provide a large market for agricultural products and will contribute to home labor. Do not think there will be any disposition to tear down such an industry."

TETANUS SERUM SAVES HORSES

Veterinarian Believes It May Stop Epidemic in the Southwest.

Holdrege, Neb., Sept. 12.—Dr. D. S. Palmer, health officer of Phelps county, announces the successful use of tetanus serum in the treatment of horses stricken with the new disease, which has been diagnosed as a form of meningitis. Dr. Palmer, recognizing the general similarity of the two diseases, experimented with tetanus serum on three horses, all in late stages of the disease. Two recovered at once. The other, whose condition was much worse, died.

The Holdrege Commercial club, in conjunction with the county officials, will continue the experiments on an extended scale.

Spread to Iowa. Council Bluffs, Iowa, Sept. 12.—The disease which has been epidemic in Kansas and parts of Nebraska recently, killing large numbers of horses, has crossed the Missouri river and several animals have died near Sheridan, Clarinda and Pacific Junction in Page and Mills counties, Iowa.

"Correct Dress for Women and Girls"

Gidding quality is the sort that has "made good" with the "best dressed" of the land—not only locally but nationally—yet our prices conform with what the average woman wants to pay.

Autumn Suits

They keep trooping in every day. There are so many styles that full description cannot be given of them all. Several pretty models in cutaway effect arrived yesterday. (Paris says that cutaways will be one of the favorites this season). These models are made in Cheviots, Broadcloths and other materials. $25.00, $35.00 and up.

Autumn Coats

The "Limousine" is the coat of the season. If you haven't seen this coat, do so tomorrow. It's exclusive with the Gidding store. Made of materials that are new, distinctive and exclusive. The materials of these coats are what makes them different. If $15 is your price—your coat is here just as it is if $100 is your price.

Autumn Dresses

The Charmeuse Dress is the ultra stylish dress for Fall. We have them at all prices, but the woman with $18.50 to spend will find one style here that is worth quite a little more. It's a Frenchy effect and has all the traits of a Gidding garment. And many others for "more" or "less" money.

Autumn Skirts

Just arrived. Corduroy Skirts at $7.50, made with the new good effect in Brown, Navy and Taupe; sham plait down the front; edged with black braid.

Another pretty model in Blue and Black Novelty Mixtures at $5.00. Extra sizes for the "hard to fit."

Overheard in Our Suit Salon

"I really thought I would have to wait till I got to Chicago to get my suit. A friend of mine advised me to go to Gidding's here in Duluth as they had stores in New York and Cincinnati, and they surely would have metropolitan styles such as I wanted. I was agreeably surprised to find such pretty suits—and such reasonable prices too."

These are the words of a visitor to Duluth whose name will be given on request. Visitors to this city appreciate the Gidding service. It is the only store that has direct connections in New York and Paris, whereby the latest style conceptions are received first-handed.

In an effort to break the strike which it now has on its hands, the Duluth Street Railway company wants the city to provide a special squad of police to keep the streets clear of the company's cars.

And yet, the Duluth Street railway owes the city of Duluth, the county of St. Louis, and the state of Minnesota, more than $100,000 in back taxes. Not a penny of taxes on the 1910 and 1911 personal property assessments has been paid. The assessment on the company's personal property was $1,214,000.00 in 1910 and $1,174,000.00 in 1911. The company has refused to pay the taxes assessed on its property.

The last personal property tax paid by the street railway company was in February, 1910, when it settled for its 1909 taxes. The Duluth Street railway company has a world wide market. It can be disposed of on the exchanges of New York, Montreal and Toronto as readily as the values are constant. Such a company should be able to pay its household goods, which depreciate in market value very quickly.

SUPERIOR CAR MEN JOIN DULUTH STRIKERS

Police will be out in force again tonight at the West end to prevent the strike and no cars will run after 7 o'clock at the latest, unless a settlement is reached today.

Last night fifty uniformed policemen, under the direct command of Chief Trower and Captain Fisket, were on duty in the trouble district of the West end. A detachment of a dozen regulars were available for duty calls at any point from which calls for assistance might be received.

The street car company has sworn in a large number of extras. Part of them are their own employees and others are men who have been specially hired. Between both of them forty men had been sworn in as special police in the pay of the street car company.

Sheriff Melning said yesterday that he would swear in as many deputies as possible. When darkness came, the deputy sheriff was on the grounds for service. It is expected that the sheriff will swear in a bunch of special deputies today in order to have them handy should occasion require.

MANY REFUSE TO PAY FARES

Object to Conductors' Refusal to Ring Up the Nickels.

"Ring up all your fares before we will pay," is what a man told a street car conductor on a Lakeside car this morning.

There were eighteen people in the car and the conductor had to ring up eighteen fares before the people would pay over their nickel each.

Just this morning on a West Duluth car a young man was ejected from the car after he refused to pay his fare. He had refused to pay his fare until the conductor had rung up the eight fares he had collected. The conductor refused to put the young man off. The passengers jeered and others refused to pay, but they were too many for the street railway employees and he rode to the city free.

SET AN EXAMPLE

To the Editor of The Herald:

Your issue of last night states that the Commercial club wants the saloons kept closed until the strike is over. I suggest that the club would set a fine example to the lawless young rascals who have broken in at saloons if the club would close up its "blind pig" and stop breaking the law.

Probably there would be less law-breaking if the mayor also would set an example by keeping his oath of office and by not permitting official law-breaking on St. Croix avenue. Nothing destroys $30,579 in gold in payment of the tax for 1910. The taxing officials figure was $43,172.20. The treasurer refused the tender as insufficient. A long and drawn-out lawsuit followed. In district court the case was tried at length before it was finally submitted to the court last April. No decision has yet been handed down.

The 1910 tax has been delinquent for about two years and eight months. Under the law the state can collect 1 per cent per month in interest and an added benefit of 10 per cent. The state would bring the amount due at the present time from the company to about $50,000 for the 1910 tax.

Again Refused.

The 1911 tax, due during January, 1912, was also unpaid, the company assuming the same attitude. The tax amounted to $43,416. The company tendered $27,065.93 on Feb. 26 last to county treasurer. It was also refused as insufficient. With penalties and interest the amount due on the 1911 tax will reach $50,000.

The county and state tax officials have prepared a second tax enforcement suit against the company. Charles B. Adams, special attorney for the county board, has indicated that the 1911 case is even more conclusive than the 1910 action, of which he is confident.

The street car officials put up substantially the same defense in their answer in the 1911 case as in the 1910 matter. They object to the increase in the assessed valuation, despite the fact that from May 1, 1910, to May 1, 1911, the market value of their common stock advanced $12 a share or $24,000. It is claimed. This case is pending in district court for trial.

The state has had the physical valuations of the company's property brought down to date. Engineers employed by St. Louis county are ready to testify as to the physical valuations of the traction company holdings in Duluth, and the taxing officials have been circulating the valuations of the Superior properties of the company. These valuations are the reckoned with to prove in court what percentage of the company's holdings are located in Duluth and what portion on the other side of the bay.

The 1912 assessment, which was but recently made was also attacked. The company filed a long protest with the county board of equalization claiming that it was being unjustly discriminated against by the assessors. The company claimed that its personal property had been assessed at as high a percentage of its true value as were logs, lumber, bank stocks and coal, these commodities being assessed at 50 per cent of their market value. The assessors refused to make any reduction to meet the same level. The equalization board has refused to make any disturbance of the assessors' figures.

INCIDENTS OF THE LOCAL CAR STRIKE.

STATEMENT FROM LABOR LEADERS

Paramount to all other issues is the maintenance of law and order. We appeal to every friend and sympathizer of the striking street railway men to assist in preventing injury to life and destruction of property.

No true friend of labor will resort to violence to win this fight. Indeed, it is not of record where violence ever contributed to the success of any movement. The only way to win this fight is by the peaceful and lawful means.

We can only merit public sympathy by deserving it. The majority of the people in this community, as in every other, stand first and foremost for the maintenance of the law. All law and order in every crisis are held in subordination to every consideration of law.

Considerations of duty and patriotism prompt us to appeal to every person in Duluth to assist in preserving the public peace. Let each of us by precept and example show the true dignity of labor by emphatically disapproving every disturbance of the law.

We are proud of the fact that the Duluth street railway men have not participated in any of the acts of violence attending the strike. That they will not do so in the future, no matter what the provocation may be, we give assurance.

In addition to protesting against disorder, we beg leave to assure the public that we are interested in contributing towards its convenience as we are in obtaining an honorable adjustment of existing differences for the street railway men.

We are authorized to state for the men that they are ready to meet the management of the Duluth Street Railway company for the purpose of effecting an agreement that will terminate the strike, or if this is not satisfactory, to submit all the matters at issue to arbitration, provided, of course, that all men be reinstated in their former positions pending the award of arbitration. Can anything be more fair?

Signed: REZIN ORR, Representing Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America.

OLD BICYCLES BEING TAKEN FROM ATTIC

Have you got a bicycle?

Don't you wish you had the one you sold for $2 eight years ago?

Some people don't sell their bicycles. They just laid them away in a woodshed, or a coal cellar or in the attic or in some other place where the householder can't find them.

They have used for them now. Bicycles are all the rage now. They are better than walking, anyway. Guy Warren rode to the board of trade last morning with his tenuous physique draped over a wheel meant for a boy of 14.

are being pedaled in many style by real men.

The bicycles that are usually seen on the streets while the street car service is normal are up-to-date models with coaster brakes and other improvements.

Not out of ten bicycles seen on the streets these days are old stagers that run with squeaks and rattles. They're better than walking, anyway. Guy Warren rode to the board of trade last morning with his tenuous physique draped over a wheel meant for a boy of 14.

violence confuse the issues and delay the time in which the leaders can coolly and calmly consider a real settlement.

Having been in Boston this last summer and having observed the Boston Elevated railway strike I speak from a normal and sane point of view. The Boston Elevated strike was practically the same as the strike now in progress in Duluth. In Boston the strikers won, but the duration of the strike was lengthened and its issues confused by reason of the violence.

In the interest of law and order, in the interest of individual moral integrity, in the interest of property, health and life itself, keep away from the crowds. Those who augment these mobs are unwittingly (perhaps) acting as enemies of the strikers, and of the street car company, and of the better Duluth that shall be.

STRIKE BREAKS AN ENGAGEMENT

Girl Refuses to Marry Conductor Who Wouldn't Go Out.

Because "Benny" Holmes, a conductor in the employ of the Duluth Street Railway company, refused to go out with the strikers, the girl to whom he was engaged to be married has "broken it off."

The wedding was set for Oct. 1. Wives of striking street car men talked the girl over to their way of thinking, that she might induce "Benny" to join the ranks of the strikers.

Tuesday evening he made his regular

AUTO TRUCKS RUN ON CAR SCHEDULE

Big, powerful auto trucks, owned by the Fitger Brewing company and the Clyde Iron Works, took the places of street cars last night and this morning in fine shape.

The auto companies sent their trucks out on the street last night to pick up passengers. They were taken free of charge and stops were made at each corner. This morning the trucks were sent to some of the suburbs and brought in large passenger lists. The same performance will be repeated tonight.

Everybody seemed to enjoy the novelty. The companies followed the example of those named and placed their trucks in service for pedestrians. If they can be spared from their regular duties just before the dinner hour.

CAR FOREMAN HAD REVOLVER

Pointed It at Man Who Shook Fist at Car.

Jarvis Langin was taken off a wagon near the Point of Rocks this morning at the point of a revolver in the hands of Willis C. Ives, a street car foreman, after he shook his fist at a passing street car, according to his statement to police headquarters.

Langin said that he and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bates were driving to West end in Kustad & Johnson's grocery rig. As the car passed them he stated that he waved his hand at the front vestibule, in which several men were riding. Ives was among them and Langin declared that he stopped the car and ran towards them with the gun in his hand. Langin asserted that he forced him from the wagon and made him board a street car bound towards the city. At Seventh avenue west he said Ives turned him loose.

Langin told his story to detectives Schutte and Irvine and Ives was brought to the police station. It developed that Langin was as liable under the law as Ives, if not more so, and both were released. Ives was sworn in about a year ago as a special policeman.

EVERYTHING DONATED FOR BENEFIT DANCE

Next Tuesday evening at Moose hall there will be a benefit dance for the striking street car men.

The hall was donated by the carpenters and the music by the printers and the music by the musicians' union.

Everything will be donated and the money taken in at the door will be used for the strikers. It will be evenly distributed between the men.

Everybody is invited to the dance. The hall is at 224 West First street.

STOCKLESS STOCKHOLDERS HAVE INTEREST IN FIGHT

To the Editor of the Duluth Evening Herald:

If this statement is true, and I believe it is, there should be no reason why this squabble between the Duluth Street Railway company, its employees, and the general public should not be adjusted without much delay.

Some twenty-five or thirty years ago the people of the city of Duluth and the state of Minnesota gave to the Duluth Street Railway company a franchise which is worth now, according to the figures of the company itself and the best experts, about $3,000,000. They are paying dividends on that amount of money, and therefore the franchise must be worth that amount of money.

The people gave it to the Duluth Street Railway company, understand. They did not sell it to them as they should have done, or better still they should have kept it for themselves. It was a gift, pure and simple.

Since then every man, woman and child in the city of Duluth has been contributing from 10 cents to a day in the way of street car fares to enable the Duluth Street Railway company to pay its expenses, make new extensions, and pay dividends upon the $3,000,000 which the people gave it.

And also upon the $3,000,000 which the people so generously gave them long ago. By reason of the fact that the officials of the Duluth Street Railway company possess more financial brains than do the people all these dividends are paid to the men who own the capital stock of the Duluth Street Railway company, which comprises the money actually required to build the plant, and the $3,000,000 which the people contributed in the form of street car fares.

Now come the Duluth Street Railway company and says that the people have nothing to say about this strike. But I say that the people have something to say about this strike, and that the people have a right to say something in the dispute between the men who own the cars and plant and the men who operate the cars.

Somewhere in the dispute between the men who own the cars and plant and the men who operate the cars there lies a middle ground of right and justice to both sides.

The Duluth Street Railway company, fighting for the biggest dividends it can get, is in no position to find that middle ground. Its officers cannot be trusted to deal fairly and truthfully by its employees or by the public. They prove that last spring when they lied to the public and tricked their employees.

The employees themselves cannot find that middle ground, since they, like the company, are looking for the most money (wages) they can get for the least amount of work. That's a mean game and you can't change it. But a board of disinterested citizens (representing the people who gave that $3,000,000 franchise to the Duluth Street Railway company) can find that middle ground of right and justice to both sides.

And, taking upon myself the duty of representing the people of this city, who gave the Duluth Street Railway company that $3,000,000 franchise, and in particular, the common, everyday people who work for their living, the people who have no money to spare from their meager wages for cab and taxicab hire, I demand that the Duluth Street Railway company at once submit this matter to arbitration.

I anticipate a reply from the Duluth Street Railway company that this fight is none of my business, and that I have chosen to make it my business. Well, I have all those thousands of stockless stockholders in the Duluth Street railway who contributed that $3,000,000 franchise to the company's stockholders, which they have not yet and never will get a cent of dividend. And believe me, kind friends, when we start out to do something we can't easily do it.

The Duluth Street Railway company may own the cars, and the tracks upon which they run, and the franchise, but they do not own the streets, and our streets, but by the pagan gods of this world, the streets do not belong to the city of Duluth and it doesn't belong to the citizens of Duluth and it doesn't belong to the people of Duluth.

DAVID HENRY DAX.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE WHICH IS AT WORK ON STREET CAR STRIKE

The following committee was appointed by Mayor McCuen and is in session this morning, trying to bring about a settlement of the street car strike.

Frank J. Nixon, Charles Marshall, Joseph Mattland, J. D. Stryker, William Burgess, J. E. McElroy, H. H. Hines, T. H. Hines, W. B. Patton, H. V. Ewa, R. A. Armstrong, R. A. Hoar, George Tupper, M. W. Turner, J. E. McElroy, S. E. Matter, C. P. Craig, David Williams, Jones, Lane McGregor, George R. King, Emil J. Zauf, J. A. McNeil, Bentley P. Noel, Frank E. Church, N. B. McNulty, J. D. Park, Whitney Wall.

Mr. Reichert was asked if a committee from the club would be organized, but he replied that Mr. Warren is now swamped with committee and it is believed that there are too many. A. H. Craswell wanted to know if the matter was not important enough to require the attention of President Goodrich and Vice President Lowry of Minneapolis, but Mr. Reichert said that those here are better acquainted with the situation and that the president of the club is the result of a culmination of grievances dating back a long time, among other reasons being that the employees or committee of them could be heard without that of being discharged. He said that the men are willing to submit the whole question of unionism, regulation of working hours and every other point, to a committee, and are willing to stand by the decision of the committee.

Mr. Reichert repeatedly interrupted, one of the men, Mr. McElroy, and then was questioned again himself. Bert Foster asked if there was objection to organization. Mr. Reichert said that the company was for an open shop, and that the men were for a union. Mr. Reichert repeatedly asked, why then was such a matter not reported by one in authority. He said that the trouble was not a report would settle the strike before night. He said that the trouble was not a report would settle the strike before night. He said that the trouble was not a report would settle the strike before night.

Mr. Reichert evaded a reply to these questions.

JACK JOHNSON'S WIFE IS SUICIDE

Shoots Herself in Head, Saying, "God Pity a Lonely Woman."

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Mrs. Jack Johnson, white wife of the world's champion heavyweight pugilist, who shot herself through the head last night, died at 8:30 o'clock this morning. She did not regain consciousness.

The pugilist's wife was 31 years old, the daughter of Mrs. David Terry of Brooklyn and the divorced wife of Clarence Clarence, a well-known New York turfman.

"God pity a poor woman who is lonely, alone," were the last words, indicated that the ostracism which followed her marriage to the negro prizefighter was the cause of her suicide.

Mrs. Johnson's act was attributed by her friends to a nervous breakdown, a series of years which she had suffered from. Mrs. Johnson is also said to have shown symptoms of tuberculosis. She was to have left for Las Vegas, N. M., last night, but decided to abandon the trip.

Mrs. Johnson did not regain consciousness after the shooting. Her husband and seven other persons, mainly relatives of the pugilist, were at her bedside when she died. A Roman Catholic priest administered extreme unction.

According to the two maids who were in the room when Mrs. Johnson shot herself, she was seized with a fit of despondency shortly after her husband's return from the fight. She spoke of dying, and repeated several times that she never expected to see him again. The nervous prostration from which she suffered. While the maids were working on her, she died. Mrs. Johnson is said to have opened a drawer on a cabinet and seized a revolver. She pointed it at her head, but before she could pull the trigger, the maids became aware of what had happened and struggled with her to take the weapon.

Mrs. Johnson fought desperately to retain the weapon and in the struggle managed to point the revolver at her head and pulled the trigger.

Mrs. Johnson fell to the floor unconscious and the maids sent for Johnson's mother and sister, who live her several blocks away. Before they arrived Johnson returned and hurried his wife to a hospital.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make It Grow.

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion. All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden sage and Sulphur combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it should. Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drug store for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give you good looks if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance.

DULUTHIANS TO HEAR WILSON AT ST. PAUL

Many Admirers of Presidential Candidate Will Greet Him at Capital.

Speech Sept. 18 May Be Only One of Campaign in Northwest.

Many Duluth admirers of Governor Woodrow Wilson will hear his speech at St. Paul on the evening of Wednesday, Sept. 12.

The Democratic presidential candidate will arrive in Minneapolis on the morning of Sept. 13 and will remain in that city until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. He will then go to St. Paul to remain during the remainder of the afternoon and the evening.

The big speech of Governor Wilson's visit to Minnesota will be given in St. Paul in the evening, probably at the Auditorium. It is probable that Governor Wilson will be unable to come to the Northwest again during the presidential campaign, and his St. Paul speech may be the only one he will give in this section of the country before election.

Duluth Democrats are making plans to have Duluth well represented at St. Paul on the occasion of Governor Wilson's visit. The Duluth Democratic Club is holding during the pre-convention campaign, and the state convention which was held here sent a solid delegation of twenty-four instructed for Wilson to the Baltimore convention.

A party of Duluthians will be organized to make the trip to St. Paul to hear Governor Wilson. His visit to this state is expected to give impetus to the Wilson campaign and many Duluth Democrats are anxious to obtain the inspiration that will be given by Governor Wilson's speech.

The Wilson men of the Twin Cities are making preparations for the formal announcement of the presidential candidate and he will be greeted by immense crowds at the airport. A program is being arranged for the day.

ODD FELLOWS ARE COMING

Special Train Will Bring Nearly 100 Delegates to Winnipeg Meeting.

Will Be Entertained By Local Members of the Order.

A special train will arrive tomorrow morning over the Great Northern bringing between eighty-five and a hundred people from the south and east, en route to Winnipeg to attend the annual meeting of the Sovereign Grand lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Those people represent the several states and Canada in that convention, which legislates for over 2,500,000 members, with connections in all the civilized world, and with the branch established in England, numbering over 3,000,000 Odd Fellows.

The meeting will open on Sept. 13 by an address of welcome from Mr. R. Roblin, premier of Manitoba, and Winnipeg officials will be present to tender their felicitations. Hon. John B. Cockrum is the grand orator, and every state and province will be represented, each by four representatives. Accompanying this special will be the grand master of Minnesota, Hermon B. Phillips, and A. L. Bolton, grand secretary, both of St. Paul, and representatives of different portions of the country who have been congregating at St. Paul. There they will be met by R. Meek, grand representative of Minnesota, at present a guest of T. W. H. H. of Duluth.

This great order is the second in point of years, and the first in point of numbers and in point of expenditures for relief, (not insurance). It is the first organized institution to recognize the fact that prevention of poverty is better than relief and that the principle of the order is to prevent poverty, not to disburse a cent in charity or make a provision for the conditions which make giving or charity necessary.

Coudersport, Wis., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Farmers, living near Exeland south of here report that, if the present wet weather continues longer, there will be a serious loss to the potato crop all through this section. The potatoes have started to decay in the ground on account of the continuous wet weather. A month's dry weather is needed very much to save the crop and permit its digging. A bumper potato crop is looked for all through here, with favorable weather.

CALL GIBSON MURDERER

New York, Sept. 12.—Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer whose client, Rosa Menachik Szabo, lost her life while boating with him on Greenwood lake, New York, on July 18, was taken into custody today by Deputy Sheriff De Graw of Orange county, on a warrant charging Gibson with murder in the first degree. Gibson was arrested at his office. It was announced the move would start once for Middle-town.

Gibson issued a statement just before his arrest, reasserting his innocence and insisting that there had been no struggle either in the boat or in the water.

"I am not prepared," he said, "to believe that the report will show that Mrs. Szabo died of strangulation. There certainly was no struggle in the water between Mrs. Szabo and myself which would result in her being strangled."

"When she came into the boat in such a manner that would cause her to die of strangulation, certainly did not clutch her by the throat, and there was no way by which

This Week's Sunday School Lesson

WRITTEN FOR THE HERALD BY REV. J. S. KIRLEY, D. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON: SEPT. 15.

Matt. xi. 20-30: Judgment and Mercy.

CONNECTION.
After the death of John the Baptist and the first missionary tour of the disciples, Jesus was led into very severe denunciations of the cities in which so much of His work had been done. They had signally ignored their opportunities.

THE LESSON.

His Condemnation of the Deliberately Wicked. 20-24.

"Then began He to upbraid the cities wherein most of His mighty works were done, because they repented not. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in you, they which were done in Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. And thou, Capernaum, that art exalted unto heaven, thou shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works had been done in thee, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for thee in the day of judgment than for Tyre and Sidon."

HONORS.—He selected the three cities that had been specially favored.

Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum.

The first two are grouped in equal guilt.

And the last name is put in a class by itself.

In those cities all kinds of mighty works had been done.

They had seen those works and had heard His words and had seen His gracious person.

But they had never heard about among them. The ministry of John was near those cities.

And they had seen the wildness to hear and see the fiery prophet.

They had seen the Jews and the Pharisees, and they had seen the people.

Their sins were greater than the same sins committed by the people of Tyre and Sidon, because the latter were heathen, without the teachings of the Jews, and they had never heard of Jesus.

They had inherited their habits as well as their nature.

Other cities were more advanced in the knowledge of the law.

Advantage was still greater because Jesus lived there and had been with them.

Their sins were greater than the sins of Tyre and Sidon, because they knew better.

2. RETRIBUTION.—He was not woe-dictive; when He was reviled He repented not against Him.

He was lowly and forgiving. But there is a great law of God that penalty must follow wrong.

He follows wrong with a heavy hand.

He is the administrator of that law. Perhaps it may recall a man we have met.

He holds before their imaginations their future doom.

A platform was adopted which was to be the platform of the future.

They would then their doom. His consciousness of divine retribution and justice is the only thing that relieves His egoism from inanity.

If He were a man we would have to condemn him for contempt for Him for saying it. No teacher of His kind could have said that.

His hearers on their rejection of His authority, none but Christ; and when He does we feel no resentment, we see no incongruity in it.

His Confession of His Father. 25-27.

"At that season Jesus answered and said, I thank Thee, O Father, for thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes."

Yes, Father, for so it was revealed unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

He has revealed them unto babes, and He has revealed them unto babes.

with routine that made life heavy and steadily disappointing. They can get rest only from Christ. He does not give it by relieving them of responsibility or duty or burden bearing, but by adjusting them to it as yoke is put on the ox to adjust him to his load. When the ox is wrongly hitched to his load, it rubs and wears and gives perpetual discomfort, but the yoke makes work comfortable. The burden of life is made hard by ill adjustment and human contrivances. When He says "learn of Me," He means that they must see how He is adjusted to His life and load.

Two kinds of rest are promised. One comes directly from His pacifying touch, when He puts the yoke on us. The other we "find" as we go along, finding refreshment from His rest. Work so that we are always rested. Christ is also yoked up with us, our true yokefellow, our true master. He is also companion; though Savior, also friend. The yoke is made soft with love. It chafes not; it is not a rest from the tasks and toils of life, but rest in them. It is a new strength, a conquering principle that organizes and correlates and directs all our powers without distractions or waste or chafing. This is none other than the peace of God.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

The hearers will be condemned for rejecting Jesus, if they had no opportunity to know of Him; but only for disregarding their own consciences. (Romans ii. 14-16); the light of external nature (Romans i. 20), and any true religious ideas which may in whatever way have reached them. On the other hand, those who know of Jesus and live surrounded by Christian influences, and yet will not repent, incur an unspeakable aggravation of guilt and punishment—Prophets.

Two painters each painted a picture to illustrate his conception of rest. The first chose for his scene a still, lone lake among the far-off mountains. The second threw on his canvas a thundering waterfall with a fragile birch tree bending over the foam; at the fork of a branch almost with the cat's-paw spray, a robin sat on its nest. The first was only stagnation, the last was rest. For in rest there are always two elements—tranquillity and energy; and there are some of us who are always taking among the far-off mountains, the second threw on his canvas a thundering waterfall with a fragile birch tree bending over the foam; at the fork of a branch almost with the cat's-paw spray, a robin sat on its nest. PERSISTENT QUESTIONS.

1.—To what extent is exposure of one's evil the means of saving one from it?

2.—What are the perils of culture, what are its opportunities?

3.—What is the Christ our only way of knowing God?

4.—Is there any real rest apart from obeying and imitating Christ?

PICK TAYLOR TO BE COMMANDER

Spanish War Veterans Decide to Meet in Buffalo Next Year.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 12.—Oscar T. Taylor of Pittsburgh, Pa., was elected commander-in-chief of the United States Spanish War Veterans for fiscal adjournment, defeating C. Albert Gasser of Paterson, N. J., by a vote of 341 to 10.

Buffalo was chosen as the place at which the encampment will be held next year, and San Francisco for 1915.

The Women's Auxiliary of the United States Spanish War Veterans elected as president a man we would have to condemn him for contempt for Him for saying it. No teacher of His kind could have said that.

TO WARNING

Aviator Peck Loses Life
After Reckless Flight in Choppy Breeze.

Caught in Too Steep a Spiral
While Practicing at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Aviator Paul Peck of Washington, D. C., holder of the American duration flight record, was killed in a fall with a biplane last night while flying in a gusty wind. He attempted to steep a spiral and when he struck the ground the heavy engine came through the wreckage, striking him in the neck.

A gusty wind blew at Cicero field all day and Director Andrew Drew posted the customary warning to aviators against going up. Peck, however, as usual, planned to make a steep spiral to carry him through the choppy wind, went into the air in spite of the caution.

At about 500 feet altitude he started to come down in a spiral glide. Because of the unusually small span of his machine, he got into too steep a spiral, his airplane sliding in toward the center of the vortex and he could not bring it back.

His next difficulty did not become apparent until he was within 200 feet of the ground. He would have escaped with minor injuries, Director Drew and his technical committee believe, had it not been for the fact that the heavy engine, crashing through the frame-work, with its gasoline tank and iron fittings, struck Peck in the neck and across the face, and he died at once.

Peck was an American aviator and had a monoplane as well as the biplane. His machine was of 25 feet span and was equipped with a 250 horse motor. He was about 24 years old and was making a trial flight preparatory for the international aviation meet here today.

Was Apt Pupil.
Washington, Sept. 12.—Aviator Peck had been operating airplanes only a few months, but he had shown a keen aptitude in the science. In nine days he had mastered the running of a biplane. This is believed to be a record for passing the test. He did much flying at College Park, and last winter went with the United States military aviators to Augusta, Ga., flying there during the season. Since that time, he had done exhibition flying in several states.

Peck was about 24 years of age. While he made a trial flight preparatory for the international aviation meet here today, his parents live in West Virginia. His young wife died here last April after a transfusion of blood from her husband had been made in an attempt to save her life.

To officers of the United States army aviation corps, Peck was known to have been a very careful aviator.

Native of West Virginia.
Charlesston, S. C., Sept. 12.—Paul Peck, the aviator, who was killed in Chicago, is a native of Hinton, West Virginia. His parents live in Raleigh county. While here in June, Peck made a flight from the southern part of the city around the several dams and around the shores.

BROOKLYN HAS TWO GREAT
CATCHERS THIS SEASON

MILLER Of Brooklyn.

Brooklyn is strongly fortified in catchers. Besides Phelps, the old player and St. Louis backstop, who played with Toronto in the International league last year, Daniel has Otis Miller, who is rated as one of the best backstops in the league. Miller has been with the Superbas for two years, but it was not until this year that he could show his worth. He is coming to the front with a rush. It was his two-

FRENCH AVIATOR
IN FINE FLIGHT

Fails to Equal Record Made About a Year Ago, However.

Etampes, France, Sept. 12.—M. Four-ney, the French aviator, competing for the criterion prize, offered by the French Aero club, made a notable flight but failed to equal the record set by Helles here last September.

Fourney remained in the air for thirteen hours and eighteen minutes and covered a distance of 1,010 kilometers. He started over the seven kilometer (4.3 miles) circuit of the Etampes aerodrome at 5:30 o'clock last night. There was a strong wind through most of the flight, and considerable rain, but notwithstanding the unfavorable conditions, he was able to complete his flight in eleven hours, one minute and twenty-nine seconds.

His record, which was made while competing for the Michelin cup, is 77:58 miles in fourteen hours and seven minutes.

Fourney's flight broke the record for duration and distance without stop over a circular course. This record, under these conditions, was made by himself in 1911 at Buc, France, when he covered 447.3 miles in eleven hours, one minute and twenty-nine seconds.

"I Wouldn't Look Like That Again for All the World." "By George, I never saw anything like the effects of that new treatment, Protone, for building up of weight and lost nerve force. It acted more like a miracle than a medicine," said a well known gentleman, in speaking of the revolution that had taken place in his condition. "I began to think that there was nothing on earth that could make me fat. I tried tonic, digestive, heavy eating, diet, milk, beer, and almost everything else you could think of but without result. I had been thin for years, and I was to die. It was natural for me to be that way. Finally I read about the remarkable success brought about by the use of Protone, so I decided to try it myself. Well, now I look at myself in the mirror and I think it is somebody else. I have put on at least 30 pounds during the last month and never felt stronger or more 'nervy' in my life."

Ojinaga Surrendered to Rebels—Orozco Himself in That City.

Washington, Sept. 13.—American troops may take a hand in the fighting at Agua Prieta, if the rebels fall in Douglas, Ariz., or lives are menaced on the American side of the Mexican boundary.

This was intimated today at the headquarters of the general staff of the army, following receipt of advices that the rebel leaders would disregard warnings that they must not fire in the direction of Douglas. Troop commanders have blanket instructions to prevent the repetition of the killing of innocent Americans in Douglas during the Madero rebellion. There are enough to cover practically any contingency, and it was made plain today that any reasonable action by commanders would be upheld by the war department. Further and more definite instructions may be issued by Maj.-Gen. Wood, chief of staff, later today.

Mexicans Cross Border.
Brig.-Gen. Steever reports filibustering expeditions crossing at Nogales, Naco and Douglas.
Maj.-Gen. Wood instructed army officers at Nogales and Douglas, Ariz., to notify the Mexicans, both federal and insurgent, that they would not be permitted to endanger American life and property by directing their rifle fire into American territory. If the Americans insist on helping the federalists they must suffer the consequences.

When this was communicated to Antonio Rojas, encamped within range of Agua Prieta, he sent a message of defiance in reply. If the Americans insist on helping the federalists they must suffer the consequences.

GIBSON HIS OWN LAWYER

Alleged Murderer of Woman Will Conduct Defense Himself.

Tells His Story of Her Death—Hearing Set for Sept. 24.

Middletown, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The fight which Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer, will make for his life, he said today, will be directed entirely by himself. He has not engaged counsel, he added, and intended to appear in his own behalf when arraigned before County Judge Royce on the charge of murdering Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, his Viennese client, who met death while boating with him on Greenwood lake, sixteen miles from here on July 16.

Gibson was locked up last night in a cell in police headquarters here. Self-confidence and launtness fled with his arrival here.

CUNNINGHAM CLAIMS FOUND FRAUDULENT

Secretary Fisher Decides Against Morgan-Gugenheim Interests.

Cases That Cost Pinchot Federal Job Decided as He Urged.

Washington, Sept. 13.—All thirty-three so-called Cunningham Alaska coal land claims involving alleged fraudulent blanket patents, which contributed to the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy, have been disposed of finally by the interior department.

The appeals have been adversely decided and Secretary Fisher has directed the immediate execution of the decision of Commissioner Dennett of the general land office, who held the claims were improperly allowed and that the entries should be cancelled.

No more of the real Cunningham claims are pending, though the interior department is regularly passing upon other Alaska claims somewhat similar to those of the Cunningham group. Of a thousand or more such, 500 already have been disallowed.

In the final decision, which became public today, the name Cunningham (Continued on page 7, second column.)

MOTORCYCLIST KILLED IN CRASH

Woman Who Was Riding With Him Is Seriously Hurt.

Davenport, Iowa, Sept. 13.—Harry Shields, a clerk in the city hall, was killed and Miss Bessie Wiese was seriously injured last night when Shields' motorcycle collided with a street car on the Iowa island bridge. The woman was riding with Shields on the back of his motorcycle.

The company's property is located in a lonely part of the district and it was deemed advisable some time ago to place a force within striking distance of the mine.

While the soldiers were fighting the fire at the stables, half a dozen men crept along the railroad tracks and knocking in the head of a barrel of Chicago, Sept. 13.—Postcards sent to friends in Chicago enabled the police to locate Albert Chapman, 16 years old at Stevens Point, Wis., where he is under arrest, according to word received today. The boy is charged with cashing his employer's draft for $720.

DISORDER MUST CEASE!

Violence and lawbreaking disorder must cease in Duluth. Regardless of the merits of the quarrel out of which have grown the conditions that prevail in this city today, order must be restored, and at once.

No public official, no matter where his sympathy may run, must shirk his duty.

No crowds must be permitted to congregate anywhere within the city.

The property of the street railway company and the lives and limbs of its employees and of innocent passengers on its cars must be protected.

It is the duty of the mayor to see that the police restore and preserve order.

If violence is offered, it must be met by violence, if necessary.

If the police are unable to do this thing, then the sheriff must step in and with as many deputies as he needs he must proceed to stop disorder and violence and to disperse the crowds wherever they are found.

If the sheriff fails, then it will be the duty of the governor to summon the militia, and to put a quick end to the trouble if it takes every member of the Minnesota National Guard to do it.

Shots have been fired. Cars have been stoned. Men have been waylaid and beaten. Lawlessness has reigned with little check in many parts of the city.

It must be stopped, and there must be no half-way measures about it.

Disorder must cease and order must be restored, if it takes a brigade of troops and a volley of rifle balls to do it.

CARS ARE WRECKED BY RIOTERS

Mob Spirit Breaks Out in West Duluth During Evening.

Iron Workers Wreck Car When Conductor Uses a "Billy."

Conductor and Motorman Flee With Crowd in Hot Pursuit.

West Duluth was the scene of the only rioting in the city early last evening.

Three street cars were wrecked, a couple of passengers were reported assaulted and a conductor and motorman escaped the fury of the mob by flight.

The first trouble occurred on an east-bound car on Central avenue near Bristol street. One passenger, a boiler-maker, is reported to have called a conductor a "scab," whereupon the conductor struck him over the head with a "billy," knocking him unconscious. Immediately a hubbub broke loose. The crowd on the car, consisting of men from the iron plants, went wild. They began to break up the interior of the car and piled through the gates. In a minute a crowd of several hundred had gathered. Showers of stones began to fly and in a minute the car did not have a whole glass and was a sorry looking sight.

Another car coming from behind drew the fire of the enraged crowd of men and boys. When attention was diverted for a moment the crew of the first car dropped from the front vestibule and took to their heels up Central avenue. When they were half a block away the crowd caught sight of them and started a chase. The start which the strike-breakers had gained probably saved their lives. They managed to make their escape. One was found in a house at Elling street and Grand avenue, half a mile away. The other sought refuge with the squad of police.

CAR CREW IS ATTACKED ON LAKE AVENUE

Angry Crowd Sends Shower of Sticks and Stones at Car.

Motorman and Conductor Break Away and Escape From Mob.

Riot and violence broke loose on lower Lake avenue shortly before noon today.

A strike-breaking motorman and his conductor were viciously set upon by a mob of several hundred men and boys.

The men were just turning their car on the "X" at the foot of the avenue when the mob attacked them. Stones and sticks began to fly and found marks upon men and car alike.

The motorman broke away from the gang of toughs first. He fled up Lake avenue like a deer. He was followed part of the way, but his pursuers dropped away at the viaduct.

The conductor did not fare so well. He was quite badly beaten up before he managed to make his escape, cutting across lots towards St. Croix avenue. He was followed but a short distance and disappeared.

The police were summoned by telephone when the riot broke loose. Capt. Fiskett and Detectives Bradley and Toews hurried to the scene in the Franklin, arriving just in time to see the conductor run out of sight.

The mob did not make any move to molest the police. The officers restored the trolley and dispersed the crowd, which melted away in a few minutes. Detective James Bradley turned motorman and Detective Toews assumed the role of conductor. Together they man put in an appearance. The street car was turned over to him and he started on his way. Neither the motorman nor the police knew what had become of the conductor.

Shortly after this car had been taken away a street car collided with an automobile at Lake avenue and Superior street. Several people were in the auto but fortunately no one was injured. The automobile sustained a smashed mud guard.

MOB DOES NOT WAIT FOR SHELTER OF DARKNESS

Labor Commissioner Makes Appeal to Men to Keep Their Heads and Avoid Further Violence.

Friday, the Thirteenth, Brings the Most Serious Trouble of Strike—Rioters Grow More Vicious.

APPEAL TO RIOTERS

"For God's sake, men, keep your heads! We can't win this strike by violence!"

"Every friend of the men on strike will not only help the authorities to preserve law and order, but will discourage the assembling of crowds at all places where there is danger of some misguided or foolhardy person starting something!"

"We can't afford to have the state militia called out, and it will have to be called if the rough-necks are permitted to control the situation!"

"We can win the strike if every sympathizer of the men keeps as cool and deliberate as the boys who are on strike."

"Don't be foolish; keep cool; and not only keep cool yourself, but try to keep others from violence! Help the police to preserve order and prevent destruction of property!"

"Any other attitude will hurt the strikers and will gain nothing for anybody!"

"WM. E. McEWEN, Secretary Minnesota State Federation of Labor."

Friday, the thirteenth!

Revolver shots added to the riot which broke out at West Duluth this morning.

Every car which ran to the western suburb was bombarded with volleys of stones, sticks, boulders and very other loose thing which came to the hands of the mob.

The car tracks were piled high with boards, planks, fences torn from their places, huge stones, sections of walk, iron pipe and an occasional wagon.

The principal trouble district was on Raleigh street, from Central avenue to the end of the car line at Sixty-third avenue west.

Three shots were fired from the vestibule of a street car when a giant ice wagon was stretched across the way of an east-bound car which had just started for the city, after making the "X" at the end of the line. The last shot was fired from the rear of the car. The power and smashed the wagon from the tracks with the front end of the car. Scarcely had the wagon careened against the curb when another shot was fired, crashing through the glass of the front vestibule and narrowly missing the car driver. The car of officials declare the bullet hole in the window bears mute testimony of attempted murder.

Many Wild Rumors.
Wild rumors filled the air that one man had been killed and several wounded. The reports flew to the central part of the city in incredibly short time. Investigation showed that no one had been struck by any of the shots which were fired at that time.

The shooting followed a pitched battle between street car specials and the mob near Central avenue, as the car was making the way to the "Y," several blocks away. The body of the mob consisted of iron workers forced to idleness because of the rain.

The car contained six special policemen. After the car had made the turn at Central avenue and Raleigh street, a large rock was hurled through the window. It struck Special Boyd on the forehead above the right eye.

With one accord the specials piled out of the car. Rushing upon the mob they grabbed Nelson Linley, an iron worker, who is alleged by the specials to be the man who threw the rock. After a fight with a gang who tried to tear him from their grasp, the specials dragged Linley into the car, which was quickly started for the end of the line and the attempted murder.

On board the car the enraged specials lost control of themselves and set upon the prisoner. They beat him unmercifully. His body shows the black and blue marks of their fists where they pounded him.

After the car had made the loop, the crowd induced the driver of the ice wagon to block the car. The purpose was to give them an opportunity to attack it. It was a desperate effort to rescue the prisoner from the officials who had him in custody and on the way to headquarters. It was then that the shooting took place.

Police Sent to Scene.
The news was at once telephoned to Chief Troyer, who dispatched a squad to meet the car with instructions to bring all men on board into the station. The Franklin intercepted the car at Twenty-seventh avenue west. Linley and the specials were all brought to headquarters, where all of them were closely questioned.

Linley was arraigned on police court on a charge of hurling missiles at a person. The charge is a serious one, carrying with it a maximum penalty of ten years upon conviction. Linley asked for an examination and his hearing was set for next Tuesday. The offense is not bailable in the municipal court and he was committed to the county jail to await his examination.

Court Officer Ed Jensen, who lives at West Duluth, opened the way for

ARE READY FOR TROUBLE

Heavy Wire Mesh Being Placed Over Street Car Windows.

Double Crews Are Carried on All Cars Operated.

The street railway company is taking every precaution today in preparation for outbreaks that are feared. All of the cars are being screened. The large mesh wires on the side windows are being removed and in their place is being put strong half-inch mesh, which, it is calculated, will prevent stones from being thrown through. The work on these is being rushed particularly on the cars which pass through the West end, and all cars will be furnished with them as rapidly as possible.

Double crews are on almost every car, and scattered through the car are other men in the employ of the company. These fellows are not nice to look at but they have an appearance of efficiency for battle that makes one desire merely to sit quietly and not get fresh. They are wrapped in an ominous silence except when the conductor comes in to confer with them, and a characteristic noticeable about each one of them is his steadiness of eye. Perhaps a best-seller novelist could adequately describe that eye but the average person cannot; he just feels it.

Evidently the car crews have been ordered to tolerate no more of the tactics of teamsters to keep their wagons ahead of cars and thus delay progress. At any rate it is noticeable that after the motorman has whistled a time or two to one of these drivers, the conductor and one or two others of the company's private police force move up toward the front vestibule, sometimes several of them going into it, and the vestibule's outer door is opened with the evident intention of one or more of the men being ready to jump and try conclusions with the recalcitrant teamster.

some days, was offered, with but one taker. The advance in rate was demanded by some shippers.

Boats are in brisk demand for ore, too, and the rate being at 50c and considered good, interferes with shippers getting a supply of boats to carry grain.

The steamer Fairmont, a Canadian boat, calling from Montreal, came in this morning light for grain.

Increases are predicted in coal, ore, grain and lumber. There have been increases in all these branches, but it is thought that they will all go higher.

Grain is now coming in from the local elevators in large quantities and at least ten boats loaded with grain, have left the local harbor in the last two days. The package freighters are all taking partial loads of grain on every trip.

Coal is not coming as rapidly as it was, but it is continuing steady and fears of a severe shortage are growing less.

Lumber and package freight continue to be active.

Spend Four Months in Europe.Labor and Capital at Peace and Prosperity Reigns.

"Street car and railroad strikes are unheard of things in Germany, Italy and Switzerland," said George W. Buck, who, with Mrs. Buck, yesterday returned from a four months' tour abroad.

"The street railways, railroads and all other public utilities are under government ownership. There are no disputes between labor and capital here. Railroad trains can always be depended upon to be on time and the service is much more satisfactory in that regard than in this country." Mr. Buck was much impressed with the various cities visited. In France considerable time was spent in Paris, and in England, London occupied most of their attention. They were very favorably impressed with Brussels, Belgium and with the cities of Germany, Italy and Switzerland.

"The great German empire is enjoying the best kind of prosperity at the present time," he declared. "Emperor Wilhelm is much loved and respected. There is plenty of work there and lots of people to do it. Everywhere throughout the entire empire can be seen thriving little villages and cities with their church spires and factory smokestacks."

"The grain crops in continental Europe and in England will be very large this year, despite a season of inclement weather. Not very much corn is being grown. Some of the other crops are not looking as good."

"We enjoyed the trip to the fullest extent," he said this morning. "However, we are glad to get back to Duluth again."

Mr. and Mrs. Buck reside at 1621 East Superior street.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The senate campaign expenditures committee is ready to extend its investigations to contributions to President Taft's 1908 campaign fund by aspirants for ambassadorships.

Representative A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania has announced his purpose of asking the committee to investigate the resignation of Dr. David H. Burton, who was ambassador to Germany. Chairman Clapp of the senate committee said today that if demands were made for such an inquiry, the committee would grant it, so far as it came within the scope of its authorized powers.

In the records of the republican national committee for 1908, on file with the senate committee, several contributions to the Taft 1908 fund by American foreign ministers and ambassadors were disclosed. Larz Anderson, minister to Belgium, gave $25,000; William Red, ambassador to Great Britain, $10,000; Robert Bacon, ambassador to France, $10,000; Richard C. Baker, ambassador to Austria-Hungary, $10,000; Myron T. Herrick, ambassador to France, was chairman of the Ohio state committee, and as such turned over to the national committee a total of $50,000 for the campaign.

Becomes New President.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 12.—The conservative members of the American Bankers' association, who, since the present convention opened, have been pointing out the fact that the currency legislation matter would be a "closed incident" as far as the present convention was concerned. A number of prominent bankers, including officers of the association, have allowed themselves to be quoted as favoring the suspension of any efforts to obtain the desired monetary reform until after the November election.

Hear C. A. Conant.

Much of the first session today was devoted to addresses of Charles A. Conant of New York and Andrew M. Soule, president of the Georgia State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. Mr. Soule was unable to be present, his address being presented to the convention.

The general nominating committee last night prepared its election ticket to be presented to the convention this afternoon. In addition to the nominations of the principal officers chosen by the advancement system, the committee selected new vice presidents from each state and territory represented in the association, and also named an executive council consisting of twenty-four members.

San Francisco, New York, Atlantic City and Boston have asked for next year's convention. The selection will be made late today or tonight by the executive council.

WANTS MORE FOR STATE EMPLOYEESBoard of Control Will Ask for Bigger Appropriation.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—More money for the support of the state institutions under the state board of control will be asked by that body of the legislature when it convenes next winter, and to the members of the general assembly will be pointed out the fact that the budget for support of employees must be increased.

"It is difficult to keep good help in the prisons and insane hospitals," said C. J. Swenson of the state board, "for we are paying nurses and attendants lower salaries than are paid for the same service outside. It is hard to expect efficient employees to remain working for the state when they can get greater compensation without. We should be able to pay as much as is paid anywhere, and possibly a little more, for I believe in the state institutions we should pay enough in order to give us the pick of help in the state."

The details of the project are left to the executive board of the union, which probably will be re-elected tomorrow.

This announcement was made today by P. J. Drayton, secretary of the committee on officers' reports, who said that money for the purchase of the building will probably be drawn from a fund of $25,000 in the treasury of the organization.

A Sick Man

Writes Dr. Hartman About Kidney Disease.

S. B. Hartman, M. D.

A gentleman writes me: "I was greatly interested in your article describing the Kaufman case of serious disease of the kidneys. The description of his case exactly outlines my condition. I am sure if Peruna cured him as you say, it would cure me also. I am losing flesh rapidly and the doctors say I have every symptom of Bright's disease of the kidneys. If you think I would be benefited by Peruna I will certainly try some as the doctors have practically given me up, the same as they did him."

In reply I wish to say, first, that I never make any promises as to what Peruna will cure. No physician can make positive statements of that sort. I can say this much, however, if I were in your place I should certainly give Peruna a trial. I know of no other remedy that would be so likely to be of use to you in your present condition as Peruna. Take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. Continue this for two or three weeks and then if there is anything you wish to ask me further write me and I will give your letter prompt attention.

If I find that the Peruna is not helping you I will be perfectly frank and tell you so, for I would not have you take Peruna unless it was really helping you. But it has rescued so many cases of kidney disease that I am quite confident you will find it exactly suited to your case.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Capt. Charles Young of the Ninth United States Cavalry, the only negro army officer graduated from the military academy at West Point, has been promoted to the rank of major. It is said that no other negro has attained that rank in the regular army. Young is now military attaché to Liberia, and is organizing the army of the black republic.

CRITICIZES LA FOLLETTE

Governor Johnson Gets Little Applause for Speeches in Wisconsin.

Meets More Enthusiastic Reception in the Gopher State.

Rochester, Minn., Sept. 13.—Governor Johnson made it plain to five Wisconsin audiences yesterday that he believed Senator Robert M. La Follette's dissatisfaction with the Progressive party was due to his failure to obtain the nomination for the presidency. The governor did not name Senator La Follette in his speeches, but so thinly veiled were his utterances that none was left in doubt as to what the speaker meant. The speaker's references to the Wisconsin leader were not, as a rule, received with applause, and when there was cheering it was not general. There was no open dissatisfaction, however, with the governor's remarks. Progressive leaders generally, who accompanied the governor, endorsed his attitude toward the Wisconsin situation.

With the exception of Sparta and La Crosse the crowds were small and the meetings short. The La Crosse meeting lasted more than an hour and was well attended. A county fair was in progress at Sparta.

Two States "Should Lead."
"This year there are two states which should be the very leaders in this progressive movement," the governor said. "They are Wisconsin and California. They are the leading states in progressive legislation and doctrine. The things that we have been doing locally in our own states, should be done nationally."

"So great is our cause that neither the failure of the ambition or agrarianism, nor the hatred of any man, no matter from what state, should stand in the way of this great progressive movement."

"Touching on the tariff and President Taft's famous Winona speech, Governor Johnson at Winona, Minn., said: 'It was here that the open declaration of the tariff pledges of the party, Winona. For Winona was reserved the doubtful honor of the president's approval of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill that violated the platform of four years ago. And with the knowledge that he was because of that new famous utterance, you may justly appraise the platitudes of the platform of the Chicago June convention.'

Hamilton Garlan, the novelist, introduced Governor Johnson at Sparta.

Contrast in Reception.
The contrast between the receptions of the governor in Wisconsin and Minnesota was striking. The train crossed the state line shortly before dark, and at almost every station throngs gathered to see the candidate, although his train was not scheduled to stop. At Winona several thousand persons stood for an hour at intersections of two streets awaiting Governor Johnson's arrival, and his reception was enthusiastic. He addressed the crowd from a automobile.

"When Mr. Taft came here to address you," said W. A. Abbott, in presenting the governor, "he told you he did so because of one man who had stood by him. Here is a man who comes to greet you for yourselves alone."

The man to whom President Taft referred was Former Congressman Tawney.

The governor smiled as he rose and said: "do not believe in speaking ill of the dead politically, so I shall refrain from speaking of Taft."

At a number of small towns between Winona and Rochester, where no stops had been scheduled, the crowds were so large and enthusiastic that the governor made brief rear platform speeches for them.

Goes to Huron, S. D.
Only one engagement on an address at the Huron, S. D., state fair, was on Governor Johnson's schedule today. He left here after an address last night and expected to make an afternoon address at the fair.

The governor was greatly pleased with his warm reception in Minnesota. Coming as it did after a trying day in Wisconsin, where the Progressive party leaders are not exactly certain which way they will jump on the state ticket proposition and the people are waiting for a statement from Governor Johnson on his attitude toward the presidential race, it was doubly encouraging.

"This makes me feel like I was back home," said the governor, as he shook hands with a crowd of people at leaving.

CURFEW ON BROADWAY.

New York Magistrate Proposes to Change Great White Way.

New York, Sept. 13.—Curfew will ring hereafter at midnight for loiterers on the "Great White Way" according to a ruling by Magistrate Cornell. The court announced that it hereafter would fine anyone arrested after midnight on Broadway who could not show that he had business there.

Habitues declare that it means an epochal change in the night aspect of the district in which he holds his purpose. The order, it is said, comes as the result of recent annoyances to out-of-town guests at local hotels by "mashers."

LUMBERMAN DENIES TROUBLE WITH DEALERS

Portland, Or., Sept. 13.—Knowledge of any reciprocity agreements between the retail lumbermen's associations and the wholesalers and manufacturers' associations was denied by E. B. Griggs, president of the West Coast Lumber Manufacturers' association, in the federal inquiry. Mr. Griggs, who is also president of the St. Paul & Tacoma Lumber Company of Tacoma, was the first witness to be examined by the defense.

On direct examination by Judge Milton D. Purdy of Minneapolis, representing the Retail Lumbermen's association, he testified that his company is a member of the Manufacturers' association and of the Northwest Retail Lumbermen's association because of its retail yard.

Griggs said his company reserved the right at all times to sell to whom it pleased and never had any trouble with the retailers' association over this.

Nomination for

Of the Third District, Which Com-

Wards in the City of Duluth.

Mr. Swanstrom was born and raised in the West End and has always lived in this district.
A county commissioner of St. Louis county, in order to do justice to the office, must spend his whole time to the duties of said office, which Mr.
Swanstrom promises to do.

Mr. Swanstrom is very much interested in good roads and is particularly interested in the county getting satisfactory results when it is paying for these things. Particular attention brings results.

Mr. Swanstrom is a young man and is possessed of that push and energy so necessary in modern business life; if he is elected to the office there is no question but what he will make good. Every voter in the Sixth and

New York receipts for the same month

NEWS OF THE WEST END

WEST END PUBLIC MARKET AID TO FARMERS AND SOLVES HIGH COST OF LIVING PROBLEM

THE WEST END MARKET PLACE,
Twenty-first Avenue West and Superior Street.

It is estimated that over 2,000 people visit the West end public market at Twenty-first avenue west and Superior street on the market days, Wednesday and Saturday. Residents from all over the city call at the stands for their produce.

Since the opening of the stands several weeks ago, the market place has become one of the most popular places in the city. Housewives are now able to purchase their fresh produce at the lowest prices, while sales in quantities are made at reduced rates. Farmers are bringing large wagon loads of potatoes each week so that any one may lay in his winter's supply during the present season.

The West end market place was the first to open in Duluth, those at West
Duluth and the West end following.
Farmers find the West end stands the most popular and every Wednesday and Saturday the stalls are filled. During the past two weeks there have been ten farmers at the stands during the day and with the assistance of their wives and daughters they sold many wagon loads of produce to local residents.

The market place is owned by the city, $500 having been appropriated by the council for the building of the stands. The site was loaned to the city by the owner, with an understanding that it must be cleared whenever necessary. The West End Commercial club took a prominent part in securing the market place and worked actively in behalf of the movement. John J.
Moe was chairman of the market committee of the club and had charge of the building of the stands and the opening of the market place.

STREET CAR STRIKE TO BE DISCUSSED

West End Commercial Club Will Consider Means of Ending Strife.

The West end is tired of the street car strike, and members of the West End Commercial club will this evening take action on the matter.
Since the strike started last Monday
the West end has suffered the most.
It is here that the strikers and their sympathizers gather and where violence has occurred. Local business men are complaining. Women and children are afraid to go on the streets, and as a result business is at a standstill.

One of the local business men said yesterday afternoon that he would take the matter up this evening and in all probability introduce a resolution in behalf of West end residents. Some means of ending the strike will be suggested in the resolution, which is to be presented to the mayor tomorrow morning. A committee of the strikers will be asked to attend.

Dr. O. A. Oredson, chairman of the garden committee, will announce the prize winners in the garden contest, and also explain the features of a mass meeting to be held early next month.
The prizes will be awarded at that time and the reception pictures of the West end featured during the evening.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF FRIDHEN LODGE.

Over 150 members of Fridhen lodge,
No. 56, Independent Order of Scythians, and their families will attend the second annual banquet and celebration of the order this evening at Sloan's hall, Twenty-first avenue west and Superior street.

The banquet hall has just been remodeled and preparations for the affair this evening were made by the entertainment committee of the order during the past two weeks. Gust Hjerpe, president of the lodge, has been in charge of the plans and announced yesterday that a range delegation is expected at the banquet this evening.
The banquet will start at 7 o'clock, after which a program of addresses and musical numbers will be featured.
A short business meeting will be held by the members, at which the plans for the coming fall and winter will be discussed. Several entertainments are being planned, including an athletic exhibition, amateur performances and a concert.

Fridhen lodge was organized last year with a charter membership of thirty and is today one of the most active Swedish organizations in the city. The lodge conducts a gymnasium at the Great Western hall, Twenty-first avenue west and Superior street, besides its regular club rooms at Sloan's hall. The officers are: Gust Hjerpe, president; Charles Sjoden, secretary; and Carl Carlson, treasurer.

CONCERT FOLLOWS PRAYER MEETING

Following the regular weekly prayer meeting last evening at the Central Baptist church, Twenty-second avenue west and First street, a phonographic concert was given by the Ladies Aid society. The records, which were presented to Mrs. J. H. Griffin the other evening, were used during the concert. Rev. Milton Fish, pastor of the church, was in charge of the gathering.

Girl Is Recovering.

Dorothy Tassman, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Tass-man, 2009 West Third street, who was run over by a bicycle last week, is recovering from her injuries. The little girl received several cuts about her head and has been under the care of Dr. A. J. Braden since the accident.
The little girl was coming home from school and was run over by Arthur Hedgahl of 25 North Sixty-second avenue west, who was riding on the sidewalk.

Infant Girl Dies.

Edith Margaret, the 7-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Redner, 301 Chester street, died yesternoon after a short illness. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow

LATE EMPEROR IS BORNE TO REST WITH ANCIENT RITES

Hundreds of Thousands Line Streets of Japanese Capital.

Torches Gleam Amid Rays of Arc Lights Along the Route.

Ox-Drawn Casket Is Escorted By Retainers of Royal House.

Tokio, Sept. 12.—The second part of the ceremonies in connection with the funeral of the late emperor of Japan, Naruhito, took place tonight when the casket containing the body of the late ruler started on its journey to Aoyama, whence it will be taken to Monoyama for final burial.

Imposing as had been the ceremonial attended by the great dignitaries in the palace earlier in the day, when the funeral service, consisting of a mass of the twentieth century music, was performed, the procession of the casket through the streets of the capital tonight was even more impressive. It afforded the populace of the capital an opportunity to display their sorrow at the nation's bereavement and hundreds of thousands stood for hours in absolute silence, watching the funeral car through the streets of the capital, and the thousands of people who lined the route to its resting place.

Torches and Arc Lights.
The streets and boulevards were brilliantly lighted by torches and arc lights on both sides of the road, intersecting the torches and electric lamps were placed along sacred trees, and at frequent intervals black and white cloth-covered poles, surmounted by wreaths of evergreen, had been erected.

At 7 o'clock in the evening those who were to take part in the procession began to assemble at the palace.
Among them were the holders of orders of merit, officials of many ranks, ministers of state, Korean peers, members of the two houses of parliament and of the imperial cabinet, presidents of provincial assemblies, the mayor of Tokio and the chairman of the Tokio city council.

The foreign princes and special ambassadors, including that from the United States headed by P. C. Knox, secretary of state, did not take part in this ceremony. The special envoys and the foreign diplomats resident in Tokio went directly after the conclusion of the funeral service to Aoyama.

All the officials had gathered within conducted by masters of ceremonies to stand at the entrance of the palace, where a solemn line was formed.
In Ancient Costume.
The great funeral car, attended by a large number of Japanese in high rank wearing the ancient national mourning costume, was preceded by an upper robe of horse chestnut color, dull colored, loose trousers and coronet caps of black silk was then brought to the gate.

At 7 o'clock the casket was wheeled in solemn procession from the main hall, Chamberlains marched in front of the funeral car, and following it were the great number of attendants bearing the departed monarch's sword.

and the master of the household, carrying the imperial sword of state. On each side of the casket walked high officials of the household, carrying lighted candles.

A watch fire had been lighted in the court yard of the palace, and fires set in the streets and on each corner of the open space.

Profound silence prevailed as the casket was placed on the funeral car, and all those gathered in the vicinity of the palace held their heads.

Sword Upon Coffin.
On the top of the coffin was placed a small white wooden tray on which the imperial sword was laid. Then the casket was placed on the funeral car, and the casket was carried through the streets of the capital.

When all the arrangements had been completed, the funeral procession began. The casket was carried by retainers representing the emperor, dowager, empress, princes, and princesses. The casket was carried by retainers taking part in the ceremonies, and princesses of the imperial family, came through the streets, entered their carriages and started alone for Aoyama in order to be ready to receive the casket on its arrival there.

After the departure of their majesties the great procession was formed in line. It was headed by twelve police officers, followed by the inspector general. These were followed by strong contingents of military and naval forces, bearing torches and wearing garments of honor. Then came the retainers, bearing instruments of ancient types, on which they played dirges.

Following these walked retainers carrying white and yellow banners representing the sun and the moon. The standards were in figured damask silk, the sun in gold and the moon in silver.
Hundreds of other retainers, bearing bows and arrows, shields and halberds and other old-time martial equipments, followed. Still other attendants carried sacred trees, caskets of offerings, paper prayer strips, cones of incense, incense burners, and flutes. Interspersed among them were hundreds of Shinto ritualists and officers of the funeral corps.

Car Drawn by Oxen.
The funeral car, immediately preceded by Count Togo, grand master of ceremonies, and Count Watanabe, route inspector, and 10,000 soldiers, who were flanked by torch-bearers.

The car bearing the casket was of hard Japanese wood of very heavy structure, and was borne on only two wheels. It was drawn by five oxen, each attended by seven drivers. Alongside marched fifty young farmers from the village of Yase, near Kioto, hereditary bearers of the imperial palanquin on ceremonial occasions. Fourteen high rank military officers acted as a special escort.

ers came next, and preceding Prince
Kanin, the representative of Emperor Yoshihito, in the procession. After him came a number of princes of the blood and princesses, and the representatives of the peers. The late emperor's physicians followed, and then came the members of state and more officials, the procession concluding with some thousands of soldiers and attendants.

The entire division of the imperial bodyguard marched behind the coffin, as did representatives of all the army divisions and 10,000 sailors from the fleet. Thousands of other troops lined the route from the palace to Aoyama.

All in Cortege on Foot.
All those who participated in the cortege were on foot. The procession moved from the palace through the grounds and over the great double bridge used only by the emperor himself and by foreign ambassadors and dignitaries.

A great throng filled the space on the other side of the bridge, and a spectacular effect was produced as the procession passed through their mute ranks, only the sound of weird Shinto music being heard.

In the opening funeral ceremonies yesterday, centuries-old rites and customs were mingled with modern military display. The sombre coloring associated with western mourning was almost entirely absent, being replaced by the brilliant hues of the Orient.
Sorrow for the dead ruler, however, was apparent in the faces of all who took part in the last act of respect to an emperor whose reign has witnessed some of the most marvelous developments of the life of any nation.

From early in the morning the palace in the heart of the capital was the goal toward which virtually everybody in Tokio made his way on foot.

The casket containing the body lay in state in the main hall. It had been decorated according to Shinto rites by a special corps of ritualists appointed for the occasion. The casket is of enormous dimensions, measuring nearly ten feet by five and weighing one and a half tons.

Emperor Yoshihito was in full uniform of consular rank, in a black black crepe arm band and sword knot.
The empress wore a native court dress made of hem, her unbound hair falling on her shoulders. Her upper garment was of dark brown and her skirt of dull orange.

The dowager empress was in native costume.

The most solemn act of all occurred when the emperor and empress, the dowager empress and princess and princesses advanced toward the casket and worshipped the spirit of the departed emperor. A short silence ensued; the processions were re-formed and the members of the imperial family returned and the first ceremony of the funeral was ended.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 13.—Frederic franker dealing with the public by the railways of the country, was urged today by President William Sproule of the Southern Pacific company in an address before the American Association of General Passenger and Ticket Agents.

"Because the railways have maintained almost perfect silence," he said, it has been inferred that something is secrecy.

The public needs to be informed old, reliable, harmless "Danderine"— Get results this time.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge of the hair. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair.
Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's

Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first ap-investment you ever made. Your hair will immediately take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundant; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

INTEREST TOO HEAVY A TAX ON OUR FARMERS

B. F. Yoakum Shows How Europe Has Great Advantage Over America—American Agriculturists Pay $510,000,000 a Year for Use of Capital; Germans Half as Much.

The United States government can borrow money at 2 per cent annual interest; American business men can borrow on commercial paper at 4.1 per cent; loan on the mortgage security of city property cost only 5 per cent, but the American farmer has to pay an average rate of 8.5 per cent for the money he needs to operate his business.

Why this is so, and how the European and even the Egyptian farmer are able to borrow more cheaply than their American competitor, is told interestingly by B. F. Yoakum, president of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, in the first of his series of articles on "The High Cost of Living" in the "World's Work".

Writing in the September number of that magazine under the title "The High Cost of Farming," Mr. Yoakum places this excessive burden of interest borne by the agricultural producers of this country first among the causes of the high cost of living—a problem which is more serious here than abroad since, as he points out, the American dollar shrank 20 per cent in purchasing power between 1871 and 1911, while the English dollar lost only 10 per cent. The value in the same period and the German dollar still less.

"Cheaper money for the farmer," says Mr. Yoakum, "is the first of our agricultural problems. When I make that statement I am not thinking of the pampered farmer, or of the owner of a few thousand acres of highly developed and carefully cultivated land. I am referring to the small farmer, the one who borrows to carry on his business. Often the large planter borrows to meet his current needs from a couple of nearby banks in which he owns large interests. His business has no outside competitors, or the reverse, of the average American farmer. His problems are different from the troubles of the average farmer as are the troubles of the United States farmer as are the troubles of the local foundry in a cross-roads town.

"After all, when you come to talk of agricultural borrowing, you have to come down to talk in terms of the one-half farm. The farm of eighty to 100 acres, tilled and worked to its limit, is the central agricultural unit. The foundations of a permanent agriculture in any country are laid only when the land is made to support as many families, owning their own land, as the land can properly support. Therefore, the fundamental question in farm money is the question whether the individual farmer, owning and operating his own land, is supplied with ample capital at reasonable rates or whether he is stunted in capital and soured in his interest account."

Citing government statistics to show that the total indebtedness of American farmers is $6,946,000,000, Mr. Yoakum continues:

"The farmer's debt is about half on account of fixed capital—mostly mortgage loans—and half on account of current loans. The total number of farms in the country is about 6,000,000. Therefore, the average farmer has a mortgage debt of $900 and a current debt of about the same amount outstanding against it.

"The rate of interest paid on this tremendous volume of borrowed capital is, according to the best estimate I can find, between 8 and 9 per cent per annum. The actual rate of interest itself is only a part of the burden of borrowing. To it must be added the constant drain of renewals for mortgages on farms, of loans, fees for recording mortgages and other loans with farmers, most of which are made on short term, and commission fees and compulsory insurance renewals. From all I have been able to gather from the best available sources, I estimate that an average rate paid by our farmers is 8 1/2 per cent per annum while a conservative estimate of the full cost paid on farm money used in the financing and operation of the farms of the United States is:

Annual Interest Bill.

The annual interest bill, therefore paid by the farmers, is about $510,000,000. The total cost of the wheat crop of the United States as of Dec. 1, 1911, farm value, was $543,000,000. Practi-

GO AROUND THE WORLD

Men and Religion Propaganda Is to Be Carried Abroad.

Special Deputation to Carry It to Ends of the Earth.

New York, Sept. 13.—A few men in the inner circle of national religious affairs know that it has been definitely decided that the men and religion propaganda, which swept through America last winter, is to be carried around the world, beginning next January. The deputation to make the trip will consist of Fred B. Smith, president of the movement, and the campaign leader, Raymond Robbins, the brilliant speaker on social service, and the four men of the association quartet, whose singing was a feature of most of the city meetings and of the New York congress. The party will be gone a year.

So closely interrelated are the religious agencies of the world that a good plan which carries anywhere is quickly carried to the ends of the earth. The American colonies in men and religion was watched by the religious leaders in all countries. The present tour is different from the strictly evangelistic around-the-world trips such as have been made by the Torrey-Alexander and the Chapman-Alexander evangelistic campaigns. These men carry a new method. While they will have much public speaking to do, their most important services will be rendered in conference with religious leaders in the cities touched.

The itinerary of the projected enterprise looks like a world geography. Mr. Smith and his associates will start from America about the first of the year, sailing from San Francisco. They will touch at Hawaii and then proceed to the Orient where conferences will be held with the missionaries in Japan, Korea and China. From Hongkong the party will sail to Manila, then to Australia and New Zealand, then to South Africa. There will be followed by a tour of South Africa. It has leaked out that during the men and religion congress in New York three separate telegrams came from South African leaders urging Mr. Smith to bring a man and religion deputation to that country. From South Africa the party will go to Europe and continue their campaigning, especially in Great Britain, where the social service ideas of the men and religion movement have already been applied so extensively that the danger has now come to be a lack of individual initiative and a feeling of stagnation. In this part of the world there is a special welcome for a movement which has embodied their dominant note.

South Africa is a man's land, and religion is expected to make an appeal to the men and religion idea there. The Rev. David Russell, who was a member of one of the American teams, was visiting from South Africa, and he will co-operate with the Americans in their work in this new country. The radical and practical character of men and religion is expected to make an appeal to South Africa.

While the state department at Washington has nothing to do with the exploitation of American ideas as of statecraft and trade, yet, as a matter of fact, religious propaganda in this country have carried many notable methods and forms of social ministry to the ends of the earth. Americans have the reputation abroad of being clever and fertile in the devising of plans, as well as extraordinarily capable in the art of making terse platitudes.

The use of the secular press by religious agencies is in fact a new idea to the old world, and it is involved in the men and religion plan. Unquestionably the greatest general influence has come by way of the publicity it has received from the newspapers.

The scheme of sending teams of specially trained workers into all the leading cities of the world, and to have them carry on a political contest of religious propaganda, but it is believed to be as practical elsewhere as it has proved to be in America. Whether the laymen in other countries will subscribe as handsomely to the expenses of the men and religion campaign as Americans have done remains to be seen. The British are liberal, but conservative in the forms which their gifts take.

Echoes of the Campaign.

Five months have elapsed since the ending of the men and religion campaign of last winter, and Fred B. Smith seems more enthusiastic than ever over the importance of the movement. He points to the constant allusion in religious conventions and in church press to men and religion methods, and to such notable achievements as the men and religion impulse behind the Pittsburgh moral campaign. The body of literature, in the form of commission reports issued by the Associated Press, is doing much to conserve the message of the movement.

Fred B. Smith and James G. Cannon, chairman of the central committee, are sending a nation-wide letter to the men who occupy the positions of leadership of the men and religion movement, calling attention to some tasks that yet remain to be done and to the special responsibility which rests upon the men who came to the fore in the men and religion campaign. The rejuvenation of the American Federation of Churches is directly traceable to the men and religion movement, as are also the survey idea and the get-together plans of the denominational boards. This movement, so typically American, may become a permanent world method.

For a Soft, Velvety Skin and Bright, Fluffy Hair

Fall winds have a peculiarly blighting effect on the delicate skin and proper safeguards should be used to protect it. A highly meritorious lot can be made at little cost by dissolving 4 ounces of spumax in either 2 pint witch hazel or hot water and adding 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. This dressing quickly is invisible when on and imparts that soft tint of healthy maid-enhood to the skin. The spumax lotion serves every purpose of powder and makes clear and beautiful any complexion.

"Stringy," unmanageable hair is the result of improper shampooing. A very satisfactory shampoo for fall is prepared by dissolving a teaspoonful cantharix in a cup hot water. This makes a rich, bland lotion that removes every atom of dust, dandruff and excess oil and after rinsing, the hair dries quickly with a rich even color and gloss. Cantharix shampoo makes the hair fluffy and encourages a thick, long growth.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT YOUR HEART

Most people who have heart disease do not know it. Most people who think they have heart disease, haven't. They only think so. Pain in the region of the heart is mistakenly supposed to be a symptom of heart disease.

Just as pain in the back seldom or never indicates kidney trouble, so pain near the heart is scarcely ever present in organic heart disease. This pain is nearly always from the stomach which is connected with the heart by many nerves.

When Your Digestion Is Disordered

it often affects the heart and even causes an irregularity in its beat. The gas produced by undigested and fermenting food may cause pressure that affects the heart unpleasantly. But these pains do not mean that you have heart disease or need fear sudden death. Try toning up the stomach and learn how quickly and surely you lose the fear of heart disease.

Tone Up the Stomach

Correct any errors of diet. Eat the right things and not too much of them. If you do not know what the right things are, send for our diet book. It is free. Don't starve yourself and don't pamper your stomach with predigested food and artificial aids to digestion. Tone up your stomach so it will do its own proper work, don't worry about your heart or anything else (worry causes and aggravates indigestion) and you will be well and happy.

By Using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

you get improvement with the first dose. First you notice an increase in your appetite. Then you see that the food does not distress you, that you are no longer troubled with gas, sour risings in the throat and those misleading pains around the heart. Strength and energy return and the rich red blood, bearing the full amount of nourishment yielded by food, carries renewed vitality to every organ of the body.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or direct by mail, postpaid, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50. For the diet book write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

I would live to a ripe old age." Is the way John Trout feels about matrimony. The Union veteran has passed his 70th milestone and is fast approaching his 71st. "If I was fortunate enough to have a wife I feel that I would live as long again as I have already lived," was another assertion he made. Trout obtains a part of his livelihood by cutting and shaping crockeries. "I really feel as fit as did twenty years ago," he said today. "I know that I can cut as many ties now as I did then."

"How many can you cut in a day now?" he was asked. "Oh, anywhere from fifteen to twenty," was his reply.

Trout says that he has about given up hope of obtaining a wife to share his old days with him.

Resinol Ointment, Co., Baltimore, July 17, 1912.

Gentlemen:—I became afflicted with eczema twenty-five years ago. I did everything suggested for it, and often got a temporary relief, but the itching and burning was so intense and continual that in 1901 I put myself in the care of a specialist in Philadelphia, and was there all winter. The result was of little or no benefit. In fact the doctor gave me to understand that by following his directions I would somewhat limit the misery, but that at my age I would have to make the best of it.

This I tried to do till about 1908, when I was in Philadelphia, and called on the doctor to ask him if he knew of anything to cure me.

He said, "Get a box of Resinol Ointment." I got it. The itching stopped time the jar of Resinol was used for a month or so, but by the past three or four years I have slight touches, but a single application cures me in a few days. I expended perhaps a thousand dollars, and endured much suffering for many years, but at last I was relieved and cured in a month for the sum of $1.00, the price of one jar of Resinol.

(Signed) Franklin Burt
LATE CAPT. U. S. A.

After wasting $1,000 on his eczema, a jar of Resinol cured it

WHEN a man like Mr. Burt, late a Captain in the United States Army, writes that after he had suffered for many years with itching, burning eczema and had spent $1,000 on treatments, one jar of Resinol Ointment (costing 50c) cured him, every word of his letter is of vital interest to other skin sufferers. Read it. Then try Resinol and see if it does not stop your itching instantly, and quickly remove all trace of your skin-trouble, too.

REPAID AFTER TWENTY YEARS

Servant Girl Who Damaged Flatirons Sends Money for Them.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 12.—The "conscientious fund" of the family of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Albert, living in Lyman county, has been enriched to the extent of a $1 bill as the result of an incident which occurred about twenty years ago and which had long since been forgotten.

During the twenties in the Albert kitchen twenty years ago were a set of flat irons which were used during the winter when the house was heated by a base-burner stove. Mrs. Albert employed a hired girl. The girl in using an ironing board thought the kitchen too cool, and dumped the flatiron upon the coals in the base-burner. In a few minutes the irons were reduced to a mass of molten metal.

The letter and money were from her sister, who was living in California. The letter said that she was sorry that she had not been able to find the girl who had done the deed, but that she was sure that the irons were worth $1.00.

DIES FROM INJURIES

Old Dakota Resident Succumbs to Effects of Recent Tornado.

Property Damage By Storm Will Probably Reach $100,000.

Devils Lake, N. D., Sept. 13.—Samuel Newell, 60 years old, and a resident of this state for many years, died at the general hospital here from injuries sustained in the tornado which swept through Ramsey county Saturday night. Newell was employed on the farm of Louis De Bore in the town of Devils Lake. He was asleep in the hayrack of the barn when the storm struck the building. A falling rafter struck him on the jaw, the injury resulting in his death.

One hundred thousand dollars will hardly cover the property damage by the tornado, according to A. M. Powell, an insurance man in the city. The loss of the buildings will be reported on Saturday night. Newell was employed on the farm of Louis De Bore in the town of Devils Lake. He was asleep in the hayrack of the barn when the storm struck the building. A falling rafter struck him on the jaw, the injury resulting in his death.

Eleven persons who were sleeping in the hayrack of the barn were slightly injured in the tornado, and with two others, had the most thrilling experience of their lives. The hayrack was blown away and the men and women who were in it were scattered all over the place. One of the men was killed and two others were seriously injured. The two men who were in the hayrack were blown away and the women who were in it were scattered all over the place.

Mr. Powell also tells of other freak performances occurring during the storm. A machine shop 22 by 64 feet in size was lifted off the foundation to a height of about 100 feet. The car was set down in the field and the machine shop was blown away. The car was set down in the field and the machine shop was blown away. The car was set down in the field and the machine shop was blown away.

W. E. Goess of Starkweather says that he saw the storm coming and tried to get his horses out of the barn. The barn was blown away and the horses were scattered all over the place. The barn was blown away and the horses were scattered all over the place.

Superintendent of Schools Halg of this city lost his valuable horse and a large quantity of grain in the storm. John Laird of Cleveland township is another victim of the storm who reported heavy damage.

TRAINMEN BADLY SCALDED. Engineer and Fireman May Succumb to Their Injuries.

Green Bay, Wis., Sept. 13.—When the crown sheet of a St. Paul road engine blew out while the train was operating between Channing and Escanaba, three men were badly scalded, two perhaps fatally.

The injured men are: E. Johnson, Ontonagon, engineer; Ben Burman, Ontonagon, fireman; and H. Larson, Iron Mountain, brakeman. The first two are probably fatally injured. The men were taken to Iron Mountain.

BURGLARS BLOW SAFE BUT SECURE NOTHING. Jamestown, N. D., Sept. 13.—The Elbridge postoffice safe was blown open by a bolt of lightning, rendered unconscious and for a time given up for dead, was the experience of Forest Davey, a Turner county farmer. He had gone to a pasture to shut a gate and was standing with one hand on a fence post and the other on the back of the horse he had ridden to the pasture when the bolt of lightning struck a post in close proximity to himself and the horse.

Both himself and horse were felled by the shock. In an instant Davey was unable to move. Davey lay on the ground with his faithful dog, which had accompanied him, rushed to the house and in dog language told the members of the family something was wrong. They investigated and found the farmer where he had fallen.

Wednesday, has been set to work in the second degree and has been held to the next grand jury, and his bail has been fixed at $1,000.

It appears that Wallin, accompanied by John Ryan, a farm hand, drove to the home of Miss Wallin to go riding with him, which she refused to do. According to Ryan Wallin then shot striking both of her limbs near the knee caps. Wallin then threw the gun away and fled, but was apprehended by Marshal Foster after Ryan had given the alarm.

Wallin was taken to the hospital in a corn field near Coffey after a strenuous chase. Miss Wallin was brought to Springfield and placed in St. John's hospital, where she is suffering from severe wounds.

TO THE PUBLIC!

Duluth, Sept. 13, 1912.

We had on Monday last about 280 car men in the cities of Duluth and Superior who were apparently satisfied with their wages and working conditions and were satisfactorily serving the company and its patrons.

By methods not necessary to discuss here a very small proportion of the men in Duluth (they claim only 40) were induced to organize, and on one hour's notice given about 3 o'clock a. m., Monday, Sept. 9, 1912, declared a strike on the lines in Duluth.

Only a few months ago we requested our employees to appoint suitable committees to represent all employees at meetings with the officials to consider all questions pertaining to the welfare of employees. As a result of meetings with such committees concessions were made, and later (on July 1st last) a material increase in the scale of wages was made. Upon the new scale of wages being announced the company received the following communication from its employees on the Superior Division:

Superior, July 3rd, 1912.

Mr. Herbert Warren,

General Manager, Duluth St. Ry. Co.

Dear Sir: We, the employees of the Duluth Street Railway Company, Superior Division, through our committee, hereby wish to express our thanks for the recent raise in the scale of wages and convey our gratitude for the satisfactory and amicable settlement of the seeming difficulties.

This unexpected action on your part, manifesting as it does, your appreciation of our worth as employees, but tends to strengthen the already existing spirit of mutual good-will and makes us more determined to merit your future approbation.

(Signed)

R. P. RICHARDS,
H. P. STRONG,
KNUTE THORSON,

Similar verbal expressions were received by the officers of the company from many employees of the Duluth Division.

The present trouble is not the result of action originating with any considerable number of the company's employees, but of action which at the start was participated in by not to exceed 15 per cent of our actual employees whom we believe were induced to take such action by outside agitators. There are still a very large number of our old employees who have absolutely refused to have anything to do with this movement, and we believe practically all of those who appear to be allied with it have been actuated only by fear. Many of our old employees are now ready and willing to take the risk of running cars, and many others are only deterred by fear of the mob. The present reduced service is due solely to unrestrained mob violence.

We fully appreciate our duty to the people of Duluth and Superior, and it is not due to lack of appreciation of our duty but because of our full appreciation of it, that we cannot yield to the demands of outside agitators supported by mob violence ignoring our duty to the public and our many faithful and loyal employees and still hope to give good service.

We are satisfied that the present disturbances arise from an attempt to make Duluth and Superior closed shop cities again.

We deplore the present condition of affairs, and request that the thinking people of Duluth and Superior suspend hasty judgment as to our motives and intentions and keep in mind that we are not only the greatest sufferers from the present condition of affairs, but that our sole purpose and desire is to have the present conditions righted as quickly as possible and at the same time avoid putting ourselves in such a position as would make frequent repetitions of these deplorable conditions probable. Respectfully submitted,

THE DULUTH STREET RAILWAY CO.,

By HERBERT WARREN, General Manager.

EBERHART CANCELS HIS ENGAGEMENTS

Remains at Capitol in Case the Militia Is Needed.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Governor Eberhart has cancelled his Saturday speaking date and will return to his office in the capitol tomorrow morning to consider the advisability of sending state militia to Duluth to prevent further trouble on account of the street car strike there. As yet no official request has been made to the governor to send troops there, complaints only being made by individuals.

The law provides that the governor can send state militia into a city only when all local authority has been exhausted. The citizens naturally have the right to call on the sheriff to swear in deputies to protect the peace. Whether this has been done and with what success is not now known at the executive office.

The situation seems to be considered serious, however, since the governor has given up one of his campaign engagements in order to be in St. Paul.

and make a thorough investigation of the needs in Duluth.

Whether the state will interfere by sending troops will probably be determined tomorrow.

CARS GOING TO THE BARNS

At 3 o'clock this afternoon every westbound car had the sign "To car house only."

It is understood that the company has called in all of its cars, fearing further violence during the afternoon.

STONING CARS IN EAST END

A crowd of men congregated at Twenty-fourth avenue east early this afternoon and proceeded to lay in a stock of stones which they threw at each passing street car.

At this point the ammunition is plentiful.

ASSAULTED BY BURGLAR

Thief Strikes Officer With Revolver and Flees, Leaving Coat.

John Hunter, night jaffer at the police station, received a severe cut on the head when a burglar, who was discovered in a Superior street store, hit him over the head with the butt end of a revolver.

When the burglar was at work Hunter and Fritz approached the store, Fritz at the rear and Hunter in front. The man became frightened and fled through the front door. Hunter grabbed him by the coat tails and held on. The man swung the butt end of his gun on Hunter's head and then slipped out of his coat and fled, leaving the coat in the policeman's hands.

Hunter's wound was sewed up and he suffered no serious consequences. The coat contained letters indicating that the burglar is a professional crook, attracted to Duluth by the disturbed conditions. He may be apprehended through the letters.

WILL RECOVER DAMAGES FOR ASSAULT BY CONDUCTOR

James P. Stevenson, a passenger on a street car on June 6 last, will recover damages from the Duluth Street Railway company for an assault which was made upon him by a conductor. Just how much he will get has been left to the jury to decide. The case was tried this morning in Judge Cant's court. After the testimony had been taken the court directed a verdict for Stevenson and sent the jury out to assess the damages.

Stevenson's testimony showed, boarded a Duluth-Superior car for Duluth at Superior. He paid the regular 10-cent fare. While on the car he got into an argument over change and was struck by the conductor and thrown off.

Witnesses for the railway company testified that he had cursed the conductor and that this was responsi-

POLICE FORCE WORKS OVERTIME

Chief Divides His Men Into Two Twelve-Hour Shifts.

Chief Troyer has divided his force of uniformed men into two squads, one squad to be worked at night and the other during day times, during the time the present strike lasts. There will be thirty uniformed men in each squad, who will work with the plain clothes men who will be scattered throughout the crowds wherever they happen to gather. The night squad will work from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m., and the day squad from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m., each day.

Extra automobiles will be provided so that in case of a congestion of trouble, the various groups of police may be rapidly transferred to the scene. The policemen are fitted out on a war footing and will give trouble to any one looking for it.

LINUS J. PIERCE PASSES AWAY

Well Known Duluthian Dies of Hardening of Arteries.

Linus J. Pierce, aged 74 years, died this morning at his home, 225 East Fourth street. Hardening of the arteries was the cause of death.

Pierce had lived in Duluth twenty-two years, coming here from Jefferson county, New York, where he had lived on a farm for some years. He was born at Rosie, N. Y., and was in the mercantile business there for twelve years before returning to New York. He has not been actively

CATHOLICS LAUD THE HAPSBURGS

Delegates Cheer as Royal House of Austria Is Praised.

Vienna, Austria, Sept. 13.—Speaking at the solemn assembly of the Eucharist congress this morning, Father Karl Andlau acknowledged with gratitude the part played by the house of Hapsburg for the "glorification of the sacrament."

"Above all," said the speaker, "I thank thee, beloved emperor, in the name of all the Catholic nations."

At this utterance all the delegates present rose from their seats and broke out in vociferous cheering for the members of the Austrian royal family.

Father Andlau concluded his speech with the words "eucharistia Austria vita," which was the occasion for renewed cheering.

WILL INTERVENE IN SAN DOMINGO

United States Will Send Warships on Account of Rebellion.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The United States is about to intervene in Santo Domingo. Warships will be dispatched at once to the island. A revolution has broken out which threatens American and other foreign interests.

NOT ASKED FOR HELP, SAYS SHERIFF MEINING

Sheriff John Meining, when asked why he has taken no steps to help the city authorities in quelling the mobs, said to The Herald today that Mayor McCuen has not requested it.

The sheriff says that in view of this official absence of a request for aid, the assumption is that the city still has the situation in hand. If the city needs the sheriff's help, says Mr. Meining, he will give it and will immediately swear in whatever number of deputies is necessary. Up to noon today he has not furnished a single deputy to aid in quelling rioting incident to the street car strike.

The police have extras sworn to take the beats so that the regulars can be available for strike service. The men have been working nights. Today when trouble broke loose they were home resting.

The brunt of the whole police situation has fallen upon the shoulders of the local police department and Chief Troyer.

OBITUARY

O. T. HIGGINS IS SUMMONED

News of the death of O. T. Higgins of Redlands, Cal., was received here this morning by Carroll Graft in a telegram from New York. Mr. Higgins was well known in this city, having been here for several visits with friends. He was the son of ex-Governor Higgins of New York and the grandson of O. T. Higgins, who was prominent in Duluth business circles in the early days.

Edward A. Cushman, inventor of a number of devices now commonly used in the telephone service, died Sept. 12 at his home in Brooklyn, N. Y., aged 73 years. He was an organizer of the Gold Stock Telegraph company, inventor of the ticker which made the operation of that system possible, and also invented the messenger call box. During the Civil war he was chief operator for the Western Union Telegraph company in New York city, handling many important government messages. In 1872 he organized the Exchange Telegraph company of London. He was Woman's World: Soak one cupful of stale white bread crumbs in one-half a cupful of milk, mix with one cupful of chopped nuts (either mixed nuts or walnuts), season with salt and pepper, add the beaten yolks of two eggs. Shape, egg and crumb, fry in deep fat.

How to shape croquettes—If the mixture is thick enough to be handled it may be rolled into any desired shape. How to egg and crumb croquettes—

Slightly beat an egg and add one tablespoon of water. Dip the croquette in this mixture and then roll it in very fine cracker or stale bread crumbs. The process may be repeated twice, which insures the croquette against soaking fat.

Rules for testing fat for frying—Drop into the hot fat a cube of bread from the inside of the loaf, and if in forty seconds it is a golden brown, the fat is then of the right temperature for frying any mixture which has been previously cooked. For uncooked foods use the same test, allowing one minute for the bread to brown.

STRIKE PROVES HARD ON SHOE LEATHER

"At this rate I'll have to buy a pair of shoes once each week," said a man.

This morning who had walked from Twenty-fourth avenue east. "The sole that was thin in the middle was all right to ride down in the street car with and was all right sitting around the office, but it soon has to give way to a new one when one is doing a great deal of walking."

New shoes have a habit of being tight or otherwise uncomfortable and many people are limping up and down

Superior street cursing the shoes, the weather, the street car company, the strikers and the man who sold the squeaky shoes, claiming that they were comfortable before the man had walked two blocks.

Shoe stores have no reason to complain. One manager said that he had sold more shoes in the last week than he has in some time.

"It's good exercise, but it's damned hard on shoe leather," said one man this morning. "And I have several children walking to the central part of the city to school, too," he exclaimed regretfully.

LAWYERS DIFFER ON LEGAL STEPS TO TAKE

Division of Opinion on What Action Can Be Taken.

One Holds That Company Is Liable for Injured Passengers.

There is a division of opinion among lawyers of the city as to what can be done by the city in a legal way to force a settlement of the street railway strike. The majority of them seem to believe that the city can do nothing so long as sufficient police protection is not furnished. The labor leaders, on the other hand, say that there are ways and means of forcing the issue.

Said one of them this morning: "The lawyers, generally, are accustomed to running along in the usual groove and can see no way out of it. We have to get some chap like Brandeis or some of that kind who is capable of an original idea and forcing the issue. Then other lawyers simply sit back and shake their heads. They think and even say that such methods are a sacrifice against the sacred profession of the law. But it is such sacrilege that is winning the world just now."

Lawyers are not anxious to be quoted in regard to the matter, but a prominent lawyer of the city, recognized as a leader of his profession, gave an opinion to The Herald this morning, and his view was coincided in by several others of the best talent at the Duluth bar.

It will be noticed that it is the opinion of this lawyer that the company has no redress in case its property is injured or destroyed by mob violence. This is contrary to the claim of Thomas S. Wood, attorney for the street railway company, who has served notice on the city and county that the company will hold them responsible for such damage. The opinion follows:

"The railway company would be held liable for injuries which its passengers or its employees might receive by flying glass or stones thrown by the strikers or their sympathizers under the present conditions when it knows that injury may be received. The company also runs the risk of damage to its own property from the same source. It is probably without any remedy in either case. If the public authorities do not furnish adequate police protection so as to relieve the railway company of this risk, the courts would not compel the railway company to operate its cars when by so doing it might suffer loss of its property and cause serious loss and possible death to some of its passengers or employees."

"On the other hand, if the railway company is furnished adequate protection for its property and for the lives and persons of its passengers and employees, and should then refuse to render adequate service, the courts would have the power, and it would be their duty, to compel that service to be rendered, even if necessary for that purpose to appoint a receiver for the company."

RESTAURANTS AND LUNCH ROOMS ARE DOING RUSHING BUSINESS

Down town restaurants are doing a capacity business at the luncheon hour each day since the street car strike began.

The people can not get home to lunch and the restaurants and lunch counters as well as the hotels' business men's lunch are doing an enormous business.

In one "serve-yourself" lunch room this noon the supply of cooked stuffs ran out shortly after noon and the late customers had to be satisfied with "ham and."

In another place the supply of bread became exhausted but there was soup in quantities. So people ate soup and waited while a hurry call was made at a bakery.

All the eating places are experiencing a run on their supplies. Extra help is being taken on and no time is being lost over the counter.

"Sinkers and one in the dark" have to satisfy a great many as it is easier and quicker to say that than "roast leg of veal with dressing, custard pie and coffee."

The customer is pretty sure to get the "sinker and" where anything else is most uncertain. The service you get depends a good deal on how fast you can talk and how proficient you are in elbowing your way into the crowd. A man who stutters has absolutely no chance at a Duluth quick lunch these days.

THREAT IS MERE BLUFF

County Cannot Be Held Liable for Damages to Street Railway.

Authorities Laugh at Prospect of Being Sued for Mob Violence.

The street railway company is bluffing when it springs anything about suing the county or state for damages to its property. The county cannot be sued. The idea is ridiculous.

This is the way that John H. Norton, county attorney, sizes up the threat yesterday of the street railway officials that the county would be held liable to damage to its property from mob violence during the strike.

"The county cannot be held liable for neglect of duty in this matter, even if neglect is proven," said Warren E. Greene, assistant county attorney, this morning. "The threat is an idle one."

"The county and state are not liable for negligence in the matter of this strike," said Charles E. Adams, special attorney for the county board. "The state is sovereign and cannot be sued. The county is merely a political subdivision of the state. The courts have held repeatedly that counties are not liable in instances of this kind."

In some cases the courts have held municipalities liable, but never counties or states.

THROW CONDUCTOR OFF OF HIS CAR
Passengers Eject a Strike-Breaker Who Wouldn't Ring Up Fares.

A strike-breaker conductor was bodily thrown off from a West Duluth car, east bound, this morning when he refused to ring up fares.

The conductor had collected several fares from the passengers, when three men in the rear vestibule demanded that he ring them up.

The strike-breaker informed him that the matter was none of their affair. It was a matter between the company and himself, he stated.

The men couldn't see it that way.

QUESTION FOR COURTS

C. E. Adams Doubtful of Perpetuity of Street Railway Franchise.

Believes City Could Take Over and Operate the System.

"Serious situations like the present street railway strike," declared Attorney Charles E. Adams this morning, "will crystallize sentiment for a municipally owned street railway system. Under such a system, the public would not have to tolerate any such inconvenience as they are now paying."

"The street railway company claims that it is operating under a perpetual franchise and that as long as it performs the requirements set out in its charter that the city cannot terminate it. This is a matter for judicial opinion."

"In my opinion, I would say that at the time the present franchise of the company expires that the city could, if it so desired, take it over for itself and operate a street railway system of its own."

"Just now we are in a good position to know just what it would cost to duplicate the property of the company new. In May 1911, St. Louis county found it necessary in a tax enforcement case to employ expert engineers to make a physical valuation of the company's property. One of the engineers was formerly chief of engineers in the employ of the Twin City Rapid Transit company. In compiling out figures we had at our disposal the figures of the engineers of the Wisconsin railroad and warehouse commission."

"In May, 1911, the entire system of the Duluth Street Railway company in Duluth and Superior could be duplicated absolutely new for $3,973,223. Approximately three-fourths of that figure would be what it would cost to build it in Duluth. The company values its franchise at about $4,000,000."

There was a demonstration at Third avenue west and Superior street about 1:30 this afternoon.

A crowd of men congregated around the car starters' box and hurled verbal shafts at the two men in the box. No actual violence was offered, but dire threats were made without any attempt to put them into execution.

The two men finally became frightened and when a car came along they closed up the box and took the car, amid the jeers of the crowd.

Several hundred people gathered, but it was an orderly crowd and two policemen had no trouble dispersing it.

GOVERNOR ON SCENE, AND FINDS NO NEED OF CALLING OUT MILITIA

ANARCHY REPORTED IN SOUTHERN MEXICO

Bandits Are Wrecking and Looting Trains in Chihuahua.

Peace Proposals Are Made By Orozco in Letter to Madero.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Reports of anarchy in Southern Mexico reached the state department today, with information that Americans and other foreigners were seeking refuge in the City of Mexico. The Madero government is rushing troops into the disaffected districts, but the necessity for maintaining a formidable force in the vicinity of the capital is hampering the program.

Trains are being wrecked and looted by bandits in the state of Chihuahua, and in one instance several passengers were killed. The information was transmitted to the state department, with the statement that all was quiet along the border.

Expect Long Struggle.
Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, today ordered a gen-

FINDS CENTER OF WHITE SLAVERY

Cleveland Probation Officer Unearths Rendezvous in "Swell" Section.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 14.—Evidence that Cleveland is being used as a recruiting station for white slavers has been found by Probation Officer Christian in an investigation of the result of which was made known today.

Christian has advised the police to watch a house in the "Swell" residence district, which he declares is being used as a rendezvous for white slavers. The police attribute the disappearance of twenty-three girls during the last two months to white slavery. It is believed they have been taken to other cities.

WILL HORSEWHIP LARNED GAMBLERS

Women of Kansas Town Threaten to Raid Poker Games.

Larned, Kan., Sept. 14.—Horsewhips and clubs are the weapons the Women's Anti-Gambling association of Larned threatened today to use upon the city's gamblers if they do not leave the home-loving husbands of this town alone. Following futile efforts by the police to rid the town of the gamblers, the women met today and issued an ultimatum that they intended to take the law into their own hands and raid the next poker game here.

BULLETS FLY IN MINERS' STRIKE

Military Outposts Are Fired on in West Virginia.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 14.—Military outposts were fired on during the early hours of today at Holley, in the heart of the territory under martial law because of the miners' strike. The pickets replied and for a time the exchange of shots was brisk, but a careful search of the wooded hillsides from which the shots came showed no evidence that the shots had taken effect. When the shooting was reported to military headquarters, Companies A and B, First West Virginia National Guard, of Parkersburg, and Company I of Fairmont were ordered to the place. This is pay day in the unionized section of the north bank of the Kanawha river, where the men struck last week but returned to work on Tuesday. It was signalled at Hughesport by a light which began at 9 o'clock, the shooting being general. It is reported here that contending factions of miners were engaged, but the result of the fighting is not yet known.

Military authorities are of the opinion that martial law will be extended north of the Kanawha river, as lawlessness in some parts of that section is said to be increasing.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The Panama canal is to be opened to traffic in the fall of 1913. This statement was made officially by the navy department, with an announcement that the Atlantic fleet would be rendezvoused at Colon this winter before the water is turned in. The navy's estimate is based upon the latest reports from the army engineers.

SEVERE STORM HITS MOBILE

Small Steamer Is Sunk and Methodist Church Blown Down.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 14.—An equinoctial storm which struck the Gulf coast last night and threatened to do serious damage to this city had abated this morning. It is thought the disturbance has spent itself so far as Mobile is concerned.

The small river steamer National was sunk early today and the government dredge Barnard, which assisted in raising the Maine in Havana harbor, dragged her anchor for a quarter of a mile but was not damaged.

The Cedar Street Methodist church was razed by the wind and considerable minor damage done. The damage in the city will not exceed $10,000.

One death resulted from the storm here. Thomas Deering, a watchman on the Barnard, was blown overboard and drowned while trying to let out another anchor when the vessel was drifting.

VALENTINE IS RELEASED

REGARD NOGI AS PATRIOT

Japanese Praise General and Countess for Self-destruction.

Mourning for Emperor Forbids Official Recognition of General's Death.

Tokio, Sept. 14.—The dramatic death of Gen. Count Maresuke Nogi, the soldier-hero of Japan, and that of his wife, the Countess Nogi, who yesterday, coincident with the departure from the capitol of the body of the late Emperor Mutsuhito for its final resting place at Monzen, committed suicide, the general by gassing his throat with a sword and the countess by hara-kiri, is regarded by the great soldiers of Japan and by the general's other countrymen as a magnificent act of patriotic duty. But the nation being in the deepest mourning, and the new emperor being forced into seclusion by the death of his father, it is impossible to confer the usual posthumous honors, and consequently Gen. Nogi, officially, is not dead.

The count on Thursday morning, prior to attending the funeral services of the late emperor at the palace, summoned a photographer to his home in Akasaka, a suburb of Tokio, and in the garden of his residence posed with his

NO CONDOLENCES FOR NOGI'S DEATH

State Department Thinks They Would Be in Poor Taste.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Official condolences on the death of Gen. Nogi and Countess Nogi probably will not be transmitted to Japan by the United States. State department officials believe that, as in the estimation of the Japanese the suicide of Count Nogi and his wife was heroic and in conformity with the ancient custom, condolences might be in poor taste.

NO REPORTS OF DISORDER RECEIVED

Rain and Fear of Militia Prevent Riots During Night.

No More Storming of Cars or Other Violence Reported.

Excitement So Prevalent Friday Appears to Have Calmed Down.

The strike situation is one of absolute quiet today. Aside from the fact that more cars are running than during the rest of the week, there is no change. The sheriff is in control of the situation and declares that he will remain so. The strikers will aid him, and, anyway, excitement seems to have died down.

A combination of conditions and circumstances prevented further disorder in connection with the street railway strike last night.

The condition having the most to do with it was that rain fell intermittently, and when it did it was heavy enough to dampen whatever riot there was.

The circumstances consisted of the move made by the city to force settlement of the strike through the courts, and also the news that members of the state militia had assembled at the armory to await orders to take charge if any should come. Also the fact that the sheriff had requested the aid of the state militia to give the mob pause for, as one man put it last night, "bullets might prove much more effective than police clubs, and the modern bullet is no toy."

At any rate the last demonstration of yesterday took place at West Duluth about 6 o'clock in the afternoon, and after that nothing more violent than jeering and calling of names took place. The excitement which was rampant throughout the day, calmed down amazingly and pleasantly disappointed those who expected severe outbreaks after dark.

No cars were run last night, according to the seemingly fixed policy of the strike.

SERVICE IS BEST SINCE MEN STRUCK

Company Has More Cars Running Than Any Day Since Monday.

Manager Warren Thinks Sheriff Has Situation Well in Hand.

Large Force of Deputies Being Sworn in By Meining.

The street railway company has more cars in service today than on any day since Monday, and as rapidly as possible is resuming full service on the West Duluth line.

The service to that part of the city was discontinued early yesterday evening to the continued and growing violence shown by strike sympathizers and hoodlums in parts of West Duluth, resulting in the serious injury of Conductor Redden and the almost total wreck of car No. 210, in charge of Redden. This car has the appearance of having been through a cyclone. Not only is all of the glass in the car

DENVER HAS THREE INCHES OF SNOW

Wyoming Also Gets Touch of Real Winter Weather.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 14.—Snow fell in Central Colorado and parts of Wyoming today. More than three inches fell in Denver. The thermometer stood at 34 deg. A cold rain fell over both states during the night, changing to snow about daybreak.

SAYS MILITIA IS NOT NEEDED

GOVERNOR EBERHART.

WERE PUT IN BAD LIGHT

Mayor and Chief Troyer Say They Asked for Help Repeatedly.

Now Ready to Co-operate in Every Way With County Forces.

Mayor McCuen and Chief of Police Troyer claim that they have been put in a bad light by Sheriff Meining's statement that he was not called upon for assistance until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

They say they repeatedly called on the sheriff for assistance and he neglected to do anything.

The sheriff is today doing everything he can and seems to have control of the situation, so there is no disposition on the part of the mayor or the chief to keep up the controversy. They are now ready to co-operate with the sheriff to preserve order and express appreciation of the work he is now doing.

They do believe, however, that they have been put in a false position by the sheriff's statement.

Chief Troyer said:
"The first communication I had with the sheriff's office was Tuesday night (Continued on page 11, third column.)"

CASSIE CHADWICK VICTIMS REPAID

Bonding Company Fixes Up Claim in Ohio Financial Deals.

Elyria, O., Sept. 14.—Part of the money out of which the people of Oberlin, this county, were fleeced by the late Cassie Chadwick, came back to them today. The United States Fidelity & Bonding company of New York, paid into court here $22,876, which represents the $15,000 bond, with interest, of the late cashier A. B. Spear of the National Bank of Oberlin, which was wrecked through its dealings with Mrs. Chadwick.

The money will be divided among stockholders of the bank, who were assessed $100,000 to pay the depositors' losses.

WILSON READY TO START WEST

Contemplates Making No Speeches Before Reaching Iowa.

Sea Girt, N. J., Sept. 14.—Governor Woodrow Wilson had a busy day before him, preparing for his western trip, which will begin tomorrow. He is due to reach Chicago at 6 o'clock Monday afternoon and leave an hour later for Sioux City, Iowa.

The candidate said today that he contemplates making no speeches before reaching Iowa.

SHERIFF IN CONTROL OF SITUATION

Gets "On the Job" and Swears In Fifty Deputies.

Eberhart Meets Strikers, Sheriff and Street Railway Officers.

Tells Strikers They Must Help Discourage Acts of Violence.

Governor Eberhart arrived in Duluth this morning.

He held conferences during the morning with Sheriff John R. Meining, labor leaders and the striking street railway employees.

"I believe the sheriff is now doing what he can and I believe he will be able to handle the situation," the governor said after he had investigated conditions.

Unless violence is persisted in and the local authorities prove unable to preserve order, the militia will not be called out. The governor said today that he would not call out the militia unless it is absolutely necessary, and he is satisfied that it will not be necessary.

The governor told the striking street railway employees, who were accompanied to the conference at the Hotel by W. E. McEwen, secretary of the State Federation of Labor, that the prevention of violence is essential.

"No strike was ever won by violence," he told them. "Lives and property must be protected. Law and order must be preserved. It is up to you men to discourage disorder. I know you have not been responsible for violence that has occurred, and I hope

Peace Proposals Are Made By Orozco in Letter to Madero.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Reports of anarchy in southern Mexico reached the state department today, with information that Americans and other foreigners were seeking refuge in the city of Mexico. The Madero government is rushing troops into the disaffected districts, but the necessity for maintaining a formidable force in the vicinity of the capital is hampering the program.

Trains are being wrecked and looted by bandits in the state of Chihuahua, and in one instance several passengers were killed. The information was transmitted to the state department, with the statement that all was quiet along the border.

Expect Long Struggle.
Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, today ordered a general attack on the "swell" section.

Cleveland Probation Officer Unearths Rendezvous in "Swell" Section.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 14.—Evidence that Cleveland is being used as a recruiting station for white slave soldiers in an investigation by Probation Officer Christian in an investigation today, the result of which was made known today.

The police attribute the disappearance of twenty-three girls during the last two months to white slavery. It is believed they have been taken to other cities.

BULLETS FLY IN MINERS' STRIKE

Military Outposts Are Fired on in West Virginia.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 14.—Military outposts were fired on during the early hours of today at Holley, in the heart of the territory under martial law because of the miners' strike. The shooting was reported for a time the exchange of shots was brisk, but a careful search of the wooded hillsides from which the shots came showed no evidence that the shots had taken effect.

The shooting was reported to military headquarters. Companies A and B, First West Virginia National Guard, of Parkersburg, and Company I, of Fairmont, were ordered to the place.

This is the first time in the history of the north bank of the Kanawha river, where the men struck last week but returned to work on Tuesday. It was situated at Houghton by a night, which began at 7 o'clock, the shooting being general. It is reported here that controlling factions of miners were engaged, but the result of the fighting is not known.

Military authorities are of the opinion that martial law will be extended north of the Kanawha river, as lawlessness in some parts of that section is said to be increasing.

SEVERE STORM HITS MOBILE

Small Steamer Is Sunk and Methodist Church Blown Down.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 14.—An equinoctial storm which struck the Gulf coast last night and threatened to do serious damage to this city had abated this morning. It is thought the disturbance has spent itself so far as Mobile is concerned.

The small river steamer National was sunk early today and the government dredge Barnard, which assisted in raising the mine in Havana harbor, damaged her anchor for a quarter of a mile but was not damaged.

The Cedar Street Methodist church was razed by the wind and considerable minor damage done. The damage in the city will not exceed $10,000.

One death resulted from the storm here. Thomas Iversen, a watchman on the Barnard, was blown overboard and drowned while trying to let out another anchor when the vessel was drifting.

Mourning for Emperor Forbids Official Recognition of General's Death.

Tokio, Sept. 14.—The dramatic death of Gen. Count Maresuke Nogi, the soldier-hero of Japan, and that of his wife, the Countess Nogi, who yesterday, coincidentally with the departure from the capital of the body of the late Emperor Mutsuhito for his final resting place at Morioka, committed suicide, the general by gassing his throat with a sword and the countess by hara-kiri, is regarded by the great soldiers of Japan and by the general's other countrymen as a magnificent act of patriotic duty.

The count on Thursday morning, prior to attending the funeral services of the late emperor at the palace, summoned a photographer to his home in Akasaka, a suburb of Tokio, and in the garden of his residence posed with his sword.

NO CONDOLENCES FOR NOGI'S DEATH

State Department Thinks They Would Be in Poor Taste.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Official condolences on the death of Gen. Nogi and Countess Nogi probably will not be transmitted to Japan by the United States. State department officials believe that, as in the estimation of the Japanese the suicide of Count Nogi and his wife was heroic and in conformity with the ancient custom, condolences might be in poor taste.

DISORDER MUST CEASE!

NO REPORTS OF DISORDER RECEIVED

Rain and Fear of Militia Prevent Riots During Night.

No More Storming of Cars or Other Violence Reported.

Excitement So Prevalent Friday Appears to Have Calmed Down.

The strike situation is one of absolute quiet today. Aside from the fact that more cars are running than during the rest of the week, there is no change. The sheriff is in control of the situation and declares that he will remain so. The strikers will aid him; and, anyway, excitement seems to have died down.

A combination of conditions and circumstances prevented further disorder in connection with the street railway strike last night. The condition having the most to do with it was that rain was heavy enough to dampen any fever which there was.

The circumstances consisted of the move made by the city to force settlement of the strike through the courts, and also the news that members of the state militia had assembled at the Armory to await orders to take charge if any should come. Also the fact that the sheriff had requested the aid of the state militia to give the mob pause for, as one man put it last night, bullets might mean much more effective than police clubs, and the modern bullet is no toy.

At any rate the last demonstration of yesterday took place at West Duluth about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and after that nothing more violent than jeering and calling of names took place. The excitement which was rampant throughout the day, calmed down amazingly and pleasantly disappeared after dark.

No cars were run last night, according to the seemingly fixed policy (Continued on page 11, second column.)

Manager Warren Thinks Sheriff Has Situation Well in Hand.

Large Force of Deputies Being Sworn in By Meining.

The street railway company has more cars in service today than on any day since Monday, and as rapidly as possible is resuming full service on the West Duluth line.

The service to that part of the city was discontinued early yesterday evening to the continued and growing violence shown by strike sympathizers and hoodlums in parts of West Duluth, resulting in the serious injury of Conductor Hedden and the almost total wreck of car No. 210, in charge of Redden. This car has the appearance of having been through a cyclone. Not only is all of the glass in the car (Continued on page 11, third column.)

Mayor and Chief Troyer Say They Asked for Help Repeatedly.

Now Ready to Co-operate in Every Way With County Forces.

Mayor McCuen and Chief of Police Troyer claim that they have been put in a bad light by Sheriff Meining's statement that he was not called upon for assistance until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

They say they repeatedly called on the sheriff for assistance and he neglected to do anything. The sheriff is today doing everything he can and seems to have control of the situation, so there is no disposition on the part of the mayor or the chief to keep up the controversy. They are now ready to co-operate with the sheriff to preserve order and express appreciation of the work he is now doing.

Chief Troyer said: "The first communication I had with the sheriff's office was Tuesday night (Continued on page 11, third column.)

SHERIFF IN CONTROL OF SITUATION

Eberhart Meets Strikers, Sheriff and Street Railway Officers.

Tells Strikers They Must Help Discourage Acts of Violence.

Governor Eberhart arrived in Duluth this morning.

He held conferences during the morning with Sheriff John R. Meining, labor leaders and the striking street railway employees.

"I believe the sheriff is now doing what he can and I believe he will be able to handle the situation," the governor said after he had investigated conditions.

Unless violence is persisted in and the local authorities prove unable to preserve order, the militia will not be called out. The governor said today that he would not call out the militia unless it is absolutely necessary, and he is satisfied that it will not be necessary.

The governor told the striking street railway employees, who were accompanied to the conference at the Hotel Hamilton by W. E. McEwen, secretary of the State Federation of Labor, that the prevention of violence is essential.

"No strike was ever won by violence," he told them. "Lives and property must be protected. Law and order must be preserved. It is up to you men to discourage disorder. I know you have not been responsible for violence that has occurred, and I hope (Continued on page 11, fifth column.)

NEWS OF THE WEST END

PRIZE WINNING GARDENS IN WEST END CONTEST AND THEIR OWNERS

CLEMENT MENELSKI'S GARDEN AT 2416 WEST EIGHTH STREET.

EGEL NELSON'S PLOT AT 2113 WEST SEVENTH STREET.

The prize winners in the garden contest will meet the residents of the West end at a mass meeting to be held Friday evening, Oct. 11, at the Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west and First street.

Dr. O. A. Oredson, chairman of the garden committee, which had charge of the campaign in the West end and the inspection of the gardens entered in the contest, announced yesterday that the prizes will be awarded at the mass meeting. At that time a program of addresses and musical numbers will be featured. The prizes will be given to the winners, who will also give short talks on their work during the past summer.

A feature of the meeting will be a series of stereoscopic slides showing scenes in the West end. These will include the local factories, mills, shops, stores, streets, parks and gardens. Everyone in the West end will be asked to attend the meeting. Children will be allowed and are requested to accompany their parents. Ensign school will attend the meeting in a body as that institution won the prize for the best kept lawn in the West end. The children and teachers will be present and are to receive the prize from Dr. Oredson.

Plan a Success.

The plan of offering prizes will be followed out again next year and with the present interest there is no doubt but what there will be at least 200 entries next year. The prize winners this year and their gardens are as follows: Joseph Miller, 2512 West Thirtieth street, best general garden and best vegetable garden; Arthur Ouellette, 1420 West First street, best strawberry patch; Egel Nelson, 2113 West Seventh street, best flower garden; Clement Menelski, 2416 West Eighth street, best potato patch, and Ensign school, Twenty-third avenue west and Tenth street, best lawn in the West end.

The resolution was passed and copies will be sent to the mayor and sheriff. John J. Moore, Joseph W. Cunningham, and George M. Jensen also spoke on the strike situation.

A. B. Anderson, chairman of the white way committee, reported last evening that the merchants are being canvassed by the committee and that over half of the local property owners have already signed the agreement for the new lighting system. Mr. Anderson stated that the white way would be a part of the West end by Dec. 1.

Dr. O. A. Oredson, chairman of the garden committee, reported on the garden contest and the work of the committee during the past summer. He also announced the prize winners, who were selected by the committee after

SAY GIBSON DREW ON ESTATE FUNDS

Consular Agents Seek to Learn What He Did With Money.

New York, Sept. 14.—Representatives of the Austro-Hungarian consulate continued their investigations today to learn what disposition was made of $7,100 of funds of Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, for whose alleged murder at Greenwood Lake, Burton W. Gibson is now incarcerated in Goshen, N. Y. Gibson, as executor of Mrs. Szabo's estate, opened an account in a local bank in August under the name of "estate of Rosa Menschik Szabo" and deposited $7,387. Subsequently Gibson, as executor, withdrew all but $297. The investigators are trying to find out what he did with the money. There are reports that Mrs. Szabo had an attorney other than Gibson, and detectives are hunting for him.

EDUCATING ORIENTALS

Duluth Newspaper Man Is "Make Up" Editor on Chinese Paper.

"Slave of the Fan" Chases the Flies Away.

When a Duluth newspaper man has hiked three or four miles to work, the street car service being somewhat incapacitated, he cheers himself with the enjoyment of a mental picture of Carroll K. Michener, formerly city editor of the Duluth News Tribune, now make-up editor of the China Press of Shanghai, China, riding to his office in a rickshaw pushed by a Chinese coolie. The coolie emerges from his coat, rolls up his shirt sleeves, impales an interlocking cockroach upon a pen, chases the flies away from the paste pot and sits down to a typewriter on which he plays a symphony while the editor tears his hair and shrieks for "copy." As the reporter caresses his moist brow with a Bull Moose bandanna he lets his fancy wander gently to Shanghai.

In Shanghai Carroll K. Michener is awakened by the melody of Chinese songs. His slave brings him his cup of tea. His boots are polished, his clothes laid out on a bedstead and sprinkled with a delicate perfume. His rickshaw is at the door. He enters. He jauntily gestures. His coolie falls into a dog trot. Michener arrives at the office of the China Press, which is the leading English newspaper in the Far East. He summons the Chinese foreman. They exchange pleasantries. He emits pidgin English for an hour by which time the Celestial has gained a hazy idea that the make-up editor wants the latest muckraking story on page one, right hand column, next to pure reading matter.

The make-up editor saunters to his rickshaw. A coolie brings him a sparkling beverage. Another hands him the proofs. A third sharpens his pencils. A fourth waves a huge fan to shoo the flies from the editorial head. Now and then he chases the inquisitive cockroaches from the sacred paste pot. It is time for luncheon. The make-up editor clasps his hands. His slave appears. If a ring and a lamp were handy the transport himself to a gilded cafe. The ring and the lamp were lost in the late raven midnight. The make-up editor summons his rickshaw. He is wheeled to his cafe. He dines. He signs his proof. He returns. He clasps his hands. A slave appears with proofs. A fan waves a cooling beverage. The frenzy of the day's work is at its height.

Michener left Duluth about a year and a half ago. He worked for several months each on the Denver Post and the San Francisco Chronicle and was sporting editor of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser of San Francisco where he "wrote up" the cricket matches and the walking contests of the British citizens. Then he went to Japan. After traveling through the Flower Kingdom he descended upon Shanghai and captivated. The make-up editor of the China Press has been in Shanghai for the last month but is now able to gather sufficient strength to summon the slave of the proof, the slave of the cooling beverage and the slave of the fan and of the rickshaw.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON TALKS TO IOWANS

Has Eleven Speaking Dates to Fill in One Day's Travel.

Sioux City, Ia., Sept. 14.—The end of the third week of Governor Johnson's campaign found him running across Iowa on a special train to fill eleven engagements in one day. Early today he was met by a non-partisan committee of citizens here and given a breakfast at a local hotel. Later he addressed a mass meeting in a theater which, despite the early hour, was well attended. His address dealt wholly with the Progressive platform. Several leading Iowa Progressives joined the governor in a party and made the trip through the state. Plans were for the governor to speak at Onawa, Osceola, Wall Lake, Clarissa, Ames, Carroll, Jefferson, Osgood, Boone, and Marshall, and spend Sunday here. The governor will spend Sunday in Burlington.

WOULD TEACH FIRE PERIL IN SCHOOLS

Wisconsin Fire Marshal Makes Many Recommendations in Report.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 14.—The adoption of a uniform building code, the enactment of laws regulating the storage of gasoline and dynamite, the adoption of a statute prohibiting the sale of so-called parlor matches, and the passage of a law providing for the giving of at least one lesson each week in all public schools on fire waste and fire prevention are among the recommendations made by State Fire Marshal F. J. Purcell today in his annual report to Governor McGovern. The department also recommends the enactment of legislation making it the duty of officers and members of paid fire departments to inspect the buildings and premises in the business districts monthly, and empowering them to enforce the correction of hazardous conditions.

NOTICE SERVED ON STREET RAILWAY

Detectives Toews and Bradley served the writ of mandamus issued last night by Judge Dibble upon Secretary-Treasurer Reichert of the Duluth Street Railway company. The writ directs the company to resume normal street car service as provided by its franchise. It appears that the company had refused to operate the cars since 5 o'clock Monday to show cause why they should not. The official accepted the service pleasantly, remarking as he did so that "it's a lovely day after the rain."

MAKES "TOUCHES" ON CONDUCTORS

Max Beauchamp's Endeavors to Share in Strike Harvest Makes Trouble.

Max Beauchamp, 43 years of age and a musician according to his own statement, decided all by himself yesterday that the "cons" working for the street railway company are making too much money. In the same decide he decided that he ought to have a part of it. Wherefore he proceeded to get as much as he could.

Max did not attempt any violent methods such as are commonly attributed to hold-up men. He merely "braced" each "con" as the car passed "third avenue for a piece of money." Patrolman Montgomery told him a couple of times that he might better desist, but Max could not see it that way. Wherefore Max was sent into the police station on a charge of unlawful assembly. He pleaded guilty in police court this morning and got $5 and costs or five days.

George Anderson was sent into police court from West Duluth on a charge of hurling missiles at a street car. He asked for an examination and his hearing was set for Tuesday.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 14.—United efforts for freedom from the alleged tyranny of Austria-Hungary was urged in resolutions adopted by the National Croatian society in convention today. The desirability of union with Serbia was emphasized. The society represents 500,000 Croats in this country. The adopted resolutions say in part: "The convention protests most vigorously against the tyrannical condition in Croatia, blaming in the first place the government at Vienna, also the traitors among our people who are serving this tyrannical government. We demand the equal and secret ballot in order that in this hard struggle for existence all in Croatia can participate. This convention sincerely invites all opposition parties in Croatia to unite in suppressing this tyrannical system which is destroying the freedom and unity of Croatia." The resolution was adopted following a bitter speech by one of the speakers who charged the government took charge of elections in Croatia and armed soldiers staged the ballot boxes.

All Office Seekers Must File Statement With County Auditor.

Steve L. Pierce Has Expended $723.45 in Race for Sheriff.

Today is the last day on which candidates are given to file their expense accounts with the county auditor as required by law.

This morning many office seekers called at the auditor's office with sworn statements of amounts expended during the present primary election campaign. All statements were itemized. A few of the candidates had no expenses outside of the required filing fee. One candidate, Walter B. Hoer, who seeks the Democratic nomination for county attorney, spent 25 cents for postage besides his fee. Others spent big sums for advertising and railroad fare.

Up to noon today several candidates had made up their final expense accounts. They will be given until this evening to complete their statements. The list of those who have filed final statements follows:

SMALL PAY FOR POLICE

Difficult to Secure Special Officers to Serve During Strike.

SIXTY EXTRA MEN.
The records at the police station show that the street railway company has forty-two men available as special policemen. The city has eighteen extras who are walking beats of regular patrolmen. The regular patrolmen are divided into two watches of twelve hours each, with about thirty men to each watch, working from 7 o'clock to 7 o'clock. Part of each watch is on call at headquarters station ready for emergency alarms at any part of the city. Automobiles are available for quick transportation most of the time. The majority of the men are bunched in the trouble districts. The regular men from West Duluth who were summoned to headquarters are now back at the suburb station.

The police have had considerable difficulty in getting men to act as special policemen.

The elements of personal risk are large and there isn't much inducement. The city charter provides that they shall be paid $2.50 a day and that their appointment shall not continue for more than a week without the consent of the council. That's only a drop in the bucket when one considers what the strike breakers are pulling down during the trouble.

The mayor is authorized by the charter to appoint special policemen to serve within certain limits, without expense to the city, when requested to do so.

The sections of the city charter covering these two matters are under Chapter 20, Section 255 says: "On occasion of large public gatherings or in case of riot, unlawful assembly or disturbance, requiring additional police force, the mayor may appoint temporary police officers at a compensation of $2.50 a day, but such appointment shall not continue in force for more than one week without the consent of the common council." Section 256 reads: "The mayor may likewise at the request of persons, firms, corporations, societies or organizations requiring special police protection, appoint special policemen who shall serve without expense to the city and possess police power to preserve the peace, protect property and make arrests for crime at such places and within such limits as may be designated by the mayor. But such special policemen shall not exercise any official authority nor wear any badge of office outside of the limits so designated, except that in the event of an arrest made by a special policeman he may wear such badge while taking the person so arrested to the nearest police station."

ROOSEVELT TALKS IN NEVADA TOWNS

Reno, Nev., Sept. 14.—Col. Roosevelt's appeal to the people of Nevada was made today when he passed through the state on his way to the Pacific coast. His principal address is to be in Reno.

Since he left Spokane on Monday the colonel has been traveling constantly except for a stay of a few hours in Portland, Or., and brief stops at a few other points. Through Oregon, Idaho, Utah and Nevada he has been traveling as fast as the men at the throttle could speed the train, in an effort to keep up with the schedule which was mapped out before he left Oyster Bay.

Most of the time he has been late and special trains have been arranged to make up for the loss. The delays have been due largely to the fact that Col. Roosevelt was called upon to make a good many more speeches than were on the program.

When the colonel reaches San Francisco he will have a day's rest before leaving for the Southwest. His week of hard campaigning has told on him and he showed signs of fatigue today, although the hoarseness which troubled him at the beginning had disappeared.

D. M. Mouser Republican Candidate for Clerk of District Court St. Louis County, Minn.

If elected, I will not be a candidate for office for more than the second term under any circumstances. Your vote and support will be appreciated.

Mr. Mouser further says: I have resided in this county 21 years, being engaged during that time in railroad and mercantile pursuits. I have had long experience in clerical work and the keeping of systematic and important records. In consequence of this experience I know that I am perfectly competent to fill the position to the satisfaction of the taxpayers and court, if elected.

I am opposed by Mr. J. P. Johnson, the present Clerk. He has held this office 12 years, and prior to that time was Treasurer 12 years. If he were to be re-elected he would hold a county office 28 years. I might state the office is a good one, paying $300.00 per month. Mr. Johnson also has his son as chief deputy, paying him a salary of $150.00 per month, which makes $450.00 the Johnson family draws from St. Louis county each month.

A great many feel that Mr. Johnson has held this office long enough. Should you feel the same way, speak to your friends and use your influence in securing my nomination. I thank you in advance for any favors you may show me.

M. C. PALMER

Register of Deeds, St. Louis County.

Republican Candidate For Re-election

(Written By Himself in His Own Behalf.)

In announcing that he is a Candidate for the Republican Nomination for Register of Deeds of St. Louis County, Mr. Palmer desires to thank the people of this county for the splendid support they have given him in the past in all matters concerning the important duties connected with the offices of Register of Deeds and Registrar of Titles. He again asks the support of the voters at the Primary Election September 17th, feeling that the patrons of these offices, the general public and the taxpayers all feel entirely satisfied with the manner in which these departments have been conducted under his supervision. It must be apparent to the voters of this county that Mr. Palmer, the present incumbent of the office, is the logical candidate. His administration of these important offices has been most efficient and satisfactory. He has had able assistants at all times and has so systematized the work in these departments that the taxpayers have not been called upon to pay one dollar toward the salary expenses of these offices, while on the other hand he has by a thorough and proven economic system been able to save thousands of dollars each year for the taxpayers. Mr. Palmer has always put forth his best efforts to give the best service possible to the public with the least expense to the county. All instruments are thoroughly and carefully examined to see that no errors creep into your titles so that you may not be forced into expensive lawsuits to remove clouds upon your titles. Instruments are carefully and properly recorded and returned to you without delay. No real estate deals have been held up on account of delays in these offices.

The business and duties pertaining to these offices are conducted in a business-like manner by the Register and an office force which has been brought directly in contact with the county's business and knowing exactly how the affairs of one department dovetail into the other (particularly so with regards to the Register of Deeds and Registrar of Titles Departments); are prepared to transact the duties thereof properly and in your interests. It has been repeatedly said by many who have transacted business in the Register of Deeds' Office of this county that there is no other Register of Deeds' Office in the state its superior. It is my earnest desire to maintain the present efficiency of this office and I believe it to be in the interest of all that it be retained.

May I not ask you to make a special effort to attend the Primary Election and support the present incumbent of this office and urge your friends to do the same? Respectfully yours,

M. C. PALMER,

NO FAITH IN THE DIRIGIBLE

Friend of Count Zeppelin Says His Aeroplane Is Best Air Craft.

Although a close friend of Count Zeppelin, the famous aeronaut of Germany, Dr. A. G. Sweitkin of Duluth, Minn., is of the belief that the dirigible air craft is not here to stay, and that the efforts of the German man will be fruitless. Dr. Sweitkin is touring the United States prior to attending the international convention on hygiene and demography at Washington the latter part of this month and arrived in the city yesterday for a short stay. Dr. Sweitkin is at the Holland. He spoke learnedly of the many air crafts now before the public. He is of the belief that the aeroplane is the future of the air and the only machine that will ever get beyond the stages of experiment.

To the Voters and Taxpayers of the Fifth Commissioner District:

In asking for your support at the primary election on Sept. 17th, I beg to inform you that I will endeavor to look after the interests of all parts of my district in a fair and impartial manner and do justice to all interests concerned.

I have served two terms on the County Board of Douglas County, Wisconsin, from the Sixth Ward of the City of Superior, and the experience gained there will be of great service to the constituents of the Fifth District. I am also in a position to give a good portion of my time to the office and will be able to spend a great deal of time in traveling over and inspecting the roads of the County.

I am also in favor of establishing a work farm for delinquents who have violated Village and City ordinances.

I have homesteaded twice in the Fond du Lac Reservation and feel that I am acquainted with the needs of the people of the District.

Personally my ambition is for good roads rather than for public office. I have been urged to become a candidate by a large number of friends and if nominated and elected I will serve the people of the Fifth District to the best of my ability. Respectfully,

EDWARD DONLEY,

Candidate for the Democratic Nomination for County Commissioner for Fifth District.

FUNERAL CAR IS AT KIOTO

Emperor Mutsuhito Will Be Buried Sunday at Monoyama.

Line of Railroad Built Especially for Funeral Train.

Kioto, Japan, Sept. 14.—The imperial funeral train bearing the body of the late Emperor Mutsuhito, which left Aoyama early today following the conclusion of impressive ceremonies in the great funeral hall there, arrived at Kioto this afternoon. The body of the dead ruler will be buried tomorrow in the imperial mausoleum at Monoyama, an imperial state five miles southeast of Kioto.

During the 350 mile journey the train made several stops to permit the people of the country districts to view the remains of the dead sovereign. Thousands gathered along the route and bowed their heads as the train passed by. An imperial salute was fired by the Japanese warships in Tokyo bay as the funeral train passed along the coast toward Yokohama.

Built Railroad for Funeral. The casket had been left in the funeral hall at Aoyama by the imperial family in charge of the Shinto rituals and representatives of his majesty. A special railroad line had been built from the main track to a small station in the rear of the funeral hall, and there the funeral train was in waiting.

The train was composed of a large locomotive draped with mourning flags, a composite car and four other passenger cars. The funeral car occupied the center of the train. The interior of the funeral car was divided into three compartments, the center one being reserved for the coffin. This middle room was fitted with a low door to permit the passage of the huge casket. The coffin rested on a low dais raised two feet above the floor.

Party of Mourners. The party of mourners that accompanied the late emperor's body on its journey to Monoyama included representatives of the holders of orders of merit, ministers of state, of the army and navy, and of various grades of officials.

The commander of the sixth division of the army and the commander-in-chief of the Mutsuhito naval station accompanied the train, together with the presidents of the house of peers and the house of representatives, the governor of Kioto prefecture, the president of the Kioto assembly and a number of peers residing in the district of Kioto.

VERDICT AGAINST STREET RAILWAY

James P. Stevenson Awarded $447 for Being Thrown Off of Car.

For being assaulted by a street car conductor and thrown off from a car after he had paid the required fare, James P. Stevenson was awarded $447 from the traction company.

A verdict for that amount in favor of Stevenson and against the Duluth Street Railway company was returned yesterday by a jury in district court before Judge Cram.

Stevenson claimed that the conductor shortchanged him $1.50 when he handed him a $20 gold piece. He demonstrated with a checkbook and in the argument which followed some bad names were called and Stevenson was ejected. The affair took place on an interstate car June 6, last.

The conductor was J. G. Powers, who was on the witness stand yesterday.

While their picture was taken. Afterward the count and the countesses attended the early funeral ceremonies at the imperial palace, where the body of the emperor was lying in state, the soldier knelt before the imperial minutes, offering homage to his departed sovereign and friend.

Returning homeward at the conclusion of the ceremony, Count Nogai called to the palace of Prince Fushimi, where he was a member of the reception committee. When he reached his home the general sat down and wrote a letter to his new sovereign, Yoshihito.

He placed a hand of grief around a wall picture of Mutsuhito.

Rehearsed Suicide Plans. The couple carefully rehearsed their plans for committing suicide, arranging a time that would be coincident with the departure from the capital of the late ruler's body.

The count and countess dressed in full Japanese costumes and drank from cups which had been the gift of the emperor to the general, a farewell draught of sake.

When the booming of a signal gun, fired in the palace grounds to notify the populace that the emperor's body was being moved on the journey towards its last resting place, echoed through the Nogi home, the hero of Port Arthur stood erect and firmly gripping a short sword, plunged it into his throat. As the count fell to the floor the countess snatched herself in the stomach.

Both the soldier and his wife were breathing when found by an inmate of the Nogi home, but before aid could be summoned they were dead.

Apology to Prince Arthur. Letters left by Gen. Nogi, it is understood, explain his deed and also contain an apology to Prince Arthur of Connaught, the special ambassador of Great Britain at the imperial funeral, to whom the Japanese soldier was especially attached. No messages of condolence in connection with the suicide of the emperor and his wife will be sent for several days.

Emperor Yoshihito today expressed the wish that none of the plans of the special foreign envoys be changed. Philander C. Knox, the special American ambassador, and his suite will visit Niikko this afternoon. After slight-sewing among the emperor's temples and mortuary shrines there, the American secretary of state will return to the capital Sunday afternoon. Mr. Knox will be received in farewell audience by the emperor and will attend a lunch at the palace on Monday.

eral army supply post established at El Paso, Tex. Conditions in Mexico are reported to the war department as chaotic. Starvation during the coming winter threatens to add to the suffering. The rural population has been unable to plant or cultivate crops.

Says Federalists Have Won. New Orleans, La., Sept. 14.—The backbone of the Mexican revolution, according to Ernesto Fernandez y Ariza, recently minister plenipotentiary from Mexico to Honduras, has been broken. Minister Ariza is en route to his city post. Besides declaring that the federalists had the situation well in hand in Mexico, he would not discuss the situation.

Proposals of Peace. El Paso, Tex., Sept. 14.—Proposals of peace in Mexico have been made to President Madero by Col. R. Gomez Robelo, confidential agent of Orozco and representative in the United States of the revolutionary party. A letter containing a suggestion for a peace conference was sent from Col. Robelo a few days ago to the president of the republic. Acting as messenger was Senor Antonio De P. Magana, president of the Democratic Anti-Re-electionist party of Mexico.

Senor Magana is due hourly to arrive in this city. He will present the letter to President Madero.

In his letter to Madero, in answer to the proposals made verbally by the envoy, Col. Robelo sets forth a plan for a peace conference. He proposes that four factions be represented, the government, the revolution, the army and the civilians.

Repulse at El Tigre. Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 14.—The attack of Inez Salazar's rebels on El Tigre ended in their repulse by the small band of federalists garrisoning the camp. Salazar sent a messenger to the federal commander, demanding the surrender of the town to avoid further bloodshed. When the demand was refused, Salazar renewed the attack and firing continued until 9 o'clock last night, when the rebels withdrew. At nightfall, however, they began firing upon the town at long range, the federals replying.

During the day's fighting two federalists were wounded. No Americans were hurt. The rebel loss is unknown. One rebel was killed on the streets in an attempt by a party of rebels to rush a section of the camp.

Rescue Party Starts. A party of Mormons left here last night to rescue five men and two boys at Colonia Morelos. Because of the belief here that toward Haymore, prominent Mormon merchant, was murdered by the rebels, it is feared that the Mormons remaining at the place will meet a similar fate if their rescuers are too late. Haymore's clothing was found near the place where his wagon was discovered.

PAID POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT.

Inserted by Hans B. Haroldson, Duluth, Minnesota, on behalf of James A. Peterson, Minneapolis, Minnesota, Candidate for United States Senator. Amount to be paid, $22.40.

JAMES A. PETERSON

Progressive Republican Candidate for the Nomination for UNITED STATES SENATOR

James A. Peterson was born and raised on a farm near Alderley, Dodge County, Wisconsin. He graduated in the Ancient Classical Course from the University of Wisconsin in 1884. In 1887 he graduated from the Law Department of the same University. He came to Minneapolis in 1887, where he has been engaged in the practice of law ever since.

Senator La Follette in his Weekly Magazine, under date of August 31st, 1912, publishes an article entitled "Minnesota's System Senator," in which he shows that Senator Knute Nelson, Mr. Peterson's opponent, has served the interests and the trusts consistently, and that Nelson's record is that of a faithful "railroad senator."

PETERSON'S RECORD.

He is the pioneer insurgent of Minnesota. As County Attorney he went after the Minneapolis City Hall grafters and convicted four of them. He was one of the original Progressives in the Legislature, and helped put through the gross earnings and tax reform bills. He was one of the prime movers in organizing the Minnesota Citizens' League, whose work has done so much to clean up the Legislature and make it responsive to the will of the people. He drove the Gangsters out of the City Hall. Shut up permanently the notorious "red light" district. He took an active part in the State Progressive convention of 1910 and drafted its platform. He drafted bills and otherwise helped to put through the Progressive legislative program of 1911. Aggressively pushed the movement for a statewide primary in 1912. He has always worked for the full Progressive program. In every official position he has occupied he has fought the rule of money, big business and the bosses in politics and government.

He is a hard student of political and economic questions and is thoroughly informed on all the leading issues of national legislation.

His official experience has been such as to well fit him for the larger duties of United States Senator.

He would be a Senator in complete harmony with the progressive political thought of the state, and would work with unity of purpose with the Progressive element in Congress and give strong reinforcement to their legislative program.

James A. Peterson is presenting his cause to the people fearlessly and fairly, and if elected he will be the People's Senator; he will owe his nomination to them and will do their bidding. He is a man of clean personal character, young, strong and vigorous. His whole record shows him unrelenting in warfare against vice and wrong. He stands for principles that are right, and he is right. Failure to nominate Peterson on September 17th will be a setback for the People's Cause in Minnesota for at least six years. Let the people not forget that Peterson stands for them, that his defeat is their defeat, that his victory is their victory.

HANS B. HAROLDSON, Campaign Manager for Eighth District.

THREE ROADS FIGHTING FOR NEW TERRITORY

Immense Amount of Railroad Building in North Dakota and Montana.

Will Tap Large Territory Tributary to Head of Lakes.

Railroad construction in North Dakota and Montana, territory tributary to this city in which Duluth wholesale houses transact a voluminous business, will be unusually large in the next year on account of the rapid development of that region and the bumper crops of the Northwest.

The program of the Great Northern is especially comprehensive. It will start construction in the near future on an extension of the Minot-Crosby line. The extension probably will leave the branch either at Nobe or Lignite and will be built to the Canadian border through that state. The Great Northern will have a large tonnage of grain delivered by the Grand Trunk Pacific for shipment to the Great Northern. The new St. Louis-Pargo cut-off has been completed and freight trains are being operated over it. Transcontinental passenger service will not be started until the road bed is in better shape. When it is completed it will be a large and rich territory from the Soo Valley to the Missouri river.

The Soo Valley and Northern Pacific are mixing in a three-cornered fight for the Missouri river. The Soo has retaliated, in a measure, for the building of the new line from the Missouri river to the mouth of the St. Louis river. the company, it is said, placed that town on a spur. The Minneapolis St. Louis branch will connect with the Canadian Northern at the border.

Some time ago the Northern Pacific surveyed a line from the Mott branch from Cannonball to the Standing Rock Indian reservation but only about twelve miles have been constructed. It is not likely that the branch will be completed until the government throws open the reservation for settlement.

Long I sat watching them in their common, homely, unassuming, talking a little, smiling a little, never once kissing. They did not seem shy of that; it was rather as if they were too much the others to think of such a thing. And then her head sank lower and lower down his shoulder, and sleep bled the lids over those cheery-blue eyes.

How careful he then was not to wake her. But presently I saw him draw his arm away ever so carefully, lay her head down on the grass, and lean forward to stare at something.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE 51st LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT

E. J. KENNY

The most important office to be voted for at the Primary Election next Tuesday, from the standpoint of the average citizen and the development and progress of Duluth and Northern Minnesota, is that of Representative in the State Legislature.

Mr. Kenny has lived practically all his life in Duluth, graduated from the Duluth High School and University of Michigan, and served two years as Assistant City Attorney. He knows enough not to be fooled by anybody, and has courage enough not to be bulldozed by anybody. He is a free man and wants to go to the Legislature one session to work with the progressive elements in that body.

The Fifty-first District includes the First, Second and Fourth Wards in the City of Duluth, and Ranges 12 and 13 outside the city in St. Louis County.

MULAI HAFID IS OPEN-HANDED

Gives Away His Money With Great Recklessness and His Financial Adviser Is Disgusted.

Paris, Sept. 14.—Mulai Hafid, ex-sultan of Morocco, has graduated rapidly from the pleasures of his European hosts at Vichy, during his "cure." One evening he was taken behind the scenes of the Casino theater, after seeing the first act of a ballet, and he complimented the dancers with flattering enthusiasm. Earlier in the evening he had given his first dinner party, and in the afternoon he had figured at a reception held in his honor by the municipality. But as how and guest he bore himself with much charm of manner, and as a writer "the graceful sentiments" he has already proved himself hard to equal.

A knowledge of livestock is another of the ex-sultan's accomplishments. He inspected a herd of Livestock covetous with an unerring eye, picked the three best and ordered them to be sent to his house in Tangier. He even began to milk one of them to make sure that his judgment was not at fault. He also purchased two black cats and a collie dog. For his children he bought a hundred dolls in Bourbonnais, a merry-go-round and an extraordinary quantity of toys.

He presented a handful of gold to a conjurer who performed the Venetian trick of making a globe of goldfish disappear before him, and the fame of his open-handedness spread far and wide. Whenever he was known to be in his apartments, dozens of hawkers and street vendors hovered round the gate, watching for a chance of catching his eye.

The ex-sultan was taken to the Mar-selles cathedral, and managed to slip five louis into the hand of a blind beggar on the steps as he went in. After presenting the cathedral clergy with fifteen louis for the poor, he came out and mounted in the elevator to the Basille, distributing on the way five louis to a postcard merchant and five to the elevator boy. steaming, slanting eyes? Or was she only the spirit of the delfe this and thing swinging there, entwined with boughs and the dark water, and covered with a shift of wet birch leaves? So strange a face she had, wild, almost wicked, yet so tender, that face that I could not take my eyes from! Her bare toes just touched the pool, and flicked up drops of water that fell on the boy's face.

From him all the sober steadfastness gone. Already he looked as wild as she, and his arms were stretched out, trying to reach her feet. I wanted to cry to him, "Go back, boy, go back!" but could not. For of eyes held me dumb, they looked so lost in their tender wildness.

And then my heart stood still, for he had slipped and was struggling in deep water beneath her feet. What a gaze was that he was turning up to her, not frightened, but no longer so desperate! And here, how triumphant, and how happy he was!

I drew a long breath. Then an orange gleam of sunlight had flamed in among the shadows, and for those two where they swung over the dark water, with lips close together, they were lost in each other's arms, and in their eyes such drowning ecstasy.

And then—they kissed. Pool and leaves, and air seemed suddenly to swirl and melt; I could see nothing plain. What time then passed, who knows, before their faces slowly again became visible? His face, sober boy's, was turned away from her and he was listening; for above the whispering of leaves a sound of the whistling of a train was heard.

His face, sober boy's, was turned away from her and he was listening; for above the whispering of leaves a sound of the whistling of a train was heard.

And then they kissed. Pool and leaves, and air seemed suddenly to swirl and melt; I could see nothing plain. What time then passed, who knows, before their faces slowly again became visible? Inserted by Otto Gavert, in behalf of himself, candidate for County Treasurer. Amount to be paid, $12.68.

Otto Gavert is a candidate for the Republican nomination for county treasurer. Mr. Gavert has lived in Duluth for a period of twenty-five years, during which time he has taken keen interest in public affairs.

He has never been a candidate for an elective office before, but his experience in public life is of such a character that he is able equipped to perform the duties of the office of County Treasurer.

If elected, his friends are confident that he will perform the duties of the office of County Treasurer in a business-like and courteous manner and will be a faithful public servant.

Under the present system which has been in vogue in St. Louis County for many years, the majority of the taxpayers have been compelled to wait for many hours for their tax statement to be made out, and to get their receipts. Mr. Gavert is of the firm belief that some system can be devised whereby the tax statements can be made out, and be in the hands of the taxpayers without any delay, which will be convenient to the people and which will treat rich and poor alike. He is in favor of a system similar to the one in use in Hennepin county.

ORDER MUST BE PRESERVED!

It is the fault of the strike sympathizers, though not of the strikers themselves, that the merits of the street railway controversy have dropped to second place in importance.

The first essential is the complete restoration and permanent preservation of peace and order.

No quarrel can be settled in the fighting spirit.

No sound solution for the trouble that has burst over the city can be found while the malignant mob spirit stalks abroad with fear as its weapon and destruction as its motive.

The first thing to be done is to stop the rioting and destruction that have been in progress more or less during the week, and this must be done if it taxes every resource of the state to do it.

That done, it will be possible to resume the discussion of the merits of the quarrel between the street railway management and its workers. It will not be possible before, and it is useless to try it.

The worst enemies of the striking street car employees are those who have perpetrated the outrages that have disgraced this community and shown it in an unfavorable light to all the country.

If the strikers lose the public sympathy they unquestionably have, it will be because of the violent and lawless acts of their pretended friends.

No strike, no matter how strong its cause and how just the ends it seeks, can be won by violence.

Perhaps because the community has taken a sober second thought, and perhaps because warnings have been heeded, conditions were more peaceful last night and this morning.

But tonight and tomorrow it will be necessary for everybody concerned to keep careful guard on his own conduct and that of his associates.

Saturday night and Sunday, when working operations are generally suspended, there will be many idle men throughout the city. Curiosity, if nothing else, will tempt them to congregate where the chance of excitement is greatest.

This mob is formed. Let the mob spirit gain control of a gathering of men, however civilized and peaceful the individuals composing it may be, and none can foresee what will happen.

Therefore no crowds should be permitted to gather. To allow them to meet is to allow the laying of a train of powder to which the mob spirit is the torch.

Yesterday the city was in the hands of the police, and they were unable to prevent rioting.

This morning the city was in the hands of the sheriff.

Whoever has charge of the city tonight and tomorrow, whether it is the sheriff with his deputies or the governor with the militia, must strictly enforce the law against unlawful assemblages.

PEACE AND ORDER MUST BE MAINTAINED AT ANY COST!

The striking street railway employees should continue the wise policy of peace and reason which they appear to have adopted.

They should urge their friends and sympathizers to follow their example, for only by doing so can their sympathy take any but a harmful form. The officers of the law must enforce the law to the letter. The offenses against the public peace that have been committed are grave crimes for which the law provides a penitentiary sentence. It should be made plain to every man in the city that these laws will be enforced to the last detail.

The lives of passengers on the street cars must not be put in peril. The property of the street railway company must be protected. A condition in which life and property are not safe is a condition of riot and mob rule—a condition which this community and this state cannot tolerate an instant longer.

The first business before the governor of this state, the sheriff of this county and the mayor of this city is the prompt restoration of order, and the preservation of peace and safety.

Every other consideration must be laid aside until that is done.

Let us repeat once more:
PEACE AND ORDER MUST BE MAINTAINED AT ANY COST!

AN ANTI-SUFFRAGE BOGEY.

Extravagant and unjustified claims are made for the good that woman suffrage will accomplish. And extravagant and unjustified claims are made as to the harm it will do.

Woman suffrage is coming, surely. Its advance may be slow. It has been slow, but it is not so slow as it was. Like all other great advances, it is an evolution, and evolutionary processes work slowly. Their product never comes in advance of its time.

But woman suffrage is coming not because of the good it will do or in spite of the harm it will bring; not because all women want it or in spite of some women not wanting it; but because it is right and just, and because there is no real democracy where all the people—and woman are people—do not have their full share in the control of government. Restrictions neither of class, nor wealth, nor creed, nor sex should hamper the free use of the ballot.

An argument commonly used against woman suffrage is that bad women would use the ballot to public disadvantage.

Bad men use it freely, more freely perhaps in the past than good men, and nothing is said of it. But if there is a chance that bad women may use it, it must be denied to good women.

That's not only a silly argument, but there is good proof that it isn't so.

Says the Chicago Evening Post on this point: "Certainly the evidence in Colorado has been the other way. The women in the vice district in Denver showed not the slightest interest in the franchise. It seemed as remote to them as any of the other aspects of feminist advance. They showed about as much interest in it as they did in the subject of the higher education of women or whether their sex should be admitted to practice law. Just about that much and no more."

"Furthermore, when a hard pressed Denver boss attempted to force the women in a certain precinct to register, all the world knows of their vigorous protest and their appeal to the Women's club of Denver to save them from the publicity involved in registration at the polls."

"But the latest evidence comes from California, where the College Equal Suffrage league of San Francisco has been investigating the subject. Says the league: 'The registration of "bad women" in California has amounted to practically nothing. For instance, in one city precinct in San Francisco frequented by such women, there were but two women's names registered. In none of such precincts in the same city were there more than ten women registered, all of whom may have been respectable wives of working men who lived in these districts.'"

This proof is cumulative, but needless.

If it is right to disfranchise all women because some women are bad, it would be right to disfranchise all men because some men are bad.

Some Job.
It's easy to say "give Roosevelt a square deal and admit he believes all he says he does," but how the dickens can any sane man believe so many opposite things in such short spaces of time?

WHAT MANY ARE THINKING.

George W. Buck, returning from a tour abroad, reports that "street car and railroad strikes are things unheard of in Germany, Italy and Switzerland."

Why? "The street railways, railroads and all other public utilities," says Mr. Buck, "are under public ownership."

Of that fact many in Duluth have been thinking, no doubt, during the past week.

If the city owned the street railway lines these things could not have happened.

Everybody's Doing It.
Another Federal commissioner has thrown up his job to join the opposition. That must be nearly as comforting to Taft as the Maine returns.

WILSON IN MINNESOTA.

Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, Democratic candidate for president and by all odds the most interesting and most appealing figure in the public life of the nation today, will be a guest of this state next Wednesday.

He will speak on that day in the Twin Cities, and probably it goes without saying that he will have a large and interested audience.

Minnesota is glad to honor this man now, and it expects to honor him later on in the highest way possible for a state—by giving him its vote in the college of electors.

In the meantime Minnesota will be glad to see him, to shake his hand, and to hear him talk about the issues of the times. It may be well assured that the experience will be worth his while.

No man before the American people sympathizes more heartily with their problems and their vexations.

No man before the American people shares with them to a higher degree their sublime visions of political and economic justice and the universal rule of government by and for the people.

And no man before the American people can discuss these questions so clearly, so forcibly, so convincingly and with such temperance and kindness.

It is to be hoped that Governor Wilson may be able to make another trip to the Northwest, and that during that trip he may visit Duluth. But the time remaining is short, the demands upon his time are great, and he may not be able to come. Therefore all those who find themselves in a position to be in the Twin Cities Tuesday and to hear one or more of his addresses will be fortunate indeed.

Our Funny Language.

THE SHORT BALLOT.

Primary election day comes Tuesday. Voters will be handed several long ballots, containing in the aggregate a hundred and sixty-seven names in this county. Twenty-seven places are to be filled.

Study that ballot and this situation.

Ask yourself this: How many of these candidates is it possible for the average voter to know? Can he even know well enough to choose wisely even one candidate for each of the twenty-seven places to be filled?

Is a ballot of that character a wise thing in a democracy? Would it not be better to have a shorter ballot, with few places to be voted upon—no more than the average voter can easily post himself about?

That's the "short ballot" idea.

If in the state, for instance, the people voted only on the governor, the lieutenant-governor and perhaps the supreme court justices, this would be the short ballot in state affairs. Then the governor would appoint the other officers now elected by a people which has little opportunity to know them, and which never sees any of them except during campaigns when they have their "company manners" with them—and that's the wrong time and the wrong way to judge men. The governor who appoints them would be responsible to the people for their acts.

This would center the campaigns on the governorship, but they center there now. The other places are little considered. This is wrong.

Centering responsibility in the governor would make his power great and to offset that concentration of power it would be necessary to arm the people with the power of recall, to guard against abuses of power.

In the county it would be enough if a commission of five men, permanently employed, were to be elected and given power, subject to the recall, to appoint all county servants.

In the city the same thing should be done, and it is being done in many cities where the commission form of city government has been adopted.

The ballot would be simpler, the people's choice easier, and the chance of mistakes infinitely less, under the short ballot plan.

'Hah For Him!

Theodore says J. Adam is "a discredited politician." J. Adam says Theodore is "a disappointed office seeker." Meanwhile Woodrow Wilson is eluding the personalities and studying out ways to help the people. Which rather seems to indicate that W. W. is rather more of a man than any of them.

THE ROOSEVELT PARTY'S PLATFORM.

An ardent Roosevelt adherent asks us what we think of the Roosevelt party's national platform.

It's an admirable platform. It is written with spirit and it contains some very attractive items, including many with which few will disagree.

The only fault really to be found with it is with the planks on the tariff and the trusts.

But when you come to think of it, the trusts and the tariff form the bases of the really big issues of the campaign and of the times. They are the only tremendous issues which cry loudly for solution. So the rest of the platform sinks into insignificance when these are considered.

And it is impossible to be pleased with the Roosevelt party's planks on these subjects.

If the Roosevelt platform had less Roosevelt, Perkins and Munsey and more Wilson, La Follette and Bryan in them, it would be one pretty nearly everybody could stand on.

Governor Wilson has said truly: "There is the stimulating breath of hope in every plank of the new party platform except those which touch on the tariff and the trusts."

But it is on these issues that hope is needed most.

On the tariff, the Roosevelt platform proposes a tariff commission, which is another word for continued "protection" and delayed revision. That is no answer to the pathetic appeal of a great people to be relieved from the oppressive burdens of tariff taxes which enrich the few and impoverish the many.

On the trusts, the Roosevelt platform proposes to consider competition as dead. To recognize and legalize monopolies that have grown out of unregulated competition and special privileges, and so to create an industrial absolutism unprecedented in history. This gigantic brood he would put under government control; but he would make it so huge and powerful that it is a grave question whether it would not control the government, rather than let the government control it. At any rate, the Roosevelt plan, instead of solving the problem, would multiply its gravity a hundred times.

Tested by these planks, the otherwise admirable Roosevelt platform is seen to be not only unsatisfactory, but dangerous; and the character of Roosevelt himself and the nature of his affiliations make it doubly dangerous.

The Wilson platform offers real hope. On the tariff, he proposes tariff-making that shall consider only the real needs of the whole people, and a complete elimination of that type of tariff tax which is only a subsidy drawn from the people for the enrichment of a specially privileged few.

On the trust, he proposes to forbid monopoly and through restraining that sort of competition which has created monopoly by the slugging of weaker competitors, to restore that wholesome type of competition which fosters honest enterprise, cheapens products and improves service.

If the Roosevelt platform were as sound on the big issues as it is on the minor ones, it would be a splendid document on which all could agree. As it is, in view of the contrast outlined above, most thinking voters will choose Wilson and his platform.

Golden Opportunity.

Now if President Taft wants to be real consistent, he can exercise the veto power on that ruling by Secretary Fisher on the Cunningham claims.

REGISTERING TUESDAY.

Though the registration for the primary election which will take place next Tuesday is surprisingly large in view of the fact that the requirement is one of the many new things in political processes in this year of enlightenment, still it is true that many voters are not yet eligible to vote Tuesday.

Those who have failed to register should not refrain from voting on that account.

They can register and vote on primary election day by complying with the terms of the new law, which require them to submit to the election judges affidavits showing that they live in the precincts in which they seek to vote. These affidavits must be attested to by two freeholders, residents of the precinct. Printed forms will be provided, and it is only necessary to have two witnesses with each applicant. No freeholder is permitted to witness the affidavits of more than five voters.

Also, those who have not registered for the primary should remember that they are not yet registered for the general election in November, and that primary election day is the first registration day for that election.

It develops that all the holders of big diplomatic positions under President Taft were liberal givers to his campaign fund in 1908. Thus we see that while the clerical and diplomatic jobs are under the civil service, those that require exceptional ability and bring greatest honor are under the financial service.

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

Dangerous Outburst.

Red Wing Eagle: One of our ex-changes remarks that it would be all most refreshing to hear an enthusiastic "Taft for Taft" once more. It might be refreshing, but it would be apt to land the perpetrator in the bug-house.

In Right Direction.

Cass Lake Times: The new parcel post law which will go into effect Jan. 1, 1913, will reduce the carriage of parcels so that the express companies will no longer have a monopoly of this by no means perfect and by no means meets the expectations of the people, but is legislation in the right direction and when the Old Guard is finally routed there will be ample opportunity to amend it so that it will meet the wants of the people and still bring sufficient revenue to warrant its continuance.

No Landslide for Teddy.

Litchfield Independent: The Duluth News Tribune, a Republican paper, recently sent out inquiries to the papers of the state, to get a poll as to their preferences for president. So many Republican editors are still of the opinion that Taft will win the total number responded. Of these, fifty-six said they were for Taft, forty-two for Wilson, two for Debs and two for Chaslin. Not one came out for Roosevelt, and not one for Bryan. This would not indicate any landslide for Teddy, but rather the fact that who responded gave non-committal replies. This would not indicate any landslide for Teddy, but rather the fact that who responded gave non-committal replies.

Prosperity.

Albert Lea Tribune: Another fortnight of the weather will harden and yellow the corn and wheat fields in wealth, prosperity and happiness to Minnesota.

"Blue Sky" Law Needed.

Hibbing Mesaba Observer: A "blue sky" law is promised for Minnesota, and its passage will be a relief to the law has to do with wild-cat mining schemes and other get-rich-quick games, and in Kansas, where the law

The Herald is in receipt of a number of communications regarding the strike conditions, many of them highly inflammatory in their nature, and some of them filled with personal abuse. These letters will not be published, as they are not in accordance with the strike conditions, and are of such a nature that they will simply further arouse the mob spirit.

REPLIES TO MR. CONGDON.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I was much interested in Chester A. Congdon's able presentation of his position in regard to "temperance and reappportionment" in the letter published in yesterday's Herald. As usual, Mr. Congdon says many things which are important and pertinent, and with which all good citizens should agree.

He makes one statement, however, which must arise from a misunderstanding or a lack of knowledge of the circumstances when he says: "It would seem to leave something to be explained by the temperance people who resist reappportionment."

Of course it is not wholly clear what or who Mr. Congdon includes in the "temperance people." As usual, his article is in answer to an open letter from the Prohibitionist candidate for governor, E. E. Lobebeck. It is a mistake to infer that he refers to the Prohibitionists.

If this is the case I would beg leave to call attention to the fact that the temperance people have been over any plan of reappportionment which seemed at all just and fair. Every one of the five Prohibition members of the last legislature voted "aye" on the Congdon plan, and reappportionment, though undoubtedly recognizing the defects in that measure.

Furthermore, the Prohibition platform this year declares unequivocally for "an equitable reappportionment of the legislative districts of Minnesota to be effective immediately."

Mr. Congdon did not mean the Prohibitionists in his charge he should have been more explicit. I cannot imagine who among the "temperance people" are guilty of the charge. If all the temperance people are included in the Congdon bill, I cannot find the name of one real temperance man. There may be some who favored temperance measures for policy's sake.

It seems to me that Mr. Congdon's statement leaves something to be explained. W. C. DEAN, Organizer Prohibition Party for Eighth Congressional District, Duluth, Minn., Sept. 13.

AN AGENT'S PLAIN.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Through the Open Court the undersigned would like a useful tale regarding an existent lack of principle on the part of the public, such lack being the cause of the present legislative situation as applied to the sale of goods through a house to house canvass by duly authorized salesmen who are commonly branded with the appellation "agents."

The common complaint among the canvassing profession follows: Many people, in a short lived spirit of liberality, order the commodity canvassed without transacting the commodity, and the influence of that sentimentality, they fall for the argument propounded, and agree to accept and render payment for the article when delivery is made. But now comes the rub. When the salesman, agent, with a joyful flutter of the heart due to the anticipation of the coming lure, calls to render unto the purchaser that which was ordered, he is oftentimes met with a flat refusal; the erstwhile purchaser hath changed her mind—doesn't want the goods, and attempts to justify her attitude by resorting to unlaudable subterfuge. I, e. by ridiculing the merits of the article.

Thus rendering herself an object of the contempt of the just is hurried in prison. Such are the personifications of inquiry. Yet, the helpless agent must passively tolerate such maltreatment, and there is no redress. His sale is lost—his order dampened. Far better if the faithless one had never placed the order. Then there would be no disappointment and no unnecessary outlay of delivery charges. Such people are breeders of distrust.

Because of their seeming lack of the qualities that generally characterize the canvassing profession is generally collectively subjected to merciless castigation, but the agent's demeanor invariably is in accordance with the indignities of those who in their ignorance deemed him a mongrel devoid of finer sensibilities.

The undersigned is one of those agents, and he holds himself justified in denouncing with all the force at his command those of the public who cannot fulfill the requirements of a true agent, and who are under the civil service, those that require exceptional ability and bring greatest honor are under the financial service.

Duluth, Sept. 13. J. F. O'NEILL.

originated and is in full operation, the man with any kind of stock shares to sell must have the goods and prove their worth to a lynx-eyed state official before he will be allowed to do business in that state. The operation of the law has saved thousands of dollars every year to the suckers of the Sunflower state, and it would do the same here in Minnesota. It has been a hotbed for the promotion of some of the most bare-faced swindles in the whole stock-selling game, and it's a yet a fine field for the swindler.

Good Roads Work.
Austin Transcript: The state highway engineer estimated that 100 miles of permanent state highway will be built under the Elwell act in 1912, and that the adoption at the coming election of the proposed constitutional amendment increasing the state tax for road purposes to one mill would result in the building of thousands of miles of state roads in the near future. If the people are satisfied that these roads will really be permanent they will not oppose the expense of building them.

St. Louis County Leads.
Green Record: In production and quality of potatoes in St. Louis county was again the banner winner of Minnesota, and is one of the leading potato districts of the northwest. A good beginning has been made in the county at potato raising, and it is proved that the growing of potatoes will carry the state, as but few people are growing them, as Taft to get a majority in Minnesota.

Who Is To Blame?
Lake Crystal Union: A great state like Minnesota had to borrow $2,000,000 to meet the state expenses. Taxpayers, what do you think of that? You are paying more tax than any other state in the Union. A state with more wealth than almost any two states in the Union having to borrow money. Who is to blame? The head of the state. Extravagance is the cause of all this. Vote the entire bunch out.

Gluttony Is a Nation's Curse
From "Primitive Medicine" by John Nelson Giltra, A. M., M. D.

The appetite is the heir of all the ages, governed by the five senses, yet ruling them in turn, capable alike of cultivation or depravity. It is an unsafe guide when ruling as a despotic monarch, yet a rector of all the narrow gage rules and abstractions of manufacturing chemistry. A creature of and dependent upon the laws of nature, it is the final arbiter in the claims of science and art that any certain food may be adapted to our use.

But while not altogether a guide unless carefully educated, it is still a food pleasuring to it are more apt to be well maintained and digested. That king of power, the will, should ever hold its sway over it and maintain its proper training, for unless depraved it is the best master we have. It is over-indulged or degenerate it should be kept under control. Above all, it gives us first warning that we have eaten enough and beyond this point we should never go.

There is an animal, and some one has said it "dwells not far from the human," to which we approach closer than we should like to think when we go beyond the point of indulgence ourselves with more food than we need. If our purpose in life were to become excessively and laboriously fat, or to develop a feeling of over-loaded inertia, then we would eat that we eat as much as we do. But we eat to live, and not to live to eat. We eat to develop, in even a moderate degree, the vigor of our body and mind which we desire, for an excess of food and our actual needs only draws upon our vitality to dispose of it.

On this subject no hard and fast lines can be drawn, an important fact which the food eater should always look. The quantity as well as the character of food needed for the highest state of bodily and mental efficiency depends, as every one knows, upon the individual. Nevertheless, it ought to be declared in ringing tones so that every one's attention be called to the fact, that practically every one of us exists thus, as we eat as much as we need, especially after growth has been attained, and therefore more than is good for him.

We eat too much. We are in the habit of thinking that we need more than we do. We are afraid of getting hungry before the next meal, whereas the hunger of a normal appetite is precisely what we need the most. We act as though we thought it a great personal calamity to get hungry.

We appear to think that we must eat whenever we can in order to "get ahead of the game." We have grown to expect that we must eat at every social function, large or small, and we would not think of entertaining without refreshments. And we must eat, say that I place dancing well upon the list of desirable exercises, yet we spoil the good effects of that exercise too often by a heavy supper at midnight.

At any food at all it takes after the regular evening meal it ought to be of the lightest and in small amount. Every one knows this, if he would only admit and practice it.

Tammany Wanted Underwood
Mr. Murphy went to Baltimore with the intention of nominating Congressman Underwood. It is a matter of consequence, but is printed here merely to keep the record straight. Eighty of the ninety other delegates from New York genuinely sympathized with him in his ambition. Not one cared whether they did or not but they did. The strategy arranged by the Tammany leader and his advisors was to "keep Underwood under cover till the right moment came. They knew that every man of money in the convention and nearly all the Democratic congressmen and senators were for the floor leader of the house, no matter how much they pretended to be for some one else. The plan was to kill the motion, Wilson and Clark, when this was done to swing the will delegates into line for Underwood. It was not Mr. Murphy's fault that the ruthless Bryan, uninvited, went on to Baltimore and made a terrible mess of this wonderful strategy.

For Clark, explained one of the leaders. "What chance would that 'houn' dog' have of carrying New York state? We are giving him this vote as a complimentary return for the support his people gave us on the temporary chairmanship. We wouldn't be doing it if we knew it would nominate him."

"But why aren't you holding Wilson?" "Isn't he the strongest candidate?"

"Of course, he is. He would sweep the state by 200,000. But the trouble is that when he is elected he would sweep our organization off the map."

Tit for Tat.
Argonaut: While president of the Lake Shore railroad the late John Newell was so opposed to granting passes that he frequently refused to award them to his own employees, and when he did he limited such transportation to certain trains. On one occasion he prepared a parcel of extra change passes and sent them out as usual across the end of the line.

He forwarded to President Caldwell was printed in red ink the words "good on limited or fast trains." With-out exasperating delay President Caldwell sent the passes for the Nickel Plate to President Newell arrived. Across the face, in the bold handwriting of President Caldwell, were the words, "Not good on passenger."

Interesting Chats.
Pittsburg Post: Here are you getting for the summer? "I'm going to board with some people in the city." "Why do you go there?" "To be frank, because it is cheap."

MARTIN WINS QUICK START

Clever Aviator "Got Off Earth" in Less Than Eighteen Seconds.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—It took Glenn Martin less than eighteen seconds to "get off the earth" at the aviation meet yesterday. He won the quick starting event under conditions requiring him to be twenty feet away at a given signal and to start his engine, ascend and cross a line 500 feet distant. His time was 17.45 seconds. Max Little was second in 20.72 seconds. Maurice Prevost, the only aviator flying a monoplane, was third in 22.79 seconds, and Howard Gil, fourth in 22.45 seconds.

Despite a rain which continued while half a dozen aviators were in the air, some of them 1000 feet high, all of the events were run off. Martin also won the honors of accurate landing, shutting his engine off within nine feet of a given spot. Little was second in 26 feet, and Prevost, third, 122 feet. 2 inches, and De Lloyd Thompson in 127 feet, 4 inches.

In the 12-mile race by biplanes carrying driver and passenger, Thompson won first prize in 24 minutes and 3.76 seconds, Anthony Hannus, second, in 15 minutes, 24.33 seconds.

Adrian Earl, fourthly, with C. Cross, a mechanic, were 2,000 feet in the air when the engine of their biplane went wrong. Fortunately kept control of the machine and made a perfect glide to earth. Several thousand persons gathered when they saw the aviators land in mid-air, when they gracefully swooped to the ground.

ABE DIDN'T MAKE MUCH OF A SHOWING

Former Featherweight Champion Loses Ten-Round Bout to Harry Thompson.

New York, Sept. 14.—Abe Attell at his first appearance in a New York ring since his suspension by the New York state athletic commission, was defeated by Harry Thompson of England in a ten-round bout here last night.

Attell showed considerable improvement in his old-time form, but appeared to be slower in his foot-work. Thompson jabbed constantly with his left, landing easily. At close quarters Attell showed better advantage, landing many heavy body blows. The former featherweight champion, however, had the better of only two rounds. Two others were even but in the remaining six, Thomas was the victor.

Thomas weighed 131 and Attell 129½ pounds.

"SPITTER" IS BEST FOOLER

Walsh Says Damp Ball Is Pitcher's One Best Bet.

Ed Walsh, king of the spitball twirlers, says the damp curve is the surest "fooler" that ever came out of the pitcher's box.

"When I've got my spitter breaking right, I can beat any ball club in the world," says the star right hander of the Chicago Americans. "No use trying to hit against it. It's simply unbeatable. Larry Lajoie, Ty Cobb and all the other hitting stars of the American league will tell you the same story. Ask Lajoie about the time I fanned him in Cleveland with the American league championship at stake."

"It was back in 1908. The Cleveland Naps needed one game to win the pennant. They had us tied in the tenth. Larry went to bat with three runners on and one man out. A bit or a long fly would have won the game and the pennant for Cleveland. Did Larry produce either? Not on your tinfoy. He struck out—four spitballs. He watched a straight, fast ball spit the plate in half. I fooled the big Frenchman that day. He was looking for an other damp curve; thought I wouldn't dare use a straight ball. But that's where I fooled him. I knew he was set for a curve, and I pulled the unexpected on him—pulled the straight while open and shot it over as fast as I could, and he let it go past him."

"The spitter is a terror when it works right. One day I had Detroit in the nine hole, and you know the Tigers are some hitters. I think Cobb and Crawford are two of the greatest hitters the game ever produced. The spitter had them all standing on their heads. Neither Ty nor Sam could get it out of the infield. I held them hitless for eight rounds and had two guys gone in the ninth when Ussie Schreckengost muffed a foul tip. If he had only held the leather, it would have meant another out and given me a no-hit game against the Tigers. Schreck got the ball on his fingers and broke the digit. Ussie's miff gave the batsman one more chance. He fanned a roller to Fannehill, who had a hard play to make and missed his man. The scorer called it a hit. Three days later my spitter got prime right, and it was no trick to let Boston down without a hit or run."

"Best game I ever pitched, eh? One day I looked up with Eddie Jones in Cleveland, and we had a grand battle on the mound. Cleveland won—sure, 1 to 0. I lost to Chicago without a hit. I held Cleveland to one single and whiffed sixteen Naps. Gee, it was a tough game to lose!"

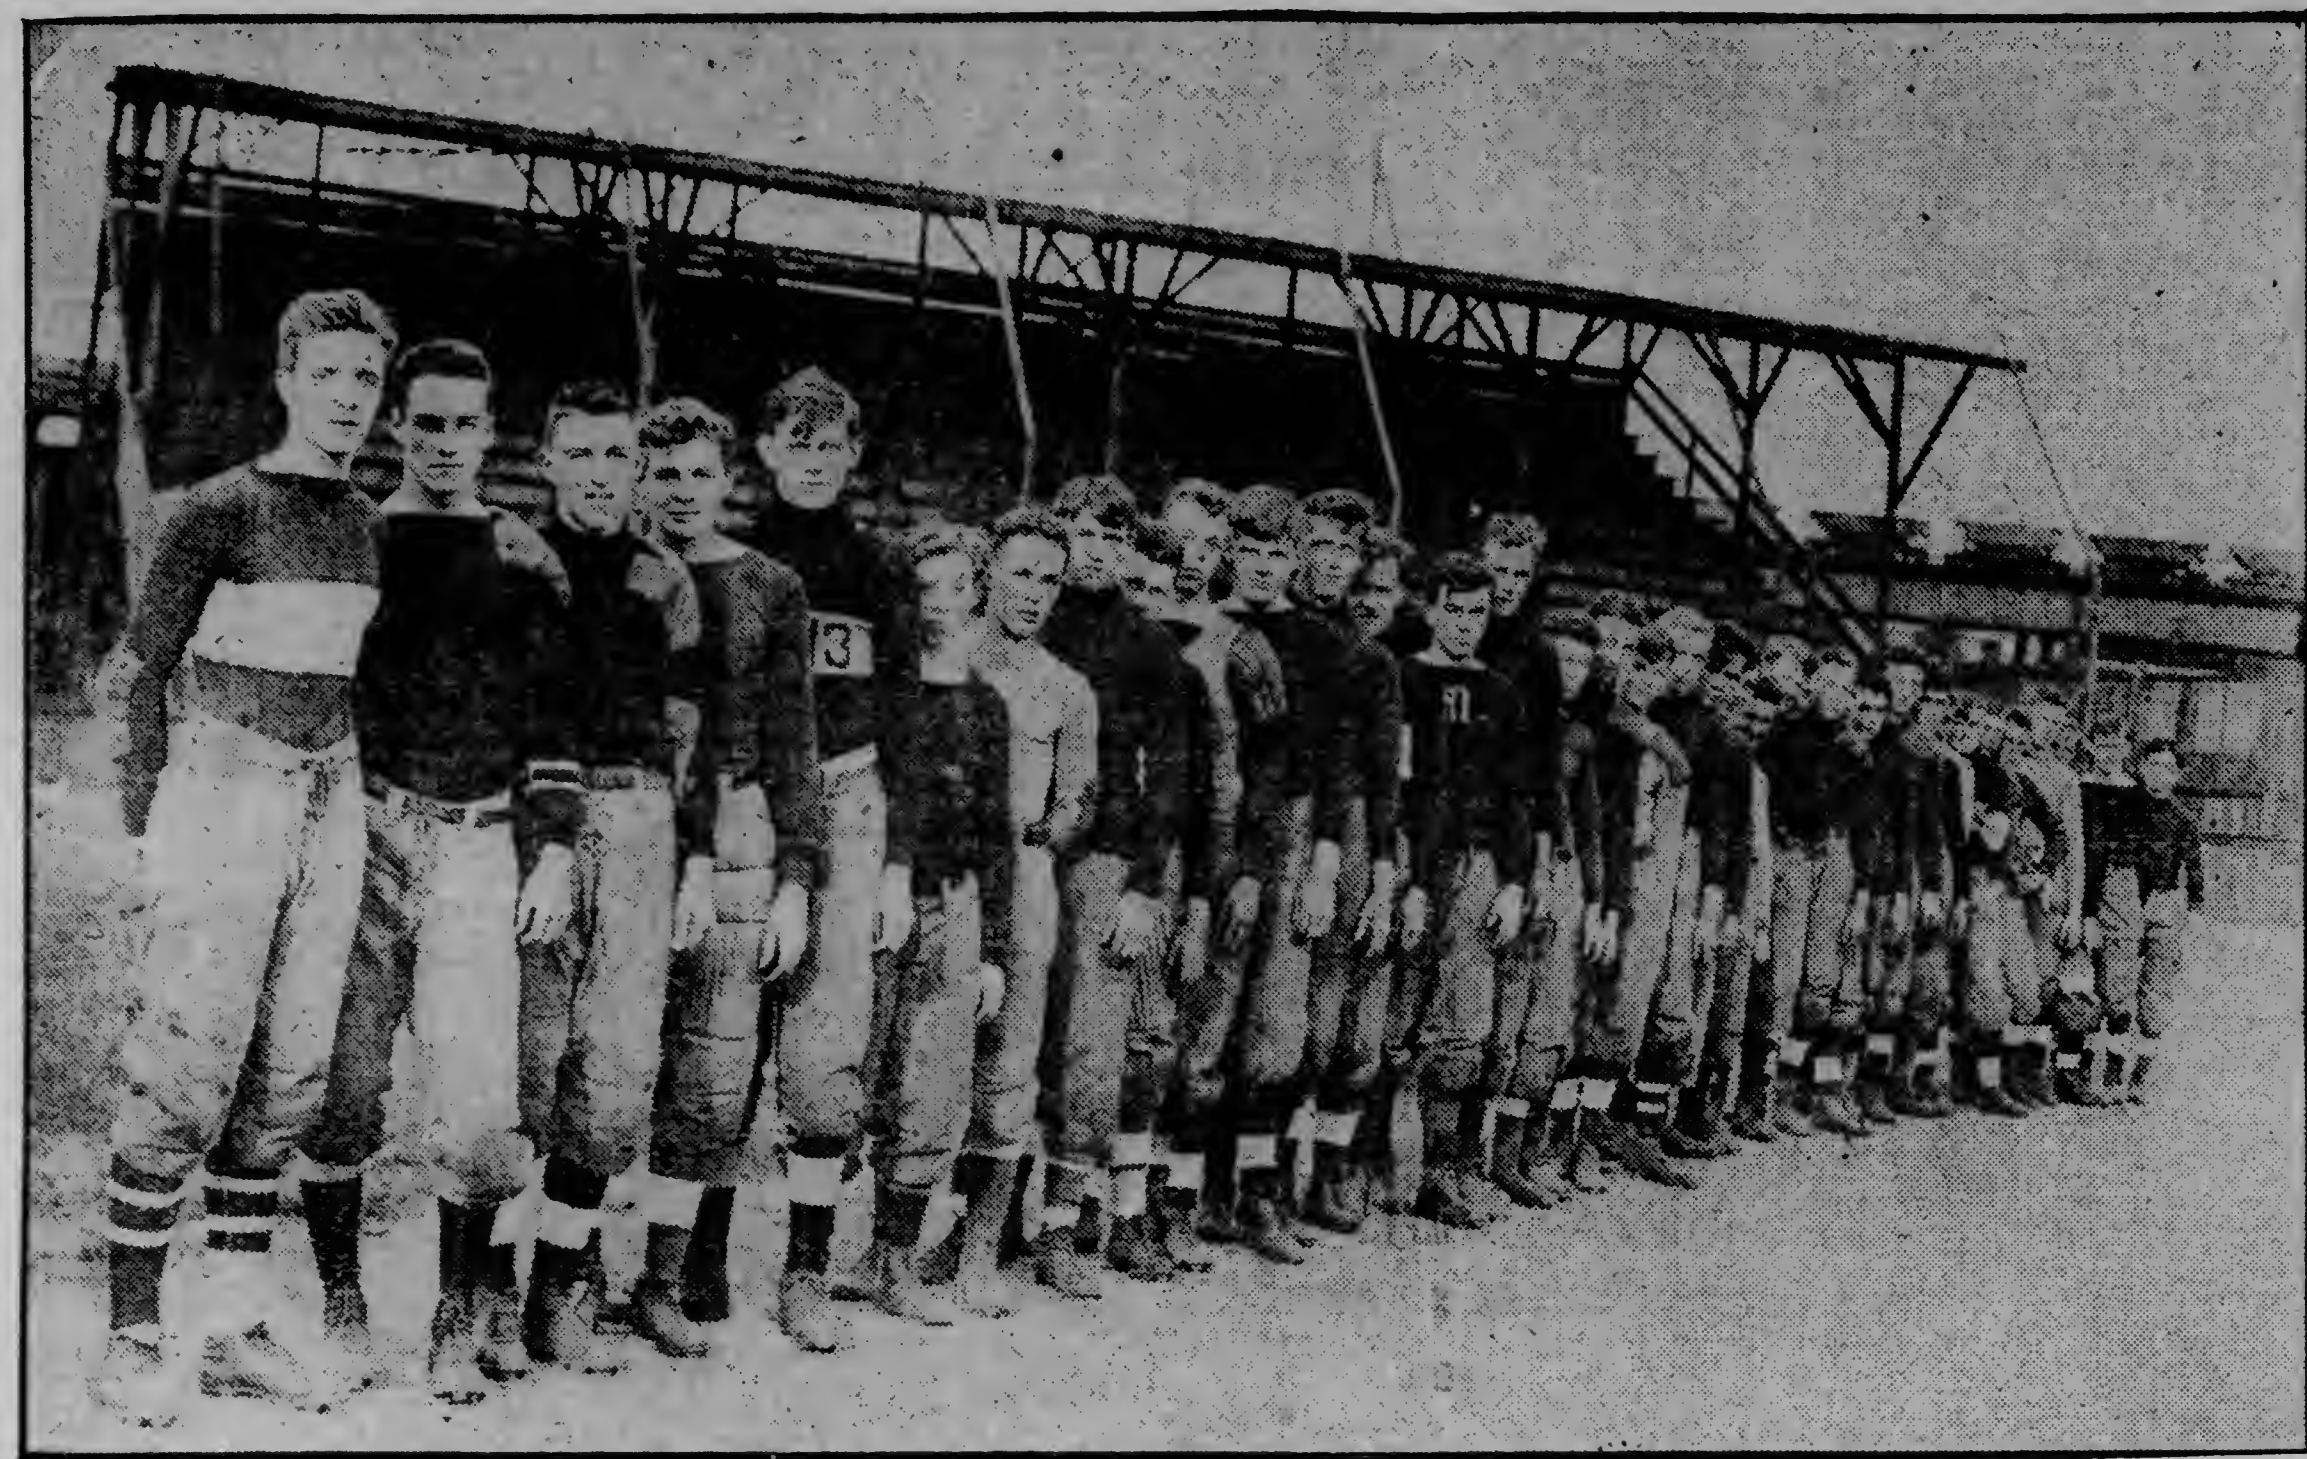

"The spitter was hopping and jumping that day like a zigzag chaser. The one hit the Naps made was a scratch roller to the infield. They got one ball out of the infield in the nine inning. Eddie Hahn made the catch in right field. Fannehill Jones has always claimed that it was the best ball game I ever pitched."

"Elmer Stricklett invented the spitball. Back in 1904 he was with the White Sox. Jim Callahan was managing the team. Cal is a great hand for trying new plays. One day he watched Stricklett in practice and said: 'You've got to rig up something new. Elmer. The old spitter is getting stale. Batsmen are murdering the old roundhouse curve, and the slow ball is no chap. See if you can't invent some new riddle.'"

"I've gotcha, Cal," declared Stricklett. "Ever hear of the spitball?"

"That's a new one on me," replied

Callahan. "You ain't kidding, are you?"

"Not on your life," said Stricklett. "Watch this one closely." Then he cut loose with a curve that curved my hair. I swiped the idea from Elmer and have been perfecting it ever since. Now I think I've got the spitball down finer than any other man in the game."

PLAYERS TO HAVE OPERATIONS

Five Members of Griffith's Team Will Soon Lose Tonsils.

That climatic conditions of the District of Columbia are a great handicap to the success of the Washington baseball team is the opinion of Manager Clark Griffith, according to the Washington Star.

Griffith blames the oppressive heat in Washington for the failure of his team to play good ball, as it does on the road. He contends that with few exceptions none of his players has been in good condition during the last month.

At least five of the members of the National team will undergo the operation of having their tonsils removed this fall. Dr. Larkin, the club physician, after examining the members of the team, finds that at least five of the players are handicapped by afflicted tonsils, which affects their condition.

These players are Johnson, Ainsmith, Mueller, Shanks and Gandell. All have agreed to an operation as soon as the season is over, which it is figured, will prevent the colds and kindred troubles with which all of them have suffered of late. Dr. Larkin is of the opinion that the climatic conditions at Washington bring on the tonsil trouble.

Manager Griffith attributes Washington's weaker showing on the home lot to the hot climate.

"I was always under the impression that this talk about the climate in Washington being a detriment to ball players was a joke, but I am now thoroughly convinced that there is something to it," remarked Manager Griffith. "A man in training, as are ball players, are much more susceptible to climatic conditions than the average man who is not in training. The humidity here plays havoc with ball players. There is no doubt of that. My team has been affected by it during its stay here during August. It lost its speed and aggressiveness, and I am sure that it will do much better just as soon as it gets away from here."

Griffith believes that conditions could be improved for the players in Washington if they could all be housed together several miles from the city at some high point. He proposes to suggest to the club that it build a home for its players several miles from the city where it is cooler, and then have an arrangement to take the players to and from the park in a motor car bus. He figures that such an investment would be well made, as it would keep the players fresh and prevent them from going stale.

LEAGUE FOR SCHOOL TEAMS

The grammar schools of the city may form a football league, the season to open Oct. 1. A meeting of the teams interested will be held next week.

Nearly every school has become interested and will have representatives at the meeting, the call for which will probably be sent out next Tuesday.

Among the schools to be represented will be the Washington, Adams, Endion, Jackson, Lakeside, Franklin, Salter and Nettleton.

It is planned to play the games on Saturday mornings at Desmond park, Park Point. The high school faculty and members of the Central high school team have consented to act as officials of the league.

The winning team will be given a pennant and a silver loving cup by the Northern Hardware company. Both trophies will be placed on exhibition next week.

ADAMS TEAM TO MEET SUPERIOR

Winner of Contest Will Meet All-Star Nine.

The Golden Rules of Superior, claimants of the amateur baseball championship of the Northwest, will meet the Adams team of this city at Athletic park Sunday, Sept. 22, in what promises to be one of the few interesting games which are left for this season.

The winner of this contest will be challenged by an all-star team from the Twin Ports league, which has been selected by H. R. Swenson. He believes that with his all-star team he can defeat either the Adams or the Golden Rules.

Swenson has picked the following: Catcher, C. Miller, Y. M. S.; pitchers, Benson, New Duluth; Times, Y. M. S.; Knox and Danielson, Jeffs; first base, Blinski, Jeffs; second base, McGinnis, Stones; shortstop, Landfield, Jeffs; third base, Ben Owens, Y. M. S.; left field, Artie Anderson, Jeffs; center field, Murphy, Y. M. S.; right field, Glund, Jeffs.

COMPARISON OF TWO PITCHERS

Fate Seems to Be Kinder to Marquard Than Rucker.

It is queer how often the fates sometimes favor some men over others, and this is never more graphically illustrated than in baseball.

The fans are not quite through marveling over the greatness of Rube Marquard as a pitcher and there is no questioning that greatness. He won nineteen straight with a wonderful baseball club behind him, a team composed of men who can hit, run and think. Some of those games he won after the opposing club had outlived him.

But the point here is a comparison with Nap Rucker, the Brooklyn scout, who never had any soft twopenny. Rucker hasn't had any soft twopenny. Rucker hasn't had any soft twopenny. Rucker hasn't had any soft twopenny.

Old Nap has always been there whenever it came his turn, whether he had control or not, for Brooklyn hasn't had an army of reserve men to shoot to the firing line every time a heavier grew wobbly.

Then again there hasn't been a wonderful team back of Nap Rucker ever since he started. He hasn't always had eight men in the game with him who could hit, run and think.

But it is seldom that Nap is out-pitched, and he is never soundly walloped, at least not to the extent of sixteen hits.

But Nap's greatness, while fairly well realized on account of his winning a big majority of his games with a losing club, will never be heralded as Marquard's has. Now, with the pitching Rucker has been showing since 1910, what sort of a record do you suppose would have been his had he been twirling for the Giants instead of the Dodgers?

ALUMNI TEAM TO MEET CENTRAL

Grads Will Give Regular Eleven Battle Next Saturday.

The line-up of the high school alumni football eleven, which will be matched against the Centrals a week from today, has not been announced. The Centrals have been assured that they will have a tough battle, however, and are faithfully training. The alumni aggregation will probably consist of former stars. In experience the grads will have it over the Centrals, but this lead Coach Schilling expects to overcome by hard practice.

When the squad lines up this afternoon for practice at Athletic park, it is expected that Coach Schilling will pick the eleven to represent the Central high this year. Capt. Matt Brown is back with the team now, which means added strength.

Yesterday practice was held in the school gym.

EVELYN W. BREAKS THREE RECORDS

Takes Free-for-All Pace at New York Fair in 2:00½.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Three world's records were broken by Evelyn W. in winning the free-for-all at the Grand Circuit meeting held in connection with the New York fair.

The fans are not quite through marveling over the greatness of Rube Marquard as a pitcher and there is no questioning that greatness. He won nineteen straight with a wonderful baseball club behind him, a team composed of men who can hit, run and think. Some of those games he won after the opposing club had outlived him.

FAST HORSES FAIL ONCE MORE

Minor Heir and George Gano Clip Time Off Wednesday's Record.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 14.—Minor Heir and George Gano, drivers by McCarr, again failed in an attempt to lower the team pacing record at the closing day of the Great Western circuit in Milwaukee, but clipped three-quarters of a second of yesterday's performance, making the mile in 2:03½.

Fast time featured the four other numbers on the program. The 2:13 was won by Iowa Todd, but required six heats. Echmore took three heats out of five in the 2:16 trot and captured the race John W. Davis won the 2:13 trot in straight heats, and Herman Wengor took the 2-year-old and under pace event. Results: 2:15 pace, purse $2,500—Iowa Todd, br. s. (Smith) won; Henry H. ## SECOND CALLED CORBETT A DUB

Jim Offers Advice to a Boxer and Gets "Bawled Out."

Did you ever see Jim Corbett at a boxing bout? Ever notice how closely he watches all the fighters, big and little? Even the preliminaries in which unskilled youths slambang one another do not escape his critical eye. At the Garden in New York the other night Corbett sat within arm's length of one of the corners. He saw a fairly clever featherweight boxing with a boy who kept his right foot and right hand extended. After one of the rounds he exclaimed to the seconds of the man nearest him:

"Make him use his right hand all the time. He can't lose if he boxes that way."

"Mind your own business, you big boob!" retorted one of the seconds. "We know what we are doing here!"

Corbett joined in the insult and repeated the words of advice when the boxer was always just then a well known manager of fighters leaned through the ropes and hoarsely whispered to the seconds:

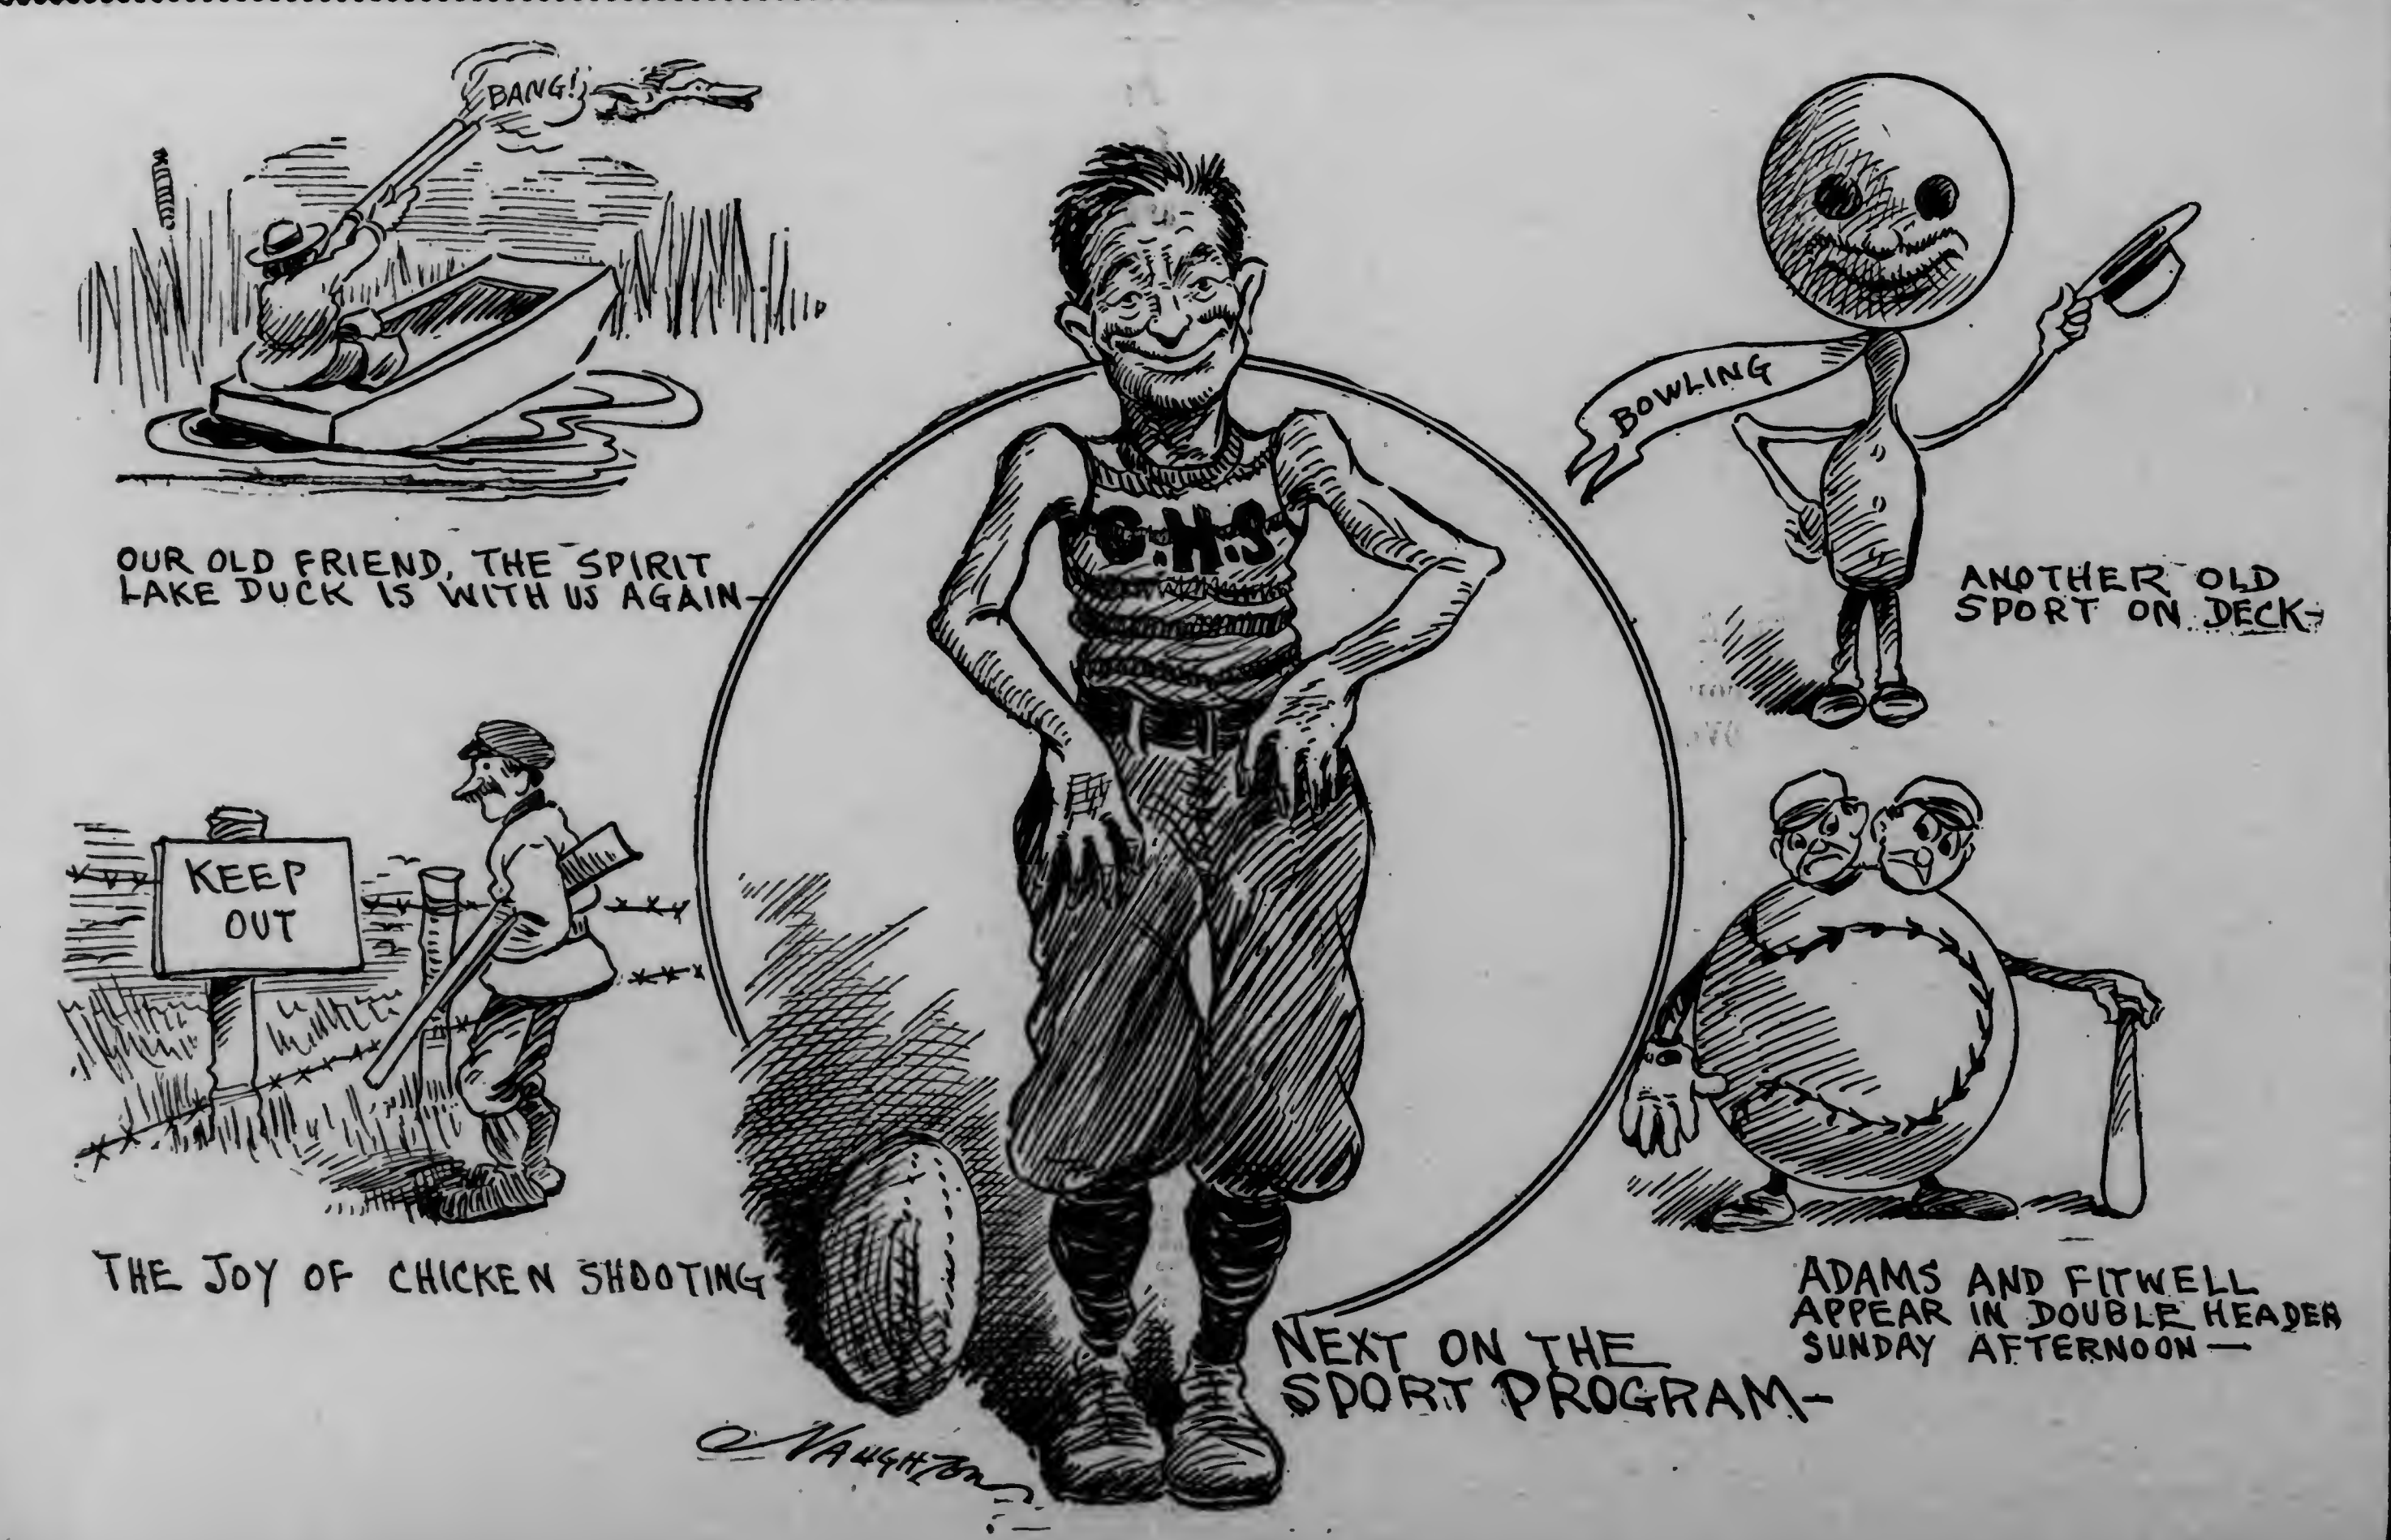

"Say, do you guys know who this fellow is? It's Jim Corbett!"

Instantly tactics in the corner were changed. The seconds turned toward the former heavyweight champion and grinned.

Is owing wild yer right all the time, kid? Corbett says so!" was the paring injunction as the boxer left his corner and soon victory came that way.

"It's a pleasure to see a man do what he's told," remarked Corbett as he applauded vigorously.

Standards are established by comparisons. The best of its kind can only be determined by comparing it with things of like nature.

For instance—compare a Gidding Suit at $35.00 with other suits usually offered at this price. Expert Workmanship, Distinctive Style and Perfect Lines easily point out the "differentness" of the Gidding garment.

Thus it is—discriminating women choose the Gidding Label for their clothes.

Gidding Garments are the best to be had—and their prices are right—you are not asked to believe this on mere "say-so." Be convinced—compare; for only by comparison will you realize True Standard of Gidding Clothes.

FAVORITE DISHES OF NOTED FRENCH WOMEN

Mme. Rostand Glorifies the Homely Carrot, Bernhardt Has a Spanish Egg Dish, Simone and Rejane Are Both Expert in Their Methods.

Madame Simone sets a rare table and is fond of dainty dishes, but her chief favorite is that of cheese casseroles. She says she never tires of them and has them made hot and smoking to eat with her coffee at noon. And this is the way they are made: First, the casseroles are made by rubbing an equal portion of butter and flour together, and then adding a few drops of water. The mixture is then cooked in a saucepan until it is thick and creamy. The cheese is then added, and the mixture is cooked until it is melted. The casseroles are then served in small cups, and are a most delicious and healthy dish.

Mme. Bernhardt eats scarcely enough to keep a kitten alive, and her diet has been largely vegetarian of late years, as by that means she is enabled to retain the elasticity of her muscles and the quickness of motion that one is apt to lose after 50. This wonderful woman is a great-grandmother, and is fast nearing the age of 80. Her art of cooking is a masterpiece of the world with her recipes.

One can see there is a tinge of Spanish about it. It is stuffed eggs, au gratin, then minced fine and mixed with eggs, and one will quickly see that these are of a superior order.

The eggs are boiled hard and cut in halves across and a little clip is shaved off each end so they will stand. Then a parboiled potato is chopped fine and placed in a bowl that has been rubbed strongly with garlic, one small onion, then minced fine and mixed with the pepper, then the hard yolks are mixed with this and a speck of mustard added besides a bit of celery seed. The whites meanwhile have been brushed over with raw egg and stiffened over with grated cheese. The stuffing is then placed in the hollows and the whole is sprinkled with a thick layer of grated cheese and paprika and they are put into the oven to bake for five or ten minutes.

Mme. Edmond Rostand, the wife of the famous French playwright, author of Cyprien and Chantrelle, has a fine taste in things for the table. She has always named certain favorite dishes after her illustrious husband's plays. Carrots à la Cyprien was a great success. Carrots are known as a highly honored vegetable in Paris, while in many places in America they are despised and looked upon as only fit for the poor man's table or to be put in stews. But in France more carrots are eaten than any other vegetable, so that carrots à la Cyprien is a very dainty dish according to French ideas.

The tenderest of young, sweet carrots are chosen for the dish, and is anything sweeter than young sugar carrots? These are scraped and boiled tender, then dipped in honey and placed in an oven baking dish. They are thickly coated with the honey and are a most delicious and healthy dish.

In keeping others alive, physicians appear to lose their own lives or at least shorten them. Between the ages of 45 and 50, a doctor will on an average to one clergyman.

QUIET WEEK IN BUILDING

Few New Contracts Being Awarded—Building Permits Slump.

Strike Has Interfered But Little With Construction Work.

Few new numbers were added to Duluth's building program during the past week. The building permits showed a fair volume of work mostly in small improvements. Nineteen permits were taken out representing an expenditure of about $25,000.

The street car strike has not interfered materially with construction work which has been in progress in the city, except to inconvenience workmen in getting to and from their labor.

Architects claim to have considerable new work in prospect but say that as yet they are not at liberty to make the information public. Most of the offices are kept busy preparing sketches and new plans.

Case & Broomhall expect to take figures within a few days for a consolidated eight-room school building at North and Second streets. Building permits have been approved by the county board of education.

Announcement was made this week that work would be resumed this fall on the building of the new church of the Christian Scientists at Ninth avenue east and First street. Last spring the work was suspended on account of the lack of funds. Arrangements have been made now to push the work to an early completion.

The Bay View Realty company is erecting four $2,000 homes, frame dwellings, at Twenty-seventh avenue west and Seventh street. Building permits were taken out this week.
